

exception of the butler, porter, and cook, whose appointment and dismissal respectively shall rest with the Governing Body, the Master, having, however, power to suspend or provisionally dismiss them.

The salaries of the servants of the College shall be fixed by the Governing Body, to whom it shall also be competent to award pensions to deserving servants upon their retirement.

STATUTE XVII.

Supernumerary Fellows.

Any Fellow, other than the person holding the Professorial Fellowship, may signify to the Master in writing his wish to become a Supernumerary Fellow. If the Governing Body consent, he shall become a Supernumerary Fellow, and shall be and remain a Fellow to all intents and purposes, and hold his Fellowship for the time and in the manner provided by these statutes, and enjoy all the benefits and advantages of the same, save and except that he shall not thenceforth be entitled to any stipend. Such Fellow, however, shall not be counted towards the number of Fellows required by these statutes, but a new Fellow shall be elected in his place.

STATUTE XVIII.

Honorary Fellows.

1. It shall be competent to a majority of the Governing Body to confer the title of Honorary Fellow on any person who, having been educated at or having become a member of the College, shall have rendered the College such signal services, or have attained such distinction of a nature to be recognised by an academical body, as in their opinion to render him worthy of such title.

2. Such title shall be revocable at discretion by a majority of the Governing Body.

3. The name of an Honorary Fellow may, if a majority of the Governing Body think fit, be kept on the College boards free of payment to the College; but he shall receive as such no other College emolument.

STATUTE XIX.

Removal of Members.

1. In case the Master or a Fellow shall be guilty or suspected of very serious misconduct, a majority of the other members of the Governing Body may, after due investigation, suspend the Master or such Fellow, giving him due notice of such suspension. The Master or Fellow so suspended shall be entitled to appeal to the Visitor. If he do not so appeal within one year from receiving notice of such suspension, a majority of the other members of the Governing Body may declare the Mastership or such Fellowship vacant, and from such decision there shall be no appeal. If he do so appeal, the Visitor shall hear the case, and shall either reinstate the Master or such Fellow, or shall declare the Mastership or such Fellowship vacant.

2. The Master or such Fellow may, during such suspension, and pending such appeal as aforesaid, be deprived of all emoluments and privileges, and even prevented from entering or remaining in the College, by the vote of a majority of the other members of the Governing Body; and if after such appeal he be reinstated by the Visitor, he shall receive such sums as he would have been entitled to under the heads of stipend and allowances had he not been suspended.

3. In case the Master or a Fellow shall wilfully violate or be alleged to have wilfully violated the statutes, a majority of the Governing Body may appeal to the Visitor, who shall thereupon hear the case, and if satisfied that the charge is made out, may admonish the Master or such Fellow as to his future conduct, or may declare the Mastership or such Fellowship vacant, but the provisions as to suspension and the consequences of the same contained in sections 1 and 2 of this statute shall not apply to cases of violation or alleged violation of the statutes under this section.

4. Members of the College who are not members of the Governing Body may, for due cause, be removed by a majority of the Governing Body by striking their names off the College boards; and such persons shall, upon such removal, cease to be members of the College.

STATUTE XX.

Leasing Powers.

Every lease made by the College shall be made without taking any fine, premium, or foregift, or anything in the nature thereof, for or in respect of the making of the same.

STATUTE XXI.

Application of Moneys arising from the Sale of Advowsons.

All moneys arising from the sale of advowsons by the College, whether made before or after the approval of these statutes by the Queen in-Council, shall be invested, and the income arising therefrom shall be applied towards such of the following purposes as the Governing Body may from time to time determine:—

- (1.) The maintenance of the College chapel.
- (2.) The stipends of the Deans and Chaplains.
- (3.) The benefit of any livings or parishes in which the College is interested either as patron of the living or as owner of lands or tithes in the parish.
- (4.) Pensions for officers of the College.

STATUTE XXII.

Application of Income.

1. The contribution of the College to the University, and all salaries and all moneys payable or agreed to be allowed to Scholars' Exhibitors, Law Students, or otherwise to students of the College, shall constitute a first charge on the income of the College, which shall not be applicable for distribution among the members of the Governing Body till after the payment of such first charge.

2. The Governing Body shall annually apply a sum equal to two Fellowship stipends at least to a fund for the payment of moneys due to Scholars, Exhibitors, Law Students, or otherwise to students of the College, to be called the "Scholarship Fund"; and a sum equal to one Fellowship stipend at least to a fund for improving the College buildings and estates, to be called the "Building Fund."

3. Separate accounts shall be kept of the Scholarship and Building Funds respectively, the balances being suffered to accumulate for the purposes of such funds respectively.

4. The Governing Body shall be empowered to contribute to charities in places where the College has property, and to objects connected with the promotion of art, science, learning, or literature, and to spend annually a sum, which shall not be excessive, on College entertainments.

5. No member of the Governing Body shall, under any circumstances whatever, derive any increase of his stipend or allowances as Master or Fellow from the circumstance of the Mastership, or any Fellowship or Fellowships, being vacant.

STATUTE XXIII.

Investments.

The moneys of the College may, in cases where the investment of the same is not regulated by any other statute or by any declaration of trust, be invested by a majority of the Governing Body in
