Schedule.

All those four several pieces or parcels of land with the buildings thereon, situate in the parish of Stainton, in the North Riding of the county of York, containing in the aggregate three acres and ten perches, or thereabouts, and comprising the whole of the parcels of land numbered 178, 179, 189, and 191, on the tithe commutation map of the said parish of Stainton, which said pieces or parcels of land are bounded on or towards the north, in part, by the village street of Stainton; on the remaining part of the north and on part of the east by land belonging (now or lately) to one William Wright; on the remaining part of the east and on the west by glebe land belonging to the vicarage of Stainton aforesaid; and on the south by land belonging (now or lately) to J. W. Pennymann, Esquire, and the said pieces or parcels of land are more particularly delineated on the plan hereunto annexed, and are thereon coloured red.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in consideration of a benefaction consisting of a certain house and premises comprising one acre three roods and eleven perches, or thereabouts, which have been permanently secured to the vicarage of Walpole, in the county of Suffolk, and in the diocese of Norwich, do hereby, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, grant to the Incumbent of the said vicarage of Walpole, and to his successors, to meet such benefaction, one yearly sum or stipend of twenty pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the day of the publication of these presents in the London Gazette, and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions, on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient, in our opinion, to produce the said yearly sum or stipend, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said vicarage, in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

(L.S.)

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in consideration of a benefaction of four hundred pounds sterling, which has been paid to us in favour of the united benefice of Bredenbury with Wacton, in the county and diocese of Hereford, and of a further benefaction consisting of a piece or parcel of land, comprising one acre one rood and twenty-three perches (or thereabouts, which has been permanently secured to the same united benefice, do hereby, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, hereby grant and convey to the Incumbent of the said united benefice of Bredenbury with Wacton, and to his successors, Incumbents thereof, to meet the aforesaid benefactions, all and singular the yearly tithe rent-charges, commuted at sixty-six pounds, issuing and arising out of lands and hereditaments, situate in the parish of Wacton aforesaid (less certain sums thereof amounting to one shilling and eleven pence, charged on the closes of land numbered 175, 177, 180, and 181 in the tithe commutation award and map of the said parish of Wacton, which have been redeemed), which said tithe commutation rent-charges formerly belonged to the Rector of the second portion of the church of Bromyard, in the said county of Hereford, and are now vested in us, to have and to hold the said yearly tithe commutation rent-charges to the use of the said Incumbent and his successors for ever: Provided always, that the Incumbent for the time being of the same united benefice shall be entitled to receive from us, or on our account, the net amount of the profits and proceeds of the said yearly tithe commutation rent-charges for and in respect of the period intervening between the first day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two, and the date of the publication of these presents in the London Gazette.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in consideration of a benefaction, consisting of a portion of the value of a certain house and premises which are about to be permanently secured to the vicarage or benefice of Saint Saviour, Champion Hill, in the county of Surrey, and in the diocese of Rochester, do hereby, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, sections five and eleven, grant and appropriate out of our common fund to the said vicarage or benefice of Saint Saviour, Champion Hill, to meet such benefaction, one capital sum of one thousand and five hundred pounds sterling, to be paid by us as the consideration for the conveyance in fee simple to the said vicarage or benefice of the house and premises above-mentioned.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this twenty-second day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two.
