FACTORY AND WORKSHOP ACT, 1878.

41 Vict., c. 16, s. 53.

OVERTIME.—ADDITIONAL TWO HOURS.

Order of Secretary of State extending Special Exception.

WHEREAS the Factory and Workshop Act, 1878, contains a special exception to the effect that the regulations of the Act with respect to the employment of young persons and women shall not prevent the employment in the factories and workshops or parts thereof to which the exception applies of young persons and of women during a period of employment beginning at 6 A.M. and ending at 8 P.M., or beginning at 7 A.M. and ending at 9 P.M., or beginning at 8 A.M. and ending at 10 P.M., if they are employed in accordance with the following conditions; namely,

- (1.) There shall be allowed to every such young person and woman for meals during the period of employment not less than two hours, of which half an hour shall be after five o'clock in the evening; and
- (2.) Any such young person or woman shall not be so employed on the whole for more than 5 days in any one week, nor for more than 48 days in any 12 months.

And whereas the special exception is by the Act declared to apply to the factories and workshops referred to in the said section;

And whereas it has been proved to my satisfaction that in such processes incidental to the weaving of ribbons in workshops as are mentioned in the schedule hereunder it is necessary, by reason of press of work arising at certain recurring seasons of the year, and of the liability of the business to a sudden press of orders arising from unforeseen events, to employ young persons and women in manner authorized by this exception, and that such employment will not injure the health of the young persons and women affected thereby;

Now I, the Right Honourable Sir William Vernon Harcourt, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, by this Order, made under Part 2 of the said Act, extend this exception accordingly. Provided that nothing in this Order shall be taken to apply:

- (a.) Where persons are employed at home, that is to say, to a private house, room, or place which, though used as a dwelling, is, by reason of the work carried on there, a factory or workshop within the meaning of this Act, and in which neither steam, water, nor other mechanical power is used, and in which the only persons employed are members of the same family dwelling there; or
- (b.) To a workshop, or part thereof, which is conducted on the system of not employing any child or young person therein.

This Order shall come into effect on Tuesday, the 7th of June, 1881, and shall, unless previously revoked, continue in force until 31st December, 1881, and no longer.

W. V. Harcourt.

Home Office, Whitehall, June 3, 1881.

Schedule.

The processes of warping, winding, or filling, or either of them, as incidental to the weaving of ribbons in workshops.

FACTORY AND WORKSHOP ACT, 1878.

41 Vict., c. 16, s. 42.

PERIOD OF EMPLOYMENT 8 A.M. TO 8 P.M.

Order of Secretary of State extending Special Exception.

WHEREAS the Factory and Workshop Act, 1878, section 42, contains a special exception to the effect that in the factories and workshops, or parts thereof, to which the exception applies, the period of employment for young persons and women, if so fixed by the occupier and specified in the notice, may, except on Saturday, begin at 8 A.M. and end at 8 P.M., and on Saturday may begin at 8 A.M. and end at 4 P.M., or where it begins at 7 A.M. may end at 3 P.M., and the period of employment for a child in a morning set may begin at the same hour, and the period of employment for a child in the afternoon set may end at the same hour:

And whereas this special exception is by the Act declared to apply to the factories and workshops referred to in the said section:

And whereas it has been proved to my satisfaction that the workshops of the class mentioned in the schedule hereunder, by reason of the customs and exigencies of the trades carried on therein, require the extension thereto of this exception:

Now I, the Right Honourable Sir William Vernon Harcourt, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, by this Order, made under Part 2 of the said Act, extend the said exception to workshops of such class:

This Order shall come into effect on Tuesday, 7th June, 1881, and shall, unless previously revoked, continue in force until 31st December, 1882, and no longer.

W. V. Harcourt.
