FRIDAY, JUNE 16, 1882.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace,
May 24, 1882.

NOTICE is hereby given, that His Royal Highness The Prince of Wales will, by command of The Queen, hold a Levee at St. James's Palace, on behalf of Her Majesty, on Saturday, the 17th of June next, at two o'clock.

It is The Queen's pleasure that Presentations to His Royal Highness at the Levee shall be considered as equivalent to Presentations to Her Majesty.

REGULATIONS

TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S LEVEE TO BE HELD BY HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS THE PRINCE OF WALES, ON BEHALF OF HER MAJESTY, AT ST. JAMES'S PALACE.

By Her Majesty's Command,

The Noblemen and Gentlemen who propose to attend Her Majesty's Levee, at St. James's Palace, are requested to bring with them two large cards, with their names clearly written thereon, one to be left with The Queen's Page in attendance in the Corridor, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to His Royal Highness.

PRESENTATIONS.

Any Nobleman or Gentleman who proposes to be presented, must leave at the Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace, before twelve o'clock, two clear days before the Levee, a card with his name written thereon, and with the name of the Nobleman or Gentleman by whom he is to be presented. In order to carry out the existing regulations that no presentation can be made at a Levee excepting by a person actually attending that Levee, it is also necessary that an intimation from the Nobleman or Gentleman who is to make the presentation, of his intention to be present, should accompany the presentation card above referred to, which will be submitted to The Queen for Her Majesty's approbation. It is Her Majesty's command that no presentations shall be made at the Levee, except in accordance with the above regulations.

It is particularly requested, that in every case the names be very distinctly written upon the cards to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them to His Royal Highness.

The State Apartments will be open for the reception of Company coming to Court at half-past one o'clock.

KENMARE,

Lord Chamberlain.

THE FAIRS ACT, 1871.

HINGHAM FAIRS.

WHEREAS a representation has been duly made to me, as Secretary of State for the Home Department, by the Justices of the Peace for the county of Norfolk, acting in and for the Petty Sessional District of Forehoe, in the same county, that three several Fairs have been annually held at Hingham, within the said Petty Sessional Division of the said county, on the 7th day of March, Whit Tuesday, and the 2nd day of October, respectively, and that it would be for the convenience and advantage of the public that the said Fairs should be abolished:

And whereas notice of the said representation, and of the time when I should take the same into consideration, has been duly published in pursuance of "The Fairs Act, 1871:"

And whereas, on such representation and consideration, it appears to me that it would be for the convenience and advantage of the public that the said Fairs should be abolished:

And whereas the Right Honourable John, Earl of Kimberley, as lord or owner of the said Fairs, and the tolls thereof, has consented in writing that the said Fairs should be abolished:

Now, therefore, I, as the Secretary of State for the Home Department, in exercise of the powers vested in me by "The Fairs Act, 1871," do hereby order that the Fairs which have been annually held at Hingham as aforesaid shall be abolished as from the date of this Order.

THE FAIRS ACT, 1873.

TRUMPINGTON FEAST.

WHEREAS a representation has been duly made to me, as Secretary of State for the Home Department, by the Justices of the Peace of the Petty Sessional Division of Cambridge, in the county of Cambridge, that a Fair, commonly known by the name of "Trumpington Feast," has been annually held at Trumpington, in the county of Cambridge, on the Feast of St. Peter, being the 29th day of June, and two following days, and that it would be for the convenience and advantage of the public that the said Fair should be held on a less number of days than those on which such Fair is used to be held (to wit) on one day only, such day to be the first day of the Fair, namely, the 29th day of June, unless and except the said 29th day of June happen to fall on a Sunday, in which case such day to be the Saturday immediately preceding the 29th day of June:

And whereas notice of the said representation, and of the time when I should take the same into consideration, has been duly given to the Justices acting in the Petty Sessional Division of Cambridge, in the county of Cambridge, within which division the Fair in question is held, and otherwise published in pursuance of "The Fairs Act, 1873:"

And whereas on such representation and consideration it appears to me that it would be for the convenience and advantage of the public that the number of days for the holding the said Fair should be altered as proposed:

Now, therefore, I, as the Secretary of State for the Home Department, in exercise of the powers vested in me by "The Fairs Act, 1873," do hereby order that the number of the days for the holding of the Fair which has been annually held at Trumpington, in the county of Cambridge, should be altered, and that instead of being held as aforesaid, such Fair should in future be held on one day only, namely, the 29th day of June, unless and except the said 29th day of June happen to fall on a Sunday, in which case such day to be the Saturday immediately preceding the 29th day of June.

Given under my hand at Whitehall, this 13th day of June, 1882.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this eighth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby, subject as hereinafter mentioned, grant to the Incumbent of the rectory of Creeton, in the county of Lincoln, and in the diocese of Lincoln, and to his successors, Incumbents of the same rectory, one yearly sum or stipend of twenty-one pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the twenty-fifth day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one, and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions, on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient, in our opinion, to produce the said yearly sum or stipend, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said rectory, in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this eighth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two.

(L.S.)

