TUESDAY, MAY 31, 1881.

*Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace,
May 27, 1881.*

NOTICE is hereby given, that His Royal Highness The Prince of Wales will, by command of The Queen, hold a Levee at St. James's Palace, on behalf of Her Majesty, on Wednesday, the 22nd of June next, at two o'clock. It is The Queen's pleasure that Presentations to His Royal Highness at this Levee shall be considered as equivalent to Presentations to Her Majesty.

REGULATIONS

TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S LEVEE TO BE HELD BY HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS THE PRINCE OF WALES, ON BEHALF OF HER MAJESTY, AT ST. JAMES'S PALACE.

By Her Majesty's Command,

The Noblemen and Gentlemen who propose to attend Her Majesty's Levee, at St. James's Palace, are requested to bring with them two large cards, with their names clearly written thereon, one to be left with The Queen's Page in attendance in the Corridor, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to His Royal Highness.

PRESENTATIONS.

Any Nobleman or Gentleman who proposes to be presented, must leave at the Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace, before twelve o'clock, two clear days before the Levee, a card with his name written thereon, and with the name of the Nobleman or Gentleman by whom he is to be presented. In order to carry out the existing regulations that no presentation can be made at a Levee excepting by a person actually attending that Levee, it is also necessary that an intimation from the Nobleman or Gentleman who is to make the presentation, of his intention to be present, should accompany the presentation card above referred to, which will be submitted to The Queen for Her Majesty's approbation. It is Her Majesty's command that no presentations shall be made at the Levee, except in accordance with the above regulations.

It is particularly requested, that in every case the names be very distinctly written upon the cards to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them to His Royal Highness.

The State Apartments will be open for the reception of Company coming to Court at half-past one o'clock.

KENMARE,
Lord Chamberlain

At the Court at Windsor, May 17, 1881.

THE Queen, as Sovereign of the Most Noble Order of the Garter, has been graciously pleased, by Letters Patent under Her Royal Sign Manual and the Great Seal of the Order, bearing date this day, to dispense with all the Statutes and regulation usually observed in regard to Installation, and to grant unto His Majesty Oscar II, King of Sweden and Norway, Knight of the said Most Noble Order, and duly invested with the Ensigns thereof, full power and authority to exercise all rights and privileges belonging to a Knight Companion of the Most Noble Order of the Garter, in as full and ample a manner as if His Majesty had been formally installed; any decree, rule, or usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 18th day of May, 1881.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty.

Lord President.

Lord Steward.

Earl of Northbrook.

WHEREAS it is expedient to make provision for the regulation of the conduct of the inhabitants of Cyprus and other persons therein residing during the existence of hostilities between States with which Her Majesty is at peace, and for the control by the High Commissioner over recruiting in Cyprus for the service of any State:

It is hereby ordered by Her Majesty, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in their behalf by the Foreign Jurisdiction Acts, 1843 to 1875, or otherwise in Her Majesty vested, and by and with the advice of the Privy Council, as follows:

PRELIMINARY.

Prepares or fits out any naval or military expedition to proceed against the dominions of any friendly State, the following consequences shall ensue:—

(1.) Every person engaged in such preparation or fitting out or assisting therein or employed in any capacity in such expedition shall be guilty of an offence against this Order in Council and shall be punishable by fine and imprisonment or either of such punishments at the discretion of the Court.

(2.) All ships and their equipments and all arms and munitions of war used in or forming part of such expedition shall be forfeited to Her Majesty.

Punishment of Accessories.

14. Any person who aids abets counsels or procures the commission of any offence against this Order in Council shall be liable to be tried and punished as a principal offender.

Limitation of term of Imprisonment.

15. The term of imprisonment to be awarded in respect of any offence against this Order in Council shall not exceed two years, and any imprisonment to be awarded in respect of any such offence may be either with or without hard labour.

ILLEGAL PRIZE.

Illegal Prize brought into Cyprus waters restored.

