PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty.

Lord President.
Lord Steward.
Marquess of Huntly.

Mr. Bright.
Sir Arthur Hobhouse.

WHEREAS by the Extradition Acts of 1870 and 1873, it was amongst other things enacted, that where an arrangement has been made with any foreign State with respect to the surrender to such State of any fugitive criminals, Her Majesty may, by Order in Council, direct that the said Acts shall apply in the case of such foreign State; and that Her Majesty may, by the same or any subsequent Order, limit the operation of the Order, and restrict the same to fugitive criminals who are in or suspected of being in the part of Her Majesty's dominions specified in the Order, and render the operation thereof subject to such conditions, exceptions, and qualifications as may be deemed expedient:

And whereas a Treaty was concluded on the twenty-fourth day of November, one thousand eight hundred and eighty, between Her Majesty and the King of the Netherlands, Grand Duke of Luxemburg, for the Mutual Extradition of Fugitive Criminals, which Treaty is in the terms following:—

HER Majesty the Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and His Majesty the King of the Netherlands, Grand Duke of Luxemburg, having judged it expedient, with a view to the better administration of justice and to the prevention of crime within the territories of Her Britannic Majesty and the Grand Duchy of Luxemburg, that persons charged with or convicted of the crimes hereinafter enumerated, and being fugitives from justice, should, under certain circumstances, be reciprocally delivered up, their said Majesties have named as their Plenipotentiaries to conclude a Treaty for this purpose, that is to say:

Her Majesty the Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, the Honourable William Stuart, a Companion of the Most Honourable Order of the Bath, Her Majesty's Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary to His Majesty the King of the Netherlands, as Grand Duke of Luxemburg;

SA Majesté la Reine du Royaume-Uni de la Grande Bretagne et d'Irlande, et Sa Majesté le Roi des Pays-Bas, Grand-Duc de Luxemburg, ayant jugé opportun, afin de mieux assurer l'administration de la justice et la répression des crimes sur les territoires de Sa Majesté Britannique et dans le Grand-Duché de Luxemburg, de se livrer réciproquement, dans certaines circonstances, les individus accusés ou condamnés du chef des crimes ci-après énumérés, et qui seraient en fuite, ont nommé pour leurs Plenipotentiaries chargés de conclure un Traité à cet effet, savoir:

Sa Majesté la Reine du Royaume-Uni de la Grande Bretagne et d'Irlande, l'Honorable William Stuart, Compagnon du Très-Honorable Ordre du Bain, son Envoyé Extraordinaire et Ministre Plenipotentiare près Sa Majesté le Roi des Pays-Bas en sa qualité de Grand-Duc de Luxemburg; et

Sa Majesté le Roi des Pays-Bas, Grand-Duc de Luxemburg, M. le Baron Félix de Blochhausen, Grand-Croix de l'Ordre de la Couronne de Chêne, Chevalier de Deuxième Classe de l'Ordre du Lion d'Or de la Maison de Nassau, &c., &c., son Ministre d'Etat, Président du Gouvernement du Grand-Duché de Luxemburg;

The extradition is also to take place for participation in any of the aforesaid crimes, as an accessory before or after the fact, provided such participation be punishable by the laws of both Contracting Parties.

ARTICLE III.

The extradition shall not take place if the person claimed on the part of the Government of the United Kingdom, or the person claimed on the part of the Government of the Grand Duchy of Luxemburg, has already been tried and discharged or punished, or is still under trial, in the Grand Duchy or in the United Kingdom, respectively, for the crime for which his extradition is demanded.

If the person claimed on the part of the Government of the United Kingdom, or if the person claimed on the part of the Government of the Grand Duchy of Luxemburg should be under examination for any other crime in the Grand Duchy or in the United Kingdom, respectively, his extradition shall be deferred until the conclusion of the trial, and the full execution of any punishment awarded to him.

ARTICLE IV.

The extradition shall not take place if, subsequently to the commission of the crime, or the institution of the penal prosecution; or the conviction thereon, exemption from prosecution or punishment has been acquired by lapse of time, according to the laws of the State applied to.

ARTICLE V.

A fugitive criminal shall not be surrendered if the offence in respect of which his surrender is demanded is one of a political character, or if he prove that the requisition for his surrender has in fact been made with a view to try or to punish him for an offence of a political character.

ARTICLE VI.

A person surrendered can in no case be kept in prison, or be brought to trial in the State to which the surrender has been made, for any other crime or on account of any other matters than those for which the extradition shall have taken place, until he has been restored or has had the opportunity of returning to the country from whence he was surrendered.

