

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

TUESDAY, MAY 10, 1881.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace,
March 30, 1881.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Her Majesty's Birthday will be generally kept on Tuesday, 24th May next; but that, in order to avoid interference with the business of Parliament on that day, it will be celebrated in London alone on Saturday, 28th May.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace,
April 13, 1881.

NOTICE is hereby given, that His Royal Highness The Prince of Wales will, by command of The Queen, hold a Levee at St. James's Palace, on behalf of Her Majesty, on Monday, the 23rd of May next, at two o'clock.

It is The Queen's pleasure that Presentations to His Royal Highness at this Levee shall be considered as equivalent to Presentations to Her Majesty.

REGULATIONS

TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S LEVEE TO BE HELD BY HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS THE PRINCE OF WALES, ON BEHALF OF HER MAJESTY, AT ST. JAMES'S PALACE.

By Her Majesty's Command,

The Noblemen and Gentlemen who propose to attend Her Majesty's Levee, at St. James's Palace, are requested to bring with them two large cards, with their names clearly written thereon, one to be left with The Queen's Page in attendance in the Corridor, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to His Royal Highness.

PRESENTATIONS.

Any Nobleman or Gentleman who proposes to be presented, must leave at the Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace, before twelve o'clock, two clear days before the Levee, a card with his name written thereon, and with the name of the Nobleman or Gentleman by whom he is to be presented. In order to carry out the existing regulations that no presentation can be made at a Levee excepting by a person actually attending that Levee, it is also necessary that an intimation from the Nobleman or Gentleman who is to make the presentation, of his intention to be present, should accompany the presentation card above referred to, which will be submitted to The Queen for Her Majesty's approbation. It is Her Majesty's command that no presentations shall be made at the Levee, except in accordance with the above regulations.

It is particularly requested, that in every case the names be very distinctly written upon the cards to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them to His Royal Highness.

The State Apartments will be open for the reception of Company coming to Court at half-past one o'clock.

KENMARE,
Lord Chamberlain.

NOTIFICATION.

Foreign Office, May 9, 1881.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the French Ambassador in London has announced that the "Journal Officiel" of the 8th instant contains the promulgation by the President of the French Republic of the new French General Tariff. 1. The Treaty of Commerce of the 23rd January, 1860.
2. Additional Article of the 25th February, 1860.
3. Second Additional Article of the 27th June, 1860.
4. First Supplementary Convention of the 12th October, 1860.
5. Second Supplementary Convention of the 16th November, 1860.
6. Treaty of Commerce and Navigation of the 23rd July, 1873.
7. Supplementary Convention of the 24th January, 1874.
8. Declaration of the 24th January, 1874.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 2nd day of May, 1881.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of

Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the seventh day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one, in the words following; that is to say:—

“We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of your Majesty chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Nicholas and Saint Faith situate within the limits of the antient municipal borough of Saltash, in the parish of Saint Stephen-by-Saltash in the county of Cornwall and in the diocese of Truro.

“Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint Nicholas and Saint Faith situate within the limits of the antient municipal borough of Saltash aforesaid.

“Now therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Edward White, Bishop of the said diocese of Truro (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent, that it would in our opinion be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Saint Stephen-by-Saltash which is comprised within and is co-extensive with the limits of the antient municipal borough of Saltash aforesaid, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of Saint Nicholas and Saint Faith situate within the limits of such antient municipal borough as aforesaid, and that the same should be named ‘The District Chapelry of Saint Nicholas and Saint Faith Saltash.’

“And with the like consent of the said Edward White Bishop of the said diocese of Truro (testified as aforesaid), we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published and that marriages baptisms churchings and burials should be solemnized or performed at the said church of Saint Nicholas and Saint Faith situate within the limits of the antient municipal borough of Saltash as aforesaid, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always that so long as the Reverend Henry Anthony Noel the present vicar or incumbent of the vicarage of the said parish of Saint Stephen-by-Saltash shall continue to be such vicar or incumbent all the fees which may be received in respect of such publication solemnization or performance at the said church of Saint Nicholas and Saint Faith as aforesaid shall be paid over to the said Henry Anthony Noel: And provided also that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us the said Commissioners to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism or for the registration thereof.

“We, therefore, humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration and to make such Order with respect thereto as to your Majesty, in your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.”

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Truro.

C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 2nd day of May, 1881.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Order in Council bearing date the 21st February, 1872, we were pleased, by and with the advice of our Privy Council, to approve of the draft of a Proclamation declaring that the standard of value in our Colony of Gibraltar should be a certain gold coin of Spain, commonly called a doblon d'Isabel, and that the said doblon d'Isabel and the several other coins described in the schedule annexed to the said Order in Council should be the only sufficient tender in Gibraltar.

And whereas by decrees of the Spanish Government dated 19th October, 1868, and 21st March, 1871, respectively, the doblon d'Isabel and its subdivisions are no longer coined, but a new currency system has been adopted in the Kingdom of Spain.

And whereas it is therefore expedient that the new coins issued under the decrees of the Spanish Government, dated 19th October, 1868 and 21st March 1871, should be made legal tender in that Colony, in the place of the coins described in the schedule annexed to the Order in Council of 21st February 1872 which are no longer coined in Spain.

Now we, by and with the advice of our Privy Council, do hereby declare and ordain that, from and after a day to be fixed by the Governor or Officer administering the Government of the Colony of Gibraltar by Proclamation, the said Order in Council, dated 21st February, 1872, and the Proclamation dated the 1st April 1872, regulating the currency of Gibraltar shall be revoked and cancelled. Provided that such revocation and cancellation shall not be held to revive any Order in Council or Proclamation of Her Majesty and Her predecessors, or of any Officer administering the Government of Gibraltar repealed by the said Order in Council and Proclamation hereby revoked and cancelled.

2. The standard of value in Gibraltar shall henceforth be the gold coin of Spain commonly called the Alfonso or piece of twenty-five pesetas, containing 124.45 grains troy of gold of $\frac{16}{10}$ fineness.

3. The said Alfonso, or 25 pesetas piece, and the several other Spanish coins described in the schedule to this Order in Council annexed, not being clipped pierced or otherwise disfigured, nor being defaced otherwise than by lawful wear and being of the metal, weight, and fineness named in the said schedule shall be a good and valid tender in Gibraltar, and shall be the only sufficient tender (except in this Proclamation otherwise specially provided), in payment of any sum or sums of money which may be or become due there to any person whatsoever.

4. Provided always that the silver coin of less value than 5 pesetas shall not be legal tender for any sum exceeding 50 pesetas.

And that the copper or bronze coin shall not be legal tender for any sum exceeding one peseta.

5. But it shall be lawful for the Governor of Gibraltar, for the time being, at any time with the consent of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, by Proclamation, to declare that the silver five peseta pieces shall not be legal tender for any sum exceeding 50 pesetas.

6. Provided always that, until any Proclamation to the contrary shall have been issued by the Governor of Gibraltar, for the time being, the gold and silver, but not the base silver or copper coins described in the schedule annexed to the Order in Council of the 21st February 1872, may be tendered in payment of any sum or sums which may be or become due in Gibraltar to any person whatsoever at the rate of one dollar to five pesetas. But no greater number of such pieces shall be tendered in any one payment than authorized in the said Schedule.

7. Her Majesty and every person who if this Order in Council had not been made and passed, would have been entitled to receive any sum of money in the currency, and according to the denominations used in Gibraltar under the Order in Council of the 21st February 1872, namely doblones and dollars shall be entitled to receive as follows:—

For every dollar 5 pesetas

Provided that when any contract has been made before the passing of this Order in Council for the payment of any sum in doblones d'Isabel such coins being specified by name, or when it may be proved that any sum has been advanced on loan in the gold coins included in the Schedule annexed to the Order in Council of the 21st February 1872, payments under such contract or on account of such advance shall be made either in gold doblones d'Isabel or in the coins included in the schedule annexed to this Order in Council at the rate of 26 pesetas for every doblon d'Isabel.

Her Majesty and every person who, if this Order in Council and the Order in Council of the 21st February 1872 had not been passed, would have been entitled to receive from any person in Gibraltar any sum of money assessed in the denominations of the lawful money of the United Kingdom, shall be entitled to receive the same, either in gold doblones d'Isabel at the rate specified in the 6th section of the Order in Council of the 21st February 1872, or in the coins included in the schedule annexed to this Order in Council at the rate of 25 pesetas and 22 centimos for every pound sterling.

8. Provided that nothing herein contained shall vary or alter the rate at which payment shall be made at Gibraltar of any sum of money due or payable or to become due or payable by Her Majesty's Deputy Postmaster at Gibraltar under or by virtue of any Act of Parliament, Order in Council, or instruction of the Lords of Her Majesty's Treasury or the Postmaster-General.

9. It shall be lawful for the Governor, subject, nevertheless, to such general and other instructions for his guidance as he may from time to time receive to make and pass such Ordinances, and to make and publish such proclamations as to him shall seem necessary for the purpose of preventing the making or circulating in, or introducing into Gibraltar, any false or counterfeit coin whatsoever, or any matter or thing resembling or apparently intended to resemble, or to pass for any of Her Majesty's lawful current gold, or silver, or bronze coin, or for the coin of any other State, and to prevent the commission of offences, and to punish offenders against the prerogative of Her Majesty relating to coin, and otherwise to carry this Order in Council into effect.

C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 2nd day of May, 1881.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the first session of Parliament holden in the first and second years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to abridge the holding of benefices in plurality, and to make better provision for the residence of the clergy," it is, amongst other things, enacted, "That whenever it shall appear to the Archbishop of the Province, with respect to his own diocese, and whenever it shall be represented to him by the Bishop of any diocese, or by the Bishops of any two dioceses, that two or more benefices, or that one or more benefice or benefices, and one or more spiritual sinecure rectory or rectories, vicarage or vicarages in his or their diocese or dioceses, being either in the same parish or contiguous to each other, and of which the aggregate population shall not exceed one thousand five hundred persons, and the aggregate yearly value shall not exceed five hundred pounds, may, with advantage to the interests of religion, be united into one benefice, the said Archbishop of the Province shall inquire into the circumstances of the case; and if on such enquiry it shall appear to him that such union may be usefully made, and will not be of inconvenient extent, and that the patron or patrons of the said benefices, sinecure rectory or rectories, vicarage or vicarages respectively, is or are consenting thereto, such consent being signified in writing under the hands of such patron or patrons, the said Archbishop shall, six weeks before certifying such inquiry and consent to Her Majesty, as hereinafter directed, cause with respect to his own diocese a statement in writing of the facts and in other cases a copy in writing of the aforesaid representation to be affixed on or near the principal outer door of the church, or in some public and conspicuous place in each of such benefices, sinecure rectories or vicarages, with notice to any person or persons interested, that he, she, or they, may, within such six weeks, show cause in writing under his, her, or their hand or hands, to the said Archbishop, against such union; and if no sufficient cause be shown within such time, the said Archbishop shall certify the inquiry and consent aforesaid to Her Majesty in Council, and thereupon it shall be lawful for Her Majesty in Council to make and issue an Order or Orders for uniting such benefices, sinecure rectory or rectories, vicarage or vicarages, into one benefice, with cure of souls, for ecclesiastical purposes only; and it shall be lawful for Her Majesty in Council to give directions for regulating the course and succession in which the patrons, if there be more than one patron, shall present or nominate to such united benefice, from time to time, as the same shall become vacant."

And whereas the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury pursuant to the provisions of the said Act hath duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a certificate in writing bearing date the twenty-eighth day of March, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one in the words and figures following that is to say:—

"To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

"We the undersigned Archibald Campbell Lord Archbishop of the Province of Canterbury Primate of all England and Metropolitan do hereby certify to your Majesty in Council.

"That the Right Reverend Charles John Lord Bishop of Gloucester and Bristol having represented unto us that the rectory of Somerford Keynes and the rectory of Sharncoote both in the county of Wilts and diocese of Gloucester and Bristol being contiguous to each other and of which the aggregate population does not exceed one thousand five hundred persons might with advantage to the interests of religion be united into one benefice we inquired into the circumstances of the case.

"That on such inquiry it appeared to us that such union might be usefully made and would not be of inconvenient extent and that the Right Honourable Roundell Baron Selborne Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain the patron or person entitled on behalf of Her Majesty the Queen to present to the said rectory of Sharncoote the same being now vacant and Christopher John Foyle Fawcett of 8 King's Bench-walk, Temple, in the county of Middlesex Esquire the patron or the person entitled to present to the said rectory of Somerford Keynes if the same were now vacant have signified their consent in writing to the union of the said benefices into one benefice with cure of souls for ecclesiastical purposes.

"That six weeks and upwards before certifying such inquiry and consent to your Majesty in Council we caused a copy in writing of the aforesaid representation of the said Lord Bishop to be affixed on the principal outer door of the parish church of each of the said benefices with notice to any person or persons interested that he she or they might within such six weeks show cause in writing under his her or their hand or hands to us the said Archbishop against such union and no such cause has been shown.

"The representation of the said Lord Bishop of Gloucester and Bristol our inquiry into the circumstances of the case the statement of circumstances in reply thereto the consents in writing of the several patrons and the copies of the representation and notice before-mentioned are hereunto annexed.

"And we do hereby certify the inquiry and consent aforesaid to your Majesty in Council to the intent that your Majesty in Council may in case your Majesty in Council shall think fit so to do make and issue an Order for uniting the said benefices into one benefice with cure of souls for ecclesiastical purposes only. And for declaring that the right to present to such united benefice from time to time as the same shall become vacant shall belong to the Lord High Chancellor for the time being and the said Christopher John Foyle Fawcett his heirs and assigns alternately the Lord High Chancellor being entitled to the first turn or right of presentation.

"As witness our hand this twenty-eighth day of March in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one.

"A. C. Cantuar."

Now therefore Her Majesty in Council by and with the advice of Her said Council is pleased to order and it is hereby ordered that the rectory of Somerford Keynes situate in the county of Wilts and diocese of Gloucester and the rectory of Sharncoote situate in the same county and diocese shall be united into one benefice with cure of souls for ecclesiastical purposes only.

And Her Majesty in Council by and with the advice of Her said Council is pleased to direct that the right to present to such united benefice from time to time as the same shall become vacant shall belong to the Lord High Chancellor for the time being and Christopher John Foyle Fawcett his heirs and assigns, alternately, the Lord High Chancellor being entitled to the first turn or right of presentation.

C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 2nd day of May, 1881.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the seventeenth day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty chapter one hundred and thirteen of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty chapter thirty-seven and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty chapter one hundred and four have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes to be taken out of the new parish of Saint James Tunbridge Wells in the county of Kent and in the diocese of Canterbury.

"Whereas it has been made to appear to us that it would promote the interests of religion that the particular part of the said new parish of Saint James Tunbridge Wells which is hereinafter mentioned and described should be constituted a separate district in the manner hereinafter recommended and proposed.

"And whereas there is not at present within the limits of the said proposed district any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of Divine worship.

"And whereas by a certain deed or indenture bearing date on or about the twelfth day of November in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty and made or expressed to be made under the provisions of 'The New Parishes Acts 1843 1844 and 1856' or some or one of them between Henry Edward Andrews of the Stock Exchange in the city of London. Esquire and Edward Baldock Stone of the Inner Temple London Esquire of the first part the Reverend Christopher Ridley Pearson Clerk in Holy Orders vicar or incumbent of the vicarage of the said new parish of Saint James Tunbridge Wells of the second part and us the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners of the third part (which deed or indenture is intended to be enrolled in the Chancery Division of your Majesty's High Court of Justice) the said parties of the first and second parts did grant unto the minister of the proposed district (intended as is mentioned in the said deed or indenture to be named 'The District of Saint Barnabas Tunbridge Wells') so soon as a minister shall have been appointed and licensed in accordance with the provisions of the hereinbefore secondly mentioned Act and so soon as the said district shall have become a new parish under the provisions of the same Act then to the incumbent of such new parish and his successors, firstly a plot of land with the houses and buildings thereon erected and known respectively as Numbers 1 and 2 Rochelle and Victoria Villa, Crescent-road, within the local district of the town of Tunbridge Wells in the county of Kent as the same plot of land is more particularly delineated in the plan number 1 drawn in the margin of the said deed or indenture subject nevertheless to the several indentures of lease the yearly rents whereof amount together to the sum of thirty-five pounds and secondly all that other plot of ground with the house and buildings thereon erected and known as Number 85 Woodbury Park-road within the said town of Tunbridge Wells as the same plot of land is more particularly delineated in the plan number 2 drawn in the margin of the said deed or indenture subject nevertheless to the several indentures of lease the yearly rents whereof amount to the sum of twenty-one pounds all the said yearly rents so reserved as aforesaid to be to the use of the said minister or incumbent for the time being of the said proposed district or new parish for ever.

"And whereas by another deed or indenture bearing date on or about the twelfth day of November in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty and made or expressed to be made under the provisions of 'The New Parishes Acts 1843 1844 and 1856' or some or one of them between James Feargus O'Connor Wood of Number 177 Seven Sisters'-road Holloway in the county of Middlesex, Boot Manufacturer of the first part the said Christopher Ridley Pearson of the second part, and us the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England of the third part (which deed or indenture is intended to be enrolled in the Chancery Division of your Majesty's High Court of Justice) the said parties of the first and second parts did grant unto the minister or incumbent of the said proposed district or new parish of Saint Barnabas Tunbridge Wells certain plots of land with the houses and buildings thereon erected and known respectively as Numbers 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, and 9, Rose-terrace Gillespie-road at Highbury in the said county of Middlesex as the same plots are more particularly delineated in the plan drawn on the margin of the said lastly-mentioned deed or indenture subject nevertheless to the several indentures of lease the particulars whereof and the yearly rents amounting together to the sum of forty-two pounds or thereabouts which are reserved thereby are set forth in the schedule appended to the said deed or indenture, the said yearly rents so reserved as aforesaid to be to the use of the said minister or incumbent for the time being of the said proposed district or new parish for ever.

"And whereas for the purpose of providing an additional endowment for the said proposed district or (as the case may be) new parish a capital sum of sixty pounds sterling has been contributed and paid over to the credit of the account of us the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners at the Bank of England by the said Christopher Ridley Pearson and we have in respect of such sum undertaken to pay to the minister or incumbent of the proposed district (or as the case may be) new parish the annual sum of two pounds.

"And whereas the said lands houses and buildings hereinbefore mentioned have been so granted as aforesaid and the said capital sum of sixty pounds sterling has been so paid as aforesaid upon the understanding that we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England should out of the common fund created by the hereinbefore firstly mentioned Act pay to the minister or incumbent of the said proposed district or new parish when duly licensed as aforesaid a grant of fifty pounds per annum and upon the further understanding that (such arrangement appearing to us to be expedient) the whole right of patronage of the said proposed district or new parish and of the nomination of the minister or incumbent thereto should be assigned in the manner hereinafter mentioned.