16. If during the continuance of any war in which Her Majesty may be neutral any ship goods or merchandise captured as prize of war within the territorial jurisdiction of Her Majesty or within the ports or waters of Cyprus in violation of the neutrality of the realm of Great Britain and Ireland or of Cyprus or captured by any ship which may have been built equipped commissioned or despatched or the force of which may have been augmented contrary to the provisions of the Foreign Enlistment Act 1870 or of this Order in Council are brought within the ports or waters of Cyprus by the captor or any agent of the captor or by any person having come into possession thereof with knowledge that the same was prize of war so captured as aforesaid it shall be lawful for the original owner of such prize or his agent or for any person authorised in that behalf by the Government of the State to which such owner belongs to make application to the Court for seizure and detention of such prize and the Court shall on due proof of the facts order such prize to be restored.

Every such order shall be executed and carried into effect in the same manner and subject to the same right of appeal as in case of any order made in the exercise of the ordinary jurisdiction of the Court and in the meantime and until a final order has been made on such application the Court shall have power to make all such provisional and other orders as to the care or custody of such captured ship goods or merchandise and (if the same be of perishable nature or incurring risk of deterioration) for the sale thereof and with respect to the deposit or investment of the proceeds of any such sale as may be made by such Court in the exercise of its ordinary jurisdiction.

GENERAL PROVISIONS.

License by Her Majesty, how granted.

17. For the purposes of this Order in Council a license by Her Majesty shall be under the sign manual of Her Majesty or be signified by Order in Council or by proclamation of Her Majesty.

Proceedings to be in the High Court only.

18. All proceedings whatsoever under this Order in Council shall be had in the High Court of Justice for Cyprus and not in any other Court.

Jurisdiction in respect of Forfeiture of Ships.

19. All proceedings for the condemnation and forfeiture of a ship or ship and equipment or arms and munitions of war in pursuance of this Order in Council shall require the sanction of the High Commissioner and shall be taken in the High Court before the Judicial Commissioner.

The High Court by the Judicial Commissioner shall in addition to any other power given to it by this Order in Council have in respect of any ship or other matter brought before it in pursuance of this Order in Council (other than the prosecution of offenders) all powers which any Vice-Admiralty Court within Her Majesty's dominions has in the case of a ship or matter brought before it in the exercise of its lawful jurisdiction.

Regulations as to Proceedings against the Offender and against the Ship.

20. Where any offence against this Order in Council has been committed by any person by reason whereof a ship or ship and equipment or arms and munitions of war has or have become liable to forfeiture, proceedings may be instituted contemporaneously or not as may be thought fit against the offender and against the ship or ship and equipment or arms and munitions of war for the forfeiture but it shall not be necessary to take proceedings against the offender because proceedings are instituted for the forfeiture, or to take proceedings for the forfeiture because proceedings are taken against the offender.

Judicial Commissioner to frame Rules, &c.

21. The Judicial Commissioner may frame rules and regulations for the conduct of all proceedings to be had in the High Court of Justice under this Order in Council, and as to the fees payable in relation to such proceedings, and such rules and regulations shall be of the same force and effect as if they had been enacted in this Order in Council.

Officers authorised to seize offending Ships.

22. The following Officers; that is to say,
- (1.) Any Officer of Customs or other Public Officer drawing a salary of not less than £200 a year in Cyprus (subject nevertheless to any special or general instructions from the High Commissioner):
 - (2.) Any Commissioned Officer on full pay in the military service of the Crown subject nevertheless to any special or general instructions from his Commanding Officer:
 - (3.) Any Commissioned Officer on full pay in the naval service of the Crown, subject nevertheless to any special or general instructions from the Admiralty or his Superior Officer, may seize or detain any ship liable to be seized or detained in pursuance of this Order in Council and such Officers are in this Order in Council referred to as the "Local Authority."

Powers of Officers authorised to seize Ships.

23. Any Officer authorised to seize or detain any ship in respect of any offence against this Order in Council may for the purpose of enforcing such seizure or detention call to his aid any Officers non-commissioned officers or privates of the Police force or any Officers of Her Majesty's Army or Navy or Marines or any Excise Officers or Officers of Customs or any Harbour Master or Dock Master or any Officers having authority by law to make seizures of ships and may put on board any ship so seized or detained, any one or more of such Officers to take charge of the same and to enforce the provisions of this Order in Council and any Officer seizing or detaining any ship under this Order in Council may use force if necessary for the purpose of enforcing seizure or detention, and if any person is killed or maimed by reason of his resisting such officer in the execution of his duties, or any person acting under his orders such officer so seizing or detaining the ship or other person shall be freely and fully indemnified as well against the Queen's Majesty Her heirs and successors as against all persons so killed maimed or hurt.

