AT the Court at Windsor, the 2nd day of May, 1881.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the seventeenth day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty chapter one hundred and thirteen of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty chapter thirty-seven and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty chapter one hundred and four have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes to be taken out of the new parish of Saint James Tunbridge Wells in the county of Kent and in the diocese of Canterbury.

"Whereas it has been made to appear to us that it would promote the interests of religion that the particular part of the said new parish of Saint James Tunbridge Wells which is hereinafter mentioned and described should be constituted a separate district in the manner hereinafter recommended and proposed.

"And whereas there is not at present within the limits of the said proposed district any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of Divine worship.

"And whereas by a certain deed or indenture bearing date on or about the twelfth day of November in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty and made or expressed to be made under the provisions of 'The New Parishes Acts 1843 1844 and 1856' or some or one of them between Henry Edward Andrews of the Stock Exchange in the city of London. Esquire and Edward Baldock Stone of the Inner Temple London Esquire of the first part the Reverend Christopher Ridley Pearson Clerk in Holy Orders vicar or incumbent of the vicarage of the said new parish of Saint James Tunbridge Wells of the second part and us the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners of the third part (which deed or indenture is intended to be enrolled in the Chancery Division of your Majesty's High Court of Justice) the said parties of the first and second parts did grant unto the minister of the proposed district (intended as is mentioned in the said deed or indenture to be named 'The District of Saint Barnabas Tunbridge Wells') so soon as a minister shall have been appointed and licensed in accordance with the provisions of the hereinbefore secondly mentioned Act and so soon as the said district shall have become a new parish under the provisions of the same Act then to the incumbent of such new parish and his successors, firstly a plot of land with the houses and buildings thereon erected and known respectively as Numbers 1 and 2 Rochelle and Victoria Villa, Crescent-road, within the local district of the town of Tunbridge Wells in the county of Kent as the same plot of land is more particularly delineated in the plan number 1 drawn in the margin of the said deed or indenture subject nevertheless to the several indentures of lease the yearly rents whereof amount together to the sum of thirty-five pounds and secondly all that other plot of ground with the house and buildings thereon erected and known as Number 85 Woodbury Park-road within the said town of Tunbridge Wells as the same plot of land is more particularly delineated in the plan number 2 drawn in the margin of the said deed or indenture subject nevertheless to the several indentures of lease the yearly rents whereof amount to the sum of twenty-one pounds all the said yearly rents so reserved as aforesaid to be to the use of the said minister or incumbent for the time being of the said proposed district or new parish for ever.

"And whereas by another deed or indenture bearing date on or about the twelfth day of November in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty and made or expressed to be made under the provisions of 'The New Parishes Acts 1843 1844 and 1856' or some or one of them between James Feargus O'Connor Wood of Number 177 Seven Sisters'-road Holloway in the county of Middlesex, Boot Manufacturer of the first part the said Christopher Ridley Pearson of the second part, and us the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England of the third part (which deed or indenture is intended to be enrolled in the Chancery Division of your Majesty's High Court of Justice) the said parties of the first and second parts did grant unto the minister or incumbent of the said proposed district or new parish of Saint Barnabas Tunbridge Wells certain plots of land with the houses and buildings thereon erected and known respectively as Numbers 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, and 9, Rose-terrace Gillespie-road at Highbury in the said county of Middlesex as the same plots are more particularly delineated in the plan drawn on the margin of the said lastly-mentioned deed or indenture subject nevertheless to the several indentures of lease the particulars whereof and the yearly rents amounting together to the sum of forty-two pounds or thereabouts which are reserved thereby are set forth in the schedule appended to the said deed or indenture, the said yearly rents so reserved as aforesaid to be to the use of the said minister or incumbent for the time being of the said proposed district or new parish for ever.

"And whereas for the purpose of providing an additional endowment for the said proposed district or (as the case may be) new parish a capital sum of sixty pounds sterling has been contributed and paid over to the credit of the account of us the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners at the Bank of England by the said Christopher Ridley Pearson and we have in respect of such sum undertaken to pay to the minister or incumbent of the proposed district (or as the case may be) new parish the annual sum of two pounds.

"And whereas the said lands houses and buildings hereinbefore mentioned have been so granted as aforesaid and the said capital sum of sixty pounds sterling has been so paid as aforesaid upon the understanding that we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England should out of the common fund created by the hereinbefore firstly mentioned Act pay to the minister or incumbent of the said proposed district or new parish when duly licensed as aforesaid a grant of fifty pounds per annum and upon the further understanding that (such arrangement appearing to us to be