"And whereas the said annual grant of fifty pounds will be made and secured by an instrument to be executed by us the said Commissioners under our common seal in accordance with the provisions of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of your Majesty chapter one hundred and eleven.

"Now therefore with the consent of the Right Honourable and Most Reverend Archibald Campbell Archbishop of Canterbury (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme) we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners humbly recommend and propose that all that part of the said new parish of Saint James Tunbridge Wells which is more particularly described in the schedule hereunder written and is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed shall upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme become and be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes and that the same shall be named 'The District of Saint Barnabas Tunbridge Wells.'

"And we further recommend and propose that the whole right of patronage of the said proposed district or new parish, and of the nomination of the minister or incumbent thereto shall without any assurance in the law other than this scheme and any duly gazetted Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, and upon and from the day of the date of the publication of such Order in the London Gazette as aforesaid be assigned to and become absolutely vested in and shall and may be exercised for one turn and that the first turn only by the said Christopher Ridley Pearson jointly with the Reverend Harry William Hitchcock Clerk in Holy Orders curate of the new parish of Saint George Kenwyn in the county of Cornwall and in the diocese of Truro and that all the residue and remaining turns of the said right of patronage and nomination shall in like manner be assigned to and be vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the Warden Council and Scholars of Keble College in the University of Oxford and their successors for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or to any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of either of them or of any other Act of Parliament.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme has reference.

"The District of Saint Barnabas, Tunbridge Wells being:—

"All that part of the new parish of Saint James Tunbridge Wells in the county of Kent and in the diocese of Canterbury which is bounded on the north-west partly by the particular district of Saint Peter Southborough and partly by the new parish of Saint John Tunbridge Wells both in the county and diocese aforesaid on the south-west by the district parish of Tunbridge Wells in the same county and diocese and upon the remaining sides that is to say on the south-east and on the north-east by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said district parish of Tunbridge Wells from the new parish of Saint James Tunbridge Wells aforesaid at the point where Kirleas-road joins Camdenton-road and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of the last-named road for a distance of seventeen and a half chains or thereabouts to its junction with Western-road and extending thence first eastward and then north-eastward along the middle of the last-named road for a distance of twelve and a half chains or thereabouts to its junction with Saint James's-road and extending thence southward along the middle of the last-named road for a distance of three chains or thereabouts to its junction at the north-eastern end of Albion-road with the road or footpath leading past Liptraps Farm to Colebrook Park and extending thence that is from the last-described point of junction north-eastward along the middle of the last-described road or footpath for a distance of eighty-four chains or thereabouts to its junction on the western side of Lambert's Wood with the Farm-road leading past the southern side of the Tunbridge Wells Northern Sewage Farm towards Powder Mill-lane and extending thence north-westward along the middle of the said Farm-road for a distance of fourteen chains or thereabouts to a point distant about four chains to the south-east of the centre of the bridge which carries the line of the Hastings Branch of the South Eastern Railway over the said Farm-road such point being upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint James Tunbridge Wells from the particular district of Saint Peter Southborough aforesaid."

And whereas drafts of the said scheme have, in accordance with the provisions of the secondly hereinbefore mentioned Act, been transmitted to the patrons (being three in number) and to the incumbent of the vicarage of the said new parish of Saint James Tunbridge Wells out of which it is intended that the district recommended in such scheme to be constituted shall be taken:

And whereas one of the patrons and the incumbent of the said vicarage of the new parish of Saint James Tunbridge Wells have respectively signified their assent to such scheme:

And whereas the other two patrons of the said vicarage of the new parish of Saint James Tunbridge Wells have offered certain objections or observations to or upon the said scheme:

And whereas the said scheme has notwithstanding such objections or observations as last mentioned been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Canterbury.

C. L. Peel.

At the Court at Windsor, the 2nd day of May, 1881.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation; bearing date the twenty-fourth day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one in the words following; that is to say:—

“We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of your Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church called Christ Church situate at Gleadless, in the parish of Handsworth in the county of York and in the diocese of York.

“Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church called Christ Church situate at Gleadless as aforesaid.

“Now therefore with the consent of the Right Honourable and Most Reverend William, Archbishop of York, (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Handsworth which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church called Christ Church situate at Gleadless as aforesaid, and that the same should be named ‘The District Chapelry of Christ Church, Gleadless.’

“And with the like consent of the said William, Archbishop of York, (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at the said church called Christ Church, situate at Gleadless as aforesaid, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us the said Commissioners to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism or for the registration thereof.

“We, therefore, humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration and to make such Order with respect thereto as to your Majesty, in your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

“The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

“The District Chapelry of Christ Church, Gleadless, being:—

“All that part of the parish of Handsworth, in the county of York, and in the diocese of York, wherein the present Incumbent of such parish now possesses the exclusive cure of souls, which is bounded on the north-west by the new parish of Saint John the Evangelist, Sheffield Park, and by the new parish of Heeley, both in the county and diocese aforesaid, or in other words by the municipal and parliamentary boundary of the borough of Sheffield, on the south-west and on the south-east by the county of Derby and diocese of Lichfield on the east by the new parish of Saint James, Handsworth Woodhouse, in the county of York and diocese of York aforesaid, and on the remaining side that is to say on the north-east by an imaginary line commencing on the boundary which divides the last-named new parish from the said parish of Handsworth at the point a little to the north-east of the lodge at the entrance gates to the mansion called Woodthorpe Hall where the road leading from Intake to Richmond, otherwise known as ‘Richmond-lane’ is joined by the public footpath leading from such road through Woodthorpe Park towards Sheffield, and extending thence generally north-westward along the middle of the said public footpath for a distance of forty-three chains or thereabouts to the boundary which divides the said parish of Handsworth from the new parish of Saint John the Evangelist, Sheffield Park, aforesaid, or, in other words, to the municipal and parliamentary boundary of the borough of Sheffield.”

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of York.

C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 2nd day of May, 1881.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy; of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter ninety-seven; of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five; and of the Act of the thirty-fourth and thirty-fifth years of Her Majesty, chapter eighty-two; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the seventh day of April in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one in the words following; that is to say:—

“We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of your Majesty chapter seventy of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of your Majesty chapter ninety-seven of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty chapter fifty-five and of the Act of the thirty-fourth and thirty-fifth years of your Majesty chapter eighty-two have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of the Holy Trinity situate at Stroud Green in the new parish of the Holy Innocents Hornsey in the county of Middlesex and in the diocese of London.

“Whereas at certain extremities of the said new parish of the Holy Innocents Hornsey of the new parish of Saint John the Evangelist Brownswood Park in the said county of Middlesex and in the said diocese of London and of the parish of Hornsey in the same county and diocese which said extremities lie contiguous one to another and are described in the schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such new parishes and parish respectively.

"And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that such contiguous portions of the said new parish of the Holy Innocents Hornsey of the said new parish of Saint John the Evangelist Brownwood Park and of the said parish of Hornsey should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes and that the same should be assigned to the said church of the Holy Trinity situate at Stroud Green as aforesaid.

"Now therefore with the consent of the Right Honourable and Right Reverend John Bishop of the said diocese of London as such Bishop and also as the patron in right of his See, of the vicarage of the said new parish of the Holy Innocents Hornsey and of the vicarage of the said new parish of Saint John the Evangelist Brownwood Park and also of the rectory of the said parish of Hornsey (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation) we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly represent that it would in our opinion be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said new parish of the Holy Innocents Hornsey of the said new parish of Saint John the Evangelist Brownwood Park and of the said parish of Hornsey which are described in the schedule hereunder written all which portions together with the boundaries thereof are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church of the Holy Trinity situate at Stroud Green as aforesaid and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of the Holy Trinity Stroud Green.'

"We therefore humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration and to make such Order in respect thereto as to your Majesty in your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The Consolidated Chapelry of the Holy Trinity Stroud Green being:—

"All that portion of the new parish of the Holy Innocents Hornsey in the county of Middlesex and in the diocese of London which is bounded on the east by the parish of Hornsey in the county and diocese aforesaid (or in other words by the main line of the Great Northern Railway) on the south-west partly by the new parish of Saint John the Evangelist Brownwood Park and (for a short space) partly by the new parish of Saint Mark Tollington Park and partly by the new parish of Saint Mary Hornsey Rise all in the county and diocese aforesaid and on the remaining side that is to say on the north-west partly by the new parish of Christ Church Hornsey also in the county and diocese aforesaid and partly by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the last-named new parish from the new parish of the Holy Innocents Hornsey aforesaid at the point, in the middle of the public footpath which leads from the road called or known as Crouch Hill along the ridge of the hill to Hornsey, at or near to the south-eastern angle of the house and grounds called or known as Womersley House where the said boundary leaves the said footpath, and extending thence first north-eastward and then northward along the middle of the same footpath for a distance of fifty chains or thereabouts to the point where it first strikes the western side of the main line of the Great Northern Railway aforesaid and extending thence north-eastward and in a direct line to the boundary in the middle of the said main line of railway which boundary divides the said new parish of the Holy Innocents Hornsey from the parish of Hornsey aforesaid.

"And also all that portion of the said new parish of Saint John the Evangelist Brownwood Park which is bounded on the north-east and on the north-west by the above-described portion of the new parish of the Holy Innocents Hornsey aforesaid (or in other words partly by the Edgware Highgate and London Line of the said Great Northern Railway and partly by the line of the Tottenham and Hampstead Junction Railway) on the south-west by the new parish of Saint Mark Tollington Park aforesaid or in other words for the most part by Stroud Green-lane and on the remaining side that is to say on the south-east by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the last-named new parish from the new parish of Saint John the Evangelist Brownwood Park aforesaid at the point where Stroud Green-lane aforesaid is joined by the road called or known as Upper Tollington Park and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of the last-named road for a distance of seventeen chains or thereabouts to the boundary at the middle of the bridge which carries the said Edgware Highgate and London Line of the Great Northern Railway over the road called or known as Upper Tollington Park as aforesaid which boundary divides the said new parish of Saint John the Evangelist Brownwood Park from the new parish of the Holy Innocents Hornsey as aforesaid.

"And also all that portion of the said parish of Hornsey which is bounded on the east by the new parish of Saint Ann Hanger-lane in the county and diocese aforesaid on the south-east by that part of the parish of Hornsey aforesaid which is comprised within the limits of Finsbury Park on the west by the above-described portion of the new parish of the Holy Innocents Hornsey aforesaid (or in other words by the main line of the Great Northern Railway aforesaid) and on the remaining side that is to say on the north-west by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said above-described portion of the new parish of the Holy Innocents Hornsey from the parish of Hornsey aforesaid at the point where the said main line of the Great Northern Railway crosses the line of the Tottenham and Hampstead Junction Railway aforesaid and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of the last-named line of railway for a distance of twenty-one chains or thereabouts to the boundary a little to the west of the road called or known as the Green-lanes which boundary divides the said parish of Hornsey from the new parish of Saint Ann Hanger-lane aforesaid."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of London.

C. L. Peel.

Privy Council Office, May 2, 1881.

SCHEDULE. Form of Accounts.

WHEREAS by virtue of a Charter granted by King Edward the Third in the year of our Lord 1348 Edmund de Gonville clerk founded Gonville Hall in the University of Cambridge and William Bateman Bishop of Norwich gave Statutes for the government thereof :

And whereas by virtue of a Charter granted by King Philip and Queen Mary in the year of our Lord 1557 John Caius Doctor of Medicine augmented the said Hall and changed the name thereof to Gonville and Caius College; and by the said Charter the said John Caius was empowered to make Statutes for the said College provided the same were not contrary or repugnant to the Statutes of Bishop Bateman :

And whereas Reginald Elie, in the year one thousand five hundred and thirty-eight, gave to the College three almshouses and lands in trust for the maintenance of the almshouses therein :

And whereas Stephen Perse late of Cambridge Doctor of Physic deceased by his will dated the twenty-seventh day of September one thousand six hundred and fifteen founded six Fellowships and six Scholarships in the said College and also a Free School and six almshouses in the town of Cambridge and appointed the Master and Fellows of the Foundation of the College to be supervisors of his said will but that only the Master and four Senior Fellows who should be from time to time should at all times execute and perform every thing therein appointed to be done by his said supervisors :

And whereas certain property is now held by the Master and Fellows of the said College upon the trusts and for the purposes in the said will of the said Stephen Perse declared :

And whereas Martin Davy late Master or Keeper of the said College deceased by his will dated the eighteenth day of January one thousand eight hundred and thirty-nine devised and bequeathed certain property therein mentioned to the Master and Fellows of the said College upon certain trusts therein declared for the benefit of the said College and the Master thereof :

And whereas under and by virtue of the will of Robert James Shuttleworth late of Berne in the Republic of Switzerland Esquire deceased and a deed poll under the seal of the Master and Fellows of the said College dated the nineteenth day of October one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five a sum of £4,000 Consolidated £3 per Centum Annuities is held by the Master and Fellows of the said College upon certain trusts in the said will and deed poll declared or referred to concerning the same :

And whereas the Statutes of the College now in force consist of a body of Statutes which were approved by Her Majesty in Council under the provisions of an Act passed in the session of Parliament holden in the nineteenth and twentieth years of the reign of Her Majesty Queen Victoria intituled "An Act to make further provision for the good Government and Extension of the University of Cambridge, of the Colleges therein and of the College of King Henry the Sixth at Eton," and of such or such parts of the former Statutes of the College as were not thereby repealed :

And whereas it is expedient that the Statutes now in force should be amended in many respects and that the College Statutes shall be in future such as are hereinafter expressed :

We the University of Cambridge Commissioners appointed for the purposes of the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act 1877 by virtue of the said Act and subject and according to the provisions thereof do make the following Statutes for Gonville and Caius College in the University of Cambridge and do declare them to be Statutes wholly for the said College within the meaning of section 30 of the said Act.

A.—OF THE CONSTITUTION OF THE COLLEGE.

The College shall (subject to the provisions in these Statutes contained for the increase or diminution of the number of Fellows or Scholars) consist of a Master, twenty-two Fellows and twenty-four Scholars.

B.—OF THE GOVERNMENT OF THE COLLEGE.

The Visitor.

The Visitor of the College shall be the Crown acting through the Lord Chancellor of Great Britain for the time being.

The Governing Body.

(1.) The Governing Body shall consist of the Master and twelve Fellows and it shall (subject as hereinafter provided) have the control and management of all the affairs of the College.

(2.) The Fellows who shall be members of the Governing Body shall (subject to the provisions hereinafter contained) be the Fellows comprised in the three following classes respectively; that is to say :

First. Such of the Fellows who shall be or become Seniors within the meaning of the previously existing Statutes of the College as shall not by writing under their or his hands or hand have at any time signified to the Master their or his renunciation of the office of membership of the Governing Body.

Secondly. The other resident Fellows (as hereinafter defined) of the standing of Master of Arts or of some equivalent or superior degree in order (subject to the provisions hereinafter contained as to a Vice-Master) of their seniority as Fellows to a number not exceeding together with the resident Fellows of the preceding class eight in all or together with the whole of that class twelve in all; provided that the number of members of this class shall never exceed eight.

Thirdly. So many other Fellows to be elected and to hold office as hereinafter provided (hereinafter called Elected Members) as shall be sufficient to make up together with the members of the preceding classes twelve members in all; provided however that no Elected Member shall during the period for which he shall have been elected be extruded from office by reason of any change in the resident Fellows; but in the event of any such change which would but for this provision have the effect of increasing the number of members of the second class the number of that class shall so long as necessary for giving effect to the foregoing provision remain correspondingly less than it otherwise would have been.

(3.) At every annual General Meeting under Statute 5 whenever there shall be any vacancy or vacancies to be filled up in the Elected Members of the Governing Body the Master or any Fellow present may nominate to fill such vacancy or vacancies any Fellow or Fellows not for the time being already a member or members in the first or second class who shall by writing under his or their hand or hands to be delivered contemporaneously with the nomination to the Chairman of the Meeting have signified his or their consent to act. If no more Fellows be so nominated than shall be sufficient to fill the vacancies, then all the Fellows so nominated shall be treated as elected and become thereupon members accordingly. If however more persons shall be so nominated than are sufficient to fill the vacancies, a written notice specifying the nominees and the date of the Meeting shall be forthwith sent by the Registry to the Master and all the Fellows, each of whom may, within seven days next after the Meeting signify in writing under his hand to be (as to the Fellows) delivered to the Master within that period of seven days the nominee or nominees (not exceeding in all the number to be elected) for whom he votes; and the nominee or nominees who shall obtain the greatest number of votes so given shall be deemed to be elected; and as between persons obtaining the same number of votes the election shall be decided according to their seniorities as Fellows. The Master shall by written notice to all the Fellows declare forthwith after the expiration of the said period of seven days the result of the election and the number of votes given to each candidate. The voting papers shall moreover be preserved for at least six months during which period they shall at all reasonable times be open to the inspection of any Fellow desiring to inspect them. Each member elected as aforesaid shall (subject as hereinafter provided) retain office by virtue of that election until the second annual General Meeting after that at which he shall have been nominated but no longer but he shall then be re-eligible.

(4.) If and whenever any vacancy in the Elected Members of the Governing Body shall by reason of insufficiency of nominations or otherwise not be filled up as hereinbefore provided at the annual General Meeting at which it ought to be filled up as aforesaid and also if and whenever in the interval between two consecutive annual General Meetings any casual vacancy in the Elected Members of the Governing Body shall occur the Governing Body shall at the next College Meeting appoint some Fellow not being already a member of the Governing Body to fill the vacancy. Every Fellow so appointed shall thereupon ipso facto become an Elected Member of the Governing Body whether he be willing to act or not but he shall retain office by virtue of that election until the next following Annual General Meeting and no longer but he shall then be re-eligible.

(5.) If any Elected Member of the Governing Body shall during his tenure of office as such become a resident Fellow who would under the foregoing provisions be as such a member of the Governing Body he shall thereupon ipso facto cease to be an Elected Member.

(6.) It shall not be competent to any member of the Governing Body other than a member of the first class to resign his office except with the permission of the Governing Body.

(7.) The Governing Body shall be competent to act as such notwithstanding that the number of its members other than the Master shall for the time being be less than twelve.

(8.) For the purposes of the foregoing provisions the following persons and no others shall be deemed to be "resident Fellows," viz.:—

(a.) Every Fellow (subject to his being settled on the list next hereinafter mentioned) who shall for the time being be resident temporary absence excepted within one mile and a half as the crow flies from Great St. Mary's Church and shall have been so resident for eighteen weeks at the least during the year ending on the last preceding thirtieth day of September.

(b.) Every Fellow (subject as last aforesaid) who shall for the time being be in the actual discharge of his duties as Tutor Assistant Tutor Lecturer Bursar or Dean of the College and shall have been so throughout the two last preceding terms.

