Lord Chamberlain's Office, March 13, 1882.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the State Apartments of Windsor Castle will be open to the public on and after Monday next, the 20th instant.

Buckingham Palace, February 28, 1882.

THIS day had audience of Her Majesty:—

His Excellency Monsieur Challemel Lacour, Ambassador from the French Republic, to deliver his Letter of Recall.

To which audience he was introduced by Earl Granville, K.G., Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs.

Downing Street, March 13, 1882.

THE Queen has been pleased to direct that Letters Patent be issued under the Great Seal of the United Kingdom for the annexation to the Island of Jamaica of the Islands known as the Morant Cays and the Pedro Cays, of which Islands possession was taken on behalf of Her Majesty in the years 1862 and 1863.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 10th day of March, 1882.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board a Memorial from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated the 7th day of March, 1882, in the words following, viz.:—

“Whereas Your Majesty was graciously pleased by an Order in Council dated 10 November 1866, under the authority of ‘The Naval Savings Bank Act, 1866,’ to establish Naval Savings Banks on board Your Majesty's ships, and at the Head Quarters of the divisions of Royal Marines;

“And, whereas we are of opinion that it would be expedient, and for the benefit of Marines serving either at Head Quarters, or borne on the books of one of Your Majesty's ships, that the banks established at Head Quarters should be conducted under regulations similar to those in force at the banks in Your Majesty's Naval Establishments on shore, as authorised by Your Majesty's Order in Council dated 2 March 1881, and subject to the same conditions, viz:—

“1. That the interest to be allowed to depositors in such banks be fixed at the rate of £2 10s. per cent. per annum compound interest for every complete pound deposited;

“2. That deposits be received in such banks, either by allotments, or remittances from pay, or by cash personally tendered, by depositors serving at Head Quarters, or borne on the books of any of your Majesty's ships and vessels.

“3. That the management of such banks be vested in the Divisional Paymasters, under the general superintendence of the Colonels-Commandant.

“We do therefore beg leave humbly to submit that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased by Your Order in Council, under the authority of the Act before quoted, to direct that we may be empowered to assimilate these banks to those established in Your Majesty's Naval Establishments on shore, under the conditions stated;—and further be authorized to issue from time to time such detailed regulations for carrying the same into effect as we may deem necessary.

“The Lords Commissioners of Your Majesty's Treasury have, by their letter dated 22 February 1882, signified their concurrence herein.”

Her Majesty having taken the said Memorial into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve of what is therein proposed. And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 27th day of February, 1882.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the seventeenth and eighteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter eighty-four duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twentieth-sixth day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

“We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty chapter one hundred and thirteen and of the Act of the seventeenth and eighteenth years of your Majesty chapter eighty-four have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme for apportioning the income of the two benefices (each being a vicarage) of Stanground and of Farcet in the diocese of Ely which said two benefices are for the present united and held together.

“Whereas the Master Fellows and Scholars of Emmanuel College in the University of Cambridge are the patrons of the said benefice of Stanground and also of the said benefice of Farcet.

“And whereas it has been made to appear to us that the cure of Farcet is at present altogether unendowed or insufficiently endowed, and that the cure of Stanground has endowments of such an amount as that after the apportionment hereinafter recommended and proposed to be made shall have been made, the said cure of Stanground will still be sufficiently endowed.

“And whereas Stanground is an ancient parish, situate partly in the county of Huntingdon and partly in the county of Cambridge, and Farcet is or was originally a chapelry to Stanground, and is wholly situate within the said county of Huntingdon, but notwithstanding the cure of Stanground and the cure of Farcet will under the Order of your Majesty in Council which is next hereinafter mentioned become two independent cures as from the date in that behalf hereinafter mentioned.

“And whereas the Master Fellows and Scholars of Emmanuel College aforesaid have represented to us, and we are of opinion that it is desirable that provision should be made for the cure of souls within the cure of Farcet aforesaid by means of that apportionment of the income of the said benefices of Stanground and Farcet which is hereinafter recommended and proposed.

