DERBYSHIRE (MOVEMENT OF ANIMALS) ORDER OF 1881, AMENDMENT.

AT the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 7th day of October, 1881.

By Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

PRESENT:

Sir Barnes Peacock.
Sir Arthur Hobhouse.

THE Lords and others of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in them vested under The Contagious Diseases (Animals) Act, 1878, and of every other power enabling them in this behalf, and with reference especially to Article 16 of The Foot-and-Mouth Disease No. 2 Order of 1881, do order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:

1. This Order may be cited as THE DERBYSHIRE (MOVEMENT OF ANIMALS) ORDER OF 1881, AMENDMENT.
2. This Order shall commence and take effect from and immediately after the eighth day of October, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one; and shall cease to have effect from and immediately after the thirty-first day of October, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one, without prejudice to the institution or prosecution of any proceeding in respect of an offence committed on or before that day.
3. Terms in this Order have the same meaning as in The Foot-and-Mouth Disease No. 2 Order of 1881.
4. Notwithstanding anything in Article 4 of The Derbyshire (Movement of Animals) Order of 1881, fat animals exposed at the market held in the borough of Derby by licence of the Local Authority may be moved out of that market and then into the District of the Local Authority of the county of Derby on the conditions applicable to movement from public sales of fat animals held by licence of a Local Authority, named in The Foot-and-Mouth Disease No. 2 Order of 1881, but not otherwise.
5. If an animal is moved in contravention of this Order, the owner thereof, and the person for the time being in charge thereof, and the person causing, directing, or permitting the movement, and the person or company moving or conveying the animal, and the consignee or other person receiving or keeping it, knowing it to have been so moved, shall, each according to and in respect of his or their own acts and defaults, be deemed guilty of an offence against the Act of 1878.

C. L. Peel.

(PORT OF PORTSMOUTH.)

AT the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 7th day of October, 1881.

By Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

THE Lords and others of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in them vested under The Contagious Diseases (Animals) Act, 1878, and of every other power enabling them in this behalf, do hereby define the following part of the Port of Portsmouth, in the county of Southampton, as a foreign animals wharf:

All that space and premises at the Camber Dock, in the borough of Portsmouth, in the county of Southampton, situate on the north side of the Outer Camber, bounded by a line commencing at the north quay wall of the said Outer Camber at a point twenty-three feet west from the north-west corner of the Camber Dry Dock, thence in a north-east direction for a distance of thirty-four feet three inches, thence eastward one hundred and sixty-two feet ten inches, thence northward six feet, thence eastward forty-three feet seven inches, thence northward thirty feet seven inches, thence westward two hundred and two feet seven inches, thence south-westward seventy-one feet nine inches, thence north-westward seven feet two inches, thence south-westward one hundred and nine feet to the before-named north quay wall, thence south-eastward thirty-eight feet six inches, and thence eastward one hundred and nineteen feet seven inches along the edge of the said north quay wall to the point aforesaid, all which space and premises are coloured pink on the plan of the said foreign animals wharf deposited for the purposes of this Order at the Privy Council Office, a copy of which is deposited at the office of the Town Clerk of the borough of Portsmouth.

C. L. Peel.

AT the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 7th day of October, 1881.

By Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

THE Lords and others of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in them vested under
