The Bankruptcy Act, 1869.

In the London Bankruptcy Court.

In the Matter of William Quick, late of Worcester-street and Belgrave-road, both in the town of Birmingham, in the county of Warwick, Hosier, a Bankrupt.

Before Mr. Registrar Brougham, sitting as Chief Judge.
UPON reading a report of the Trustee of the property of the bankrupt, dated the 17th day of June, 1879, reporting that so much of the property of the bankrupt as could, according to the joint opinion of himself and the Committee of Inspection thereunto annexed, in writing, under their hands be realized without needlessly protracting the bankruptcy, had been realized, as shown by the statement thereunto annexed, and dividends to the amount of three shillings and ten pence farthing in the pound had been paid, and upon reading an affidavit of William Quintin, sworn the 26th day of June, 1879, as to the posting of the notice of motion to the creditors who have proved their debts of this application, and upon reading the report of the Official Assignee, dated the 26th day of June, 1879, and upon hearing Mr. J. N. Mason, the Solicitor for the Trustee, and no one appearing to oppose this application, the Court being satisfied that so much of the property of the said bankrupt as can, according to the joint opinion of the Trustee and the Committee of Inspection, be realized without needlessly protracting the bankruptcy has been realized, and dividends to the amount of three shillings and ten pence farthing in the pound been paid, doth order and declare that the bankruptcy of the said William Quick has closed.—Given under the Seal of the Court this 3rd day of July, 1879.