Special Power of the High Commissioner to detain Ship.

24. If the High Commissioner is satisfied that there is a reasonable and probable cause for believing that a ship within Cyprus or the ports or waters of Cyprus has been or is being built, commissioned or equipped contrary to this Act, and is about to be taken beyond the limits of such ports or waters, or that a ship is about to be despatched contrary to this Order in Council he shall have power to issue a warrant stating that there is reasonable and probable cause for believing as aforesaid and upon such warrant the local authority shall have power to seize and search such ship and to detain the same until it has been either condemned or released by process of law or in manner hereinafter mentioned.

The owner of the ship so detained or his agent may apply to the Court for its release, and the Court shall as soon as possible put the matter of such seizure and detention in course of trial between the applicant and the Crown as represented by the High Commissioner.

If the applicant establish to the satisfaction of the Court that the ship was not and is not being built, commissioned or equipped or intended to be despatched contrary to this Order in Council, the ship shall be released and restored.

If the applicant fail to establish to the satisfaction of the Court that the ship was not and is not being built, commissioned or equipped or intended to be despatched contrary to this Order in Council then the ship shall be detained till released by order of the High Commissioner.

The Court may in cases where no proceedings are pending for its condemnation, release any ship detained under this section on the owner giving security to the satisfaction of the Court that the ship shall not be employed contrary to this Order in Council. Notwithstanding that the applicant may have failed to establish to the satisfaction of the Court that the ship was not and is not being built, commissioned, or intended to be despatched contrary to this Order in Council. The High Commissioner may likewise release any ship detained under this section on the owner giving security to his satisfaction that the ship shall not be employed contrary to this Order in Council or may release the ship without such security if he think fit so to release the same.

If the Court be of opinion that there was not reasonable and probable cause for the detention and if no such cause appear in the course of the proceedings the Court shall have power to declare that the owner is to be indemnified by the payment of costs and damages in respect of the detention the amount thereof to be assessed by the Court and any amount so assessed shall be payable by the proper financial Officer of the Government of Cyprus out of any moneys legally applicable for that purpose. The Court shall also have power to make a like order for the indemnity of the owner on the application of such owner to the Court in a summary way, in cases where the ship is released by the Order of the High Commissioner before any application is made by the owner or his agent to the Court for such release. Nothing in this section contained shall affect any proceedings instituted or to be instituted for the condemnation of any ship detained under this section where such ship is liable to forfeiture subject to the provision that if such ship is restored in pursuance of this section all proceedings for such condemnation shall be stayed; and where the Court declares that the owner is to be indemnified by the payment of costs and damages for the detainer all costs charges and expenses incurred by such owner in or about any proceedings for the condemnation of such ship shall be added to the costs and damages payable to him in respect of the detention of the ship.

Nothing in this section contained shall apply to any non-commissioned non-British ship about to be dispatched from any of the ports or waters of Cyprus after having come within the same under stress of weather or in the course of a peaceful voyage and upon which ship no fitting out or equipping of a warlike character has taken place in the Island of Cyprus its ports or waters.

Special Power of Local Authority to detain Ship.

25. Where it is represented to any local authority as defined by this Order in Council and such local authority believes the representation that there is a reasonable and probable cause for believing that a ship within Cyprus or the ports or waters of Cyprus has been or is being built commissioned or equipped contrary to this Order in Council and is about to be taken beyond the limits of such ports or waters or that a ship is about to be despatched contrary to this Order in Council it shall be the duty of such local authority to detain such ship and forthwith to communicate the fact of such detention to the High Commissioner.

Upon the receipt of such communication the High Commissioner may order the ship to be released if he thinks there is no cause for detaining her but if satisfied that there is reasonable and probable cause for believing that such ship was built commissioned or equipped or intended to be despatched in contravention of this Order in Council he shall issue his warrant stating that there is reasonable and probable cause for believing as aforesaid and upon such warrant being issued further proceedings shall be had as in cases where the seizure or detention has taken place on a warrant issued by the High Commissioner without any communication from the local authority.

