

Feeding and Watering.

15. Animals landed in the wharf shall, until they are taken charge of by the owners or consignees, be supplied by the Corporation with requisite food and water, and the expenses incurred by them in respect thereof shall be defrayed by the owners or consignees of the animals, and may be recovered by the Corporation from the owners or consignees by proceedings in any court of competent jurisdiction.

Offences.

16. If an animal is moved in contravention of this Order, the owner of the animal, and the person for the time being in charge thereof, and the person causing, directing, or permitting the movement, and the person moving or conveying the animal, and the consignee or other person receiving or keeping it, knowing it to have been moved in contravention as aforesaid, shall, each according to and in respect of his own acts and defaults, be deemed guilty of an offence against the Act of 1878.

17. If the slaughter of animals is not commenced at the time directed by the Privy Council under this Order the person failing to cause the same to be slaughtered shall be deemed guilty of an offence against the Act of 1878.

18. If any person fails to carry out or observe any direction of the Privy Council as regards cleansing or disinfection, which he is by this Order required to carry out or observe, he shall be deemed guilty of an offence against the Act of 1878.

C. L. Peel.

AT the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 27th day of August, 1881.

By Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

THE Lords and others of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in them vested under The Contagious Diseases (Animals) Act, 1878, and of every other power enabling them in this behalf, do order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:

1. This Order shall take effect from and immediately after the thirtieth day of August, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one.

2. The following area declared by Order of Council to be an area infected with foot-and-mouth disease (namely),—the petty sessional divisions of Atherstone, Coventry, Rugby, and Southam, in the county of Warwick,—is, except the petty sessional divisions of Coventry, Rugby, and Southam, hereby declared to be free from foot-and-mouth disease, and that area, except as aforesaid, shall, as from the commencement of this Order, cease to be an area infected with foot-and-mouth disease.

3. The petty sessional divisions of Coventry, Rugby, and Southam, in the county of Warwick, shall continue to be and are hereby declared to be an area infected with foot-and-mouth disease.

C. L. Peel.

AT the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 27th day of August, 1881.

By Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

THE Lords and others of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in them vested under The Contagious Diseases (Animals) Act, 1878, and of every other power enabling them in this behalf, do hereby revoke their Order, bearing date the eleventh day of August, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one, defining a part of the Port of Ardrossan, in the county of Ayr, as a foreign animals quarantine station: Provided that nothing herein shall be deemed to invalidate or make unlawful anything done under the said Order before the date of this revocation, or interfere with the institution or prosecution of any proceeding in respect of any offence committed against, or any penalty incurred under, the said Order.

C. L. Peel.
