Whitehall, March 23, 1882.

THE Queen has been graciously pleased to confer the "Albert Medal of the Second Class" on—

MR. WILLIAM HINTON, Inland Revenue Officer, Halesowen, in recognition of the gallantry displayed by him under the following circumstances:

On the 13th January, 1891, a fire occurred on the premises of Mr. John Booth (an Ironmonger residing at Halesowen), in the basement of which a large quantity of oil was deposited.

A crowd of three or four hundred people had collected in front of the shop, and a rumour was current that gunpowder was also stored therein.

MR. HINTON having been informed of the locality in which the powder was placed, at once entered the burning premises, amidst dense volumes of smoke, and succeeded in removing therefrom a drawer containing several canisters of gunpowder.

On being told that a large quantity of blasting-powder was also within the building, MR. HINTON, at imminent risk to his life (for the fire was at this time raging fiercely) again entered into the shop, and returned with twenty-five pounds of such material.

The outside of the canister containing the powder was hot and blistered by flames, which were then in actual contact with it, and the heat was so intense that solder was melted on a number of articles which were at a greater distance from the fire than that at which it was found by MR. HINTON.

Those acquainted with the locality of the blasting-powder would not approach it; and had not MR. HINTON, by this conspicuous act of gallantry, rescued it from the premises, in all human probability an explosion would have occurred, destroying a block of three buildings, and causing a great loss of life amongst those assembled.

THE scheme of arrangement passed and confirmed at the Extraordinary General Meetings of the above Company, held on the 18th

June and 2nd July, 1881, having provided that the memorandum and articles of association of the new Company, in the said scheme referred to, should be approved by the Liquidators, and that the borrowing powers of the new Company should be exercised to the satisfaction of the Liquidators, and the said Liquidators not being able to agree thereon, notice is hereby given, that Mr. Justice Chitty has directed a meeting of the contributories of the above-named Company to be summoned, pursuant to the above statutes, for the purpose of ascertaining their wishes as to the matters referred to in the subjoined resolutions, and that such meeting will be held on Thursday, the 30th day of March, 1882, at twelve o'clock at noon, at the office of the Company, No. 113, Cannon-street, in the city of London, at which time and place all the contributories of the said Company are requested to attend. The said Judge has appointed Mr. William Irving Hare, or, failing him, Mr. George Herring, to act as Chairman of the said meeting.

The resolutions to be submitted to the meeting are as follows:—

Resolutions.

1. The draft of an agreement intended to be made between this Company and Edward John Davis and Fritz Bernhard Behr, its Liquidators, of the one part, and the North-Western of Uruguay Railway Company Limited (an intended Company), of the other part, containing in the schedule thereto a copy of a scheme for a compromise or arrangement between this Company and its creditors, and for the sale of the undertaking of this Company to the said intended Company, having been submitted to this meeting and identified by the signature of John William Hawkins, Esq., the Chief Clerk of his Lordship Mr. Justice Chitty, and which said agreement and scheme are respectively a modification of the agreement and scheme previously approved, the modifications being shown in the said draft in red ink. Resolved, that this meeting approves the said draft, and directs the Liquidators to affix the Company's seal to an agreement in the terms thereof, as soon as the intended Company shall have been incorporated, and that the said agreement and the scheme set out in the schedule thereto be substituted for the agreement and scheme so previously approved as aforesaid.

2. The draft marked A of the memorandum and articles of association of the said intended Company having been submitted to this meeting, and identified by the signature of the said John William Hawkins, resolved that this meeting approves the said draft, and agrees that the blank in Article 86 be filled up by the insertion of the names as directors of four or more persons (but not exceeding 8 in the whole) to be nominated by a meeting of the debenture holders of the Company, or in case any of such four or more persons shall decline to act, then in lieu of the persons so declining such other person or persons as those not so declining, or a majority of them, shall nominate. The short effect of the proposed modification is that the shareholders and debenture holders will themselves approve the form of the memorandum and articles of association of the new Company, and the debenture holders will themselves elect the first directors of the new Company, and that the arrangements for providing, by means of the exercising of the borrowing powers of the new Company, the necessary funds for completing the authorized line of railway will be entrusted to the directors of the new Company. The agreement and scheme as they now stand provide that the memorandum and articles of association shall be approved, and the arrangements for providing the necessary funds shall be made to the satisfaction of the Liquidators. In the alternative the following will be submitted to the meeting by way of amendment. The draft marked B of the memorandum and articles of association of the said intended Company having been submitted to this meeting, and identified by the signature of the said John William Hawkins, resolved that this meeting approves the said draft marked B, and agrees that the blank in Article 86 be filled up by the insertion of the names as directors of four or more persons (but not exceeding 8 in the whole) to be nominated by a meeting of the debenture holders of the Company, or in case any of such four or more persons shall decline to act, then in lieu of the persons so declining, such other person or persons as those not so declining, or a majority of them, shall subject to the approval of the Liquidators elect. That in all other respects the scheme of arrangement passed and confirmed at the said Extraordinary General Meetings, and the agreement between this Company and its Liquidators of the one part, and the North-Western of Uruguay Railway Company Limited, of the other part, approved at the said meetings, be ratified and confirmed. Copies of the draft agreement and scheme proposed to be varied, and draft memorandum and articles of association marked A referred to in the resolutions, and of the memorandum and articles of association marked B, referred to in the amendment, may be seen at the office of the Company, 113, Cannon-street, in the city of London, between the hours of eleven and three, on any week day up to and including the day of the meeting.—Dated this 21st day of March, 1882.