Where the High Commissioner orders the ship to be released on the receipt of a communication from the local authority without issuing his warrant the owner of the ship shall be indemnified by the payment of costs and damages in respect of the detention upon application to the Court in a summary way in like manner as he is entitled to be indemnified where the High Commissioner having issued his warrant under this Order in Council releases the ship before any application is made by the owner or his agent to the Court for such release.

Power of High Commissioner to grant Search Warrant.

26. The High Commissioner may by warrant empower any person to enter any dockyard or other place within the Island of Cyprus its ports or waters and enquire as to the destination of any ship which may appear to him to be intended to be employed in the naval or military service of any State at war with a friendly State and to search such ship.

Appeals.

27. An appeal may be had from any decision of the Court under this Order in Council to the same tribunal and in the same manner to and in which an appeal may be had in cases within the ordinary jurisdiction of the Court.

Indemnity to Officers.

28. Subject to the provisions of this Order in Council providing for the award of damages in certain cases in respect of the seizure or detention of a ship no damages shall be payable, and no Officer or local authority shall be responsible, either civilly or criminally in respect of the seizure or detention of any ship in pursuance of this Order in Council.

Indemnity to High Commissioner.

29. The High Commissioner shall not be responsible in any action or other legal proceedings whatsoever for any warrant issued by him in pursuance of this Order in Council, or be examinable as a witness except at his own request in any Court of Justice in respect of the circumstances which led to the issue of the warrant.

Nothing in this Order in Council contained shall subject to forfeiture any commissioned ship of any State or give to the Court over or in respect of any ship entitled to recognition as a commissioned ship of a State any jurisdiction which it would not have had if this Order in Council had not passed.

And the Right Honourable the Earl of Kimberley, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, is to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 18th day of May, 1881.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the seventh day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one, in the words and figures following ; that is to say :—

"We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of your Majesty chapter thirty-nine have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the church and cure (which said church and cure are hereinafter called the said benefice) of Hershams in the county of Surrey and in the diocese of Winchester ; which cure of Hershams is a new parish and was some time part of the parish of Walton-on-Thames in the said county and diocese.

"Whereas the said advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Hershams is vested in the vicar or incumbent for the time being of the said parish of Walton-on-Thames as such vicar or incumbent.

"And whereas Francis Thomas Bircham of Burhill within the said new parish of Hershams, Esquire has proposed to us the following arrangement with respect to the said advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Hershams, to wit,

1. That he the said Francis Thomas Bircham shall pay over to us the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England a sum of five hundred pounds to be held by us (subject as hereinafter mentioned) for the benefit of the said benefice of Hershams and a further sum of four hundred and seventy-five pounds to be held by us for the benefit of the incumbent for the time being of the said vicarage of Walton-on-Thames.

"2. That after and in consideration of such payments as aforesaid the said advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Hershams shall be transferred to the said Francis Thomas Bircham his heirs and assigns ; but so nevertheless, that the same advowson or perpetual right of patronage and presentation shall be capable of being, and shall ipso facto be transferred over from the said Francis Thomas Bircham and his heirs and assigns to the Bishop for the time being of the said diocese of Winchester and his successors immediately upon the happening of any one of the three contingencies hereinafter in that behalf mentioned.

"And whereas the Reverend Thomas James Craig McCowan, Clerk in Holy Orders now vicar or incumbent of the said vicarage of Walton-on-Thames is willing that the said advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Hershams now vested in him as such vicar or incumbent as aforesaid should be transferred and vested in accordance with the terms of the arrangement proposed to us by the said Francis Thomas Bircham as aforesaid ; and in token of such willingness he has executed this scheme as hereinafter mentioned.

"And whereas the Right Reverend Edward Harold now Bishop of the said diocese of Winchester is also willing that the same advowson and perpetual right of patronage and presentation should be so transferred and vested as last aforesaid ; and in token both that he is willing to accept for himself and his successors in the Bishoprick of Winchester the said deferred and conditional transfer contemplated by the said proposed arrangement, and also that both the said immediate transfer and the said deferred and conditional transfer have that consent of the Bishop of the diocese which by the Acts in the hereinbefore-mentioned Act recited or by some or one of them is made necessary, he the said Edward Harold Bishop of Winchester has executed this scheme as hereinafter mentioned.