The period of one month shall be considered as the limit of the period during which the prisoner may, with the view of securing the benefits of this Article, return to the country from whence he was surrendered.

This stipulation does not apply to crimes committed after the extradition.

ARTICLE VII.

The requisition for extradition must always be made by the way of diplomacy, and to wit, in the Grand Duchy of Luxemburg by the British Minister in Luxemburg, and in the United Kingdom to the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs by the Foreign Minister in Great Britain, who, for the purposes of this Treaty, is recognized by Her Majesty as a Diplomatic Representative of the Grand Duchy of Luxemburg.

outil, ou engin destiné à la contrefaçon de la monnaie du pays.

18. Crimes contre les lois sur les banqueroutes.

19. Tout acte commis avec intention de mettre en danger la vie de personnes se trouvant dans un train de chemin de fer.

20. Atteinte à la propriété, avec mauvaise intention, pour autant que le fait est punissable par les lois.

L'extradition aura également lieu pour complicité à un des crimes ci-dessus mentionnés, que la complicité se soit produite avant ou après la perpétration, pourvu que la complicité soit punissable par les lois des deux Parties Contractantes.

ARTICLE III.

L'extradition ne sera pas accordée si l'individu poursuivi par le Gouvernement du Royaume-Uni ou par le Gouvernement du Grand-Duché de Luxemburg, a déjà été dans le Grand-Duché ou dans le Royaume-Uni l'objet d'une instruction ou d'une ordonnance de non-lieu pour le crime pour lequel l'extradition est demandée, ou s'il est encore en état de prévention, ou qu'il ait déjà été puni pour ce fait.

Si l'individu poursuivi par le Gouvernement du Royaume-Uni ou par le Gouvernement du Grand-Duché de Luxemburg est en état de prévention dans le Grand-Duché ou dans le Royaume-Uni pour un autre crime, son extradition sera différée jusqu'à la conclusion du procès et l'exécution complète de la peine lui infligée.

ARTICLE IV.

L'extradition n'aura pas lieu si postérieurement à la perpétration du crime, aux poursuites ou à la condamnation, la prescription de l'action ou de la peine est acquise d'après les lois du pays où le prévenu s'est réfugié.

ARTICLE V.

Aucun criminel fugitif ne sera extradé, si le délit pour lequel l'extradition est demandée, est considéré comme un délit politique, ou si l'individu prouve que la demande d'extradition a été faite en réalité dans le but de la poursuivre ou de le punir pour un délit d'un caractère politique.

ARTICLE VI.

L'individu qui aura été livré ne pourra, dans le pays auquel l'extradition a été accordée, être tenu en état d'arrestation ou poursuivi pour aucune infraction ou fait autre que ceux ayant motivé l'extradition, jusqu'à ce qu'il ait été rendu ou qu'il ait eu l'occasion de retourner au pays qui l'a extradé.

Le délai d'un mois sera considéré comme la limite du temps pendant lequel le prisonnier, afin de s'assurer les bienfaits de cet Article, peut retourner au pays dont il a été extradé.

Cette stipulation n'est pas applicable aux crimes commis après l'extradition.

ARTICLE VII.

L'extradition sera toujours demandée par la voie diplomatique, savoir : dans le Grand-Duché de Luxemburg, par l'Envoyé Britannique, et dans le Royaume-Uni au Secrétaire d'Etat pour les Affaires Etrangères, par le Ministre Etranger dans la Grande-Bretagne, lequel sera, à cette fin, reconnu par Sa Majesté la Reine comme le Représentant Diplomatique du Grand-Duché de Luxemburg.

The requisition for the extradition of an accused person must be accompanied by a warrant of arrest issued by the competent authority of the State requiring the extradition, and by such evidence as, according to the laws of the place where the accused is found, would justify his arrest if the crime had been committed there.

If the requisition relates to a person already convicted, it must be accompanied by the sentence of condemnation passed against the convicted person by the competent Court of the State that makes the requisition for extradition.

A requisition for extradition cannot be founded on sentences passed in contumaciam.

ARTICLE VIII.

If the requisition for extradition be in accordance with the foregoing stipulations, the competent authorities of the State applied to shall proceed to the arrest of the fugitive.

The prisoner is then to be brought before a competent Magistrate, who is to examine him and to conduct the preliminary investigation of the case, according to the laws of the country in which he is found.

ARTICLE IX.

The extradition shall not take place before the expiration of fifteen days from the date of the fugitive criminal's committal to prison to await his surrender, and then only if the evidence produced in due time be found sufficient according to the laws of the State applied to.

ARTICLE X.

