

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 6th day of February, 1882.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the fifteenth and sixteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in the Metropolis," it is enacted, that in case it appears to Her Majesty in Council, upon the representation of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, that, for the protection of the public health, burials in any part or parts of the metropolis, or in any burial-grounds or places of burial in the metropolis, should be wholly discontinued, or should be discontinued, subject to any exception or qualification, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order that from and after a time mentioned in the Order, burials in such part or parts of the metropolis, or in such burial-grounds or places of burial, shall be discontinued wholly or subject to any exceptions or qualifications mentioned in such Order, and so from time to time as circumstances may require; provided that notice of such representation, and of the time when it shall please Her Majesty to order the same to be taken into consideration by the Privy Council, shall be published in the London Gazette, and shall be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of the parishes in which any burial-grounds or places of burial affected by such representation shall be situate, or on some other conspicuous places, within the part or parts of the metropolis affected by such representation, one calendar month before such representation is so considered; provided always, that no such representation shall be made in relation to the burial-ground of any parish until ten days' previous notice of the intention to make such representation shall have been given to the Incumbent and the Vestry Clerk of such parish:

And whereas the Right Honourable Sir William Vernon Harcourt, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after giving to the Incumbent and Vestry Clerk of the parish hereinafter mentioned, ten days' previous notice of his intention to make such representation, has made a representation stating that, for the protection of the public health, the Order in Council of the thirtieth January one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four affecting burials in the said parish should be varied and that burials should be discontinued in the said parish with the modifications hereinafter specified:

And whereas Her Majesty in Council was pleased, by Her Order in Council of the twenty-ninth of November last, to give notice of such representation, and to order that the same be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, on the sixteenth day of January, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two, and such Order has been published in the London Gazette; and copies thereof have been affixed as required by the said Act.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that burials be discontinued as follows, in the undermentioned parish (except as herein otherwise directed), as follows, viz. :—

Forthwith and entirely in Saint Thomas' Church, Charlton, in the county of Kent; and also in the churchyard after the thirtieth

June, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two, except as follows:

(a.) In such vaults and walled graves as are now existing in the churchyard burials may be allowed on condition that every coffin buried therein be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented:

(b.) In such earthen graves now existing in the churchyard as can be opened to the depth of five feet without exposing coffins or disturbing human remains burials may be allowed of so many of the relations of those already interred therein as can be buried at or below that depth.

C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 6th day of February, 1882.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the eighteenth and nineteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act further to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England," it is, amongst other things, enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, from time to time to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act: (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, shall or shall not have arrived), as to Her Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, may seem fit:

And whereas Orders in Council have been made directing the discontinuance of burials in the churchyards hereinafter mentioned from the time specified in such Orders; and whereas it seems fit to Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, that the time for discontinuing burials in the said churchyards be postponed:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the time for the discontinuance of burials in such churchyards be postponed as follows, viz.:

In the parish churchyard of Nassington, in the county of Northampton, to the first day of May, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two.

In the parish churchyard of Yarwell, in the county of Northampton, to the first day of May, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two.

In the parish churchyard of Ambleston, in the county of Pembroke, to the twenty-eighth day of February, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two.

In the churchyard of Burton Latimer, in the county of Northampton, to the thirty-first day of March, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two.

In the parish churchyard of Headington, Oxfordshire, to the thirtieth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two.

In the parish churchyard of Tavistock, in the county of Devon, in the additional churchyard, Abbey-place; in the Church Cemetery and in the Western Cemetery, both in Dolvin-road; also in the Eastern Cemetery, Dolvin-road; and in the Quaker's Burial Ground, the same lying in two plots between