"And whereas the said sums of five hundred pounds and four hundred and seventy-five pounds have been paid over to us by the said Francis Thomas Bircham upon the terms aforesaid.

"And whereas it appears to us that a transfer of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Hershams in accordance with the terms of the said arrangement proposed to us by the said Francis Thomas Bircham and hereinbefore and hereinafter set forth will tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the new parish of Hershams, being the parish or district in or in respect of which the said right of patronage and advowson arises and exists.

"Now therefore with the consent of the said Thomas James Craig McCowan (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme) and with the consent of the said Edward Harold Bishop of the said diocese of Winchester (in testimony whereof he has signed this scheme and sealed the same with his episcopal seal) we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of an Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order, the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Hershams now vested in the said Thomas James Craig McCowan as such vicar or incumbent of the said parish of Walton-on-Thames as aforesaid shall be transferred from the said Thomas James Craig McCowan and from his successors vicars or incumbents of the said parish of Walton-on-Thames to and be vested in the said Francis Thomas Bircham and his heirs and assigns Provided always and we hereby further recommend and propose that the same advowson or perpetual right of patronage and presentation shall without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than this scheme and the said duly gazetted Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying the same be transferred over from the said Francis Thomas Bircham his heirs and assigns to the Bishop for the time being of the said diocese of Winchester and shall thereupon become and be absolutely vested in the said Bishop and his successors for ever if and in case any one of the contingencies firstly secondly and thirdly next hereinafter mentioned shall within the period next hereinafter mentioned have happened and have been notified by us by notice to that effect under our common seal published in the London Gazette from the date of which notice we recommend and propose that the said last-mentioned transfer of the said advowson or perpetual right of patronage and presentation shall take effect as aforesaid;—which said contingencies are as follows that is to say

“1. That the church of the Holy and Undivided Trinity of Hersham being the church which with the cure thereto attached, is as aforesaid called the said benefice of Hersham, shall within a period of ten years from the date at which an Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme shall be published in the London Gazette as aforesaid have been rebuilt to our satisfaction upon its present site or upon some other site approved by us, and that the said sum of five hundred pounds so paid over to us by the said Francis Thomas Bircham as aforesaid shall on the requisition to us in writing of the said Francis Thomas Bircham or other the person or persons claiming through or under him, and who would for the time being be entitled to present to the said benefice of Hersham if the same were vacant, been applied in or towards such rebuilding; or

“2. That the said church of the Holy and Undivided Trinity at Hersham (that is to say the present fabric of that church) shall within the period aforesaid have been enlarged to our satisfaction and the said sum of five hundred pounds shall on such requisition in writing as aforesaid have been applied in or towards such enlargement; or

“3. That church accommodation other than and besides that firstly and secondly specified above shall within the period aforesaid have been to our satisfaction provided within and for the said new parish of Hersham or some part thereof and that the said sum of five hundred pounds shall on such requisition in writing as aforesaid have been applied in or towards supplying such church accommodation.

“It being understood with respect to each of the said three contingencies, that the said sum of five hundred pounds so paid over to us by the said Francis Thomas Bircham as aforesaid shall on such requisition to us in writing as aforesaid, be applicable and be applied towards the cost of effecting that one of the said contingencies which shall happen as aforesaid.

“Provided also, and we further recommend and propose that if none of the said contingencies shall have happened when the said period of ten years shall be ended then and in that case the said advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Hersham shall not be transferred over as aforesaid but shall be and remain absolutely vested in the said Francis Thomas Bircham and his heirs and assigns as aforesaid for ever it being further understood that in that event the said sum of five hundred pounds so paid over to us by the said Francis Thomas Bircham as aforesaid shall continue to be held by us for the benefit of the incumbent of the said benefice of Hersham and for no other purpose for which said last-mentioned purpose the same sum of five hundred pounds except in so far as it shall or may be otherwise expended by us as aforesaid is now and will henceforth be held by us.