A fugitive criminal may, however, be apprehended under a warrant issued by any Police Magistrate, Justice of the Peace or other competent authority in either country, on such information or complaint, and such evidence, or after such proceedings as would, in the opinion of the person issuing the warrant, justify the issue of a warrant, if the crime had been committed or the prisoner convicted, in that part of the dominions of the two Contracting Parties in which he exercises jurisdiction: Provided however that, in the United Kingdom, the accused shall, in such cases be sent as speedily as possible before a Police Magistrate in London. He shall be discharged, as well in the United Kingdom as in the Grand Duchy of Luxemburg, if, within fourteen days, a requisition shall not have been made for his surrender by the Diplomatic Agent of his country.

ARTICLE XI.

If, in any criminal matter, pending in any Court or Tribunal of one of the two countries, it is thought desirable to take the evidence of any witness in the other, such evidence may be taken by the judicial authorities in accordance with the laws in force on this subject in the country where the witness may be.

ARTICLE XII.

All articles seized which were in the possession of the person to be surrendered at the time of his apprehension, shall, if the competent authority of the State applied to for the extradition has ordered the delivery thereof, be given up when the extradition takes place; and the said delivery shall extend not merely to the stolen articles, but to everything that may serve as a proof of the crime.

La demande d'extradition d'un prévenu devra être accompagnée d'un mandat d'arrêt décerné par l'autorité compétente du pays requérant, et des preuves qui, d'après les lois de l'endroit où le prévenu a été trouvé justifieraient son arrestation, si l'acte punissable y avait été commis.

Si la demande d'extradition concerne une personne déjà condamnée, on doit produire l'arrêt de condamnation qui a été rendu par le Tribunal compétent de l'Etat requérant.

La demande d'extradition ne peut se baser sur des arrêts qui ont été rendus par contumace.

ARTICLE VIII.

Si la demande d'extradition est en accord avec les stipulations précédentes, les autorités compétentes de l'Etat auquel la demande d'extradition a été faite, procéderont à l'arrestation du fugitif.

Le prisonnier sera ensuite amené devant un magistrat compétent, qui devra l'examiner et conduire les investigations préliminaires d'après les lois du pays où il est trouvé.

ARTICLE IX.

L'extradition n'aura pas lieu avant l'expiration de quinze jours, à dater de l'arrestation du criminel fugitif attendant son extradition, et elle n'aura lieu que sur la production en temps utile de pièces trouvées suffisantes d'après les lois de l'Etat requis.

ARTICLE X.

Un malfaiteur-fugitif peut néanmoins être arrêté dans les deux pays en vertu d'un mandat d'arrêt décerné par un magistrat ou fonctionnaire de police, par un Juge de Paix ou telle autre autorité compétente, sur une dénonciation ou plainte, et sur les preuves, ou d'après une procédure établissant que, dans l'opinion du fonctionnaire qui décerne le mandat d'arrêt, cette mesure serait justifiée, si le crime avait été commis ou si le prisonnier avait été condamné dans la partie des territoires des deux Parties Contractantes où le fonctionnaire exerce la juridiction. Il est stipulé toutefois que, dans le Royaume-Uni, le prévenu devra, en pareil cas, être aussi promptement que possible conduit devant un magistrat de police à Londres. Il devra être mis en liberté dans le Royaume-Uni et dans le Grand-Duché de Luxemburg si, dans l'espace de quatorze jours, une demande d'extradition n'est pas faite par l'Agent Diplomatique de son pays.

ARTICLE XI.

Si, dans une matière criminelle pendante devant une Cour ou un Tribunal de l'un des deux pays, il est jugé désirable d'entendre dans l'autre les dépositions d'un témoin, pareilles dépositions peuvent être reçues par les autorités judiciaires d'après les lois en vigueur sur la matière dans le pays où le témoin se trouve.

ARTICLE XII.

Les objets saisis en la possession de l'individu au moment de son arrestation seront, si l'autorité compétente de l'Etat requis en a ordonné la remise, livrés lorsque l'extradition aura lieu, et cette remise ne comprendra pas seulement les objets enlevés, mais encore tout ce qui peut servir de pièce à conviction.

ARTICLE XIII.

The High Contracting Parties renounce any claim for the reimbursement of the expenses incurred by them in the arrest and maintenance of the person to be surrendered, and his conveyance till placed on board ship, as well as for the reimbursement of the expenses incurred in taking the evidence of any witness in consequence of Article XI, and in giving up and returning seized articles. They reciprocally agree to bear such expenses themselves.

ARTICLE XIV.

The stipulations of the present Treaty shall be applicable to the Colonies and foreign possessions of Her Britannic Majesty.

