

14. To revive the provisions granted for the compulsory purchase of lands, and to extend the time for the construction or completion of works, limited by the Huddersfield Waterworks Act, 1871, and to extend the time for the compulsory purchase of lands, and for the completion of works limited by the Huddersfield Waterworks and Improvement Act, 1876, so far as regards such of the lands thereby respectively authorised to be acquired as have not been already acquired, and such of the works thereby respectively authorised to be constructed as have not already been constructed.

15. To enable the Corporation and other local authorities, companies, or persons to enter into and carry into effect agreements for the supply of water in bulk or otherwise by the Corporation to such other local authorities, companies, or persons, or any one or more of them, upon such terms and conditions as may be mutually agreed upon.

16. To enable the Corporation to execute and maintain the following street improvements, wholly within the township and parish of Huddersfield, and within the borough, that is to say:—

1. The widening and improving of Blacker-lane, otherwise Blacker-road North (Birkby) on the north-west side thereof, commencing at the south-east corner of the front garden of the dwelling-house occupied by Mary Ramsden, and extending thence for a distance of about 50 yards in a south-westerly direction.
2. The widening and improving of Birkby Lodge-road (Birkby), on the south-west side thereof, commencing at its junction with Blacker-road North, and extending thence to and including the bridge which passes the said Birkby Lodge-road over the stream called Clayton Dike.
3. The widening and improving of Birkby Hall-road, Birkby, on the north-east side thereof, commencing at a point about 9 yards north-east of the northern gatepost of the lower or eastern entrance gates to Birkby Hall, and extending thence for a distance of about 77 yards in a north-westerly direction.

All necessary approaches, retaining and other walls, piers, abutments, arches, goits, culverts, conveniences, and works in connection with the foregoing street improvements and works, or any of them.

17. To authorise the Corporation to deviate in the construction of the several new waterworks and street improvements to be authorised by the said intended Act, both vertically and laterally, to the extent to be prescribed by the Bill.

18. To transfer or provide for the transfer to the Corporation acting under the powers of the Huddersfield Burial Ground Act, 1852, as amended or extended by the Act 18 and 19 Vic., cap. 89, the Huddersfield Waterworks and Improvement Act, 1876, and the Huddersfield Improvement Act, 1880, of any land which may be acquired by the Corporation as a Burial Board as and for an addition to their existing cemetery at or near Highfields, in the said township and parish of Huddersfield, and within the said borough, and to constitute such addition for all purposes a part of the existing cemetery, and to enable the Corporation to enjoy and exercise with respect to such addition all such and the like powers, rights, and authorities as they enjoy and may exercise with respect to the said cemetery, and to provide for the raising of any loan, and for the repayment of any loan raised or to be raised for or in relation to the acquisition of such land and the adding thereof to such cemetery.

19. To detach from the jurisdiction of the Guardians of the Poor of the Huddersfield Union the townships of Huddersfield and Lindley-cum-Quarmbury, in the parish of Huddersfield, and the townships of Almondbury and Lockwood, in the parish of Almondbury, and the township of Dalton, in the parish of Kirkheaton, all such townships being situate within the borough, and to constitute or provide for the constituting of the said townships a separate Union for the relief of the poor, and the administration (in such Union) of the Acts relating thereto, and to constitute or provide for the constituting of the several remaining townships forming the remainder of such Union and situate without the borough, into one or more Unions for the relief of the poor and the administration therein of the same Acts.

20. To determine the number of guardians for the Unions so to be constituted, and to provide for their election and rotation, and for the going out of office of the guardians of the Huddersfield Union as now constituted, and if thought fit, to alter the present mode of election of guardians.

21. To apportion or provide for the apportionment between the Unions as constituted or to be constituted under the powers of the Bill of the debts, obligations, liabilities, estates, buildings, current rates, and property of the said Huddersfield Union.

22. To provide as to the settlement of persons in, or claiming or having the right to claim, a settlement in any township or parish forming part of the Huddersfield Union.

23. To authorise the Corporation to become insurers of all or any of their property from destruction or injury by or by reason of fire, and for that purpose to form and maintain an insurance or contingency fund by the appropriation of annual or other sums of money out of the borough fund and borough rate, and to invest and accumulate the same, and to resort thereto from time to time to repair or reinstate any such property wholly or partially destroyed or injured by or by reason of any fire.

24. To enable the Corporation to form and maintain a contingency fund by the appropriation thereto of annual or other sums of money out of the borough fund and borough rate, or other the revenues of the Corporation, and to invest and accumulate the same, and to resort thereto from time to time to satisfy any costs, charges, expenses, and compensation which may be incurred by or awarded against them under or by reason of the provisions of "The Employers' Liability Act, 1880," and to enable the Corporation to accept subscriptions made by any persons in their employ to such fund, or by the like appropriation to contribute to any fund created or subscribed to by such persons.

25. To extend and adapt, with or without alteration, the provisions of the Acts now in force within the borough relating to slaughterhouses and the slaughtering of cattle, and the bye-laws made thereunder to all places in which animals of any kind are slaughtered, and to enlarge and amend the powers of the Corporation in relation to the receiving of or disposing of or dealing with the carcases or parts thereof of dead animals, and to enable the Corporation from time to time to make and enforce additional bye-laws for and in relation to the matters aforesaid.

26. To extend the powers of the Corporation as to the deposit of plans, drawings, and other
