

(PORT OF SOUTH SHIELDS.)

AT the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 9th day of May, 1881.

By the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

THE Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in them vested under The Contagious Diseases (Animals) Act, 1878, and of every other power enabling them in this behalf, do hereby define the following part of the Port of South Shields, in the county of Durham, as a foreign animals wharf:

All that space in the port and borough of South Shields, being a part of the Tyne Dock, the property of the North Eastern Railway Company, and situate between the Tyne Dock and the road leading from South Shields to Tyne Dock and called Slake Row, inclosed in a line commencing at the water on the timber discharging jetty on the eastern side of the said Dock at a point two hundred and seven feet south-west of the south-west corner of the Jarrow Chemical Works, thence passing in an easterly direction for a distance of six hundred and forty-six feet to the north-west corner of the building called the Sanatorium and slaughter house and bounded by a wooden fence, thence in a northerly direction for a distance of thirty-six feet bounded by the wooden fence of the slaughter-house yard, thence in a south-easterly direction for a distance of thirty-six feet bounded by the north eastern stone wall of the slaughter-house yard and the slaughter-house, thence in a southerly direction for a distance of five hundred and thirty-seven feet and bounded by the east stone wall of the slaughter-house and the said Sanatorium, thence in a westerly direction for a distance of thirty-four feet and bounded by the south wooden wall of the said Sanatorium and slaughter-house, thence in a northerly direction for a distance of seventy-nine feet and bounded by the west wooden wall of the said Sanatorium and slaughter-house, thence in a westerly direction for a distance of six feet and bounded by a wooden fence, thence in a northerly direction for a distance of two hundred and seventy-five feet and bounded by a wooden fence and wooden gates, thence in a westerly direction for a distance of one hundred and twenty-two feet and bounded by a wooden fence and wooden gates, thence in a northerly direction for a distance of one hundred and ninety feet and bounded by a wooden fence, thence in a westerly direction for a distance of five hundred and ten feet and bounded by a wooden fence, and terminating at the water at the east side of the said Dock at the timber discharging jetty before mentioned at a point five feet south of the point of starting before mentioned, all which space is coloured pink on the plan of part of the Tyne Dock deposited for the purposes of this Order at the Privy Council Office, a copy of which is deposited at the office of the Town Clerk of the borough of South Shields. C. L. Peel.