The requisition for the surrender of a fugitive criminal who has taken refuge in any of such Colonies or foreign possessions shall be made to the Governor or to the supreme authority of such Colony or possession through the Luxemburg Consul, or, in case there should be no Luxemburg Consul, through the Consular Agent of another State charged for the occasion with Luxemburg interests in the Colony or possession in question, and recognized by such Governor or supreme authority as such.

The Governor or supreme authority above-mentioned shall decide with regard to such requisitions as nearly as possible in accordance with the provisions of the present Treaty. He will, however, be at liberty either to consent to the extradition or report the case to his Government.

Her Britannic Majesty shall, however, be at liberty to make special arrangements in the British Colonies and foreign possessions for the surrender of such individuals as shall have committed in the Grand Duchy of Luxemburg any of the crimes hereinafore mentioned, who may take refuge within such Colonies and foreign possessions, on the basis, as nearly as may be, of the provisions of the present Treaty.

The requisition for the surrender of a fugitive criminal from any Colony or foreign possession of Her Britannic Majesty shall be governed by the rules laid down in the preceding Articles of the present Treaty.

ARTICLE XV.

The present Treaty shall come into force ten days after its publication in conformity with the forms prescribed by the laws of the High Contracting Parties. It may be terminated by either of the High Contracting Parties, but shall remain in force for six months after notice has been given for its termination.

The Treaty shall be ratified, and the ratifications shall be exchanged at Brussels as soon as possible.

In witness whereof the respective Plenipotentiaries have signed the same, and have affixed thereto the seal of their arms.

Done at Luxemburg, the twenty-fourth day of November, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty.

(L.S.) W. STUART.

ARTICLE XIII.

Les Hautes Parties Contractantes renoncent à toute réclamation pour le remboursement des frais qui leur ont été occasionnés par l'arrestation, l'entretien, et le transport de l'individu jusqu'au bord d'un navire, ainsi que de ceux occasionnés par la déposition d'un témoin, en conséquence de l'Article XI, et par la remise et la restitution des objets saisis. Elles consentent à supporter réciproquement les dits frais.

ARTICLE XIV.

Les stipulations du présent Traité seront applicables aux Colonies et possessions étrangères de Sa Majesté Britannique.

La demande d'extradition d'un criminel qui s'est réfugié dans une de ces Colonies ou Possessions étrangères, sera faite au Gouverneur ou à l'autorité suprême de cette Colonie ou Possession par le Consul Luxembourgeois, ou, à défaut d'un Consul Luxembourgeois, par l'Agent Consulaire d'un autre Etat chargé pour l'occasion des intérêts Luxembourgeois dans la Colonie ou Possession en question, et reconnu comme tel par le Gouverneur ou l'autorité suprême.

Le Gouverneur, ou l'autorité suprême, mentionné ci-dessus, décidera à l'égard de telles demandes, en se conformant autant que possible aux dispositions du présent Traité. Il sera néanmoins libre d'accorder l'extradition ou de soumettre le cas à son Gouvernement.

Sa Majesté Britannique se réserve cependant le droit de faire, en se conformant autant que possible aux stipulations du présent Traité, des arrangements spéciaux dans les Colonies ou Possessions étrangères pour l'extradition d'individus qui ont commis dans le Grand-Duché de Luxemburg un des crimes prévus dans le Traité, et qui auraient trouvé un refuge dans ces Colonies ou Possessions étrangères.

Les demandes concernant l'extradition de criminels qui se sont échappés d'une des Colonies ou Possessions étrangères de Sa Majesté Britannique seront traitées suivant les dispositions des Articles précédents du présent Traité.

ARTICLE XV.

Le présent Traité entrera en vigueur dix jours après sa publication dans les formes prescrites par la législation des Hautes Parties Contractantes. Le Traité peut être dénoncé par chacune des Parties Contractantes; il demeurera toutefois en vigueur encore six mois après qu'il aura été dénoncé.

Le Traité sera ratifié, et les ratifications en seront échangées à Bruxelles, le plus tôt que faire se peut.

En foi de quoi, les Plénipotentiaires respectifs ont signé le présent Traité, et y ont apposé le cachet de leurs armes.

Fait à Luxemburg le vingt-quatre Novembre, de l'an mil huit cent quatre-vingt.

And whereas the ratifications of the said Treaty were exchanged at Brussels on the fifth day of January, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, and in virtue of the authority committed to Her by the said recited Acts, doth order, and it is hereby ordered, that from and after the fifteenth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one, the said Acts shall apply in the case of the said Treaty with the King of the Netherlands, Grand Duke of Luxemburg.

