

any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, shall or shall not have arrived), as to Her Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, may seem fit :

And whereas by an Order in Council bearing date the ninth day of July, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-nine, burials were directed to be discontinued in the parish of Paignton in the words following :—

PAIGNTON.—Forthwith wholly in the church of the parish of Paignton, and also in the churchyard, except in vaults and walled graves which can be used without the disturbance of soil that has been buried in, and in which each coffin shall be separately entombed in an air-tight manner, and except in earthen groves which can be opened to the depth of five feet, without the exposure of coffins, or the disturbance of entire bones.

And whereas the Right Honourable Sir William Vernon Harcourt, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after giving to the Incumbent and Churchwardens of the said parish, ten days' previous notice of his intention to make such representation, has made a representation stating that he is of opinion that the said Order of Her Majesty in Council as affecting burials in the said parish should be varied in the following manner, viz. :—

By the omission of the words after "except" to "bones," and by the substitution in their stead of the following words

"as follows: (a.) In such vaults and wholly walled graves as are now existing in the churchyard, burials may be allowed on condition that every coffin buried therein be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented :

"(b.) In such partly walled graves as are now existing in the churchyard, provided that the earth above them can be opened to the depth of five feet without exposing coffins or disturbing human remains, burials may be allowed of so many of the relations of those already interred therein as can be buried at or below that depth."

Now, therefore, Her Majesty in Council is pleased hereby to give notice of such representation, and to order that the same be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council on the fourteenth day of August next.

And Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith published in the London Gazette; and that copies thereof be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some conspicuous places within, the parish affected by such representation, one month before the said fourteenth day of August.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 29th day of June, 1882.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament, held in the fifteenth and sixteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in the Metropolis," it is enacted that in case it appears to Her Majesty in Council, upon the representation of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, that, for the protection of the public health, burials in any part or parts of the Metropolis, or in any burial grounds or places of burial in the Metropolis, should be wholly discontinued, or should be discontinued subject to any exception or qualification, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order that from and after a time mentioned in the Order burials in such part or parts of the Metropolis, or in such burial grounds or places of burial, shall be discontinued wholly or subject to any exceptions or qualifications mentioned in such Order, and so from time to time as circumstances may require; provided that notice of such representation, and of the time when it shall please Her Majesty to order the same to be taken into consideration by the Privy Council, shall be published in the London Gazette, and shall be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of the parishes in which any burial grounds or places of burial affected by such representation shall be situate, or on some other conspicuous places within the part or parts of the Metropolis affected by such representation, one calendar month at the least before such representation is so considered; provided always, that no such representation shall be made in relation to the burial-ground of any parish until ten days' previous notice of the intention to make such representation shall have been given to the Incumbent and the Vestry Clerk of such parish :

And whereas by another Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the eighteenth and nineteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act further to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England," it is, amongst other things, enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, from time to time to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, shall or shall not have arrived), as to Her Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, may seem fit :

And whereas the Right Honourable Sir William Vernon Harcourt, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after giving to the Incumbent and the Vestry Clerk of the parish herein-after mentioned ten days' previous notice of his intention to make such representation, has made a representation, stating that, for the protection of the public health, the Order of Her Majesty in Council of the 13th May, 1875, affecting burials in Garret Lane Cemetery, Wandsworth, in the county of Surrey (therein described as the parish cemetery or additional churchyard of All Saints, Wandsworth), should be varied by the omission of the words, "members of the families," and by the substitution of the words "widows, widowers and parents," so that the Order should be read as follows, viz. :—

ALL SAINTS, WANDSWORTH.—Forthwith wholly in the parish cemetery or additional churchyard, except in vaults and walled graves which can be opened without disturbing soil that has been buried in, and in which each coffin shall be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented, and except also in graves not less than five feet deep which can be opened without disturbing soil within a foot of any previously buried coffin, and that interment in the cemetery be further limited to the widows, widowers,