“And whereas by an Order of your Majesty in Council bearing date the seventeenth day of July one thousand eight hundred and fifty-one the said two benefices of Stanground and Farcet were separated and disunited but such separation and disunion have not yet taken effect, and will not take effect until the Reverend Robert Cory, Clerk in Holy Orders who was at the date of that Order and is still incumbent of both the same benefices shall have ceased to be incumbent of one or other of them.

“Now therefore with the consent of the said Master Fellows and Scholars of Emmanuel College in the University of Cambridge aforesaid (in testimony whereof they have sealed this scheme with their common or corporate seal) and with the consent of the Right Reverend James Russell Bishop of the said diocese of Ely, acting as such Bishop (in testimony whereof he has signed this scheme and sealed the same with his episcopal seal).

“We the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners humbly recommend and propose that without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than this scheme and any duly gazetted Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying the same and as from the day of the date at which the said two benefices of Stanground and Farcet or either of them, shall be avoided by the said Robert Cory all such glebe land of the said benefice of Stanground as is situate within the parish of Stanground aforesaid shall continue to be enjoyed by the vicar or incumbent of Stanground and his successors. And all those the tithe rent-charges arising within the said cure of Farcet but belonging to the said benefice of Stanground and amounting together to the sum of four hundred and thirty-five pounds and two shillings a year or thereabouts which said tithe rent-charges appear as to the particulars thereof in the first schedule to this scheme appended shall remain annexed to the said benefice of Stanground as part and parcel of the endowments of the said last-named benefice and shall accordingly continue to be payable as from the day aforesaid to the vicar or incumbent of the said benefice of Stanground and his successors and shall not be payable to the vicar or incumbent of the said benefice of Farcet and his successors; and that the said vicar or incumbent of the said benefice of Stanground and his successors shall continue to have all and the like powers rights and remedies for enforcing the payment and recovery of the said tithe rent-charges which are now possessed or enjoyed by the said Robert Cory vicar or incumbent of the said two benefices of Stanground and Farcet or to which by law all owners or recipients of tithe rent-charge are or may for the time being be entitled.

“And with the same consents and so testified as aforesaid we further recommend and propose that: as from the same day, to wit, the day of the date at which the said two benefices of Stanground and Farcet or either of them shall be avoided by the said Robert Cory all such glebe land of the said benefice of Stanground as is situate within the cure of Farcet aforesaid shall be dissevered from the said benefice of Stanground and shall be annexed to the benefice of Farcet aforesaid and shall be taken and enjoyed by the vicar or incumbent for the time being thereof and his successors as part and parcel of the endowment of the said benefice of Farcet with all the rights powers and remedies incidental to the ownership of such land and that all those the tithe rent-charges arising within the said cure of Farcet but belonging to the said benefice of Stanground and amounting to the sum of three hundred and sixty-one pounds twelve shillings and eleven pence a year or thereabouts which said tithe rent-charges appear as to the particulars thereof in the second schedule to this scheme appended shall be dissevered from the said benefice of Stanground and shall be annexed to the said benefice of Farcet as part and parcel of the endowments of the said last-named benefice and shall accordingly be payable as from the day aforesaid to the vicar or incumbent of the said benefice of Farcet and his successors and not to the vicar or incumbent of the said benefice of Stanground or his successors and that the said vicar or incumbent of the said benefice of Farcet and his successors shall have all and the like powers rights and remedies for enforcing the payment and recovery of the said tithe rent-charges which are now possessed or enjoyed by the said Robert Cory vicar or incumbent of the said two benefices of Stanground and Farcet or to which by law all owners or recipients of tithe rent-charge are or may for the time being be entitled.

“And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to matters aforesaid, or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or either of them or of any other Act of Parliament.

