THE FAIRS ACT, 1873.

MELBOURN FAIR.

IN pursuance of the above-mentioned Act, I, the Right Honourable Sir William Vernon Harcourt, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, hereby notify as follows:

1. By Memorial, dated 27th day of February, 1882, a representation has been duly made to me by the Justices of the Peace of the Petty Sessional District of Arrington and Melbourn, in the county of Cambridge, that a Fair, commonly known by the name of Melbourn Feast, has been annually held at Melbourn, in the county of Cambridge, on the first Thursday in July and the two following days, unless and except that first Thursday happen to fall on the first day of the month of July, in which case it is held on Thursday, the 8th day of July, and the two following days, and that it would be for the convenience and advantage of the public that the said Fair should be held on a less number of days than those on which such Fair is used to be held (to wit), on one day only, such day to be the first day of the Fair, namely, Thursday.

2. On the 11th day of April, 1882, I shall take the aforesaid representation into consideration, and all persons are to intimate, before that day, any objection they may desire to offer to the said proposed alteration in the number of days for holding the said Fair. W. V. Harcourt.

INCOME TAX.

WHEREAS by the Taxes Management Act, 1880 (43 and 44 Vict., ch. 19), power is given for increasing in certain cases the number of persons appointed, under the provisions made by the Income Tax Act of 1842, Commissioners for the general purposes of the Income Tax, and persons to supply vacancies amongst such Commissioners in each district or division in Great Britain; and it appearing to the Board of Inland Revenue that the number of persons so appointed for the division of Holborn, in the county of Middlesex, is insufficient for the proper discharge of the business therein arising under the Tax Acts, the said Board hereby authorize the increase in the number of the Commissioners for the said division to any number not exceeding fourteen, and of persons to supply vacancies amongst such Commissioners to any number not exceeding fourteen; and we, the undersigned, two members of the said Board, do hereby convene a meeting of the persons appointed for putting in execution within the said county; an Act passed in the 38th year of the reign of King George the Third, intituled "An Act for granting an aid to His Majesty by a Land Tax to be raised in Great Britain for the service of the year 1798," being respectively qualified to act as Commissioners in the execution of the last-mentioned Act, to be holden at the Office of the Commissioners for Taxes, at 24, Red Lion-square, W.C., on Friday, the 14th day of April, 1882, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon, for the purpose of choosing and appointing, according to the regulations of the said Income Tax Act of 1842, such number of fit and proper persons to be Commissioners for general purposes for the said division of Holborn, and of persons to supply vacancies amongst such Commissioners, as may be sufficient to increase the number of such Commissioners to any number not exceeding fourteen, and of persons to supply vacancies amongst such Commissioners to any number not exceeding fourteen.

In Parliament.—Session 1882.

South Metropolitan Gas Bill.

Petition for Additional Provision.

(Compulsory Purchase of Lands at Greenwich Marshes.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that the South Metropolitan Gas Company intend applying to Parliament forthwith for leave to insert in their Bill now pending in the House of Commons additional provision to the following effect, viz.:

To authorise the Company to purchase compulsorily a piece of land on the west side of Blackwall-lane, in Greenwich Marshes, and abutting on the River Thames, formerly held on lease and occupied by the Biphosphated Guano Company (Limited), but which lease has recently, under the powers of the South Metropolitan Gas Act, 1881, been transferred to the South Metropolitan Gas Company.

And notice is hereby further given, that plans of the said land and a book of reference to the said plans describing the owners, lessees, and occupiers of the lands delineated thereon, together with copies of this Notice, will be deposited for public inspection at the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons, with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Kent at his office in Maidstone, and with the Clerk to the Greenwich District Board of Works, at his office at 141, Greenwich-road, Greenwich, on or before the 11th instant.

Dated this 3rd day of March, 1882.
