William Mark Pybus, of Post Office-chambers, St. Nicholas-square, Newcastle-on-Tyne, Solicitor for the Petitioner.

In the High Court of Justice.—Chancery Division. In the Matter of the Companies Acts, 1862 to 1879, and in the Matter of Watson Kipling and Company Limited.

BY an Order made by the Vacation Judge, Mr. Justice Kay, in the above matter, dated the 7th day of September, 1881, on the petition of the Wheelock Iron and Salt Company Limited, whose registered office is situate at Wheelock, near Sanbach, in the county of Chester, and the Carlton Iron Company Limited, whose registered office is situate at Carlton Iron Works, in the county of Durham, creditors of the above-named Company, it was ordered that the voluntary winding up of the said Watson Kipling and Company Limited be continued, but subject to the supervision of this Court, and any of the proceedings under the said voluntary winding up may be adopted as the Judge shall think fit; and the creditors, contributories, and Liquidator of the said Company, and all other persons interested, are to be at liberty to apply to the Judge at Chambers as there may be occasion. And it was ordered that the costs of the petitioners, and of the said Company, and of the said Messrs. John Hoyle and John Thomas Booth, creditors and contributories supporting the petition of the application, should be taxed by the Taxing Master and be paid out of the assets of the said Company, and in such taxation only one set of costs is to be allowed to the creditors supporting the petition, and one set of costs to the said contributories supporting the same.