"benefices so proposed to be separated from such united benefice, but in all other respects shall remain in full force and effect, and thenceforward such last-mentioned benefice or benefices shall be and be deemed and taken to be a separate and distinct benefice or benefices to all intents and purposes whatever as if no such union had taken place, and the patron or patrons thereof shall and may according to the terms of such Order present or nominate thereto respectively, and so from time to time upon each and every avoidance of the same: Provided always, that no benefices which have been united for more than sixty years before the passing of this Act shall be disunited without the consent in writing of the patron or patrons thereof."

"Witness my hand this twenty-first day of June in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty.

No one who has been admitted to the title of a Degree only shall thereby gain the right of voting.

The names of all persons entitled to vote shall be inscribed by the Registry in a Register or book provided for the purpose. No one shall be allowed to vote or have his name inscribed in the Register who has either refused, or after due warning neglected, to pay any fees, fines, or other dues required by the University.

Persons who have continued to be members of the University from the time of admission to their first Degree shall have their names inscribed in the Register at the time of completing their Degree by creation.

If any one has not continued to be a member of the University from the time of admission to his first Degree, his name may be inscribed in the Register at the time of completing his Degree by creation, or at any later time, if he pays all fees, finer, and other dues which he would have been called upon to pay if he had been a member of the University continuously from the time of admission to his first Degree.

Any one whose name has been inscribed in the Register and afterwards removed may have his name inscribed again if he pays all fees, fines, and other dues which he would have been called upon to pay if his name had continued on the Register from the time at which it was removed.

The University shall have power to prescribe by Grace a sum or sums of money to be accepted in lieu of the fees, fines, and other dues mentioned in the two preceding cases; but in neither case shall the person whose name is so inscribed in the Register be entitled to vote within a period of one hundred and eighty days after the inscription of his name.

Those persons who have the right of voting in the Senate shall be deemed to be the Members of the Senate.

CHAPTER IV. ELECTIONS.

SECT. 1.—Election of Chancellor.

The office of Chancellor shall be held, in accordance with the ancient laws and customs of the University, for two years complete, or so long as the silent consent of the University permits.

When a vacancy of the office is certainly known to the Vice-Chancellor, he shall call a Congregation as soon as possible, and openly declare the fact through the Senior Proctor, and assign a day, not before the seventh nor after the twelfth day next following, for another Congregation for the election of a new Chancellor. The election shall be completed before the fifteenth day after that on which the vacancy was declared.

If the vacancy becomes known in the Vacation after the end of the Easter Term, the Congregation for declaring the vacancy and assigning the day of election shall be held on the first day of the Michaelmas Term ensuing.

On the day assigned for the election the Vice-Chancellor and Proctors shall stand in scrutiny. They shall first give their own votes in writing, and then take the votes in writing of all other persons present who have the right of voting. The person for whom the greatest number of votes is given shall be declared by the Vice-Chancellor to be elected.

An instrument of election of the Chancellor shall be sealed and delivered to him without delay.

The Commissary shall be appointed by the Chancellor by Letters Patent.

SECT. 2.—Election of the Vice-Chancellor.

The Vice-Chancellor shall be elected yearly some time before he enters upon his office, and the day of election and the day of entering upon office in every year shall be prescribed by Grace from time to time as the University may find expedient.

On the day preceding the day of election the Council of the Senate shall assemble in the Senate House. The Members of the Council in order of seniority of Degree shall severally nominate one of the Heads of Colleges for the office. They shall then severally mark two of the persons so nominated for election. The two persons to be proposed to the Senate for election must be so marked that in a first, or second, or third scrutiny each of them has more marks than any of the other persons nominated. If in none of these three scrutinies two, but in the third scrutiny one, shall be found to have the required greater number of marks, the Regius Professor of Divinity, or, if he be a member of the Council, the Vice-Chancellor of the next preceding year who is not a member of the Council, shall nominate one of the persons who have each an equal number of marks next less than the highest.

If in the third scrutiny neither two nor one of the persons nominated be found to have more marks than any other, the said Regius Professor, or the said Vice-Chancellor of a preceding year, shall nominate two of those who have each an equal number of marks greater than any other.

The Chancellor shall on the same day publish the names of the two persons thus nominated to the Members of the Senate.

On the next day the election of the Vice-Chancellor shall be made as follows:—

The Proctors shall stand in scrutiny with the two senior Doctors then present in the Senate House, or if no Doctors be present, the two senior Bachelors of Divinity present. They shall first give their own votes in writing and then take the votes in writing of all persons present who have the right of voting. That one of the two persons nominated, for whom the greater number of votes is given, shall be declared to be elected.

