The Bankruptcy Act, 1869.

In the London Bankruptcy Court.

In the Matter of Nathaniel Alexander, Brice Hugh Pearce, and Alexander Collie, late of 23, Great Winchester-street, in the city of London, trading under the style of N. Alexander, Son, and Co., adjudicated Bankrupts on the 8th September, 1875.

Before Mr. Registrar Murray, sitting as Chief Judge.

UPON reading the reports of the Trustee of the property of the bankrupts, dated respectively the 23rd day of May, 1881, reporting as concerns the joint estate, that the whole of the property of the bankrupts has been realized for the benefit of the creditors, and dividends to the amount of three shillings and three pence and one sixteenth of a penny in the pound has been paid, as shown by the statement annexed, and also as concerns the separate estate of the said Nathaniel Alexander, that so much of the property of the bankrupt as could according to the joint opinion of himself and the Committee of Inspection be realized without needlessly protracting the bankruptcy has been realized, as shown by the statement annexed, and a dividend to the amount of twenty shillings in the pound had been paid, and the surplus transferred to the credit of the joint estate, as shown by the statement annexed, and also as concerns the separate estate of the said Brice Hugh Pearce, that the whole of the property had been realized for the benefit of his creditors, and a dividend to the amount of twenty shillings in the pound had been paid, as shown by the statement annexed, and the surplus transferred to the joint estate, and upon hearing the application of Messrs. Travers Smith and Braithwaite, the Solicitors for the Trustee, and reading the report of the Official Assignee, dated the 2nd day of August instant, and affidavit of Arthur James McMaster, sworn the 29th day of July last, and no creditor appearing to oppose, the Court being satisfied that the whole of the property has been realized, and that the same has been divided amongst their creditors, except the sum of thirty-three pounds twelve shillings and five pence now in the Trustee's hands, doth order and declare that the bankruptcy of the said Nathaniel Alexander, Brice Hugh Pearce, and Alexander Collie has closed, both as regards the joint estate and the separate estate of the said Nathaniel Alexander and Brice Hugh Pearce, and that the balance of thirty-three pounds twelve shillings and five pence be paid into Court, less the costs of this application to be taxed.—Given under the Seal of the Court this 3rd day of August, 1881.
