

Privy Council Office, July 15, 1881.

THE following Statutes made on the 16th day of June, 1881, by the University of Oxford Commissioners, under the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877, for the University of Oxford have been submitted for the approval of Her Majesty, and notice of their having been so submitted is published in accordance with the provisions contained in the said Act.

WE, the University of Oxford Commissioners, under and by virtue of all and every the powers in this behalf enabling as contained in the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877, do by this present Instrument under our Seal make the Statute hereunto annexed for the University of Oxford concerning Electoral Boards and tenure of Professorships in the said University.

Given under our Common Seal
this sixteenth day of June,
in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one.

CONCERNING ELECTORAL BOARDS AND TENURE OF PROFESSORSHIPS.

WHEREVER by a Statute made under the powers of the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877, it is provided that the election to a Professorship shall be vested in a Board of Electors, the Board shall, unless the Statute otherwise provide, be composed of not fewer than five nor more than seven persons.

The University may from time to time by Statute regulate or vary the constitution of any such Board; save only that, where by any clause or provision, not made subject to this power, it is provided that one or more of the electors shall always be a person or persons answering to a specified designation or nominated or appointed in a specified manner, the exercise of this power shall be subject to and controlled by such clause or provision.

2. Every Professorship shall, unless it be otherwise provided in any Statute or instrument of foundation relating to it and in force for the time being, be deemed to be tenable for life, subject to the liability of the holder to vacate it by deprivation for sufficient cause; but this provision shall not affect any power which the University has to vary or limit by Statute the tenure of any Professorship.

3. No Professorship shall, unless by virtue of expressed provision in any Statute or instrument of foundation relating to it and in force for the time being, be tenable with another Professorship within the University, nor with a University Readership.

This Statute is a Statute wholly for the University, within the meaning of Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877, section 30.

WE, the University of Oxford Commissioners, under and by virtue of all and every the powers in this behalf enabling us contained in the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877, do by this present Instrument under our Seal make the Statute hereunto annexed for the University of Oxford concerning the operation of Statutes made under the powers of the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877.

Given under our Common Seal
this sixteenth day of June,
in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one.

No. 25000.

CONCERNING THE OPERATION OF STATUTES MADE UNDER THE POWERS OF THE UNIVERSITIES OF OXFORD AND CAMBRIDGE ACT, 1877.

1. In this Statute the expression "new Statutes" shall mean any Statutes made or to be made by the University of Oxford Commissioners for the University or for a College.

The expression "existing Professor" shall mean a person holding a Professorship to which he was elected or appointed before the 6th day of October, 1880; and the words "Professor" and "Professorship" shall respectively include University Readers and Readerships.

In this Statute and in all new Statutes made for the University, including the Statute concerning a Visitatorial Board, the words "Professor" and "Professorship" shall (except where Regius Professorships are expressly excluded or a different construction is required by the context) include Regius Professors and Professorships.

2. Subject to the provisions hereinafter contained, and except where it is otherwise provided in such new Statutes or any of them, every new Statute made for the University shall take effect on the approval of it by Her Majesty in Council; and the regulations of existing Statutes, so far as they relate to matters regulated by any such new Statute, shall be thenceforth void.

TEMPORARY SAVING CLAUSES.

3. No existing Professor shall receive augmented emoluments under new Statutes unless and until he shall, by writing under his hand delivered to the Vice-Chancellor, have consented to be subject, in respect of the duties to be performed by him as Professor, and of his residence, as well as in other respects, to any new Statutes relating to his office.

4. Unless and until he shall have so consented, no existing Professor shall in respect of the duties to be performed by him, his residence, or the right to receive fees from students attending his lectures, be subject to the provisions of such new Statutes, except any provisions expressly made applicable to existing Professors. But every such professor shall, in respect of the matters aforesaid, continue to be subject to the Statutory regulations relating to his office which were in force at the time of the approval of the new Statutes, and to such power as the University then had to vary or add to those regulations.

Provided as follows:

- i. Clause 3 shall not apply to any Professor who would by giving consent as aforesaid become subject to the Particular Regulations made applicable to the Professors mentioned in Schedules A. and C., or either of them, annexed to the Statute concerning the duties of Professors, unless the emoluments of his office, exclusive of fees, exceed 600*l.* per annum, or would, by the augmentation, be raised above that sum.
- ii. Where any Professor is by existing regulations required to reside in the University during part of a period in each academical year commencing on the 10th day of October, the period shall henceforth be reckoned as commencing on the 1st day of September.
5. The Particular Regulations applicable to the Professors mentioned in the above-mentioned Schedules A. and C. shall not apply to any Professor appointed since the 6th day of October 1880, or hereafter to be appointed, unless and until the emoluments of his office, exclusive of fees, shall exceed 600*l.* per annum. But he shall in respect of the aforesaid matters be subject to the Statutory regulations previously in force in