“The FIRST SCHEDULE to this Scheme appended being particulars of the Tithe Rent-charges to remain annexed to the Benefice of Stanground the names numbers descriptions quantities and amounts being taken from the Apportionment of the Rent-charge in lieu of Tithes in the Chapelry (which in the same Apportionment is called a Parish) of Farcet in the county of Huntingdon confirmed by the Tithe Commissioners for England and Wales on the thirty-first day of December, one thousand eight hundred and forty-one.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the present session for leave to bring in a Bill (hereinafter called "the intended Act") for the following, or some of the following, among other purposes (that is to say):—

To amend, extend, and enlarge, or if need be to repeal, all or some of the powers and provisions contained in "The Walton-on-the-Hill Rectory Act, 1843," and "The Walton-on-the-Hill Rectory Amendment Act, 1877."

To confirm and to make provision for carrying into effect an agreement already made or which may be made between the Reverend Richard Leigh, Rector of Walton-on-the-Hill, in the county of Lancaster, Clerk in Holy Orders, and the Trustees appointed by the Committee of the subscribers to a fund collected for the purpose of endowing the

See of Liverpool, called "The Liverpool Bishopric Fund" (hereinafter called "the Trustees"), and to enable the Trustees, with the sanction of the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, to purchase, with a portion of the funds so collected, the advowson and perpetual right of presentation of and to the Vicarage of Walton-on-the-Hill aforesaid, in the Diocese of Liverpool, with a view to annexing the revenues of the said Vicarage or a portion thereof to the said See after the next avoidance of the said Vicarage.

To provide that the office of Vicar of Walton-on-the-Hill, and all powers, duties, and obligations attached or belonging thereto or to the Vicar of Walton-on-the-Hill in respect of his vicarage, shall cease and be extinguished as from the next avoidance of the said office, and that from and after such avoidance the Rector of Walton-on-the-Hill shall have sole and entire cure of the souls of the inhabitants of the said parish.

To provide that from and after such next avoidance as aforesaid all surplice fees and burial dues arising within the parish of Walton-on-the-Hill, or the church of the said parish, or such of them as now belong, or would on the next avoidance of the office of Vicar belong, to the Vicar of the said parish, shall belong and be payable to the Rector of the said parish and his successors, and shall form part of the emoluments of the rectory.

To provide that from and after such next avoidance as aforesaid Section 47 of "The Walton-on-the-Hill Rectory Act, 1843," shall be repealed as to the vicarage house and premises adjoining or appurtenant thereto, and that the vicarage house, garden, and premises, now belonging to the Vicar of Walton-on-the-Hill in right of his vicarage, shall be vested in the trustee or trustees for the time being of "The Walton-on-the-Hill Rectory Act, 1843," and be held by him or them on the like trusts and with and subject to the like powers of sale, and other powers, as are therein declared and contained of and concerning the lands and hereditaments vested in and settled on the Trustees therein mentioned, but subject to the proviso that the rents, issues, and profits of the said vicarage house, garden, and premises, or of any hereditaments purchased, or of any other investment made with the proceeds of sale thereof, shall be paid to the rectors for the time being of the parishes of Walton-on-the-Hill and West Derby, and to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners, in equal shares.

To provide that, subject to the provisions of the intended Act, and after the payment of the purchase-money in accordance with the said agreement, all real and personal estate, tithes, income, and emoluments now belonging to and forming part of the property and income of the vicarage of Walton-on-the-Hill, or receivable by the vicar in right thereof, shall, as from the date of the next avoidance of the said vicarage, vest in the Ecclesiastical Commissioners, and that all necessary parties shall execute and do, or concur in executing and doing, all proper deeds, assurances, acts, and things for effectually vesting the same in the said Commissioners.

To provide that the revenues and income so transferred to the said Commissioners shall be applied by them in the first place in payment to the Lord Bishop of Liverpool for the time being of such annual sum as, together with his income from all sources under "The Bishoprics Act 1878," will give him an annual income of four thousand two hundred pounds per annum, exclusive of an episcopal residence, and if and so long as the income of the Bishopric amounts to four thousand two hundred pounds per annum then that the said Commissioners shall apply the surplus of the said vicarage revenue and income for the spiritual benefit of the inhabitants of the parish of Walton-on-the-Hill as they may think fit.