At the commencement of each academical year and on or before the fifth day of October in that year the Registrary shall prepare and send to each of the Fellows of the College a list (subject to settlement by the Governing Body) of the resident Fellows for the ensuing year and that list shall be submitted for revision and approval to the College Meeting next after that day of which Meeting at least ten days' notice shall be given to all the Fellows; and any Fellow claiming to be a resident Fellow shall be at liberty to attend the Meeting during the settlement of the list for the purpose of stating or maintaining his claim; but he shall not unless a member of the Governing Body be at liberty to vote at or take any other part in the proceedings of the Meeting; moreover, no member of the Governing Body shall be entitled to vote upon his own claim. The list shall be settled with such alterations if any as shall be thought right by the Governing Body at that Meeting and as so settled shall be entered on the Gesta of the Meeting and shall be final and conclusive on all parties. Every such list when finally settled shall remain in force until the corresponding list for the following year shall have been settled; and as long as any such list shall be in force no Fellow whose name is not settled on it shall be deemed for the purposes aforesaid a resident Fellow.

(9.) In the meantime until the first list of resident Fellows shall have been finally settled under the foregoing provisions the Governing Body shall remain and be the same as it would have been under the Statutes which shall have been in force up to the time when these Statutes shall come into operation if those Statutes had remained in full force and these Statutes had not been made.

Proceedings of the Governing Body.

(1.) The Governing Body shall meet from time to time for the transaction of business in the Fellows' Combination Room or some other convenient place within the limits of the College but not elsewhere. A Meeting of the Governing Body shall be called a College Meeting. No business shall be transacted at any such Meeting unless the Master and at least six other members of the Governing Body be present or at least eight such members without the Master. The Master shall preside at each Meeting; failing him the President; and failing the President the senior Fellow present shall be Chairman of the Meeting. Voting shall begin with the junior Fellow present and proceed in the inverse order of precedence. Any Meeting may be adjourned from time to time at the discretion of the Meeting.

(2.) The orders of a College Meeting shall be called College orders. Except as herein otherwise provided all College orders shall require the concurrence of at least six members of the Governing Body including the Master or of eight members without the Master; and no order shall be valid without such concurrence.

(3.) A special vote of the Governing Body shall be a vote passed with the concurrence of the Master and at least seven other members of the Governing Body or of at least nine such members without the Master.

(4.) There shall be at least five ordinary College Meetings in each year which shall be held at such times as shall from time to time be prescribed by the Governing Body for the purposes of the transaction of the ordinary business of the College and of such special business as may come to be dealt with thereat.

(5.) The Master shall cause written notice to be given (so far as practicable) to every member of the Governing Body at least eight days before any such Meeting of all business to be transacted at the same; and no special business of which such notice shall not have been given shall be transacted at any such Meeting. If any matter of ordinary business (other than an election or an appointment which cannot properly be postponed) of which such notice shall not have been given shall be brought forward at any such Meeting it shall be competent for any three of the members of the Governing Body present to defer the decision on the same to the next ordinary College Meeting.

(6.) The Master may summon an extraordinary College Meeting whenever he thinks proper to do so and it shall be his duty to summon one upon the written request specifying the object of the desired Meeting of any three members of the Governing Body; and if the Master when so requested shall refuse or neglect to summon such a Meeting for assembly at a time within fifteen days after such request shall be made then any three members of the Governing Body (whether the requisitionists or others) shall have power themselves to summon the Meeting. At least eight days' written notice specifying the objects of the meeting of every extraordinary College Meeting shall be given to each member of the Governing Body other than the person or persons convening the Meeting and no business not so specified shall be transacted at the Meeting.

General Meetings.

(1.) There shall be held once in every year in Michaelmas term a General Meeting of the Master and all the Fellows.

(2.) The Governing Body shall cause at least two calendar months' written notice of the time and place (within the College) of such Meeting and of the business proposed by them to be transacted at the Meeting to be given to the Master and each Fellow; and in default of such notice the Meeting shall be held on the last Tuesday in October at noon in the Fellows' Combination Room.

(3.) The Chairman of every General Meeting shall be the Master or in his absence the President or if at any General Meeting duly convened and assembled neither the Master nor the President shall be present then some Fellow to be chosen by the Members of the General Meeting then assembled. Voting shall begin with the junior Fellow present and proceed in the inverse order of precedence.

(4.) At each annual General Meeting the matter of the election of Elected Members of the Governing Body shall first be proceeded with; and afterwards it shall (subject as hereinafter provided) be competent to any Fellow or Fellows to make in writing to the Meeting any proposition for the more efficient government of the College or the promotion of its interests with a view to the consideration of such proposition by the Governing Body and to support the same with any observations which he or they may think necessary.

(5.) No such proposition however shall be brought forward at any such Meeting unless at least one calendar month's written notice signed by at least three Fellows of the intention to bring it forward shall have been previously given to the Master. It shall moreover be the duty of the Master forthwith after receiving any such notice to cause it to be communicated in writing to each of the Fellows other than those who shall have signed it. After any such proposition shall have been duly brought forward it shall be competent to the Master or any Fellow or Fellows to propose any amendment or amendments to it; and after such discussion of the same as may take place the proposition and such amendments (if any) as shall have been seconded shall if any person present desire it be then put to the vote in the usual course; but the vote so taken shall be provisional only unless it shall be adverse to any change, in which case it shall be final so far as the result of that Meeting is concerned. If however there shall be at any such Meeting such a provisional vote in favour of any proposition either original or amended the Governing Body shall at the next succeeding ordinary College Meeting take into consideration the proposition so affirmed and shall forthwith thereafter cause to be communicated to each Fellow the result of its deliberations in that respect; and if such result shall not be the adoption by the Governing Body of that proposition in its integrity then the Master shall on a requisition in writing signed by not less than eight of the Fellows and made to him within fourteen days after such communication shall have been made to all the Fellows summon by at least eight days' written notice and for a day not more remote than fifteen days after receipt of the requisition a second General Meeting in the College of the Master and all the Fellows to reconsider the proposition; and if the Master shall refuse or neglect so to do then any eight of the Fellows may at any time within fourteen days after the Master shall have made default in that respect themselves by a like notice summon the Meeting for some day not later than one calendar month after such default.

(6.) At such second General Meeting the proposition (original or amended) affirmed at the first Meeting shall after such discussion of the same as shall then take place be again put to the vote in its integrity and without any alteration or amendment and if it shall be then carried by a majority of at least two-thirds of the persons present at the Meeting when the voting takes place it shall thereupon provided it does not contravene any of the College Statutes, become and be binding on the Governing Body and be conformed to by them accordingly.

(7.) The Governing Body shall have power to summon other General Meetings of the Master and all the Fellows whenever they deem it necessary or expedient so to do. Not less than one calendar month's notice of every such Meeting shall be given to the Master and every Fellow specifying the business for the transaction of which such Meeting is summoned; and the business so specified and no other shall be transacted at such Meeting.

C.—OF THE MASTER.

Qualifications and Duties.

(1.) The Master shall be a graduate of the University of Cambridge or Oxford, and shall at the time of his election have taken the degree of Master of Arts or some equivalent or superior degree.

(2.) The Mastership shall not be tenable with a pension from or any ecclesiastical preferment in the patronage of the College.

(3.) The Master shall be the administrative Governor of the College. He shall enforce obedience to its laws; shall make such orders and regulations in cases not provided for by these Statutes or by College order as the welfare and good government of the College may require; and shall assist with his advice any officer of the College who in the execution of his office may find it necessary to act without the sanction of a College order or regulation.

(4.) It shall be the duty of the Master to attend all College Meetings and also all General Meetings and to preside at those Meetings.

(5.) The Master may if requested by a resolution of the Governing Body supported by the votes of not less than eight other members of the Governing Body give lectures in the College during such period and with such remuneration as may be determined by the resolution.

(6.) The Master shall not be absent from the College for more than one hundred and fifty-three days in each year nor more than one-third of each term except on account of illness or other grave cause which he shall forthwith communicate to the President. In the event of his absence in either case exceeding such period the President shall as speedily as practicable convene a College Meeting and lay the matter before it together with any cause assigned by the Master. If however the President shall fail to convene within a reasonable time such Meeting then any member of the Governing Body may convene the Meeting. The Meeting shall have power either to require the Master to come into residence or to accept as sufficient the cause assigned by him.

(7.) During any temporary absence of the Master from College the President or if he be also absent then the senior Fellow in College shall act as Master so far as regards his functions with respect to the general supervision of the College and the maintenance of good order in it and in such duties as may be required of the locum tenens of the Master by the University.

Election of the Master.

(1.) On any vacancy in the Mastership the late President who shall by virtue of such vacancy have ceased to be President or if he shall not be in College or shall neglect the duty then the senior Fellow in residence and in the event of default by him the next senior Fellow in residence and so on shall forthwith after such vacancy shall have become known to him fix some time which shall be not less than twelve nor more than thirty days after the vacancy shall have so become known and convene accordingly for that time a Meeting in College of all the Fellows to elect a Master and shall give not less than ten days' notice of such Meeting to each of the Fellows. The senior Fellow present shall be Chairman of the Meeting; but if he decline to preside the next in seniority shall be Chairman and so on. No person shall be elected Master unless he obtain the votes of a majority of all the Fellows for the time being of the College and the proceedings in the election shall be as follows, viz.: Each Fellow present at the Meeting shall record the name of the person for whom he votes, by writing the name of that person, with his own signature, on a paper, which paper shall be handed to the Chairman, and by him read aloud to the Meeting after all the votes have been recorded; and if any person shall obtain the requisite majority of votes that person shall be thereby elected Master. If however no person shall upon the first voting obtain such majority of votes the voting shall be repeated once and if necessary twice; and if after a third voting there be no election or if the number of Fellows present shall not be sufficient to elect then the Meeting shall stand adjourned to some other time to be fixed by the Meeting and so from time to time; and if at the end of fourteen days from the first Meeting no person be elected the power of the Fellows to elect shall cease and the Chancellor of the University may by writing under his hand appoint a Master; but if the Chancellor shall not appoint within thirty days from the said first Meeting the right of making such appointment shall devolve on the Visitor.

(2.) The Master elect or designate shall as soon as conveniently may be after his election or appointment make in the College Chapel immediately after Divine service in the presence of the Registry of the College and of at least two Members of the Governing Body the following declaration: "I A.B. do accept the office of Master of Gonville and Caius College and do solemnly promise that I will discharge the duties thereof to the best of my judgment and ability and will uphold the interests of the College as a place of education religion learning and research." On making this declaration he shall become Master of the College. If he wilfully neglect to make it and persist in such neglect for a period of thirty days his election or appointment shall thereupon become void.

(3.) No election of a Master shall be invalid by reason only of the Meeting at which such election shall be made not having been convened by the right person or of any other inadvertent irregularity in the convening of the Meeting.

Removal or Resignation of the Master.

(1.) If the Master be charged before the Visitor by not less than eight other members of the Governing Body with grave neglect of duty or misconduct the Visitor shall inquire into such charge and if he find the same proved may by writing under his hand remove the Master from his office.

(2.) The Master may at any time by notice in writing under his hand to the Governing Body in College Meeting resign his office as Master.

Provision in case of the Master's incapacity.

(1.) If the Master shall at any time become incapable of performing the duties of his office the Visitor on being satisfied thereof shall upon the application of the majority of the Fellows present at a Meeting of the Fellows convened for the purpose of taking the matter into consideration or upon the application of the Master himself have power to appoint one of the Fellows of the standing of Master of Arts or of some equivalent or superior degree to act in the Master's place until the Master shall be reinstated as hereinafter provided and to assign to the person so appointed such portion as he shall think fit not exceeding one-third of the Master's emoluments.

(2.) It shall be incumbent upon the President or failing him upon the senior Fellow in residence to convene the Meeting of the Fellows for the purpose in the foregoing paragraph mentioned upon the request of any three or more of the Fellows and at least fourteen days' notice of such Meeting shall be given to each of the Fellows. If the President or as the case may be senior Fellow in residence shall fail to summon the Meeting for assembly at some time not later than one calendar month after the receipt of such requisition any three or more of the Fellows may themselves convene the Meeting.

(3.) The Fellow who shall be appointed by the Visitor to act in the Master's place shall be called "Vice-Master." He shall retain his office and receive the portion of the Master's emoluments which shall have been assigned to him until the Master shall be reinstated in his office or shall cease to be Master; and so long as he shall continue in office he and he only (to the exclusion of the Master) shall have exercise and perform all the functions and duties and possess all the powers and authorities of the Master (except the power of consenting to any commutation of the Master's emoluments); and he shall be bound to residence in the same manner and be liable to deprivation for the same causes and in like manner as the Master; and throughout these Statutes the term "Master" wherever it shall be made use of shall (except in those instances in which the context forbids such interpretation) be taken to signify either the Master himself or the Vice-Master when there shall be one.

(4.) If the Vice-Master shall die or resign his office or vacate or be deprived of his Fellowship or become incapable of discharging his duties the Visitor shall have the like power upon the like application of appointing another of the Fellows to be Vice-Master in his room and of assigning a salary to such Vice-Master.

(5.) If the Master shall at any time after the appointment of a Vice-Master again become capable of performing his duties the Visitor on being satisfied thereof shall have power by writing under his hand to reinstate him in his office and in receipt of his whole emoluments and thereupon the functions of the Vice-master shall cease and his office as such be vacated.

(6.) If any member of the Governing Body be appointed Vice-Master then so long as he shall be Vice-Master he shall take the Master's place in the Governing Body and shall not be a member of the Governing Body in any other capacity or for the purpose of determining what Fellows shall be members of the Governing Body be deemed to be a Fellow. If at the time when the member appointed Vice-Master shall vacate that office he would but for the foregoing provision be comprised in the first or second of the three classes of members of the Governing Body hereinbefore mentioned he shall immediately upon vacating the office of Vice-Master take his place in the Governing Body and displace the junior member of the second of those classes accordingly. If an Elected Member of the Governing Body be appointed Vice-Master his tenure of office as such Elected Member shall upon his appointment to be Vice-Master cease but he shall be re-eligible at the first vacancy in the Elected Members which shall occur after he shall have vacated the office of Vice-Master.

D.—OF THE FELLOWS.

Election of Fellows.

(1.) The election of Fellows shall take place on such day or days in every year as shall be appointed from time to time by the Governing Body.

(2.) Subject to the provisions in these Statutes contained for the temporary or permanent suppression of Fellowships every vacancy occurring in the Fellowships of the College shall be filled up at the latest within one year from the occurrence of the vacancy unless the Visitor shall for special reasons express his approval in writing of a delay in filling up the vacancy for a further period not exceeding two years.

(3.) The Fellows shall be elected by the Governing Body at a College Meeting and the Governing Body shall choose those persons (being otherwise duly qualified according to these Statutes) whom they shall think to be of the greatest merit and most fit to be Fellows of the College as a place of education religion learning and research.

(4.) The Master shall be always present at the election of a Fellow unless prevented by urgent cause but his absence shall not invalidate any such election.

(5.) Except as hereinafter provided the Fellows shall be chosen from among graduate members of the College or if at any time it be thought fit from among the other graduates of the University of Cambridge or Oxford who have distinguished themselves in the studies of the University or in some department of science, learning or art.

(6.) In the election of a Fellow that person (if any) shall be held to be elected who shall obtain the votes of a majority of the members of the Governing Body present. If at the first voting no person shall obtain such majority there shall be a second and if requisite a third voting. If even at this third voting no one obtain such majority then that person shall be held to be elected who shall obtain at this third voting more votes than any one else; and as between two or more obtaining an equal number of votes that person shall be elected for whom the Master if present or if he be absent the Chairman of the Meeting shall give his casting vote.

(7.) The Governing Body may at any time by a resolution stating the grounds for such election and passed by a special vote fill up any vacancy in the Fellowships by the election of any of the following persons whether he be or be not a graduate of the University of Cambridge or Oxford.

First.—Any Professor or Reader of the University not holding any ecclesiastical preferment out of the precincts of the University.

Secondly.—Any person eminent for science or learning.

If any person elected to a Fellowship under either of the last two provisions shall at the time of such election be the Head or a Fellow of any University or of any College and in receipt of a stipend as such he shall forthwith after his election resign such Headship or Fellowship; and if he do not resign the same within one calendar month from the time of such election his election shall be void.

(8.) Every person elected to a Fellowship shall within thirty days next after his election make in the College Chapel and in the presence of the Master and the Registrar the following declaration: "I A.B. do solemnly promise that I will discharge the duties of a Fellow of Gonville and Caius College to the best of my judgment and ability." On making this declaration he shall become a Fellow of the College.

(9.) If any person elected to a Fellowship shall fail (otherwise than for some reason to be announced to the Governing Body within two calendar months after his election and approved of by them as sufficient at the next ordinary College Meeting after such announcement) to make the last-mentioned declaration within the said period of thirty days his election shall thereupon become void.

(10.) The Governing Body may in any special case in which the interests of the College so require make it at the time of election a condition of the tenure of a Fellowship that the Fellow shall if called upon so to do within one year from the date of his election perform such duties in College for such time as the Governing Body shall require. On any breach of such condition the Fellowship shall become vacant.

(11.) Two of the Fellowships shall be deemed to be and shall be Professorial Fellowships and shall be held according to the terms and conditions prescribed for Professorial Fellowships by the Statutes of the University made under the powers of the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877.

Tenure of Fellowships.

(1.) Every Fellow shall at the expiration of six years from the day when he was elected subject as hereinafter provided vacate his Fellowship; and on the expiration of such period he shall not be re-elected except under section 4 of this Statute or under the provisions next hereinafter contained. An ex-Fellow may be appointed to one of the College Offices enumerated in section 2 of this Statute, and the Governing Body may, if they see fit, re-elect him to a Fellowship while holding such office.

(2.) Any Fellow who shall at the expiration of such period of six years be actually holding the office of Professor Public Orator or Librarian in the University or the office of Tutor Assistant Tutor Lecturer Bursar or Dean in the College shall unless otherwise disqualified by these Statutes and subject as hereinafter provided be at liberty to hold his Fellowship so long as he shall retain any such office.

(3.) Any Fellow who shall throughout fifteen years whether consecutive or not have been actually discharging the duties of some or one of the offices mentioned in the last preceding clause may unless otherwise disqualified by these Statutes and subject as hereinafter provided retain his Fellowship for life.

(4.) Any Fellow may be permitted by a resolution stating the grounds for such permission passed at any General Meeting of the Master and Fellows by a vote in which not less than two-thirds of those present such two-thirds being a majority of the Master and all the Fellows shall concur to retain his Fellowship for life (subject as hereinafter provided) on account of his literary or scientific labours; but not more than two Fellows shall enjoy this privilege at the same time. Every such Fellow shall moreover as soon as possible after such privilege shall have been conferred upon him become and thenceforth continue to be a resident Fellow (within the meaning of that expression as hereinbefore in Stat. 3 defined); and in the event of any default on his part in this respect otherwise than for some cause to be approved as sufficient by a special vote of the Governing Body he shall thereby forfeit his privilege.