If the election of a Vice-Chancellor becomes void before the day of entering upon office by the death of the person elected, or by any other cause, or if the office of Vice-Chancellor becomes vacant during his year of office, a new Vice-Chancellor shall be elected as nearly as possible in the same manner, as soon as possible after certain knowledge of the vacancy.

The Vice-Chancellor may nominate one or more Deputies at his discretion.

SECT. 3.—Election of the High Steward and his Deputy.

Upon a vacancy of the office of High Steward the election of a new High Steward shall be made in the manner prescribed for the election of the Chancellor; and an instrument of his election shall be sealed and delivered to him without delay.

The Deputy High Steward shall be appointed by the High Steward by Letters Patent; but the appointment shall be subject to the approval of the Senate.

SECT. 4.—Election of the Proctors.

The Proctors shall be nominated by the Colleges in turn, two for every year, according to the Cycle prescribed in these Statutes; and when the series of years named in the Cycle is ended, the order of nomination shall proceed as in the beginning of the Cycle and until the end of it, and so on continually.

The persons nominated shall be Members of the Senate who shall at the time of nomination have completed three years at least from their creation.

The Head of each College, or other person in his name, shall present the person nominated to the Chancellor in the presence of the Registry before the end of the Easter Term, together with a Certificate under the hand and seal of the said Head that the person nominated has resided in the University during the last two years for the greater part of each of three Terms at least.

The Proctors shall retire from office on the first day of the Michaelmas Term in every year at 10 o'clock in the morning, and the Members of the Senate shall vote respecting the persons nominated without delay, as follows:—

The two senior Masters of Arts present shall stand in scrutiny and take their own votes and the votes of other persons by the words Placet or Non Placet, and if the greater part of the voters approve the persons nominated, the senior who stood in scrutiny shall declare them to be elected.

Each Proctor elect shall give the Chancellor a

Bond, binding himself to give a true account at the end of his year of office of all money received by him by virtue of his office and to pay to the Chancellor at the end of every term what is then due to the University, and to all other persons at the usual times what is due to them severally.

If a Proctor desires leave of absence he must have a Deputy approved by Grace, who shall bind himself by public declaration to the faithful discharge of the duties of the office.

If the nomination of a Proctor, having been duly made by a College, becomes void before the day of election by the death of the person nominated, or by some other cause which shall be deemed sufficient by the Chancellor and two senior Doctors present in the University, the College shall be allowed to make a second nomination. But if the cause be not then deemed sufficient, or if the College whose turn it is to nominate fails to nominate and present at the prescribed time, or if the Senate decline to elect the person nominated, or if the person elected do not duly undertake the office, the nomination and election shall be made in the manner prescribed in the fifth section of this chapter, except that the two senior Masters of Arts shall stand in scrutiny with the Chancellor.

If the office of Proctor become vacant after election by death, resignation, deprivation, or any other cause, Trinity Hall shall nominate and present a person for election, in manner as nearly similar as possible to that described above, and the person elected shall hold office until the first day of the Michaelmas term next ensuing.

SECT. 5.—Election of other Officers.

The nominations and elections of persons to fill the offices of Orator, Registrary, Librarian, and Esquire Bedell shall be conducted in the same manner as the nomination and election of the Vice-Chancellor, except that the Chancellor shall stand in scrutiny with the two Proctors. The election shall be made in every case within fourteen days (exclusive of any vacation) from the vacancy being known.

SECT. 6.—Admission to Office.

Every person elected to an office which is to be held for more than one year shall be duly admitted to the same, and upon admission shall make the prescribed declaration.

No one who has been duly elected to any office in the University shall refuse or delay to undertake it, unless for some cause approved as sufficient by the persons by whom he was elected.

No one, however, who has attained the age of sixty years shall be compelled to undertake any office.

CHAPTER V. OFFICES.

SECT. 1.—Offices of Chancellor and Vice-Chancellor.

The Chancellor shall have power to call Congregations, to admit candidates to Degrees and to reject those who have not fulfilled the required conditions; to see that all officers of the University duly perform their duties, and to punish members in statu pupillari for disobedience to the Statutes or Ordinances of the University by suspension of Degree, or other lighter sentence at his discretion.

The Chancellor shall decide whether or not any person charged with any offence shall be prosecuted in his Court.

The Chancellor and Proctors shall have the custody of the Common Chest, in which the University seal and other valuables are kept. The chest shall have three keys of different make, one of which shall be kept by each of the three custodians; and they shall not allow the seal to be affixed to any document without the authority of a Grace.

