NOTICE TO SHIP MASTERS AND SHIP OWNERS.

BRAZIL.—RIO GRANDE DO SUL.

HER Majesty's Consul at Rio Grande do Sul has on more than one occasion called attention to the difficulties experienced by ships attempting to pass the Bar at that port owing to the want of water. From the information given by him it would seem desirable that vessels bound for Rio Grande do Sul should under no circumstances be loaded over 10 feet draught, as any greater draught is likely to lead to great delay and inconvenience.

Assistant-Secretary.