(5.) Fellows who are Bachelors of Arts or Bachelors of Law or Bachelors of Surgery shall proceed to the degree of Master of Arts or Master of Law or Master of Surgery; and Fellows who are Bachelors of Medicine and have not graduated in arts or law or surgery shall proceed to the degree of Doctor of Medicine as soon as they are respectively of standing to take such degrees. Every Fellow not so proceeding to his degree in due course unless prevented by some cause to be approved as sufficient by the Governing Body within six calendar months after he shall have made such default shall forfeit his Fellowship at the expiration of such period of six months.

(6.) Every Fellow who shall accept any benefice in the patronage of the College of which the clear annual value (after deducting rates and taxes according to an average of the last preceding seven years and all other necessary outgoings but not deducting retiring pensions of previons incumbents or curate's stipend if any) shall at the time of acceptance be upwards of four hundred pounds shall thereby vacate his Fellowship as from the day upon which the offer of the preferment shall have been made to him.

(7.) A Fellow becoming Master of the College or accepting a Headship or Fellowship of any University or of any College to which a stipend is attached shall thereby vacate his Fellowship.

(8.) Every Fellow elected to a Fellowship other than a Professorial Fellowship on the ground of his being a Professor or Reader of the University shall vacate his Fellowship upon ceasing to hold the Professorship or Readership in respect of which he shall have been so elected.

(9.) Every Fellow elected to one of the two Professorial Fellowships shall hold his Fellowship so long as he holds his Professorship and unless he be otherwise entitled to retain his Fellowship shall vacate the same by vacating his Professorship.

(10.) Every Fellow so elected shall on being admitted to his Fellowship vacate ipso facto any other Fellowship he may hold.

(11.) If a Fellow of the College accept a Professorship to which a Fellowship at another College is attached he shall ipso facto cease to be a Fellow of the College.

(12.) Every Fellow elected to a Fellowship on the ground of his eminence for science or learning shall as soon as possible after his election become and thenceforth continue to be a resident Fellow (within the meaning of that expression as hereinbefore in Statute 3 defined); and in the event of any default on his part in this respect otherwise than from some cause to be approved as sufficient by a special vote of the Governing Body he shall thereby vacate his Fellowship.

(13.) Any Fellow other than the person holding a Professorial Fellowship may signify to the Master in writing his wish to become a Supernumerary Fellow. If the Governing Body consent he shall become a supernumerary Fellow and shall be and remain a Fellow to all intents and purposes and hold his Fellowship for the time and in the manner provided by these Statutes and enjoy all the benefits and advantages of the same save and except that he shall not thenceforth be entitled to any dividend. Such Fellow however shall not count towards making up the number of Fellows required by these Statutes.

Privileges and Duties of Fellows.

(1.) All Fellows shall have seniority and precedence (after the President) according to the times of their respective elections as Fellows.

(2.) It shall be the duty of every Fellow to conform to the laws and regulations of the College; to assist in the College examinations if required to do so by the Governing Body and to promote as far as in him lies the discipline and good government of the College; and if he be a member of the Governing Body it shall be furthermore his duty to attend to the business of the College.

Removal and Punishment of Fellows.

If any Fellow be charged before the Master by three at least of the Fellows with neglect of duty or misconduct the Master shall convene a College Meeting to be held as soon as practicable to inquire into such charge and shall cause to be given to such Fellow not less than thirty days before the time appointed for the Meeting a notice in writing stating the time and place of holding such Meeting and its object and containing a specification of such charge. The Governing Body (excepting the said Fellow if he be a member thereof) shall at the Meeting so convened inquire into the charge without in the first instance hearing the Fellow charged and shall decide whether there be or be not prima facie ground for further investigating the same; and if they decide that there is not such ground the charge shall not be further proceeded with; but if they decide that there is such ground the Master shall thereupon inform the said Fellow of their decision, and the said Fellow may if he think fit then require that the charge be preferred before the Visitor and if he then so require the jurisdiction of the Governing Body in the matter shall cease; and the Visitor shall thereupon inquire into the truth of such charge and if he shall find the same or part thereof proved he may impose upon the said Fellow any one or more of the penalties which the Governing Body are hereinafter in the like case empowered to inflict; but if the Fellow charged do not require the said charge to be so preferred the Governing Body (excepting the said Fellow if he be a member thereof) shall proceed to investigate the charge and to hear the said Fellow thereon if he claim to be heard and they shall decide on the charge. If they decide by a special vote that the charge or part thereof is proved they may adjudge by a like vote that the said Fellow be expelled from the College or be deprived of his Fellowship or be suspended from the emoluments thereof for any time not exceeding three years or be deprived of any office or offices or be censured by the Master or be subjected to any one or more of the said penalties. Such decision and such judgment shall be forthwith recorded and the Registrary shall give a written copy thereof to the said Fellow on his applying for the same at any time not less than three or more than forty days after the delivery of the judgment; and the said Fellow may within one calendar month after receiving such copy appeal to the Visitor against such decision and judgment; and if he so appeal the Visitor shall inquire into the charge and shall confirm reverse or vary such decision and judgment as he shall think fit; but if the Fellow charged do not within such calendar month commence an appeal or do not duly prosecute the same the decision and judgment of the Governing Body shall be final.

E.—OF THE SCHOLARS.

(1.) The Scholars of the College shall subject as hereinafter provided to the controlling direction of the Governing Body be elected by an electing body composed of the Governing Body together with such other Fellows as may have been appointed by the Governing Body to take part in ascertaining the merits of the candidates for Scholarships.

The election shall be conducted in the like manner and shall be governed by the like rules as the ordinary elections to Fellowships by the Governing Body.

(2.) Subject to the provisions hereinafter contained all or such portion as the electing body shall think fit of the vacancies occurring from time to time in the Scholarships shall be filled up annually from among the students of the College or (if the Governing Body think fit) from among students in the University who shall have distinguished themselves in the studies of the College or University or in any examination that may be directed by the Governing Body to take place for the purpose of the election to such Scholarships.

(3.) If and whenever the Governing Body shall so determine preference as they shall prescribe shall be given in adjudging any of the Scholarships of the College to excellence in one or more of the learned or Oriental languages or in any special departments or department of mathematics or physical science or in any branch of science learning or art.

(4.) If at any election to Scholarships the whole number of vacancies be not filled up the electing body shall be at liberty to apply all or any part of the sum representing the emoluments of the Scholarships remaining vacant in donations to students of the College who in the examination shall have acquitted themselves creditably but not sufficiently well to entitle them to Scholarships.

(5.) Each Scholarship shall except as hereinafter provided be tenable until the Scholar holding it shall be of standing to take the degree of Bachelor of Arts; and it shall be lawful for the Governing Body in any case which shall appear to them of special merit to prolong the tenure of any such Scholarship for any period not extending beyond the time when the holder thereof shall be of standing to take the degree of Master of Arts.

(6.) It shall be lawful for the Governing Body from time to time to offer any number of vacant Scholarships for competition upon such terms (subject to the following provisions) as the Governing Body shall think proper amongst persons whose age shall not exceed nineteen years on the day appointed for the commencement of the examination who shall not for the time being have come into residence at the University as members of any College or as unattached members of the University. Each Scholarship so offered (hereinafter called an "Entrance Scholarship") shall be tenable for a time not exceeding two years by the person obtaining it. The maximum value of such "Entrance Scholarships" shall not exceed eighty pounds a year including rent of rooms and all allowances.

(7.) Every person elected to a Scholarship shall if not already a student of the College forthwith procure admission as such and in default thereof he shall forfeit the Scholarship.

(8.) The Governing Body may at any time if they shall see sufficient reason deprive any Scholar either temporarily or permanently of all or any part of his Scholarship or of any of the emoluments or advantages thereof.

(9.) Any Scholar who shall be elected to a Fellowship shall thereupon vacate his Scholarship as at the time from which he shall be entitled to the emoluments of his Fellowship.

F.—OF OTHER MEMBERS OF THE COLLEGE.

Honorary Fellows.

The Master and Fellows may at a General Meeting by a vote in which not less than two-thirds of those present such two-thirds being a majority of the Master and all the Fellows shall concur elect any distinguished person to an Honorary Fellowship. The Master and Fellows may by a like vote terminate the tenure of an Honorary Fellowship. An Honorary Fellow shall not by virtue of such Fellowship possess any voice in the government of or any authority in the College or be entitled to any dividend or right of presentation to any College benefice but he may enjoy such other privileges and advantages as the Governing Body may from time to time determine.

Ex-Fellows.

All ex-Fellows shall have (in addition to such privileges as are by these Statutes given to such of them as are in Holy Orders) such of the privileges and advantages of Fellows other than the right to receive dividends and to possess a voice in the government of or to have authority in the College as the Governing Body shall from time to time determine.

Admission.

In all cases in which no other mode of admission is provided by these Statutes the Master shall be at liberty to admit persons to be members of the College under such rules as shall from time to time be prescribed by the Governing Body.

Persons in Statu Pupillari.

Members of the College in statu pupillari shall pay for their tuition such fees and at such times as the Governing Body shall from time to time determine. They shall moreover show due reverence and obedience to the Master the Fellows and the Officers of the College; they shall conduct themselves in a quiet and orderly manner and shall observe the Statutes and shall conform to all such orders and regulations as may be made by the Master or the Governing Body from time to time for the good government of the College; and if any such member not being a Fellow of the College shall fail to observe and conform to all the Statutes orders and regulations aforesaid or shall be guilty of any conduct subversive of or prejudicial to discipline or good order or tending to bring scandal upon the College he shall be punished by the Governing Body or the Master or the Dean or any Tutor Assistant Tutor or Lecturer; provided always that the penalty of final removal from the College or in the case of a Scholar of temporary or permanent deprivation of his Scholarship or of any of the emoluments or advantages thereof shall be inflicted only by the Governing Body.

G.—OF THE OFFICERS OF THE COLLEGE.

Enumeration.

There shall be in the College a President a Bursar a Dean a Steward a Registry two Auditors a Librarian as many Tutors Assistant Tutors and Lecturers and generally as many officers as the Governing Body shall from time to time decide to be necessary or expedient for conducting the business of the College.

The President.

(1.) One of the members of the Governing Body shall be appointed in writing by the Master to be President of the College. His appointment shall be vacated by a vacancy occurring in the Mastership or by his ceasing to be a member of the Governing Body.

(2.) The functions of the President shall be to act to the extent hereinbefore specified as Master when the Master is absent; and he shall not during term time be absent from College at the same time as the Master except for some grave cause to be approved by the Governing Body.

(3.) The President shall have precedence in the College next after the Master but such precedence shall not confer or affect any claim to any office or benefice.

The Bursar.

The Bursar assisted if the Governing Body shall so determine by a sub-Bursar shall manage the College property under the control and direction of the Governing Body and in accordance with the general rules and special orders by them from time to time made for his direction; and if in the interval between any two College Meetings it be necessary for the Bursar in the management of College property to act in any matter without the sanction of any such rule or order he shall in the first instance communicate with the Master thereon; and the Master shall summon a College Meeting if he consider it desirable to do so or advise the Bursar as to the best mode of acting in the matter.

The Dean.

(1.) The Dean shall be responsible for the performance of Divine Service in the College Chapel and shall preserve a religious and moral discipline among the Students of the College. He shall have power to nominate (subject to the approval of the Governing Body) a fit person or fit persons in Holy Orders to assist in the performance of the Chapel services.

(2.) The Dean shall bona fide reside within the walls of the College and shall not be absent at those times of the year when the Chapel is open for daily service except for some cause to be approved by the Master or in his absence by the President.

The Steward.

The Steward under the control and direction of the Governing Body shall manage the domestic affairs of the College and receive and pay all sums of money which become due in the transactions incident to such management.

The Registry.

The Registry shall give notice of Meetings and shall accurately record all the proceedings of those Meetings and shall discharge such other duties of a Registry as the Governing Body shall from time to time prescribe.

The Auditors.

The Auditors shall audit all the accounts of the College.

Appointment of Officers other than the President Tutors Assistant Tutors and Lecturers.

All officers except the President Tutors Assistant Tutors and Lecturers shall (subject as hereinafter provided) be annually appointed by the Governing Body; but whenever any officer (except as last aforesaid) shall have been appointed to hold and shall have held the same office for three successive years it shall be competent to the Governing Body to continue him in that office for any period not exceeding at any one time three years, and so on from time to time. Every appointment shall be recorded by the Registry.

The Tutors Assistant Tutors and Lecturers.

(1.) There shall be such a number of Tutors Assistant Tutors and Lecturers as the Governing Body shall from time to time determine.

(2.) The Tutors Assistant Tutors and Lecturers shall be appointed by the Master in the first instance subject to the veto of the Governing Body at the first ordinary College Meeting after such appointment. The tenure of office under that appointment shall cease at the College Meeting in the following year corresponding with that at which the appointment might have been so vetoed. Any such officer may however at such corresponding Meeting be re-appointed by the Governing Body and if so re-appointed he shall thenceforth (subject as by these Statutes otherwise provided) retain his office until death resignation or removal. Every appointment and re-appointment shall be recorded by the Registry.

(3.) The Tutors shall maintain a proper discipline among the students of the College and shall with the aid of the Assistant Tutors and Lecturers conduct the education of their pupils in such manner as the Governing Body may from time to time direct.

Residence of Officers and Fellows in College.

(1.) The following obligations shall subsist as to residence in College of College Officers other than the Master and of Fellows; (that is to say) during full term at least the Dean and one Tutor shall reside in College; and during that part of the long vacation in which members of the College in statu pupillari are allowed to reside at least one College Officer or Fellow shall reside in College.

(2.) The Governing Body shall make such provision as may from time to time seem to them expedient for residence of College Officers or Fellows in College during the other vacations.

(3.) The Governing Body shall have the power of requiring any College Officer to reside in College during full term and during such part of the long vacation as they may think necessary for the due maintenance of discipline.

(4.) Every College Officer or Fellow who is fulfilling the duty of residence under this Statute shall sleep in College at least five nights in each week and if he shall be absent on either of the remaining nights he shall have a deputy approved by the Master and such deputy shall sleep in College. Provided always that a house communicating with the College and approved by the Governing Body shall for the purposes of this section be deemed to be within the College.

(5.) No Fellow or Officer of the College shall use rooms in College as a residence for his wife or family unless they have been previously approved by the Governing Body as suitable for the purpose.

Remuneration of Officers.

The Tutors Assistant Tutors and Lecturers shall be paid out of the Tuition Fund in manner hereinafter provided with respect to that fund and all other officers except the President shall receive such stipends as the Governing Body shall from time to time determine.

Removal of Officers.

(1.) The Governing Body shall have power by a special vote at any time to remove from his office any of the College officers except the President.

The President may be removed only on the ground of incapacity neglect of duty or misconduct and in such manner as under the provisions of these Statutes a Fellow may be deprived of his Fellowship.

(2.) No member of the Governing Body shall be present at the voting of that body upon the question of his own removal from any College office.

Retirement and Pensions of Officers.

(1.) When any Officer shall have been engaged for fifteen years whether consecutive or not in the discharge of some or one of the following College offices viz. Tutor Assistant Tutor Lecturer Bursar or Dean he shall at the College Meeting next after the expiration of such period of fifteen years if he shall be then holding the office of Tutor Assistant Tutor or Lecturer vacate every such last-mentioned office then held by him. It shall however be competent to the Governing Body to reappoint him to any such office or offices for a period not exceeding five years at any one time.

(2.) Subject to the provisions hereinafter contained every Fellow who shall have been engaged for at least twenty years whether consecutive or not in the discharge of the duties of some or one of the following offices viz. Tutor Assistant Tutor Lecturer Bursar or Dean shall upon vacating every such office for the time being held by him be entitled to receive out of the income (so far as the same will extend) of the Pension and Endowment Fund hereinafter mentioned an annual pension during the remainder of his life equal in amount to one-fifth of the average yearly value of the emoluments derived by him from such office or offices during his whole period of office together with one hundredth of such value for every complete year during which he shall have actually discharged the duties aforesaid provided such amount do not exceed three hundred pounds or if it do exceed that sum then an annual pension of three hundred pounds.

(3.) It shall moreover be competent to the Governing Body in the case of any Fellow who shall have been engaged for at least fifteen years whether consecutive or not in the discharge of the duties of some or one of the last-mentioned offices to grant to him out of the income (so far as it will extend) of the Pension and Endowment Fund upon his vacating every such office and subject to the provisions hereinafter contained an annual pension during the remainder of his life not exceeding in amount the limits prescribed by the last preceding clause with reference to the pensions there provided for. No such pension however shall be granted by the Governing Body if it would have the effect of making the aggregate of the subsisting pensions in excess of the funds for the time being available for payment of the same.

(4.) If and whenever the funds available for payment of pensions shall from any cause be insufficient for payment of the same in full the pensions shall all abate rateably in proportion to their respective amounts and a pensioner shall not be entitled to have the deficiency in any year made good in any subsequent year.

(5.) Any Fellow who shall vacate his Fellowship shall ipso facto vacate also any pension held by him.

H.—OF TUITION IN THE COLLEGE.

(1.) Adequate instruction shall so far as reasonably practicable be provided or secured for every person in statu pupillari in the subjects of the several University courses and examinations.

(2.) The Master or in his absence the President shall call together at least once a term the Tutors Assistant Tutors and Lecturers to consult with him upon the instruction given in the College and to arrange in each term the course of Lectures to be given in the College in the succeeding term or terms and to consider what arrangements may be required for the instruction of members in statu pupillari in subjects for which provision is not made by College Lecturers.

I.—OF DIVINE WORSHIP AND RELIGIOUS INSTRUCTION,

Having regard to the provisions of section 6* of "The Universities Tests Act 1871" the Governing Body may make such regulations as they shall deem expedient for the celebration of Divine Service in the College Chapel according to the Liturgy of the Church of England and for requiring or dispensing with attendance on the same, and may vary such regulations from time to time; and having regard to the provisions of section 5† of the said Act the Governing Body may if they think fit provide stipends from the revenues of the College for persons who may be appointed to carry out the said provision.

K.—OF PRESENTATION TO BENEFICES.

(1.) Except as hereinafter mentioned every Fellow who shall have taken Holy Orders not later than five years after having taken his first degree shall be placed in order of priority according to the time of his election as Fellow upon a list to be called the Rota for Ecclesiastical Preferment and he shall (subject as hereinafter provided) remain upon such Rota whether he continue so long a Fellow or not until he shall have had the offer of some benefice in the patronage of the College of such a value that the acceptance of it by a Fellow would under the foregoing provisions of these Statutes cause him to vacate his Fellowship.

* § 6. The Morning and Evening Prayer according to the Order of the Book of Common Prayer shall continue to be used daily as heretofore in the chapel of every college subsisting at the time of the passing of this Act in any of the said universities; but notwithstanding anything contained in the statute thirteenth and fourteenth Charles the Second chapter four or in this Act it shall be lawful for the visitor of any such college on the request of the governing body thereof to authorise from time to time in writing the use on week days only of any abridgement or adaptation of the said Morning and Evening Prayer in the chapel of such college instead of the Order set forth in the Book of Common Prayer.

