

ing his Imperial Majesties Orders thereupon. We have nothing new from the Imperial Army in Seravia. Several Troops are appointed to reinforce the Blockade of Great Waradin.

Ausbourg, Novemb. 6. The Elector of Bavaria arrived here the 25th inst; and parted again on the 30th for Munick. The same day came to this place the Duke of Lorraine; who, on the 2d instant, continued his Journey towards Inspbruck. The Imperial Ministers have had several Conferences with the General Officers, and the Deputies of the Circles, about regulating the Winter-quarters.

Frankfort, Novemb. 9. The Troops of Saxony, which lay near Hansbron, have passed the Necker, and are gone into their Winter-quarters in the Bergstraet. On Saturday last a Party of Hussars advanced to the very Gates of Philipsbourg; and falling upon their Men that were working on some out Fortifications, kill'd an Engineer, and some others, and took several Prisoners, without any other opposition from the Garrison, than the firing some Cannon, which did not hinder the Hussars from executing their Delign.

Cologne, Novemb. 15. There are now twelve Minister Companies in Garrison here; and we expect a Battalion of Brandenburghers, with some Troops of Neubourg; which are to continue here the whole Winter. Several Regiments of Brandenburghers are likewise quartered in the Lower Diocese; and 18 Companies of Foot, with 11 Troops of Horse and Dragoons, of his Electoral Highness's Forces, are lodged at Aix la Chapelle. The French Troops, that were encamped at Echternach near the Moselle, are separated and gone into Quarters: And those commanded by the Marschal of Duras, near Landau, have done the like. The Queen of Spain parted the 13th instant from Duseldorp towards Zealand; where her Majesty is to embark.

Hague, Novemb. 18. The Queen of Spain passed by Dort on the 16th instant towards Zealand. The Meeting of the Electors at Ausbourg, for the chusing a King of the Romans, is put off 'till the next month. We hear from Namur, that a Party of that Garrison had lately taken eight French Wagon, which were going with Provisions and Ammunition to Dinant. Prince Waldeck is expected here the beginning of the next week.

Paris, Novemb. 19. The Troops are every where gone into Winter-quarters; the Marschal d'Hannover is return'd to Lisse; and the Marschal de Lorge will remain at Metz this Winter. On the 8th instant we had the ill News of two of our East-India Ships (very richly laden,) being taken by the Dutch: And we are in great pain for another of our Ships, bound home from Suratte: These losses fall very heavy upon the East India Company here. The French Gallies that carried the Cardinals to Civita Vecchia are returned to Marseilles. It's expected the next Letters from Rome will give an account of a Promotion of Cardinals. We have advice that the Queen of Portugal was on the 21 past brought to bed of a Son, who is called Prince of Brazile.

Glasgow, Novemb. 4. This being His Majesties Birth-day was kept here with extraordinary Solemnity; The Train Bands of the City, consisting of about 1800 Men, appeared in Arms, and fired several Volleys, with repeated Huzzas: The Magistrates, attended by the principal Citizens, expressing at the same time their Satisfaction and Dutiful Affection to Their Majesties Persons and Government. The Regiment of Foot commanded by the Viscount of Kennure, joyned with the Citizens in these Demonstrations of their Loyalty. And at night the Streets were fill'd with Bonfires, with ringing of Bells, and all other Expressions of Joy; which were so universal, that the like were never before seen here.

Dundalk, Novemb. 8. Our Army is marching into Winter-quarters; Ten Regiments marched from hence yesterday; and the rest this day, except six Regiments of Foot that remain in this Town; His Grace the Duke of Schomberg goes away to-morrow for Lisnegarvey. The Irish Army decamped the last week; they have left 6 or 7 Regiments at Ardee, and as many at Drugheda; and the rest are gone into other Quarters.

Hull, Novemb. 14. Yesterday arrived here above 60 Sail, with the Danish Forces, bound for Scotland, having been forced thither by a violent Storm. Some Vessels that were separated from the Fleet are, we hear, put into Tinmouth, and other Ports on this Coast.

Plymouth, Novemb. 12. Yesterday arrived here Their Majesties Ships the Monk, Sir Cloudey Shovel Commander, the Tempest, the Tyrk, and the Adriack, with five Tenders, from the Eastward: We have advice, that a French Ship of 150 Tun, and 60 Men, laden with Tobacco, Indigo, and Sugar, was forced ashore 3 or 4 days ago on the Island of Scilly; but the Ship is saved, and all the Men secured.

Whitshall, Novemb. 16. His Majesty has been Graciously pleas'd to appoint Lambert Blackwell Esq; to be His Consul at Leghorn.

These are to give Notice, That the Trustees for the Collection for the poor sufferers by the Fire at Bengay in Suffolk, have deputed William Middleton of London, Genl. Receiver of the same; and for the speedy Relief of the most Necessitous, the Ministers and Church-wardens of the Counties near London are desired forthwith to return the said Collections to him at Mr. Robert Clavels, Bookseller at the West-end of St. Paul's Church-yard, where Acquittances shall at all times be ready for them; and those who have no occasion to come to London, may pay the said Moneys to the Archdeacons Registers, who are hereby desired to receive the same.