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby, subject as hereinafter mentioned, grant and convey to the Incumbent of the vicarage of Saint Chad, Stafford, in the county of Stafford, and in the diocese of Lichfield, and to his successors, Incumbents of the same vicarage, all those two houses and hereditaments, with the appurtenances thereunto belonging, particularly described in the schedule hereunto annexed, and now vested in us: To have and to hold the said two houses and hereditaments with their appurtenances to the use of the said Incumbent and his successors for ever: Provided always, that the said houses and hereditaments expressed to be hereby granted and conveyed, shall be and be taken to be in lieu of and in substitution for a portion amounting to forty pounds per annum of the yearly sum or stipend of one hundred pounds, heretofore payable by us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, to the Incumbent for the time being of the said vicarage of Saint Chad, Stafford, under the authority of an instrument sealed by us on the twenty-seventh day of June, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight, and published in the London Gazette on the fifth day of July in the same year: And provided also, that the Incumbent for the time being of the same vicarage shall be entitled to receive from us, or on our account, the net amount of the rents, profits, and proceeds of the said two houses and hereditaments for and in respect of the period intervening between the first day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two, and the date of the publication of these presents in the London Gazette.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this eighth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two.

Schedule.

All those two houses, with the gardens and appurtenances thereto, known as Nos. 22 and 23, Tipping-street, in the parish of Saint Chad, Stafford, in the county of Stafford, now occupied by William Slaney and the Reverend William Beresford respectively, and bounded on the north by Tipping-street aforesaid, on the south by South Back-walls, on the east in part by property belonging to the Misses Marsh, and occupied by Mrs. Woolley, and in part by property belonging to Mrs. Chatfield, and occupied by Riley and another, and on the west in part by property belonging to Messrs. Lloyd, and occupied by George Duncan, and in part by properties belonging to and occupied by Dr. Crawford and Mrs. Brayn respectively, and which said two houses and hereditaments are more particularly delineated on the plan hereunto annexed, and are thereon coloured round with red and green verge lines.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby, subject as hereinafter mentioned, grant to the Incumbent of the vicarage of Glynde, in the county of Sussex, and in the diocese of Chichester, and to his successors, Incumbents of the same vicarage, one yearly sum or stipend of one hundred and four pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the twenty-fifth day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two, and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions, on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient, in our opinion, to produce the said yearly sum or stipend, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said vicarage, in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this eighth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby, subject as hereinafter mentioned, grant to the Incumbent for the time being of the vicarage of Saint Thomas, Lambeth, in the county of Surrey, and in the diocese of Rochester, one yearly sum or stipend of one hundred and twenty pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the third day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two, and to be receivable in four equal portions, on the first day of February, the first day of May, the first day of August, and the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that the annual sum or stipend so granted by us to the Incumbent of the said vicarage shall be paid only upon the production to us, on or after each of the said lastly-mentioned days in each and every year, of a certificate under the hand of the Bishop of the said diocese of Rochester, that two Assistant-Curates, duly licensed by such Bishop, have been employed within the parish of Saint Thomas, Lambeth aforesaid, during the quarter of the year then ended, and that each of such Curates is in receipt of a salary after a rate of not less than one hundred and twenty pounds per annum: Provided also, that such yearly sum or stipend shall continue payable as aforesaid so long only as may to us appear to be expedient under the circumstances from time to time affecting the said parish and vicarage of Saint Thomas, Lambeth.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this eighth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two.

Salop, is dissolved by instrument, registered at this office, the 12th day of June, 1882, unless within three months from the date of the Gazette in which this advertisement appears, proceedings be commenced by a member or other person interested in or having any claim on the funds of the Society to set aside such dissolution, and the same be set aside accordingly.

J. M. Ludlow, Chief Registrar of Friendly Societies.

28, Abingdon-street, Westminster,
the 12th day of June, 1882.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Gloucester City and County Life Assurance and Sick Benefit Society, Register No. 920, held at 20, Worcester-street, Gloucester, in the county of Gloucester, is dissolved by instrument, registered at this office, the 13th day of June, 1882, unless within three months from the date of the Gazette in which this advertisement appears, proceedings be commenced by a member or other person interested in or having any claim on the funds of the Society to set aside such dissolution, and the same be set aside accordingly.

J. M. Ludlow, Chief Registrar of Friendly Societies.

28, Abingdon-street, Westminster,
the 13th day of June, 1882.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Golden Lion Friendly Society, Register No. 108, held at the Golden Lion, Trelleck, in the county of Monmouth, is dissolved by instrument, registered at this office, the 13th day of June, 1882, unless within three months from the date of the Gazette in which this advertisement appears, proceedings be commenced by a member or other person interested in or having any claim on the funds of the Society to set aside such dissolution, and the same be set aside accordingly.

J. M. Ludlow, Chief Registrar of Friendly Societies.

28, Abingdon-street, Westminster,
the 13th day of June, 1882.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Friendly Society, Register No. 746, held at the Dog and Crook Inn, Braishfield, in the county of Hants, is dissolved by instrument, registered at this office, the 14th day of June, 1882, unless within three months from the date of the Gazette in which this advertisement appears, proceedings be commenced by a member or other person interested in or having any claim on the funds of the Society to set aside such dissolution, and the same be set aside accordingly.

J. M. Ludlow, Chief Registrar of Friendly Societies.

28, Abingdon-street, Westminster,
the 14th day of June, 1882.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Chief Registrar of Friendly Societies, has, pursuant to 38 and 39 Vic., c. 60, s. 12, by writing under his hand, dated the 18th day of June, 1882, cancelled the Registry of the London Unity of Hammermen, Register No. 1739, held at the Crown, 38, George-street, Blackfriars-road, in the borough of Southwark, in the county of Surrey. The ground for such cancelling is that the Society desires to be registered under the Trades Union Act. The Society (subject to the right of appeal given by the said Act) ceases to enjoy the privileges of a registered Society, but without prejudice to any liability incurred by the Society, which may be enforced against it as if such cancelling had not taken place.

J. M. Ludlow, Chief Registrar.