† § 5. The governing body of every college subsisting at the time of the passing of this Act in any of the said universities shall provide sufficient religious instruction for all members thereof in statu pupillari belonging to the Established Church.

(2.) Any Fellow upon the Rota who shall be deprived of his Fellowship shall be thereupon immediately removed from the Rota.

(3.) When any benefice in the patronage of the College shall become vacant it shall (subject as hereinafter provided) be offered in the first place to those Fellows successively according to their seniority as Fellows who being in full Holy Orders shall be of more than six years' standing as Fellows; and in the second place to such person or persons whether members of the College or not as the Governing body shall think fit preference however being given so far as reasonably practicable (unless the Governing Body shall consider it inexpedient to do so) to the Fellows and ex-Fellows upon the Rota for Ecclesiastical Preferment in succession according to their priority upon such Rota.

The Governing Body, however, shall have absolute and uncontrolled discretion and power without assigning any cause to pass over any person or persons who would otherwise under the foregoing provisions have a claim to such offer and to offer the benefice to another person in accordance with the aforesaid provisions.

(4.) If the person to whom any benefice shall have been offered shall not accept it within such reasonable time as shall be fixed by the Governing Body for such acceptance he shall be deemed to have refused it and it shall be offered to another person in accordance with the aforesaid provisions.

(5.) No person elected to a Fellowship on the ground of his being a Professor or Reader of the University or of his eminence for science or learning shall by reason thereof have any right to the offer of or any interest in any benefice in the patronage of the College.

L.—OF THE COLLECTION, &c., OF CAUTION MONEY AND MONEYS PAYABLE BY MEMBERS OF THE COLLEGE.

(1.) All Caution Money and also all moneys due to the College from any of its Members shall (save where otherwise provided for by these Statutes) be received and collected by some officer or officers appointed by the Governing Body to receive the same.

(2.) All Caution Money shall be placed to the credit of the Fund hereinafter mentioned called "The Caution Fund."

(3.) All other moneys to be received on behalf of the College shall so soon as reasonably practicable after the receipt of the same be placed to the credit of the accounts to which they ought respectively to be carried.

M.—OF CONTRIBUTIONS FOR UNIVERSITY PURPOSES.

The College shall pay annually to the University the sum authorised by the Statutes of the University made under the powers of the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act 1877 to be levied from the College.

N.—OF THE ACCOUNTS OF THE COLLEGE.

Audit.

Every officer of the College who shall receive or pay any money on its behalf shall keep accurate accounts in such form and shall make them up and deliver them to the Auditors for audit on such days as the Governing Body shall from time to time direct. The accounts shall be thereupon forthwith examined and certified by the Auditors and shall then be examined by the Master and lastly shall be submitted to the Governing Body and if found to be correct shall be passed by them and shall thereupon be signed by the Master on their behalf; and no officer shall be deemed to have rendered a just account to the College until his accounts shall have been so passed.

Every year the clear annual balance up to a day to be fixed by the Governing Body shall be ascertained and as soon as conveniently may be thereafter an account shall be taken of all receipts and disbursements. Such accounts shall be certified by the Auditors and submitted to the Master and Fellows at a General Meeting.

Annual Statement of Accounts by the Bursar.

The Bursar shall make or cause to be made as soon after the conclusion of the general audit in each year as he conveniently can a statement of all rents and profits and moneys of all kinds whatsoever received by him as Bursar during the year immediately preceding and also a statement of all payments and expenses made and incurred by him as Bursar during the same year; but in making or causing to be made such statements the Bursar shall not be required to give a separate entry and description of every particular sum of money received or paid by him but only an abstract of the receipts payments and expenses so made and incurred as aforesaid arranged in such manner as the Governing Body may deem requisite and sufficient. It shall be the duty of the Bursar on the application of any Fellow to submit for his inspection the full account of the receipts payments and expenses of the College for any year.

An abstract of the several accounts of the College relating to funds administered either for general purposes or in trust or otherwise shall be sent on or before the thirty-first day of December in every year to the Vice-Chancellor of the University for publication. The abstract shall be made as nearly as practicable in the form contained in the Schedule attached to these Statutes.

The accounts of receipts and expenditure of moneys (if any) raised under the borrowing powers of the College shall be sent annually at the same time to the Vice-Chancellor of the University for publication.

O.—OF THE ADMINISTRATION OF THE PROPERTY OF THE COLLEGE.

The Elie Perse Davy and Shuttleworth Trusts.

(1.) The Perse Trust shall continue to subsist as heretofore as a separate trust and shall remain under the same management as heretofore; and the Perse Trustees shall continue to pay annually to the College all sums payable by them to it under existing Statutes or otherwise.

(2.) Separate accounts shall be kept of the properties belonging to the Elie Davy and Shuttleworth Trusts respectively.

Special Payments and Allowances.

(1.) The Governing Body may from time to time make such payments as they shall think fit out of the College income to the College Building Fund to the Reserve Fund to the Pension and Endowment Fund and to the Tuition Fund.

(2.) The Governing body may from time to time pay such reasonable donations and subscriptions as they may see fit, in connexion with places in which the College has property, or for the furtherance of any literary or scientific purpose.

(3.) The Master shall receive out of the College income by way of allowance in addition to all his other emoluments the annual sum of one hundred pounds; and the President shall receive out of such income in addition to his emoluments as Fellow an annual allowance of fifty pounds for the discharge of the duties of his office.

(4.) The expense of the Fellows' dinner in the College Hall shall be paid out of the College income and the Governing Body shall apply for that purpose such sums as they shall from time to time think fit.

Application and Distribution of Property and Income.

All the College property (including the payments made to it by the Perse Trustees) except the properties belonging to the Elie Trust the Davy Trust and the Shuttleworth Trust shall be treated as consolidated and the several accounts hereinafter mentioned shall be kept in relation to the same. The net income arising therefrom shall be dealt with and applied in manner hereinafter prescribed. The several accounts lastly hereinbefore referred to shall be the following that is to say:—

Account No. I.—The College Account.

This account shall be an account of the income (including the receipts from the Perse Trustees) of all property of the College except that belonging to the Elie Trust the Davy Trust the Shuttleworth Trust the College Building Fund the Pension and Endowment Fund and the Caution Fund.

Every year so soon as the accounts of the College shall have been made up, audited and passed the clear balance for the year of such income after discharging or providing for all outgoings (including payments to special College Funds) shall be ascertained and shall be applied in the first place in paying to all Fellows and Scholars whose interests are preserved by Statute 47 the amounts to which they shall be entitled respectively under that Statute and subject thereto in paying to the University the amount which the College shall be liable to pay for the year under Statute 36, and the residue of the said balance after making the payments aforesaid shall (subject to the provisions hereinafter contained with respect to the increase or diminution temporary or otherwise in the numbers of the Fellows or Scholars and subject also as by these Statutes otherwise provided) be applied in making the following payments, viz:—

To the Master	800
To each of the twenty-two Fellows	250
To each of the eight Senior Fellows in addition	50
Provided that no such additional payment shall be made to any Fellow whose interests are not wholly governed by these Statutes.
To each of six Scholars	60
To each of six other Scholars	40
To each of six other Scholars	30
To each of six other Scholars	20

And five hundred and twenty pounds shall be paid to the credit of a Fund to be called the "Scholarship Fund" to be dealt with as hereinafter provided with respect to that Fund.

If the aforesaid residue shall not be sufficient to make the several payments to the Master Fellows Scholars and Scholarship Fund last hereinbefore directed in full then such residue shall be applied towards making such payments rateably in proportion to the respective amounts thereof.

If the aforesaid residue shall be more than sufficient to make the last-mentioned payments in full the excess shall be applied in the first place rateably in or towards making good to the persons who shall be the Master Fellows and Scholars upon the day on which the accounts are closed for the audit all deficiencies which may have occurred in the payments which ought to have been made to them respectively in any of the last preceding six years' deficiencies in earlier years to be made good in preference to deficiencies in later years; and the ultimate surplus of such residue shall be carried to the credit of the Pension and Endowment Fund.

(2.) If moreover at any time or times the residue above-mentioned shall from any cause not be sufficient to make the aforesaid payments in full then the Governing Body may so long as that state of things shall continue and subject as hereinafter provided leave unfilled any Fellowship or Fellowships which shall become vacant and during the period during which any such Fellowship or Fellowships shall be so kept vacant there shall be a corresponding diminution in the aforesaid number of twenty-two Fellows: Provided however that the Governing Body shall not be at liberty to keep vacant by virtue of the foregoing provision any greater number of Fellowships than it shall be necessary to keep vacant in order to make the aforesaid payments in full for the time being without making good any previous deficiency.

(3.) If any person shall have been Master Fellow or Scholar for a part only of the year ending on the day on which the accounts are closed for the audit he shall be entitled only to one-fourth part of a dividend for each quarter of a year or part of a quarter greater than one-half during which he shall have been Master Fellow or Scholar. And if by reason of any unfilled vacancy of the Mastership or of any Fellowship or Scholarship there be in any year left money to which no person has a claim all such money shall be carried to the credit of the Pension and Endowment Fund.

Account No. II.—The Reserve Fund.

This Fund shall consist of thirty-five thousand pounds Bank Annuities. The dividends accruing from this stock or from so much of it as may at that time be standing in the Reserve Fund account shall be carried to the College account (No. 1), and be added to that year's income. It shall be lawful to use any portion or portions of this Stock for the improvement of the College estates from time to time by inclosing building draining or otherwise; or purchasing of land-tax rent-charges or other encumbrances to which such estates or any of them shall be subject; or to meet any large or unusual outlay which in the judgment of the Governing Body it may be necessary or expedient to make. Provided that whenever any amount of stock be sold for any of the above purposes one-thirtieth part of it shall be replaced at the next audit and one-thirtieth part at each succeeding audit by payment from the annual income of the College Account (No. I.) of such a sum of money as will purchase the requisite amount of stock, and so on until the whole amount borrowed be replaced.

Account No. III.—The College Building Fund.

This Fund shall consist of the present College Building Fund and of such annual or other payments as shall from time to time be made to it by the Governing Body out of the income of the College Account (No. I.). The Fund shall be used for the purpose of erecting new buildings or rebuilding enlarging or improving any buildings in or in connection with the College and it may be resorted to and applied in exoneration or aid of the income of the College Account (No. I.) in or towards making good to the Reserve Fund anything taken from that Fund and applied to any of the purposes for which the Building Fund may be used or in or towards the repayment of any moneys borrowed from any source for any of such purposes. And all moneys forming part of this Fund and not applied for any of the aforesaid purposes shall be invested upon Government or real securities of or in the United Kingdom and all income arising therefrom not so applied shall be invested in like manner and accumulated in augmentation of the Fund.

Account No. IV.—The Pension and Endowment Fund.

(1.) This Fund shall consist of all sums which shall be due to or standing to the credit of the Endowment Fund at the time these statutes shall come into operation; and of all moneys subsequently paid to its credit as directed by these Statutes and of such portions of its income as may in any year have not been applied to any of the several purposes hereinafter defined as proper objects of expenditure.

(2.) The income of the Fund shall be used in the first place in or towards payment so far as the same will extend of such pensions to College officers as shall for the time being be payable under the provisions relating to pensions hereinbefore contained; and if and whenever the income of this Fund shall be more than sufficient to provide for such pensions the Governing Body may apply the excess or any part of it in aid of the income of the College Account No. I. in or towards making the payments hereinbefore directed or in endowing any new Fellowships or Scholarships or providing stipends for Teachers or encouraging research in special departments of literature or science or for any such like purpose.

(3.) All income of the Fund not applied in manner aforesaid shall subject as hereinafter provided be accumulated in augmentation of the capital of the Fund and be invested accordingly; but if in any year in which the income of the Fund shall be more than sufficient to provide for existing pensions the aggregate of those pensions shall in the opinion of the Governing Body be below the average the Governing Body may subject as hereinafter provided set aside the excess or any part of it and reserve and afterwards use the same for making good any deficiencies in any succeeding year or years.

(4.) All moneys constituting the corpus of this Fund shall be invested upon Government or real securities of or in the United Kingdom or if the Governing Body shall think fit in building or improving houses upon any land belonging to the College or in purchasing the surrender to the College of any beneficial leases of land which shall have been granted by the College or their predecessors in title. In the case of every such investment other than in Government or real securities of or in the United Kingdom such proportion as the Governing Body shall think fit of the income derived by the College from any house so built or improved or from land the lease of which shall be so surrendered and as regards any such land as aforesaid during such period as the Governing Body shall think proper shall be carried to the credit of the Pension and Endowment Fund as income of that Fund in respect of such investment and be treated and dealt with accordingly.

Account No. V.—The Tuition Fund.

(1.) The Tuition Fund shall consist of—

- (a.) The tuition fees paid by members of the College in statu pupillari.
- (b.) The fees paid by persons not members of the College for attendance at Lectures delivered by the Tutors Assistant Tutors or Lecturers of the College.

(c.) Such sums (if any) as shall under the direction of the Governing Body be from time to time paid to the Tuition Fund out of any College moneys which they are authorised to apply in that manner.

(2.) The Tuition Fund shall be used in payment of the necessary expenses of the Lecture Rooms and in such proportions as the Governing Body may from time to time determine of the stipends of the Tutors Assistant Tutors and Lecturers; and it may also be used in payment for Lecturers given to members of the College by Lecturers other than the College Lecturers.

Account No. VI.—The Scholarship Fund.

This Fund shall consist of all moneys which shall in conformity with the provisions of these Statutes be paid to the credit of the Fund and it shall be applied as the Governing Body shall from time to time think proper in payment of additional Scholarships or in the increase of the emoluments of any Scholars or by way of donations to deserving students as hereinbefore provided in Statute 14. If in any year any part of the Scholarship Fund shall remain unapplied after satisfying all the purposes aforesaid to which the Governing Body shall think proper to apply any part of that Fund the unapplied part shall be carried to the credit of the Pension and Endowment Fund.

Account No. VII.—The Caution Fund.

This Fund shall consist of the Caution Money and shall be invested and managed and the income thereof applied as the Governing Body shall from time to time direct. The account of this Fund shall be kept by an officer appointed for the purpose and shall be annually audited with the other College accounts.

P.—MISCELLANEOUS.

The Common Seal and Muniments of the College.

The Common Seal and the Letters Patent and other muniments of the College shall be kept in a secure place fastened with three locks the keys of which shall be severally kept by the Master and two key-keepers to be appointed by the Governing Body. If any of those persons leave the College he shall deposit his key with some Fellow of the College but no person shall have two of the three keys in his keeping at the same time.

Provision in case of Change in the Value of Money.

No alteration in the specific sums mentioned in these Statutes shall be made in consequence of any change in the value of money or for any other reason, except by Statute made in accordance with the provisions of the fifty-fourth and fifty-fifth sections of the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act 1877.

Provision for increasing the Number of Fellowships and Scholarships.

If at any time it shall appear to the Governing Body that the income of the College is permanently more than sufficient to make in full the payments hereinbefore directed to be made out of the income of the College Account No. I. they may (subject as hereinafter provided) increase the number of Fellows (either permanently or temporarily) or retain such part as they may think fit of the excess and apply the same either in increasing the number or emoluments of the Scholarships of the College or for such other College purposes as may be considered most advantageous to the College as a place of education religion learning and research. Provided that no increase of Fellowships shall be effected which will have the effect of rendering the income of the College insufficient to make the said payments in full; and if moreover after any such increase shall have been made it shall appear that the increase cannot be maintained consistently with the said payments being made in full then such a number of the new Fellowships shall from time to time as vacancies in them shall occur be suppressed as will suffice to render so far as practicable the income sufficient to make such payments in full.

Giving of Notice.

(1.) In all cases in which by these Statutes notice is required to be given to the Master it shall be sufficient that the notice be left at the Master's Lodge.

(2.) Every Fellow shall upon or immediately after becoming a Fellow and may from time to time afterwards leave with such officer as the Governing Body shall appoint a place of address to which all notices intended for him are to be sent; and in all cases in which by these Statutes notice is required to be given to any Fellow it shall be sufficient that the notice be sent by post or otherwise to the last address so left by him. A list of the places of address so left by the several Fellows shall be kept in such place as the Governing Body shall appoint and shall be open to the inspection at all reasonable times of the Master and of any Fellow. Any Fellow who shall not have left with the proper officer a place of address shall notwithstanding any of the provisions hereinbefore contained with respect to notice not be entitled to any notice whatever of any proceeding matter or thing whatsoever even although it may specially affect him individually.

Construction of the Statutes.

If any question shall arise in regard to the construction of any of these Statutes it shall be decided by the Governing Body. But it shall be competent to any party affected by such decision to appeal to the Visitor provided he appeal within two calendar months or within such period not less than two calendar months as shall be allowed by the Governing Body for the purpose after the decision shall have come to his knowledge; but failing an appeal within the time allowed for the purpose the decision of the Governing Body shall be final. The Visitor if appealed to within due time may affirm vary or reverse the decision of the Governing Body and his decision shall be final.

Preservation of Existing Interests.

(1.) The interests and conditions of tenure of emoluments of any Fellow or Scholar elected before the fourteenth day of March 1878 shall be regulated by the Statutes by which the same would have been regulated if these Statutes had not come into operation and with respect to all such Fellows as are not already Seniors elections to the Seniority shall continue to be made in the manner in which they would have been made if these Statutes had not come under operation: Provided always that if any Fellow elected before the fourteenth day of March 1878 shall desire to come under the operation of the present Statutes it shall be lawful for him to signify his election to do so to the Governing Body by writing under his hand and thereupon his interests and the conditions of tenure of his emoluments shall be thenceforth governed by these present Statutes accordingly; provided he signify that election within twelve calendar months after these Statutes shall have come into operation.

(2.) Provided that any such Fellow may signify to the Governing Body within one year after these Statutes shall have come into operation by writing under his hand that he wishes to be placed under the operation of these Statutes; and thereupon his interests and the condition of tenure of his emoluments shall be thenceforth governed by these Statutes and shall accordingly be the same as if these Statutes had been in operation at the date of his election or appointment to such emolument.

Provided also that if any Fellow placing himself under these Statutes shall before placing himself under the operation of these Statutes have held any College or University office which under these Statutes confers any privilege as to tenure pension or otherwise the time during which he shall have held the same shall for the purpose of determining his rights in respect of any such privilege be counted as if he had held such office under these Statutes.

Provided also that the past services of any Fellow placing himself under these Statutes who shall have bona fide performed duties equivalent to those of any such office as aforesaid although not at the time holding such office shall count as if they had been services in such office under these Statutes.

Provided also that any Fellow who at the time of placing himself under these Statutes shall hold any office which under these Statutes entitles the holder to retain his Fellowship notwithstanding lapse of time shall not so long as he continues to hold any such office vacate his Fellowship on the ground that he would at some former time have vacated his Fellowship by lapse of time if these Statutes had been then in operation.

