PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the thirty-eighth and thirty-ninth years of Our reign intituled "The Militia (Voluntary Enlistment) Act, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five," it is amongst other things enacted that, save as therein otherwise provided, the Militia shall be trained and exercised for not less than twenty-one days, and not more than twenty-eight days in every year, at such times, and at such places, in every part of the United Kingdom as Her Majesty may appoint; and also that Her Majesty may from time to time, with the advice of Her Privy Council, order that the period of training and exercise in any year, of all, or any part of the Militia, be extended; but that so the whole period of training and exercise be not more than fifty-six days:

And whereas it is expedient that the training of the Royal Anglesey Engineer Militia, Hampshire (Submarine Miners) Engineer Militia, and Royal Monmouthshire Engineer Militia, should be extended beyond the period of twenty-eight days, for the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two:

Now therefore, Her Majesty, with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order and direct that the period of training and exercise of the Royal Anglesey Engineer Militia, Hampshire (Submarine Miners) Engineer Militia, and Royal Monmouthshire Engineer Militia, shall for the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two be extended under the provisions of the said recited Act, from twenty-eight days to the days herein-after mentioned, that is to say:

Royal Anglesey Engineer Militia forty-one (41) days.

Hampshire (Submarine Miners) Engineer Militia, fifty-six (56) days.

Royal Monmouthshire Engineer Militia forty-one (41) days, respectively.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board a Memorial from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated the 14th of February, 1882, in the words following, viz. :—

"Whereas we have had under our consideration the case of officers retired from the position of Quartermaster of Royal Marines, who, under existing regulations, are not eligible, after retirement, for any Greenwich Hospital Pension; and whereas having regard to the services and claims of these officers and to the advantages enjoyed by Quartermasters of your Majesty's Army in respect of participation in rewards for distinguished or meritorious service we are of opinion that one pension of £50 a year might be bestowed, out of the funds of Greenwich Hospital, upon the aforesaid officers of Royal Marines, to be awarded under such regulations as we may from time to time deem advisable:

"We beg to recommend that your Majesty will be graciously pleased by your Order in Council to empower us to award such a pension accordingly."

Her Majesty having taken the said Memorial into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve of what is therein proposed. And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.