To provide that section 49 of "The Walton-on-the-Hill Rectory Act, 1843," shall be read and have effect as if the Lord Bishop of Liverpool were therein named instead of the Lord Bishop of Chester: Provided that if the Lord Bishop of Liverpool is unwilling to act as Trustee as therein mentioned he may by writing under his hand designate some person to be nominated and appointed a Trustee by the Chancery Division of the High Court of Justice as therein mentioned.

To provide that if the office of Vicar of Walton-on-the-Hill is avoided before the passing of the intended Act, then any presentation which may be made to the said office shall, as from the date of completion of the purchase of the advowson, be void and of no effect.

To enable the Ecclesiastical Commissioners from time to time to advance out of the Liverpool Bishopric Endowment Fund, or out of the common fund, to the Trustees of the Liverpool Bishopric Endowment Fund, such sums as are necessary for the purpose of enabling the Trustees to carry into effect the said agreement.

To make provision for payment of the costs, charges, and expenses incurred in obtaining and in the execution of the intended Act.

The intended Act will vary or extinguish all existing rights and privileges which may interfere with its purposes, and it will confer other rights and privileges.

COUNTY COURTS' JURISDICTION.

No. of Plaintiff, J. 15907, Proceeding in Equity 95 E. Pursuant to an Order of the County Court of Lancashire, holden at Manchester, Emma Ann Akhurst, of Broughton, in the county of Lancaster, Widow, plaintiff, and Amy Elizabeth Clara Akhurst, of No. 2, Winfield-terrace, Chester-road, Old Trafford, Spinster, and John Sassen, of the same place, Foreign Correspondent, and Sarah Ann Sassen, his wife, defendants.

WHEREAS now at the hearing of this action at a Court holden this day the defendant Amy Elizabeth Clara Akhurst, being an infant, appears here in Court and names the defendant, John Sassen, to act as her guardian, and it appearing from the affidavit of Emma Ann Akhurst, sworn on the 12th day of January, 1882, and filed herein, that the defendant, John Sassen, is a fit and proper person to be appointed such guardian, and the defendant, John Sassen, assenting thereto, is hereby appointed guardian of the defendant, Amy Elizabeth Clara Akhurst, to act on her behalf in this action. Now upon hearing Mr. Radford, of Counsel for the plaintiff, and Mr. Worthington, Solicitor on behalf of the defendants, and upon reading the affidavits of the plaintiff, sworn respectively on the 10th and 12th days of January, 1882, and filed herein, and the exhibits therein referred to, and hearing what was alleged by counsel for the plaintiff, and the Solicitor on behalf of the defendants, and the plaintiff and defendants who claim to be interested in two undivided thirds of the hereditaments in the plaint mentioned by their Counsel and Solicitor respectively, requesting a sale thereof and a distribution of the proceeds instead of a division of the said hereditaments between or amongst the persons, and this Court being of opinion that by reason of the nature of the property such sale and distribution will be more beneficial for the persons interested than a division of the property between or among them, it is ordered that it be referred to the Registrar to make an enquiry who are the persons interested in the hereditaments and property in the plaint mentioned, and for what estates and interests, and in what shares and proportions, and whether they are parties to this action, and if it be certified that all persons interested are parties to this action, and that the plaintiff and defendants are interested to the extent of one moiety or upwards in the said hereditaments, it is ordered that the said hereditaments be sold with the approbation of the Judge, and that the money to arise from such sale be paid into Court to the credit of this cause, but if it be certified that any of the persons interested are not parties to this action, then it is ordered that any of the persons interested collectively or individually to the extent of one moiety or upwards in the said hereditaments be at liberty when it shall have been certified that the persons who ought to be served with notice of this judgment have been so served, to apply at chambers for a sale of the said hereditaments. And it is ordered that the above inquiries be made, and that all such acts ordered to be done be completed before the 7th day of April next, and that the Registrar do certify the result of the inquiries and that all such acts ordered are completed and have his certificate in that behalf ready for inspection of the parties on the 14th day of April next. And lastly it is ordered that this action stand adjourned for making a final decree to the 27th day of April next.—Given under the Seal of the Court this 12th day of January, 1882.

By the Court,
CHAS. LISTER, Registrar.