“Provided also and we further recommend and propose that the said sum of four hundred and seventy-five pounds so paid to us by the said Francis Thomas Bircham shall be held by us for the benefit of the incumbent for the time being of the said vicarage of Walton and for no other purpose for which last-mentioned purpose the same sum of four hundred and seventy-five pounds is now and will henceforth be so held by us.

“And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of either of them or of any other Act of Parliament.”

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Winchester.

INCOME TAX.

WHEREAS by the Taxes Management Act, 1880 (43 and 44 Vict., ch. 19), power is given for increasing in certain cases the number of persons appointed, under the provisions made by the Income Tax Act of 1842, Commissioners for the general purposes of the Income Tax, and persons to supply vacancies amongst such Commissioners in each district or division in Great Britain; and it appearing to the Board of Inland Revenue that the number of persons so appointed for the division of Reading, in the county of Berks, is insufficient for the proper discharge of the business therein arising under the Tax Acts, the said Board hereby authorize the increase in the number of the Commissioners for the said division to any number not exceeding fourteen, and of persons to supply vacancies amongst such Commissioners to any number not exceeding fourteen; and we, the undersigned, two members of the said Board, do hereby convene a meeting of the persons appointed for putting in execution within the said county, an Act passed in the 38th year of the reign of King George the Third, intituled "An Act for granting an aid to His Majesty by a Land Tax to be raised in Great Britain for the service of the year 1798," being respectively qualified to act as Commissioners in the execution of the last-mentioned Act, to be holden at the Assize Courts at Reading, on Saturday, the 4th day of June, 1881, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon, for the purpose of choosing and appointing, according to the regulations of the said Income Tax Act of 1842, such number of fit and proper persons to be Commissioners for general purposes for the said division of Reading and of persons to supply vacancies amongst such Commissioners, as may be sufficient to increase the number of such Commissioners to any number not exceeding fourteen, and of persons to supply vacancies amongst such Commissioners to any number not exceeding fourteen.

Plews, Irvine, and Hodges, Solicitors, 79, Mark-lane, in the city of London, on Monday, the 13th day of June, 1881, at three o'clock in the afternoon precisely, for the purpose of considering the propriety of sanctioning the acceptance by the Trustees of the following offer made by John Johnston for and on behalf of the said Alexander William Bain, or any modification thereof, namely:—
1. That the said John Johnston shall pay to the said Trustees the sum of twelve hundred pounds for the purchase of the property, estate, effects, and goodwill of the said bankrupt vested in the said Trustees, as of the date of the petition for liquidation, subject to the liens or claims thereon of George Henry Sawtell, of Red Lion-square, and of John Brigham, of Brook, in the county of Norfolk; 2. That an account shall be taken as between the Trustees and the said John Johnston of all receipts, payments made by the Receiver and by the Trustees in respect of the property, estate, and effects of the said bankrupt, and the balance found to be due on the taking of such account shall be paid or received by the said John Johnston, or the Trustees, as the case may be; and that in taking such account the said John Johnston shall be debited with all payments for rent, rates, and taxes paid and due in respect of the business and residential premises of the bankrupt, but not with the proportionate part of the rent to the date of the said petition for liquidation; 3. That the said John Johnston shall release the said

Trustees, and the property, estate, and effects of the said bankrupt from all debts and claims by him against the estate of the said bankrupt, and from all demands in respect thereof, and shall obtain from David Graeme Johnston, of Hastings, as administrator of Hannah Johnston, deceased, a similar release in respect of all debts and claims due to the estate of the said Hannah Johnston; 4. That the said John Johnston shall also obtain similar releases from the said George Henry Sawtell and John Brigham respectively, of their respective debts or claims on the estate of the said bankrupt without prejudice to their respective security on part of the bankrupt's property; 5. That upon payment by the said John Johnston to the said Trustees of the said sum of twelve hundred pounds, and upon the settlement of the said account, and the said several releases being executed to the satisfaction of the said Trustees, all proper assignments of the said property, estate, effects, and goodwill of the said bankrupt, prepared at the expense of the said John Johnston, shall be executed by the said Trustees to the said John Johnston, and upon such payment, settlement of account, and execution of such deeds, the adjudication of bankruptcy made under the said petition shall be annulled.—Dated this 28th day of May, 1881.
