"That such perpetual curacy shall be subject to the same ecclesiastical jurisdiction as the said rectory of Aylestone.

"That the income of the said rectory of Aylestone shall from the date upon which such separation takes effect be charged with the payment by equal half-yearly payments of the net annual sum of three hundred pounds to the incumbent for the time being of the said perpetual curacy, such charge to be made under the provisions of the Act of the 3rd and 4th years of Her Majesty chapter 113 and of the Act of the 17th and 18th years of Her Majesty chapter 84.

"That baptisms, churchings, marriages and all other ecclesiastical offices shall be performed in the church of the benefice so to be constituted and that the fees for all such offices performed within the limits of such benefice and all ecclesiastical dues offerings and other emoluments arising from or in respect of the said newly constituted benefice and usually payable to the incumbent of a benefice shall belong to the incumbent of the said proposed perpetual curacy.

"That the incumbent of the said proposed perpetual curacy shall have exclusive cure of souls within the limits thereof.

"That the right of nominating a minister to the church of such perpetual curacy and benefice shall be vested in and exercised and enjoyed by the Bishop for the time being of the diocese of Peterborough.

"That the inhabitants of the proposed newly constituted parish shall not when this scheme takes effect be entitled to accommodation in the parish church of Aylestone, except nevertheless any person or persons having a legal right by faculty or otherwise to the possession of any pew or seat in the parish church of Aylestone aforesaid and who may not be willing to relinquish or give up the same.

"That the pews or seats in the new church of St. James be all of them free and open.

"That if the proposed new church of St. James shall be then built the above scheme shall take effect immediately upon the next avoidance of the benefice of Aylestone but if the said church shall not be so built when such next avoidance takes place then the said scheme shall take effect upon the building and consecration of the said church.

"CONSENT."

"I William Connor Lord Bishop of the diocese of Peterborough the patron in full right by virtue of my Bishoprick of the rectory of Aylestone within mentioned do hereby signify my consent to the scheme hereinbefore recited and set forth and everything therein contained.

"As witness my hand this first day of August in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one.

"W. C. Peterborough."

And whereas the said Bishop of Peterborough hath transmitted the said scheme to the Archbishop of Canterbury for his consideration and the said Archbishop being satisfied with such scheme hath certified the same and such consents as aforesaid by his report to Her Majesty in Council dated the seventeenth day of August 1881, which report is in the words and figures following:—

"To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

"We the undersigned Archibald Campbell Lord Archbishop of the Province of Canterbury do hereby report to your Majesty in Council.

"That the Right Reverend William Connor Lord Bishop of Peterborough has represented unto us (amongst other things).

"That there is in the county of Leicester and diocese of Peterborough the rectory of Aylestone the parish whereof on account of its close proximity to the town of Leicester is becoming very thickly populated.

"That the gross annual income of the said rectory is one thousand three hundred and twenty-four pounds or thereabouts.

"That there is one church at Aylestone aforesaid but it is expected that if the scheme annexed to the said representation is carried into effect a new church for the inhabitants of the proposed new district will be built upon a site which has been given for that purpose.

"That it appears to the said Lord Bishop that the portion of the said parish of Aylestone coloured yellow upon the plan accompanying the said representation which contains a population of two thousand persons might under the provisions of the Acts of Parliament of the first and second years of Her present Majesty chapter 106 and the second and third years of Her said Majesty chapter 49 be advantageously separated from the said parish of Aylestone and constituted a separate benefice by the name or style of 'Saint James' Aylestone Park.

"That it also appears to the said Lord Bishop that the income of the said rectory of Aylestone should from the date upon which such separation takes effect be charged with the payment by equal half yearly payments of the net annual sum of three hundred pounds to the Incumbent for the time being of the said newly constituted benefice.

"That the said Lord Bishop has drawn up a scheme in writing describing the mode in which it appears to him the proposed alteration may best be effected and how the changes consequent upon such alteration in respect to ecclesiastical jurisdiction glebe lands tithe rent-charges and other ecclesiastical dues rates and payments may be made with justice to all parties interested which scheme together with the consent thereto in writing of the said Lord Bishop as patron of the said rectory of Aylestone has been transmitted by the said Lord Bishop to us for our consideration.

"The representation and scheme of the said Lord Bishop and the consent before referred to are hereunto annexed.

"And we the said Archbishop being on full consideration and enquiry satisfied with the said scheme do hereby pursuant to the Act of the first and second years of your Majesty's reign chapter 106 certify the same and such consent as aforesaid to your Majesty in Council to the intent that your Majesty in Council may in case your Majesty in Council shall think fit so to do make and issue an order for carrying the said scheme into effect.

"As witness our hand this seventeenth day of August one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one.

"A. C. Cantuar."

Now therefore Her Majesty in Council by and
