

1879, and 11th March, 1880, who intend to demand payment of the principal sums therein contained at the expiration of the fourth, third, second, and first years respectively of their currency, must leave the said Bills at the Bank of England for examination, not later than the 8th March next, between the hours of ten and two; and payment of the said principal sums will be made at the Bank on and after the 11th day of March next.

Treasury Chambers, Whitehall,
February 28, 1881.

WHEREAS by section 3 of the "Wild Birds Protection Act, 1880," the killing and taking of wild birds were prohibited for the time between the 1st day of March and the 1st day of August in each year, and by the 8th section power was given to one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State as to Great Britain, upon the application of the Justices in Quarter Sessions assembled of any county, to extend or vary the time during which the killing and taking of wild birds, or any of them, was prohibited by the said Act, such extension or variation to be made by Order of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State:

And whereas the Justices for the county of Essex, in Quarter Sessions assembled, have applied to me to the effect that an Order should be made directing that the time during which the killing and taking of wild birds is prohibited shall be varied in the county of Essex, so as to be from the 1st day of April to the 1st day of August, so far only as concerns Curlew, Dunbird, Godwit, Oxbird, Snipe, Widgeon, Wild Goose, and Woodcock.

Now, therefore, I, the Right Honourable Sir William Vernon Harcourt, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, in pursuance of the said Act, and on such application as aforesaid, hereby order as follows:—

The time during which the killing, wounding, and taking of wild birds is prohibited, shall be varied in the county of Essex so as to be from the 15th day of March to the 1st day of August, so far only as concerns Curlew, Dunbird, Godwit, Oxbird, Snipe, Widgeon, Wild Goose, and Woodcock: Provided that this Order shall be in force until the 1st September, 1881, and no longer.

Given under my hand at Whitehall, this 28th day of February, 1881.

W. V. Harcourt.