Except where it is otherwise specially provided, whatsoever in the Statutes of the University is authorised to be done by the Chancellor may be done by the Vice-Chancellor in his absence, or, with his consent, in his presence, or even when the office of Chancellor is vacant.

SECT. 2.—Office of Orator.

It shall be the duty of the Orator to write letters in the name of the University whenever the Chancellor and Proctors think fit, the letters to be submitted to the Senate for approval by Grace; and if at any time a letter so submitted be not approved, the Orator shall alter it according to the judgment of the persons to whom the University may give authority for that purpose. He shall not be absent from the University more than seven days in succession without appointing a Deputy approved by the Chancellor, nor more than four weeks in succession during Term without obtaining leave of absence from the Senate and appointing a Deputy approved by Grace.

If at any time he shall be declared by the Chancellor and the sex viri appointed under the seventh chapter of this Statute to have greatly neglected his duty, he shall be admonished by the Chancellor; if he be declared to have offended a second time he shall be again admonished; and if a third time he shall be deprived of his office.

He shall attend for this purpose all Congregations of the Senate, the courts of the Chancellor, the audits of University accounts, matriculations, and all public proceedings of the Chancellor or of the University. He shall preserve carefully all writings and documents delivered to him, and shall not allow them to be taken away or be copied without leave of the Chancellor.

SERMONS AND COMMEMORATIONS.

SECT. 1.—Sermons.

Sermons shall be preached in the University Church every Sunday from the beginning of the Michaelmas Term to the end of the Easter Term; also on Christmas Day, Good Friday, and Ascension Day, and on such other days as may be appointed by the Chancellor or by Grace of the Senate.

No one shall be allowed in any sermon before the University to impugn the doctrine or discipline of the Church of England as established by law.

The University may require Members of the Senate who are in Holy Orders to preach according to regulations made from time to time for that purpose, or make such other provision for preachers as may seem expedient.

SECT. 2.—Commemoration of Benefactors.

There shall be a Commemoration of Benefactors yearly in the University Church, at such time and in such manner as the University may prescribe by Grace.

CHAPTER VII.

DISCIPLINE.

For the due maintenance of good order and discipline within the University, the University shall from time to time prescribe such regulations as may be thought expedient in regard to the wearing of Academical dress, the rendering assistance and obedience to all persons in authority, the definition and determination of offences, the penalties on offenders, and the manner in which pecuniary penalties and fines shall be disposed of.

The Chancellor and six persons, called the sex viri, elected singly by Grace for two years, or four at least of the number, of whom one shall always be the Chancellor, shall adjudicate respecting all persons not in statu pupillari charged with offences against the Statutes or Ordinances of the University.

They shall punish offenders, at their discretion, by deprivation or suspension of Degree, or any lighter sentence. Appeal may be made from their sentence to the University in the manner described in the eighth chapter of this Statute.

In the case of graver offences, the court of discipline for persons in statu pupillari shall consist of the Chancellor and six Heads of Colleges appointed by Grace to serve for three years in such manner that two of the six shall go out of office every year but be capable of re-election. No sentence involving deprivation of Degree, rustication, or expulsion shall be valid without the concurrence of the Chancellor and three at least of the other members of the Court.

If the Head of the College to which a person in statu pupillari charged with any offence belongs be not a member of the Court, notice shall be given to him to enable him to be present as an assessor, but he shall not be entitled to vote. Regulations for the procedure of the Court shall be made by the Court from time to time, subject to the approval of the Senate.

CHAPTER VIII.

JUDICIAL PROCEEDINGS.

All causes and contentions which belong to the cognizance of the University shall be submitted to the judgment of the Chancellor or the Commissary, unless one of the litigants be a person having the Degree of Master of Arts, or some equal or higher Degree, in which case the Chancellor shall have jurisdiction. They shall be determined with as little delay as possible, and without the formalities of law.

Appeal from a judgment of the Commissary may be made to the Chancellor within twenty-four hours after judgment given.

Appeal from a judgment of the Chancellor, whether the cause was heard by him in the first instance or on appeal from the Commissary, may be made to the Senate within two days after judgment given; and the appeal shall be made known by the Appellant to one of the Proctors within three days after judgment given.

The Proctor shall give notice immediately to the Judge whose judgment is appealed against that he take no fresh steps during the appeal; the usual caution determined by Grace being first deposited with him, to be restored to the Appellant if his appeal be sustained, or to be applied to the use of the University, if his appeal be found to have been without sufficient cause, or if after the assignment of Judges Delegate he either fails to prosecute his appeal, or puts it off for more than ten days. If also, through fault of the Appellant, the hearing of the case be delayed for more than twenty days, the appeal shall be held to be abandoned and be dismissed.

