(H. 787.)

Board of Trade (Harbour Department),
Whitehall Gardens, February 2, 1882.

THE Board of Trade have received through the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs a copy of a Despatch from Her Majesty's Ambassador at Berlin, on the subject of the proposed incorporation of Hamburg into the Customs' Union of the German Empire, from which it appears that, independently of the Bill which has been introduced for this purpose, the Bundesrath, without interference on the part of the Reichstag, possess the right to alter the present frontier of the Zollverein and draw the line of Customs' demarcation at Cuxhafen instead of Stade; that an Order in Council for the establishment of the new frontier has been issued under date of the 9th December last; and that from the 1st January, 1882, the Customs' line will be determined as follows :—

The whole of the lower course of the Elbe is to be included in the Customs' territory of Germany. The line begins at the embankment by the quarantine harbour of Cuxhafen, and runs across the estuary of the river in a direct line to the most westerly point of the Kaiser Wilhelm Koog, where it joins the present frontier.

At Altona the line follows the course of the municipal boundaries between Altona and Neumühlen, as marked by the boundary-stone No. XII, runs along the northern inclosure of the Neumühlen Quay to a point in the middle of that quay marked by a Customs' board, and thence in a straight line across the quay and the water of the Elbe to a Customs' mark on the shore of the Mühlenwärder.

From this point the frontier runs along the western shore of the Köhlbrand and the eastern side of the Elbe Islands, Mühlenwärder, Waltershof, and Altwärder, crossing the Mühlenfleth and Köhlfleth to the south-eastern point of the Altwärder.

The above mentioned islands, viz., M'hlenwårder, Waltershof, and Altenwårder are included within the new frontier.

The line then runs along the northern shore of the Kleine Hattwick, the old Süder-Elbe, and cuts the present frontier at a marked point on the landing quay near the second class Custom-house of Moorburg.

The present frontier on the left bank of the Elbe from the landing quay, near Moorburg, to the limits of Cuxhafen, and the present frontier on the right bank of the Elbe from the Neumühlen Quay to the Kaiser Wilhelm Koog, will cease to exist immediately on the establishment of the new frontier.

Ships which may happen to lie within those portions of the stream of the Elbe which are to be incorporated, shall, if entitled to carry the Customs' flag or lights, hoist the same either at the moment or even before the actual establishment of the new frontier.

Vessels entitled to hoist flag and lights which, at the time of the incorporation shall be in the lower Elbe, without having been cleared, will be subject to the regulations enforced before the incorporation, and will have to take clearance in that way.

At the request of captains of vessels proposing to enter or leave the Elbe, the Custom-houses of Cuxhafen and Altona will deliver clearance according to the new regulations as early as December 31st.

All ships within the waters of the Elbe at the moment of incorporation which have not had clearance may be sealed by the Customs' authorities or boarded and occupied by Customs' officers.
