

The London Gazette

Published by Authority.

TUESDAY, JANUARY 10, 1882.

AT the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 6th day of January, 1882.

By Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

THE Lords and others of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in them vested under The Contagious Diseases (Animals) Act, 1878, and of every other power enabling them in this behalf, do order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:

1. This Order shall take effect from and immediately after the eleventh day of January, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two.

2. The limits of the following area which is declared by Order of Council dated the twenty-third day of December, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one, to be an area infected with foot-and-mouth disease (namely),—the whole of North Fen from Gold Dike on the east to Falls Drove on the west, and the whole of Ruff Fen from Mill Drove on the west to a point where Green Drove joins French Drove, including all the above-mentioned Drovers, in the Liberty of the Isle of Ely,—are hereby extended so as to include the area described in the Schedule to this Order, and the area described in the Schedule to this Order is hereby declared to be an area infected with foot-and-mouth disease. C. L. Peel.

SCHEDULE.

An area comprised within the following limits, that is to say, commencing at Falls Drove on the west and proceeding to Singlesole, thence along Harley Drove to the Old Wryde Drain, thence along such Drain to Gold Dike, thence along such Dike to the Old South Eau to Falls Drove aforesaid, in the Liberty of the Isle of Ely.

AT the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 6th day of January, 1882.

By Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

THE Lords and others of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in them vested under The Contagious Diseases (Animals) Act, 1878, and of every other power enabling them in this behalf, do order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:

1. This Order shall take effect from and immediately after the ninth day of January, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two.

2. So much of the Order of Council bearing date the second day of January, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two, as declares the parish of Spratton, in the county of Northampton, to be an area infected with foot-and-mouth disease, is hereby revoked: Provided that nothing herein shall be deemed to invalidate or make unlawful anything done under the said Order before the date when this revocation takes effect, or interfere with the institution or prosecution of any proceeding in respect of any offence committed against, or any penalty incurred under, the said Order.

3. The following areas (namely),—(1.) the parish of Byfield, in the county of Northampton, and (2) the parishes of Moreton Pinkney, and Canon's Ashby, in the county of Northampton, which were also declared by the said Order of Council to be areas infected with foot-and-mouth disease, shall continue to be and are hereby declared to be areas infected with foot-and-mouth disease. C. L. Peel.

SCOTLAND (MOVEMENT OF ANIMALS) ORDER OF 1882, AMENDMENT.

AT the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 6th day of January, 1882.

By Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

PRESENT:

Lord President.

Earl Northbrook.

THE Lords and others of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in them vested under The Contagious Diseases (Animals) Act, 1878, and of every other power enabling them in this behalf, do order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:

1. This Order may be cited as THE SCOTLAND (MOVEMENT OF ANIMALS) ORDER OF 1882, AMENDMENT.

2. This Order shall commence and take effect from and immediately after the twelfth day of January, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two; and shall cease to have effect from and immediately after the thirty-first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two, without prejudice to the institution or prosecution of any proceeding in respect of an offence committed on or before that day.

3. Notwithstanding anything in The Scotland (Movement of Animals) Order of 1882, no animal shall be moved by land or by water from any place or port in England or Wales to any place or port in Scotland. C. L. Peel.