(3.) Until the number of Fellows shall by the occurrence of vacancies have been reduced to the number of twenty-two fixed by Statute 1 the number of Fellows may exceed twenty-two, and for the purpose of reducing the number of Fellows from the existing numbers to twenty-two the Governing Body shall from time to time until that reduction shall have been made suppress any of the Fellowships other than Professorial Fellowships which shall become vacant when and as they shall in their uncontrolled discretion think proper having a due regard to the income of the College and its requirements as a place of education religion learning and research and any Fellowship so suppressed shall not be deemed to be vacant within the meaning of the Statutes of the University for Professorial Fellowships.

Repeal of previously existing Statutes.

From and after the approval of this Statute by Order of the Queen in Council none of the Statutes of the College which existed and were in force before the passing of the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act 1877 shall be of any force and effect save and except in so far as such former Statutes or any of them relate to the interests and conditions of tenure of emoluments of the Fellows and Scholars of the College elected before the fourteenth day of March 1878 but the repeal of such former Statutes shall not be taken to revive the provisions of any previously existing Statutes of the College which were repealed by the said former Statutes.

Temporary Provision.

All provisions in these Statutes shall with respect to every Fellow elected on or after the fourteenth day of March 1878; and before the sixth day of October 1880, be read as if the period of seven years from the day when he was elected were mentioned in Statute 11, in lieu of the period of six years from that day.

PRÆFATIO DOMINI FUNDATORIS.

Ad perpetuam rei memoriam. Cum nos, Henricus Dux Lancastriæ Aldermannus et Confratres Gildæ Corporis Christi et Beatæ Mariæ in Canteburgia, ob specialem devotionem et recordationem quam habemus in institutione divinissimi Sacramenti Corporis et Sanguinis Domini, ab Excellentissimo Principe Edwardo, Dei gratia Angliæ et Franciæ Rege, licentiam impetravimus, quod in quodam messuagio nostro cum pertinentiis in Canteburgia prædicta Eliensis Dioceseos, ubi vigere dinoscitur studium generale, quandam Domum sive Collegium Sociorum, Scholarium, et aliorum, sub nomine Domus sive Collegii Corporis Christi et Beatæ Mariæ, per quendam Magistrum ejusdem Domus regendam, juxta ordinationem nostram infra scriptam, instituere et fundare possimus;—Nos igitur Aldermannus et Confratres antedicti, cum consilio proborum et doctorum virorum de provida et pia gubernatione dictæ domus, cupientes recte et salubriter ad Dei gloriam et divini cultus augmentum providere, sic statuendum et ordinandum duximus.

We, the University of Cambridge Commissioners, appointed for the purposes of the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877, by virtue of the said Act and subject and according to the provisions thereof, do make the following Statutes for the College of Corpus Christi and of the Blessed Mary in the University of Cambridge, and do declare them to be Statutes wholly for the said College within the meaning of section 30 of the said Act.

1. The Foundation.

There shall be in the College a Master or Keeper, twelve Fellows, two Bible Clerks, and six Scholars.

The number of Fellows, Bible Clerks, and Scholars may be increased by the Master and Fellows at their discretion, with the consent of the Visitor, as the interests of the College and the state of its revenues may seem to require.

2. Qualifications of the Master.

The Master shall be of good life and conversation, and a Master of Arts or of some equal or superior degree in the University of Cambridge or Oxford.

3. Election of the Master.

When the office of Master becomes vacant, the senior Fellow resident in College shall, within three days after the vacancy is made known to him, call together all the resident Fellows and in their presence appoint a day and hour for the election of a new Master, not less than thirteen days nor more than thirty days after such meeting. He shall also without delay send notice of the day and hour appointed to all the absent Fellows.

If the senior resident Fellow fails to call together the resident Fellows within the said three days, the Fellow next senior to him, then present in College, may appoint a day and hour for the election in like manner. At least a majority of the Fellows then existing shall be present at the election.

At the time appointed for the election, the grace of the Holy Spirit being first invoked, the senior Fellow present shall exhort the Fellows to choose the person whom they severally think most fit for the office of Master, and shall then stand in scrutiny with the Fellow next to him in seniority.

They shall first write their own votes, and then receive the votes in writing of the other Fellows. The person for whom a majority of the Fellows present, or half of the Fellows including the senior Fellow present, has voted, shall be declared to be elected.

If in a first or second or third scrutiny there be no person for whom a majority, or at least one-half of the Fellows present, including the senior Fellow present, has voted, the appointment of a Master for that turn shall be made by the Chancellor, or, in his absence, by the Vice-Chancellor of the University, from among the persons for whom any vote has been given.

The Master elected or appointed shall make the following declaration in the presence of the Fellows:—

“Profiteor quod officium Magistri sive Custodis pro tempore gubernationis meae fideliter praestabo. Statuta, Ordinationes et Consuetudines laudabiles hujus Collegii, quantum in me est, salva observabo, eademque Statuta diligenter et fideliter exequar, et ab aliis, quantum in me est, observari procurabo. Bona et possessiones dicti Collegii fideliter custodiam, custodiri que faciam. Ita do fidem.”

After which declaration made, the senior Fellow present shall admit him with the following form of words:—“Auctoritate mihi commissa admitto te Magistrum hujus Collegii in nomine Patris et Filii et Spiritus Sancti. Amen.”

4. Office of Master.

The Master shall preside over and govern the Fellows and all other members of the College, and see that they severally perform their duties.

He shall in person or by deputy, together with the Bursar, visit the College lands and buildings in every third year, and provide that they be kept in due repair and order.

He shall not let on hire any College lands or buildings without the consent of a majority of the Fellows; nor shall any goods or property of the College be sold, exchanged, or alienated without the consent of the Master or his deputy and of a majority of the Fellows then existing.

He shall take care that all leases and other deeds under seal relating to the College property be copied into a register provided for the purpose.

When the Master is absent or temporarily unable to act, he may appoint by writing under his hand one of the Fellows to act as his deputy.

5. Deprivation of the Master.

If the Master shall have been convicted by a Court of competent jurisdiction of any crime, the Visitor may, if he think fit, proceed to inquire into the fact of such conviction, and, if it be established, may deprive the Master of his office.

If any five or more of the Fellows shall prefer to the Visitor a charge against the Master of disgraceful conduct, or of malversation in his office, or of gross neglect of duty, whereby he has in their judgment become unfit to preside over the College, the Visitor shall, with all convenient speed, proceed to inquire into the facts of the case, and, if the charge be established, may deprive the Master of his office.

6. Appointment of Vice-Master in case of the incapacity of the Master.

If the Master shall at any time become incapable of performing the duties of his office, the Visitor, on being satisfied thereof, shall, upon the application of a majority of the Fellows present at a meeting convened for the purpose of taking the matter into consideration, such majority consisting of at least a moiety of the whole number of Fellows then existing, or upon the application of the Master himself, have power to appoint one of the Fellows to act in the Master's place during his incapacity, and to assign to the person so appointed such portion as the Visitor shall think fit, not exceeding one-third of the income assigned to the Mastership.

It shall be incumbent upon the senior Fellow in residence to convene the meeting of Fellows for the purpose, in the foregoing paragraph mentioned upon the request of any three or more of the Fellows who are Members of the Senate, and to cause a notice of such meeting to be sent to each of the Fellows.

The Fellow appointed by the Visitor to act in the Master's place shall be called Vice-Master. He shall retain his office, and receive the portion of the Master's income assigned to him, until the Master shall be reinstated in his functions and powers, or shall cease to be Master. He shall perform all the functions and duties and shall have all the powers and authorities of the Master, except the power of consenting to any commutation of the Master's emoluments, and shall be bound to residence in the same manner, and be liable to deprivation for the same causes and in like manner as the Master.

If the Vice-Master shall die or resign his office, or vacate his Fellowship, or become incapable of discharging his duties, the Visitor shall have the like power, upon the like application, of appointing another of the Fellows to be Vice-Master in his room, and of assigning an income to such Vice-Master.

If the Master shall at any time after the appointment of a Vice-Master again become capable of performing his duties, the Visitor, on being satisfied thereof, shall have power to reinstate him in his functions and powers and in receipt of his whole emoluments.

7. Qualification of the Fellows.

In the election of Fellows those persons shall be chosen who are in the opinion of the electors most fit to be Fellows of the College as a place of education, religion, learning, and research.

They shall have been admitted to some degree in the University of Cambridge or Oxford.

8. Election and admission of Fellows.

The election of a Fellow shall always be made in Term time, and the Master shall give not less than fourteen days' notice to all the Fellows, whether present in College or absent, of the time appointed for the purpose.

At the time appointed the Master and the Senior Fellow present shall stand in scrutiny. They shall first write their own votes and then receive the votes in writing of the other Fellows.

The person for whom a majority of the Master and Fellows present, or half of those present including the Master, has voted, shall be declared to be elected.

If in a first or second or third scrutiny there be no person for whom a majority of the Master and Fellows present, or at least one-half including the Master, has voted, the appointment of a Fellow for that turn shall be made by the Master from among the persons for whom any vote has been given.

No election of a Fellow shall be made unless the Master and one-half at least of the Fellows then existing be present.

The Fellow elected or appointed shall make the following declaration:—

“Profiteor quod observabo omnia Statuta et laudabiles Consuetudines Collegii nostri, quamdiu in eo versatus fuerim; et quod Magistro sive Custodi hujus Collegii obediens ero in omnibus licitis et honestis; et quod Collegii honorem et utilitatem, quantum in me est, meo consilio et auxilio juvabo. Ita do fidem.”

After which declaration made he shall be admitted by the Master or by one of the Fellows named by the Master with the following words:—

“Auctoritate mihi commissa admitto te Socium hujus Collegii in nomine Patris et Filii et Spiritus Sancti. Amen.”

The Master and Fellows may, in any special case in which the interests of the College so require, make it a condition of the tenure of a Fellowship at the time of election that the Fellow shall, if called upon to do so within one year from the date of his election, accept any specified office in the College, and hold it for such time as the Master and Fellows may require. On any breach of such condition the Fellowship shall become vacant.

Every vacant Fellowship, other than the Professorial Fellowship, shall be filled within one year from the date of vacancy, unless the Visitor for special reasons shall express his approval in writing of a delay in filling up the vacancy for an additional period not exceeding two years.

9. Election of Eminent Men as Fellows.

The Master and Fellows may at any time by a vote, in which not less than two-thirds of the votes of the whole body shall concur, the Master's vote being reckoned as two, elect to a Fellowship any person who is eminent for science or learning, whether or not a Graduate of Cambridge or Oxford, provided that not more than one Fellowship be held under the provisions of this Statute at the same time.

10. Professorial Fellowship.

One of the Fellowships shall be deemed to be and shall be a Professorial Fellowship, and shall be held according to the terms and conditions prescribed by the Statutes of the University for Professorial Fellowships made under the powers of the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877.

11. Supernumerary Fellows.

Any Fellow, other than the holder of the Professorial Fellowship, may signify to the Master in writing his wish to become a Supernumerary Fellow. If the Master and Fellows consent he shall become a Supernumerary Fellow, and shall be and remain a Fellow to all intents and purposes, and hold his Fellowship for the time and in the manner provided by these Statutes, and enjoy all the benefits of the same, save and except that he shall not be entitled to any dividend.

Such Fellow, however, shall not count towards making up the minimum number of Fellows required by these Statutes, but a new Fellow shall be elected within one year after the consent given as aforesaid.

12. Honorary Fellows.

The Master and Fellows may by the votes of at least two-thirds of those present at a meeting called for the purpose, of which not less than fourteen days' notice shall have been sent to all the Fellows, elect any person, whom they may consider it desirable so to distinguish, to be an Honorary Fellow of the College. They may by a like vote terminate the tenure of an Honorary Fellowship.

No Honorary Fellow shall have any voice or authority in the affairs of the College, or be entitled by virtue of his Fellowship to any dividend or right of presentation to any benefice; but he shall enjoy such other privileges and advantages as the Master and Fellows may from time to time determine.

13. Suspension and Deprivation of Fellows.

If any Fellow shall wilfully violate or neglect to comply with any of the Statutes of the College it shall be the duty of the Master and Fellows at a College Meeting, on proof of such misconduct, to admonish such Fellow; and if, notwithstanding such admonition, he shall contumaciously persist in such misconduct, the Master shall, if two-thirds at least of the Master and Fellows, other than the Fellow whose conduct is impugned, present at a College Meeting called to consider the question, to which all the Fellows shall have been summoned, concur in such sentence, suspend such Fellow from the enjoyment of his Fellowship for such time as they shall think fit, or deprive him altogether of his Fellowship.

If any Fellow shall be convicted by a court of competent jurisdiction of any crime, the Master shall with all convenient speed summon a meeting of all the Fellows exclusive of such Fellow. The Master and Fellows assembled at such meeting may, if they think fit, proceed to investigate the case; and if the fact of such conviction be established, the Master shall, if the majority of those present so determine, deprive such Fellow of his Fellowship and expel him from the College.

If the Master shall in any case think it proper to cause an inquiry to be instituted as to whether or not the conduct of any Fellow has been disgraceful and such as to render him unfit to be a Fellow of the College, or if any two Fellows shall prefer before the Master a charge against any Fellow of disgraceful conduct rendering him unfit in their judgment to be a Fellow of the College, the Master shall call a meeting for the purpose of considering the question, summoning all the Fellows other than the accused and the Fellows, if any, preferring such charge. The Master and Fellows assembled at such meeting shall proceed to investigate the case, giving the accused person an opportunity of being heard in his defence; and if such disgraceful conduct be proved the Master shall, if two-thirds of those present so determine, deprive the offending Fellow of his Fellowship and expel him from the College.

In every case of a sentence of suspension or deprivation and expulsion of a Fellow, there shall be a right of appeal to the Visitor, who shall have power to confirm the sentence or vary it at his discretion.

14. Vacation of Fellowships.

Except as hereinafter specified every Fellowship shall become vacant at the end of six years from the date of admission.

The time, however, during which the Fellow shall have held the office of Tutor, Bursar, Lecturer, Dean, or Librarian shall not be counted as part of the six years for which his Fellowship is tenable; and if at the end of the said period of six years the Fellow be holding any of the said offices, he shall retain his Fellowship as long as he holds that or any of the said offices.

If a Fellow shall have held one or more of the offices of Tutor, Bursar, Lecturer, or Dean for twenty years, he may retain his Fellowship for life, provided that not more than four Fellowships shall be thus retained at any one time.

On the expiration of the Fellowship of any Fellow by lapse of time he shall not be re-elected, but he may be elected to a Fellowship under the provisions of Statute 9.

If a Fellow holds the office of Professor in the University he may retain his Fellowship as long as he continues to hold that office.

Notwithstanding any provision of these Statutes, if a Fellow accepts from the College the presentation to a benefice, of which the net annual value, not deducting the retiring pension, if any, of the preceding incumbent, is not less than four hundred pounds (£400) a year, his Fellowship shall become vacant at the end of one year from the time of his license or institution.

15. College Meetings.

There shall be at least one College Meeting in every Term, on a day to be fixed by the Master, of which notice shall be sent to all the Fellows.

The Master may call a College Meeting at any time. He shall call a College Meeting on a written requisition signed by three Fellows stating the object for which the meeting is to be called; he shall send notice of a meeting to all the Fellows within four days from the receipt of such requisition, to be held on a day not more than ten days after the date of the notice.

No business shall be transacted at any College Meeting unless four at least of the Master and Fellows are present.

16. Residence of Master, Fellows, and Officers.

The Master shall reside in College during two-thirds at least of each Term, and altogether during two hundred and ten days at least in each year, unless he shall be absent on the business of the College, or on account of illness or other grave cause, such absence to be approved by the majority of the Fellows.

The Master shall have power to require the attendance of any Fellow at any College meeting, if the interests of the College seem to him to require it.

Every College Officer shall reside in College if either the Master or a majority of the Fellows are of opinion that his absence would be a cause of injury to the College.

During full term a Tutor and at least one other College Officer or Fellow shall reside in College; and during that part of the vacation after Easter Term in which members of the College in statu pupillari are allowed to reside, at least one College Officer or Fellow shall reside in College. The Master and Fellows shall make such provision as may from time to time seem to them expedient for the residence of College Officers or Fellows in College during the other vacations.

Every person, other than the Master, who is fulfilling the duty of residence in College under this Statute shall sleep in College at least five nights in each week, and if he shall be absent on either of the remaining nights, he shall have a deputy, approved by the Master, and such deputy shall sleep in College: Provided always, that a house communicating with the College and approved by the Master and Fellows shall, for the purposes of this Statute, be deemed to be within the College.

17. Stipend and Emoluments of the Master.

The Master shall have the use of the house, with garden, stable, and outbuildings, assigned for the purpose in the College.

He shall receive, in lieu of the Rectory of Abchurch in London, formerly attached to the Mastership, and other allowances except commons, an annual sum of five hundred pounds (£500). He shall also receive the accustomed payment from Dr. Spencer's Estate and payment provided for by the will of Bishop Mawson.

18. Distribution of College Revenues.

The revenues of the College shall be applied in the first instance to the payment of the stipends of the officers and scholars of the College, and of whatever may be required to be paid by the Statutes of the College, or by the Statutes of the University, or by the approved customs of the College, or by any lawful ordinance. The remainder shall then be divided among the Master and Fellows in such manner that the Master shall receive twice the amount received by each Fellow, the surplus, if any, to be applied to the general purposes of the College, including the formation of a Pension Fund. Provided, however, that the dividend paid to each of the Fellows exclusive of any pension shall not exceed the sum of two hundred and fifty pounds (£250) in any year.

19. Payments for University purposes.

The College shall pay annually to the University the sum authorised by the Statutes of the University made under the powers of the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877, to be levied from the College.

20. Surplus Income.

If at any time it shall appear to the Master and Fellows that the revenues of the College are greater than the amount required to afford to each of the Fellows a dividend of two hundred and fifty pounds (£250) a year, exclusive of rooms and commons but inclusive of all other allowances, they may submit to the Visitor a scheme, approved by a majority of the Master and Fellows, for increasing the number of Fellowships or Scholarships or Exhibitions, or for providing a fund for granting gratuities to poor and deserving members of the College in statu pupillari, or for applying the surplus in some other way for the benefit of the College or of the University; and the said scheme, if approved by the Visitor, shall thenceforth have the same force and effect as if it formed part of these Statutes.

The Visitor shall not approve any scheme for diminishing the number of Fellowships or Bible Clerkships or Scholarships below the minimum number prescribed by Statute 1.

21. College Accounts and Audit.

Within fifteen days before or after the feast of the Purification of the Blessed Virgin Mary in every year, the Master, Bursar, Steward, and Bailiffs shall render account of all sums received and expended by them respectively on behalf of the College during the year ending at the preceding Michaelmas.