A second appeal to the University shall on no account be admitted.

The Judges Delegate shall give judgment with as little delay as possible, and the judgment of a majority of them shall be binding.

Five Judges Delegate shall be assigned in every appeal. They shall be nominated by the Council of the Senate for election by Grace singly. If any of the persons nominated be not elected by the Senate, the Council shall nominate others in their places. If any of the persons so nominated in the second instance be not elected; the Council shall again nominate others in their places. If any of the persons so nominated in the third instance fail to be elected, the major part of the Council shall for that turn elect others in their places, so as to complete the whole number of five Judges.

CHAPTER IX.

ORDINANCES OF THE UNIVERSITY.

The University shall have power to make Ordinances for the encouragement of learning and the maintenance of good order and discipline, provided that they be not contrary to anything contained in the Statutes of the University.

The University shall have power to require contributions of money from any of its members for University purposes, as also payments from candidates for matriculation or for Degrees or on account of services rendered by University officers.

The University may accept from any of its members who are not in statu pupillari sums of money determined by Grace, as compositions in lieu of future annual payments.

CHAPTER X.

THE French Government has given notice, dated 1st February, 1881, that during the construction of the pier of a swing bridge over the Pass de l'Abattoir, in the Port of Marseille, this pass will be closed to shipping at night.

During the day, vessels may pass eastward of the caisson of the pier—that is, between the caisson and the eastern Traverse de l'Abattoir, a width of 44 yards. The other part of the pass is closed at all times even to the smallest vessels.

The works are indicated by the following signals:—

During the night—by three red lights, placed vertically, exhibited from the caisson of the pier; the lower light is 13 feet above the sea, the upper light 20 feet.

NOTE.—A chain is constantly extended across that part of the pass westward of the caisson; and as soon as the lights are exhibited, a chain is extended for the night across the eastern part of the pass.

Temporary Discontinuance of Lights.

Also, that the red lights usually shown from the mole heads of the Traverse de l'Abattoir, will not be exhibited until further notice.

With reference to Notice of Mariners, No. 139, of 19th September, 1879, on the exhibition of a harbour light (green) in the new harbour, and alteration in position of the breakwater light, Port Bari:—

The Italian Government has given further notice, that on 15th December, 1880, the red light shown from the breakwater in course of construction at Port Bari, would be moved 295 yards to the westward, and is now situated near the seaward end of the breakwater, and about 55 yards from its submerged extremity.

The light, shown from a small tower constructed of masonry, is elevated 33 feet above the sea, and should be visible in clear weather from a distance of 5 miles.

The illuminating apparatus is dioptric, or by lenses.

Also, that on the same date, the green light on the shore of the new harbour would be discontinued; and the beacon buoy that previously marked the submerged extremity of the breakwater, would be withdrawn.

The light shows white seaward, except between the bearings of N.E. by E. $\frac{1}{2}$ E. and East, where it shows red, in order, by change of colour, to serve as a guide in the entrance of the West Gat, between black buoy A and white buoy A.

Also, that on 28th January, 1881, the white leading lights (A and B) indicating the fairway of the Noord Gat, Hook of Holland Canal Entrance, were shifted to the following positions:—

EDDYSTONE NEW LIGHTHOUSE.

Intended Alteration in Character of Light, and of Fog Signal.

THE Trinity House, London, has given notice, dated 12th February, 1881, that the new lighthouse which has been for some time past in course of erection at the Eddystone Rocks, is now far advanced towards completion, and may be expected to be ready for the exhibition of a light early in March, 1882:—

The light will be a powerful white double flashing half-minute light, showing two successive flashes of about two and a-half seconds' duration, divided by an eclipse of about four seconds, the second flash being followed by an eclipse of about twenty-one seconds. The light will be elevated 133 feet above high water, visible all round the horizon, and in clear weather, should be seen from a distance of $17\frac{1}{2}$ miles.

Also, that a fixed white subsidiary light will be shown from a window in the lighthouse below the flashing light, to mark the Hand Deeps; it will extend over a sector of 16° , from the bearing of S. 32° E. to S. 48° E.

Also, that during thick and foggy weather, a large bell will be sounded twice in quick succession every half-minute—thus assimilating the character of the sound signal to that of the light.

NOTE.—Mariners will observe that the Casquets Light, 78 miles S.E. $\frac{1}{4}$ E. from the Eddystone, is similar in character to the Eddystone Light, but shows three flashes in quick succession instead of two.

Further notice concerning this light will be given in due course.
