His Royal Highness The Grand Duke of Mecklenburg Strelitz was unavoidably prevented from being present.

When dinner was announced, The Queen, with Her Majesty's Royal and other distinguished guests, were conducted by The Lord Steward to their seats in St. George's Hall, when grace was said by His Grace The Archbishop of Canterbury.

At the conclusion of the Banquet the following Toasts were given by The Lord Steward:—"The Bride and Bridegroom;" "The King and Queen of the Netherlands;" "The Reigning Prince and Princess of Waldeck and Pymont;" "THE QUEEN."

The Queen, with the Royal and other guests, were then conducted by The Lord Chamberlain and The Lord Steward to the Grand Reception Room.

The Band of the Scots Guards, under the direction of Mr. J. P. Clarke, played a selection of music during the Banquet, and, at the conclusion, Her Majesty's Pipers played round the Hall in the customary manner.

After the Banquet Her Majesty's Private Band, conducted by Mr. W. G. Cusins, Master of the Music, played in the Waterloo Chamber adjoining the Grand Reception Room.

The Yeoman of the Guard were posted at intervals in St. George's Hall.

Special Trains for Her Majesty's Guests left the Paddington Station of the Great Western Railway for Windsor, at 10.35 A.M., and returned from Windsor at 3.10 and 4.30 P.M., and after the Banquet at 11 o'clock P.M.