At least six Fellows shall be present at the audit of the said accounts. Two Fellows shall be elected to be Auditors, and it shall be their duty in conjunction with the Master or his deputy to examine the said accounts, before the day appointed for the audit, and, if they be found correct, to sign them.

The Master or his deputy and the Auditors shall be paid adequate stipends for their trouble.

The Bursar shall deliver up at the end of the audit all receipts, acquittances, and other papers required to verify the accounts, for safe preservation in the College Chest.

A list of the property and goods of the College shall be written in an inventory, and such inventory shall be revised and corrected by the Master and Fellows once in every three years. One copy of the inventory shall be kept in the College Chest and another copy shall be kept by the Master.

The Bursar, Steward, and other officers of the College may be required, if the Master and Fellows think fit, before their admission to office, respectively to give security for rendering true accounts and for the payment of the balances, if any, which may remain in their hands at the time of audit.

An abstract of the several accounts of the College relating to funds administered for general purposes, or in trust, or otherwise, shall be sent on or before the thirty-first day of December in each year to the Vice-Chancellor of the University for publication. The abstract shall be made as nearly as practicable in the form contained in the Schedule attached to these Statutes. The accounts of the receipts and expenditure of money, if any, raised under the borrowing powers of the College shall be sent annually at the same time to the Vice-Chancellor for publication.

22. Dinner in Hall and assignment of rooms.

The Master and Fellows shall be provided with dinner in Hall at the expense of the College, the cost of such dinner not to exceed a moderate sum determined from time to time by the Master and Fellows. If the Master do not dine in Hall he shall receive the customary allowance in lieu of commons.

Rooms in College shall be assigned to the Fellows and other members of the College by the Master.

A married Fellow shall not be at liberty to bring his wife or any member of his family to reside or sleep in College unless suitable rooms approved by the Master and Fellows are provided by the College.

23. The Bursar.

The Bursar shall be appointed by the Master from among the Fellows of the College for a probationary period of three years, and on the expiration of such period the Master and Fellows may confirm the appointment from time to time for such periods as may seem to them fit. He shall be paid an adequate stipend, determined by the Master and Fellows.

Provided, however, that if at any time the business of the College shall appear in the judgment of the Master and Fellows to have been badly done or neglected by the Bursar, it shall be lawful for them by a vote, in which two-thirds of the whole body concur, to deprive him of his office.

24. The Dean.

The Dean shall be in Holy Orders. He shall be elected by the Master and Fellows from among the Fellows of the College, or if there be no suitable person among the Fellows the Master and Fellows shall elect as Dean a suitable person in Holy Orders who, if not elected in the meantime to a Fellowship in the ordinary way, shall succeed to a Fellowship by virtue of his office on the first vacancy which leaves the number of Fellows in Holy Orders less than three.

The election as Dean of a person who is not already a Fellow of the College shall be conducted as nearly as may be in the same manner as the election of a Fellow and shall require a like majority.

A Dean may be deprived of his office for grave cause by the votes of a majority of the Master and Fellows.

25. The Librarian.

There shall be in the College a Librarian, appointed annually by the Master, who shall reside in College and observe the rules prescribed by the Master and Fellows for the discharge of the duties of his office, and shall be removable by the votes of the Master and a majority of the Fellows.

He shall be paid an adequate stipend at the discretion of the Master and Fellows.

26. The Educational Staff.

The Educational Staff of the College shall consist of a Tutor or Tutors and such number of Assistant Tutors and Lecturers as the Master and Fellows may from time to time determine.

The Tutors shall be appointed by the Master for a probationary period of three years, and on the expiration of such period the Master and Fellows may confirm the appointment from time to time for such periods as may seem to them fit.

A Tutor may be deprived of his office for grave cause by the votes of the Master and a majority of the Fellows.

The Assistant Tutors and Lecturers shall be appointed by the Master and Fellows and shall hold office for such period as the Master and Fellows may determine.

27. The Tuition Fees and Caution Money.

The Master and Fellows shall fix from time to time the Tuition Fees to be paid by Students of the College and determine in what proportion the aggregate sum received shall be distributed among the Tutors and other members of the Educational Staff.

All Caution Money shall be received by some officer appointed by the Master and Fellows for the purpose. It shall be placed to the credit of a Fund to be called the Caution Fund.

The Caution Fund shall be managed and the income thereof applied in such manner as the Master and Fellows shall direct. The accounts of it shall be audited annually with the other accounts of the College. The Master and Fellows may at any time direct that a portion of the Caution Fund be placed in the hands of a Tutor.

28. The Bible Clerks and Scholars.

The Scholars and Bible Clerks shall be of good character and sufficient learning and shall be elected by the Master and Fellows.

The Bible Clerks shall perform such duties in connection with the Chapel as may be assigned to them by the Master or his Deputy.

The Bible Clerks and Scholars shall conduct themselves with propriety and approve themselves to the Master and Fellows as attentive Students.

Each of the six Scholars shall be paid a stipend of at least thirty pounds (£30) a year. He shall take the degree of Bachelor of Arts, or some other equivalent degree, as soon as he is of sufficient standing, under pain of losing his Scholarship, unless he has special permission from the Master and Fellows for delay.

No Scholar shall keep his Scholarship for more than three years after his first degree.

No one shall be allowed to compete for a Scholarship before commencing residence in the University if his age exceeds nineteen years at the time of examination. The tenure of Scholarships assigned to such persons shall be for not more than two years certain, and the maximum emolument shall be eighty pounds (£80), inclusive of rent of rooms and all allowances.

29. College Discipline.

The Bible Clerks, Scholars, and all Members of the College in statu pupillari shall pay due respect and obedience to the Master and other Officers of the College; they shall conduct themselves quietly and with decorum, and shall observe the Statutes and all rules made from time to time by the Master and Fellows for the government of the College.

If any person in statu pupillari fails to observe the said Statutes and rules, or commits any offence against good behaviour and the discipline of the College, he shall be punished by the Master or the Dean or other Officer of the College according to their discretion. But no one shall be removed from the College whether for a time or entirely, or be deprived of the emoluments of a Scholar, except by resolution of the Master and Fellows at a meeting called for the purpose of considering the question.

30. The College Seal and Muniments.

There shall be in the College a Chest with three keys of different make, one of which shall be kept by the Master and each of the others by a Fellow elected for the purpose by the Master and Fellows.

In this Chest shall be kept the common seal of the College, the Royal Charter, and other documents and writings of chief importance; the remaining documents being placed for safe custody in other chests provided for the purpose.

The common seal shall not be put to any writing which has not been laid before a meeting of the Master and Fellows, and approved by a majority, including at least the Master or his Deputy and three Fellows.

31. Commemoration of Benefactors.

The Master, or the preacher appointed by him, shall be paid by the Bursar forty shillings for his sermon at the Commemoration of Benefactors in the end of the Michaelmas Term.

At every Commemoration of Benefactors a moderate feast in Hall shall be provided at the expense of the College, and the customary alms shall be given to the poor at the discretion of the Master and Fellows present.

32. Divine Worship and Religious Instruction.

Having regard to the provisions of the fifth* and sixth† sections of the Universities Tests Act, 1871, the Master and Fellows may provide stipends from the revenues of the College for persons who may be appointed to carry out those provisions; and shall make such regulations as they may deem expedient for the celebration of Divine service and for the due maintenance of religious worship and discipline. The Master if in Holy Orders shall determine the times at which Divine Service shall be celebrated.

33. College Pensions.

If a Fellow shall have discharged the duties of one or more of the offices of Tutor, Bursar, or Lecturer for more than ten years, he may be allowed an annual pension, at the discretion of the Master and Fellows, out of the fund provided for the purpose.

34. Application of the Money arising from the Sale of the Advowson of Duxford St. Peter's.

The money arising from the sale of the advowson of Duxford St. Peter's shall be invested in the purchase of land or of Government stocks, funds, or securities, and the annual income arising therefrom after such investment shall be applied to the fund for providing pensions for Officers of the College.

35. Presentation to Benefices.

The Master and Fellows shall present to the several benefices in the patronage of the College, in every case in which they can with propriety do so, a Fellow or former Fellow, or a Chaplain or former Chaplain, or other present or former Officer, or a former Scholar of the College, regard being had to length of service in the College; but it shall not be necessary to present any such person, and no such person shall have any claim to any such presentation on the ground of seniority or on any other ground.

36. Interpretation of the Statutes.

If a question arise as to the true meaning of any part of these Statutes, it shall be referred to the Chancellor or Vice-Chancellor of the University, the Regius Professor of Divinity and the Regius Professor of Laws. If the Chancellor do not act and the Master be Vice-Chancellor, then the next preceding Vice-Chancellor who is able to act shall act in place of the Chancellor.

37. Change in the Value of Money.

No alteration in the specific sums mentioned in

* "The governing body of every college subsisting at the time of the passing of this Act in any of the said universities shall provide sufficient religious instruction for all members thereof in statu pupillari belonging to the Established Church."

† "The Morning and Evening Prayer according to the Order of the Book of Common Prayer shall continue to be used daily as heretofore in the chapel of every college subsisting at the time of the passing of this Act in any of the said universities; but notwithstanding anything contained in the Statute thirteenth and fourteenth Charles the Second, chapter four, or in this Act, it shall be lawful for the visitor of any such college, on the request of the governing body thereof, to authorise from time to time in writing the use on week days only of any abridgment or adaptation of the said morning and evening prayer in the chapel of such college instead of the order set forth in the Book of Common Prayer."

these Statutes shall be made in consequence of any change in the value of money, or for any other reason except by Statute made in accordance with the provisions of the 54th and 55th sections of the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877.

38. Addresses.

Every Fellow shall leave with such person as the Master and Fellows may appoint the name of the place of address to which notices intended for him should be sent; and in all cases in which by these Statutes notice is required to be given to any Fellow, it shall be sufficient that the notice be sent to such address by post or otherwise.

39. Preservation of Interests.

The interests and conditions of tenure of emoluments of all Fellows elected or appointed before the fourteenth day of March, 1878, shall be regulated by the previously existing Statutes; but if any such Fellow shall elect to be placed under the operation of these Statutes, it shall be lawful for him to signify such election to the Master and Fellows by writing under his hand within one year from the time of approval of these Statutes by the Queen in Council, but not after, and his interests and the tenure of his emoluments shall be thenceforth governed by these Statutes, and shall accordingly be as if these Statutes had been in operation at the date of his election or appointment, and his past services in any one or more of the College offices named in Statute 14 shall be counted as services rendered in such office or offices under these Statutes.

40. Repeal of former Statutes.

The Statutes confirmed by Order of the Queen in Council on the sixteenth day of April, 1861, except the seven Statutes as to Bye Foundations in the College, and except the Statute respecting the Scholarship founded by Mr. John Stock, together with all Statutes of the College existing and in force before the said sixteenth day of April, 1861, are hereby repealed, save in so far as they affect the interests and tenure of emoluments of any person holding a University or College emolument within the meaning of the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877, to which he was elected or appointed before the fourteenth day of March, 1878; but the repeal of such Statutes shall not revive any provision of any former Statutes repealed by such Statutes.

The concluding Exhortation of the ancient Statutes affixed hereto shall remain in the Statute Book of the College.

Postremo omnes hujus Collegii Socios et Studiosos vehementer in Domino hortamur, ut memores Beneficiorum quæ hujus rei gratia a Domino acceperint optimis studiis et omni pietati se totos consecrent. Statuta nostra diligenter et fideliter observent; nullam callidam aut sinistram interpretationem, contra ipsarum ordinationum sensum et mentem, adhibeant; sed firmas ac ratas habeant, suam et Ecclesiæ Dei utilitatem quærentes; et omnes conatus ad Domini ac Servatoris nostri gloriam illustrandam conferentes. Cui cum Patre et Sancto Spiritu sit omnis honor, gloria, et imperium in sæcula sæculorum. Amen.

SUPPLEMENTAL STATUTE.

Statute for the Foundation of Bishop Mawson.

Notwithstanding any provision of the Will of Bishop Mawson, the payments to the Scholars on Bishop Mawson's foundation and the conditions of their residence shall be such as may be determined from time to time by the Master and Fellows.

At the Court at Windsor, the 2nd day of May, 1881.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-second and thirty-third years of Her Majesty, chapter ninety-four, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, or representation bearing date the tenth day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one, in the words and figures following; that is to say:—

"We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England acting under the provisions of the Act of the thirty-second and thirty-third years of your Majesty chapter ninety-four have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme or representation for altering the boundaries of the new parish of Saint Andrew Islington and of the new parish of Saint Michael Islington, both in the county of Middlesex and in the diocese of London.

"Whereas by the authority of an Order of your Majesty in Council bearing date the ninth day of March in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four and published in the London Gazette upon the twenty-fourth day of the same month certain portions of the district parish of the Holy Trinity Islington and of the district chapelry of All Saints Islington, both in the said county of Middlesex and in the diocese of London aforesaid were assigned as a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Andrew situate in Thornhill-square in the said district parish of the Holy Trinity Islington and such district chapelry was named 'The District Chapelry of Saint Andrew Islington.'

"And whereas the said district chapelry of Saint Andrew Islington subsequently became under the provisions of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty chapter one hundred and four a new parish of the character contemplated by that Act and by the Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty chapter thirty-seven and by the said above-mentioned Act of the thirty-second and thirty-third years of your Majesty chapter ninety-four.

"And whereas by the authority of another Order of your Majesty in Council bearing date the seventh day of April in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four and published in the London Gazette upon the twelfth day of the same month a part of the said new parish of Saint Andrew Islington was constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes and was named 'The District of Saint Michael Islington.'

"And whereas the said district of Saint Michael Islington has since become a new parish of the character contemplated by the said Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty chapter thirty-seven and by the said above mentioned Act of the thirty-second and thirty-third years of your Majesty chapter ninety-four.

"And whereas it has been represented to us and it appears to us to be expedient that the boundaries both of the said new parish of Saint Andrew Islington and of the said new parish of Saint Michael Islington should be altered in the manner hereinafter mentioned.

"Now therefore with the consent of the Right Honourable and Right Reverend John Bishop of the said diocese of London (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme or representation) we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners humbly represent recommend and propose that from and after the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of an Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme or representation and without any assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order all that part of the said new parish of Saint Michael Islington which is described in the schedule hereunder written and is delineated and set forth upon the map or plan hereunto appended and is thereon coloured pink shall be dissevered from such new parish and shall be re-annexed to and shall form part of and shall become and be and be deemed to be within the limits of the said new parish of Saint Andrew, Islington.

"And we further represent recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from representing recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the hereinbefore mentioned Acts or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme or Representation has reference.

"The territory proposed to be dissevered from the new parish of Saint Michael Islington in the county of Middlesex and in the diocese of London, and to be re-annexed to the new parish of Saint Andrew Islington in the same county and diocese being :—

"All that the north-eastern part of the new parish of Saint Michael Islington in the county and diocese aforesaid which is bounded on the north and east by the said new parish of Saint Andrew Islington and on the remaining sides that is to say upon the south and upon the west by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint Andrew Islington from the new parish of Saint Michael Islington aforesaid at the point where Bemerton-street meets Upper Gifford-street and extending thence westward along the middle of the last-named street for a distance of one hundred and seventy-three yards or thereabouts to its junction with East-street and extending thence southward along the middle of the last-named street for a distance of thirteen yards or thereabouts to a point opposite to the eastern end of the southern boundary of a certain plot of ground whereon it is intended to erect a building to be called Saint Andrew's Mission Hall and extending thence westward for a distance of fifty-six yards or thereabouts to and along the said southern boundary to a boundary stone inscribed 'I. St. A. N. P. 1881' and placed at the south-west corner of the said plot of ground in or against the wall of the Great Northern Railway premises and extending thence northward and in a direct line for a distance of one hundred and twenty-five yards or thereabouts to a point on the boundary which divides the new parish of Saint Andrew Islington from the new parish of Saint Michael Islington as aforesaid such point being the centre of the viaduct which carries the line of the North London Railway over the main line of the Great Northern Railway aforesaid."

And whereas drafts of the said scheme or representation have been transmitted to the patrons and to the incumbents of the two cures affected by the arrangements which are contemplated by such scheme or representation and such patrons and incumbents have respectively signified their assent thereto.

And whereas the said scheme or representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council ; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme or representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Act of the thirty-second and thirty-third years of Her Majesty, chapter ninety-four ; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of London.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 2nd day of May, 1881.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy ; of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter ninety-seven ; of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five ; and of the Act of the thirty-fourth and thirty-fifth years of Her Majesty, chapter eighty-two ; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the tenth day of March in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one in the words following ; that is to say :—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of your Majesty chapter seventy, of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of your Majesty, chapter ninety-seven, of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, and of the Act of the thirty-fourth and thirty-fifth years of your Majesty, chapter eighty-two, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Mildred situate at Burnt Ash Hill, within the limits of the parish of Saint Margaret Lee in the county of Kent, and in the diocese of Rochester.

"Whereas at certain extremities of the said parish of Saint Margaret, Lee, and of the new parish of Christ Church, Lee Park, within the original limits of the said parish of Saint Margaret, Lee which said extremities lie contiguous one to another, and are described in the schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such parish and new parish respectively.

"And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that such contiguous portions of the said parish of Saint Margaret, Lee and of the said new parish of Christ Church, Lee Park, should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes, and that the same should be assigned to the said church of Saint Mildred, situate at Burnt Ash Hill as aforesaid.

"Now, therefore with the consent of the Right Reverend Anthony Wilson, Bishop of the said diocese of Rochester, as such Bishop, with the consent of the Right Honourable Roundell, Baron Selborne, Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, and as such Lord High Chancellor, the patron on behalf of your Majesty of the rectory of the said parish of Saint Margaret, Lee, and with the consent of the Reverend Frederick Henry Law, Clerk in Holy Orders the rector or incumbent of the said rectory of the parish of Saint Margaret, Lee, as aforesaid, and as such rector or incumbent the patron of the vicarage of the said new parish of Christ Church, Lee Park (in testimony whereof they the said consenting parties have respectively signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said parish of Saint Margaret Lee, and of the said new parish of Christ Church Lee Park, which are described in the schedule hereunder written all which portions, together with the boundaries thereof are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church of Saint Mildred, situate at Burnt Ash Hill as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Mildred Burnt Ash Hill, Lee.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration and to make such Order in respect thereto as to your Majesty in your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Mildred Burnt Ash Hill Lee, being:—

"All that portion of the parish of Saint Margaret Lee in the county of Kent and in the diocese of Rochester wherein the present incumbent of such parish now possesses the exclusive cure of souls and also all that contiguous portion of the new parish of Christ Church Lee Park within the original limits of the said parish of Saint Margaret Lee which said portions of such parish and new parish taken together are bounded on the west by the parish of Lewisham in the county and diocese aforesaid on the south partly by the new parish of Saint Mary Plaistow and partly by the parish of Bromley both in the said county of Kent and in the diocese of Canterbury on the east partly by the extra-parochial territory known as 'Motingham' and partly by the particular district of Saint Peter Eltham in the said county of Kent and diocese of Rochester and on the remaining side that is to say on the north partly by the said particular district and partly by an imaginary line commencing on the boundary which divides such particular district from the new parish of Christ Church Lee Park aforesaid at the point where Burnt Ash-lane is crossed by the Dartford Loop Line of the North Kent Railway and extending thence north-westward along the middle of the said line of railway for a distance of twenty-five chains or thereabouts thereby crossing the boundary which divides the said new parish of Christ Church Lee Park from the parish of Saint Margaret Lee aforesaid to the boundary which divides the last-named parish from the parish of Lewisham aforesaid."

