

visions of an Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England beyond the limits of the Metropolis, and to amend the Act concerning the burial of the dead in the Metropolis," made a representation stating that, for the protection of the public health, burials should be forthwith and entirely discontinued in Horsforth Church in the county of York; and in the churchyard, except as follows:—In such vaults and walled graves as are now existing in the churchyard burials may be allowed, on condition that every coffin buried therein be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty in Council is pleased hereby to give notice of such representation, and to order that the same be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council on the sixth day of December next:

And Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith published in the London Gazette; and that copies thereof be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some conspicuous places within, the parish affected by such representation, one month before the said sixth day of December.

C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Balmoral, the 25th day of October, 1881.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after giving to the Incumbents and the Churchwardens of the parishes hereinafter mentioned ten days' previous notice of his intention to make such representation, has, under the provisions of an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England beyond the limits of the Metropolis, and to amend the Act concerning the burial of the dead in the Metropolis," made a representation stating that, for the protection of the public health, no new burial-ground should be opened in the undermentioned parishes without the previous consent of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and that burials should be discontinued therein with the following modifications, viz.:—

RUSKINGTON.—Forthwith and entirely in the parish church of Ruskington, in the county of Lincoln; and also in the churchyard after the thirty-first July, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two.

OSBOURNBY.—Forthwith and entirely in the parish church and churchyard of Osbournby, in the county of Lincoln.

KETTON.—Forthwith and entirely in the parish church of Ketton, in the county of Rutland; and in the churchyard, except as follows:—In such wholly walled graves and vaults as are now existing in the churchyard burials may be allowed on condition that every coffin buried therein be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented.

GREAT WIGSTON.—Forthwith and entirely in the Congregational and Primitive Methodist Chapels, Great Wigston, in the county of Leicester; and also in the chapelyards, except as follows:—In such vaults and walled graves as are now existing burials may be allowed on condition that every coffin buried therein be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented.

Also forthwith and entirely in the parish church of Great Wigston, in the county of Leicester; and in the churchyard, except as follows:—In such vaults and walled graves as are now existing burials may be allowed, on condition that every coffin buried therein be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented.

Also forthwith and entirely in St. Wolstan's Church, in the parish of Great Wigston, in the county of Leicester; and in the churchyard after the thirty-first July, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two, except as follows:—(a) In such wholly walled graves as are now existing in the churchyard burials may be allowed on condition that every coffin buried therein be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented.

SUTTON COLDFIELD.—Forthwith and entirely in the parish church of Sutton Coldfield, in the county of Warwick; and also in the churchyard, except as follows:—(a) In such vaults and wholly walled graves as are now existing in the churchyard burials may be allowed on condition that every coffin buried therein be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented: (b) In such earthen graves now existing in the churchyard as can be opened to the depth of five feet without exposing coffins or disturbing human remains burials may be allowed of so many of the following relations of those already interred therein, viz., widows, widowers, parents, and children, as can be buried at or below that depth.

BRAMPTON.—Forthwith and entirely in the parish church of Brampton, in the county of Huntingdon; and also in the churchyard, after the thirtieth June, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two, except as follows:—In such vaults and wholly walled graves as are now existing in the churchyard burials may be allowed on condition that every coffin buried therein be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented.

BEAMINSTER.—Forthwith and entirely in the parish church of Beaminster, in the county of Dorset; and also in the churchyard, except as follows:—(a) In such vaults and wholly walled graves as are now existing in the churchyard burials may be allowed, on condition that every coffin buried therein be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented: (b) In such earthen graves now existing in the churchyard as can be opened to the depth of five feet without exposing coffins or disturbing human remains, burials may be allowed of so many of the following relations of those already interred therein, viz., widows, widowers, parents and unmarried children, as can be buried at or below that depth: (c) In such reserved grave spaces in the churchyard as have never before been buried in and, when opened, are free from water burials may be allowed of so many members of the families to whom they have been allotted as can be buried at or below the depth of five feet.

OVER STOWEY.—Forthwith and entirely in the parish church of Over Stowey, in the county of Somerset; and in the churchyard, after the first April, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two, except as follows:—(a.) In such vaults and wholly walled graves as are