~~And whereas the said representation has been~~ approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Rochester.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy; of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter ninety-seven; of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five; and of the Act of the thirty-fourth and thirty-fifth years of Her Majesty, chapter eighty-two; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the twenty-seventh day of January in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one in the words and figures following; that is to say:—

"We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of your Majesty chapter seventy of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of your Majesty chapter ninety-seven of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty chapter fifty-five and of the Act of the thirty-fourth and thirty-fifth years of your Majesty chapter eighty-two have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of All Saints situate at Denmead in the parish of Hambledon in the county of Southampton and in the diocese of Winchester.

"Whereas at certain extremities of the said parish of Hambledon and of the parish of Catherington in the said county of Southampton and in the said diocese of Winchester which said extremities lie contiguous one to another and are described in the schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such respective parishes.

"And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that such contiguous portions of the said parish of Hambledon and of the said parish of Catherington should together with all that extra-parochial territory called Little Creech also situate in the said county of Southampton and in the said diocese of Winchester be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes and that the same should be assigned to the said church of All Saints situate at Denmead as aforesaid.

"Now therefore with the consent of the Right Reverend Edward Harold Bishop of the said diocese of Winchester as such Bishop with the consent of the Right Honourable Roundell Baron Selborne Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain acting as such Lord High Chancellor on behalf of your Majesty as the patron (in right of the Crown) of the vicarage of the said parish of Hambledon and with the consent of the Reverend Robert Fitzgerald Maynard Clerk in Holy Orders the rector or incumbent and also the patron of the vicarage of the said parish of Catherington as such patron of the same vicarage (in testimony whereof they the said consenting parties have respectively signed and sealed this representation) we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England humbly represent that it would in our opinion be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said parish of Hambledon and of the said parish of Catherington together with all that extra-parochial territory called Little Creech as aforesaid which are described in the schedule hereunder written and together with the boundaries thereof are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church of All Saints situate at Denmead as aforesaid and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of All Saints Denmead.'

"We therefore humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration and to make such order in respect thereto as to your Majesty in your Royal wisdom shall seem meet."

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The Consolidated Chapelry of All Saints Denmead being:—

All that portion of the parish of Hambledon in the county of Southampton and in the diocese of Winchester (wherein the present incumbent of such parish now possesses the exclusive cure of souls) which is bounded on the east by the parish of Catherington in the said county and diocese on the south-east by the extra-parochial territory of Waterloo and by the parishes of Widley and Southwick all within the county and diocese aforesaid on the south-west by the last-named parish and by the extra-parochial territory called Little Creech all within the county and diocese aforesaid on the west by the consolidated chapelry or new parish of New Town in the said county and diocese and upon all other sides that is to say on the north-west and north by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said parish of Hambledon from the consolidated chapelry or new parish of New Town aforesaid at a point near the head of Rudley Mill Pond where such boundary crosses the said pond and strikes the northern side of the road which leads from Rudley Mill past the farm-houses called Bent and Kidburns towards Hambledon and extending thence first southward to the middle of the said road and then generally north-eastward along the same road for a distance of sixty chains or thereabouts to the point near Kidburns aforesaid where the said road joins the road leading from World's End to Hambledon at which point a boundary-stone inscribed D. A. S. C. C. 1881 has been placed and extending thence eastward and in a direct line for a distance of fifty chains or thereabouts to the milestone situate on the western side of the road called Well Hill which indicates eleven miles to Portsmouth and extending thence first eastward to and then south-eastward along the middle of the last-described-road for a distance of five chains or thereabouts to its junction at Forest Gate with Rushmere-lane and extending thence north-eastward for a distance of twenty-chains or thereabouts along the middle of the said lane to its junction near the south-east corner of Vinnell Wood with a certain other road leading from Steane Copse and Pithill to Broad Halfpenny Down such road being in part called Harrowgate-lane and extending thence first eastward and then north-eastward for a distance of about two miles along the middle of the last-described road to the boundary which divides the said parish of Hambledon from the parish of Catherington aforesaid.

"And also all that triangular portion of the said parish of Catherington which is bounded on the west by the parish of Hambledon aforesaid and on the two other sides that is to say on the north-east and on the south-east by an imaginary line commencing at a point near Anmore Dell on the boundary dividing the said parish of Hambledon from the parish of Catherington aforesaid such point being distant fifty yards to the south of the middle of the road leading from Anmore past Woodcroft towards Frogmore and extending thence in a direction generally north-eastward for a distance of seventy-eight chains or thereabouts in a course exactly parallel to and distant fifty yards from the middle of the last-described road to a point opposite to the junction of such road with a certain other road leading past Eastland Gate to Denmead Farm and the Crossways and extending thence due north in a straight line for a distance of seven chains or thereabouts crossing the last-described road to a point distant fifty yards to the north of the middle of the same road and extending thence north-westward for a distance of seventy-four chains or thereabouts in a course exactly parallel to and distant fifty yards from the middle of the said last-described road to the boundary which divides the parish of Hambledon from the parish of Catherington as aforesaid.

"And also all that extra-parochial territory called Little Creech as aforesaid which is bounded on the north and north-east by the above described part of the parish of Hambledon and upon the remaining sides that is to say upon the south and south-west by the parish of Southwick aforesaid, which said extra-parochial territory forms part of the Forest of Bere and contains by admeasurement two hundred and thirty-six acres or thereabouts."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Winchester.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the seventeenth day of March in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one, in the words following; that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of your Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint John the Evangelist situate at Woodley in the parish of Sonning in the county of Berks and in the diocese of Oxford.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint John the Evangelist situate at Woodley as aforesaid.

"Now therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend John Fielder Bishop of the said diocese of Oxford (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Sonning which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of Saint John the Evangelist, situate at Woodley as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint John the Evangelist, Woodley.'

"And with the like consent of the said John Fielder Bishop of the said diocese of Oxford (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings and burials should be solemnized or performed at the said church of Saint John the Evangelist situate at Woodley as aforesaid, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us the said Commissioners to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism or for the registration thereof.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration and to make such Order with respect thereto as to your Majesty, in your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Saint John the Evangelist, Woodley, being:—

"All that part of the parish of Sonning in the county of Berks and in the diocese of Oxford (wherein the present incumbent of such parish now possesses the exclusive cure of souls) which is bounded on the south-west partly by the new parish of Saint Bartholomew Earley and partly by the new parish of Earley both within the county of Berks and diocese of Oxford aforesaid on the south-east by the parish of Hurst in the county and diocese aforesaid and on the remaining side that is to say on the north-west by an imaginary line commencing at the point in the middle of the bridge which carries the line of the Great Western Railway over the westernmost branch of the River Luddon where the boundary dividing the last-named parish from the parish of Saint Mary Twyford in the county of Berks and in the diocese of Oxford aforesaid meets the eastern boundary of the said parish of Sonning and extending thence south-westward along the middle of the said line of railway for a distance of two miles and thirty-five chains or thereabouts to the boundary which divides the last-named parish from the new parish of Saint Bartholomew, Earley aforesaid."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Oxford.

"The Consolidated Chapelry of the Holy Trinity Liverpool, being:—

"All that portion of the parish of Liverpool in the county of Lancaster and in the diocese of Liverpool wherein the present incumbent of such parish now possesses the exclusive cure of souls which is bounded on the west partly by the particular district of Christ Church Liverpool, on the south by the particular district of Saint Mary Magdalene Liverpool, on the east partly by the said particular district and partly by the district chapelry of Saint Timothy Everton and on the north partly by the district chapelry of Saint Ambrose Everton (all which said ecclesiastical districts are in the county of Lancaster and diocese of Liverpool aforesaid) and upon all other sides that is to say upon the remaining part of the north and upon the remaining part of the west by an imaginary line commencing on the boundary which divides the said district chapelry of Saint Ambrose Everton from the parish of Liverpool aforesaid at the junction of Fox-street with the street or road called Richmond-row and extending thence first southward to and then south-westward along the middle of the last-named street or road for a distance of eight and a half chains or thereabouts to its junction with Saint Anne-street and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of the last-named street for a distance of fifteen and a half chains or thereabouts to the boundary at the intersection of Saint Anne-street by Springfield-street which boundary divides the said portion of the parish of Liverpool from the particular district of Christ Church Liverpool aforesaid.

"And also all that contiguous portion of the said particular district of Saint Mary Magdalene, Liverpool which is bounded on the east and on the north partly by the district chapelry of Saint Jude Edge Hill, partly by the new parish of Saint Augustine Everton, and partly by the district chapelry of Saint Timothy Everton (all which last-named ecclesiastical districts are in the county of Lancaster and in the diocese of Liverpool aforesaid) on the west by the above-described portion of the parish of Liverpool and on the remaining side that is to say on the south by an imaginary line commencing on the boundary which divides the said last-named parish from the particular district of Saint Mary Magdalene, Liverpool aforesaid at the point where Soho-street is joined by the road or street known as Islington and extending thence eastward along the middle of the last-named road or street for a distance of nineteen chains or thereabouts to the boundary (at the junction of Moss-street, Erskine-street and Brunswick-road), which divides the said particular district from the district chapelry of Saint Jude Edge Hill aforesaid."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Liverpool. C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 2nd day of May, 1881.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-fourth day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one, in the words following; that is to say:—

"We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of your Majesty; chapter thirty-nine, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the church and cure (which said church and cure are hereinafter called the said benefice) of Cramlington in the county of Northumberland and in the diocese of Durham.

"Whereas the said advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Cramlington is vested for an estate in fee simple in possession without incumbrances in Sir Matthew White Ridley in the said county of Northumberland Baronet, a Member of the Commons House of Parliament.

"And whereas the said Sir Matthew White Ridley is desirous that the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Cramlington now vested in him as aforesaid should be transferred to and be absolutely vested in the Bishop for the time being of the said diocese of Durham or otherwise as is hereinafter mentioned.

"And whereas the Right Reverend Joseph Barber now Bishop of the said diocese of Durham, is willing to accept for himself and his successors in the bishoprick of Durham the said proposed transfer, and in token of such his willingness and also in token that the same transfer has that consent of the bishop of the diocese which by the Acts in the hereinbefore mentioned Act recited or by some or one of them is made necessary he the said Joseph Barber Bishop of Durham has executed this scheme as hereinafter mentioned.

"And whereas it appears to us that the transfer of the patronage of the said benefice of Cramlington which is hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed will tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the parochial chapelry of Cramlington (being the parish or district in or in respect of which the said right of patronage and advowson arises and exists) by rendering the said benefice more eligible than it is at present for augmentation out of funds under our control.

"Now therefore with the consent of the said Sir Matthew White Ridley (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme) and with the consent of the said Joseph Barber Bishop of the said diocese of Durham (in testimony whereof he has signed this scheme and sealed the same with his episcopal seal) we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of an Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Cramlington now vested in the said Sir Matthew White Ridley and his heirs and assigns as aforesaid, shall be transferred from the said Sir Matthew White Ridley and from his heirs and assigns to the said Joseph Barber and his successors Bishops of Durham, or to the bishop for the time being of any other diocese within which the said benefice of Cramlington shall be situate and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Joseph Barber Bishop of the said diocese of Durham and his successors in the same See or by the bishop for the time being of any other diocese within which the said benefice of Cramlington shall for the time being be situated.

And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of either of them or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Durham.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 2nd day of May, 1881.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the eighteenth and nineteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act further to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England," it is, amongst other things, enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, from time to time to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, shall or shall not have arrived), as to Her Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, may seem fit:

And whereas Orders in Council have been made directing the discontinuance of burials in the churchyard hereinbefore mentioned from the time specified in such Orders; and whereas it seems fit to Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, that the time for discontinuing burials in the said churchyard be further postponed:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the time for the discontinuance of burials in such churchyard be postponed as follows; viz. :—

In the parish churchyard of Belgrave, to the thirtieth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England beyond the limits of the Metropolis, and to amend the Act concerning the burial of the dead in the Metropolis," it is enacted that, in case it appears to Her Majesty in Council, upon the representation of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, that, for the protection of the public health, the opening of any new burial-ground in any city or town, or within any other limits, save with the previous approval of one of such Secretaries of State, should be prohibited, or that burials in any city or town, or within any other limits, or in any burial-ground or places of burial, should be wholly discontinued, or should be discontinued subject to any exception or qualification, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order that no new burial-ground shall be opened in any city or town, or within such limits, without such previous approval, or (as the case may require) that, after a time mentioned in the Order, burials in such city or town, or within such limits, or in such burial-grounds or places of burial, shall be discontinued wholly, or subject to any exceptions or qualifications mentioned in such Order, and so from time to time as circumstances may require; provided always, that notice of such representation, and of the time when it shall please Her Majesty to order that the same be taken into consideration by the Privy Council, shall be published in the London Gazette, and shall be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some other conspicuous places within, the parishes affected by such representation, one month before such representation is so considered; provided also, that no such representation shall be made in relation to the burial-ground of any parish until ten days' previous notice of the intention to make such representation shall have been given to the Incumbent and Vestry Clerk or Churchwardens of such parish:

And whereas the Right Honourable Sir William Vernon Harcourt, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after giving to the Incumbents and the Churchwardens of the parishes hereinafter mentioned ten days' previous notice of his intention to make such representation, has made a representation stating that, for the protection of the public health, no new burial-ground should be opened in the undermentioned parishes without the previous consent of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and that burials should be discontinued therein, with certain modifications:

And whereas Her Majesty was pleased, by Her Order in Council of the second day of March last, to give notice of such representation, and to order that the same should be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council on the nineteenth day of April one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one, and such Order has been published in the London Gazette, and copies thereof have been affixed, as required by the said Act:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order and it is hereby ordered, that no new burial-ground shall be opened in the undermentioned parishes, without the previous approval of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and that burials in the said parishes shall be discontinued as follows, viz. :—

THE FAIRS ACT, 1871.

EAST MALLING FAIR.

WHEREAS a representation has been duly made to me, as Secretary of State for the Home

Department, by the Justices of the Division of Upper South Aylesford, in the county of Kent, that a Fair has been annually held on the 15th day of July, in the parish of East Malling, in the said division of the said county, and that it would be for the convenience and advantage of the public that the said Fair should be abolished:

And whereas notice of the said representation, and of the time when I should take the same into consideration, has been duly published in pursuance of "The Fairs Act, 1871:"

And whereas, on such representation and consideration, it appears to me that it would be for the convenience and advantage of the public that the said Fair should be abolished:

Now, therefore, I, as the Secretary of State for the Home Department, in exercise of the powers vested in me by "The Fairs Act, 1871," do hereby order that the Fair which has been annually held on the 15th day of July, in the parish of East Malling, in the division of Upper South Aylesford, in the county of Kent, shall be abolished as from the date of this order.

Given under my hand at Whitehall, this 7th day of May, 1881.

Halifax Union.—Township of Stainland and Old Lindley.

To the Overseers of the Poor of the Township of Stainland and Old Lindley, in the West Riding of the County of York;—
And to all others whom it may concern.

WHEREAS the population of the said township of Stainland and Old Lindley according to the last census, exceeds two thousand persons;

And whereas at a Meeting of the Vestry of the said township, held, pursuant to public notice in that behalf, on Thursday, the 3rd day of March, 1881, it was resolved,—

"That the Local Government Board be requested to issue an Order directing that the Act 13 and 14 Vict., chapter 57, intituled 'An Act to prevent the holding of Vestry or other Meetings in Churches, and for regulating the Appointment of Vestry Clerks,' so far only as the same is applicable to the holding of Vestry Meetings, and providing accommodation for the same shall be applied to and put in force within the township of Stainland with Old Lindley."

And whereas the Overseers of the Poor of the said township of Stainland and Old Lindley have made application in writing to the Local Government Board, pursuant to the above resolution:

Now therefore, we, the Local Government Board, in pursuance of the powers given to us by the Statutes in that behalf, hereby order as follows:

ARTICLE I.—So much of the Act passed in the fourteenth year of the reign of Her Majesty, intituled "An Act to prevent the holding of Vestry or other Meetings in Churches, and for regulating the appointment of Vestry Clerks," as relates to the providing of a room or suitable buildings for the purpose of holding Vestry or other Meetings, shall forthwith be applied to and be put in force within the said township of Stainland and Old Lindley.

ARTICLE II.—A copy of this Order shall be published in the London Gazette by the Overseers of the Poor of the said township.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application has been made to the Commissioners of Patents for Inventions for leave to file a Disclaimer and Memorandum of Alteration of certain parts of the specification of said Letters Patent; and any person intending to oppose such application must leave notice thereof at the office of Her Majesty's Attorney-General, No. 1, New-court, Temple, within ten days after the date hereof.—Dated this 10th day of May, 1881.

Haseltine, Lake, and Co., 8, Southampton-buildings, London, Agents for the Petitioner.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby, subject as hereinafter mentioned, grant and convey to the Incumbent of the vicarage of Saint Mary, North Stainley, in the county of York, and in the diocese of Ripon, and to his successors, Incumbents of the same vicarage, all and singular the yearly tithe commutation rent-charges which are particularly described in the schedule hereunto annexed, and are now vested in us: To have and to hold the said yearly tithe commutation rent-charges to the use of the said Incumbent and his successors for ever: Provided always, that the said yearly tithe commutation rent-charges expressed to be hereby granted and conveyed shall be, and be taken to be in lieu of, and in full substitution for, the yearly sum or stipend of eighty-seven pounds, heretofore payable by us, the said Commissioners, to the Incumbent for the time being of the said vicarage of Saint Mary, North Stainley, under the authority of an Order of Her Majesty in Council, bearing date the seventeenth day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-four, and published in the London Gazette on the third day of May in the same year, and shall also be, and be taken to be, in lieu of and in substitution for, a portion amounting to one hundred and seventy-three pounds per annum of the further yearly sum or stipend of two hundred pounds, heretofore payable by us, the said Commissioners, to the Incumbent for the time being of the said vicarage, under the authority of an instrument sealed by us on the twenty-fourth day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, and published in the London Gazette on the first day of February in the same year: And provided further, that the Incumbent for the time being of the same vicarage shall be entitled to receive from us, or on our account, the net amount of the profits and proceeds of the said yearly tithe commutation rent-charges for and in respect of the period intervening between the thirty-first day of January in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one, and the date of the publication of these presents in the London Gazette.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this twenty-eighth day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one.
