C. L. Peal.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 25th day of July, 1882.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and forty-two, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-seventh day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and forty-two, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for effecting an union of two benefices, situate within the city and diocese of London, to wit the benefice (being a rectory) of Saint Vedast, Foster-lane, with Saint Michael-le-Querne, and the benefice (being a rectory) of Saint Matthew, Friday-street, with Saint Peter Cheap, and for effecting certain other measures incidental to or arising out of such union.

"Whereas the Right Honourable and Right Reverend John, Bishop of the said diocese of London, has caused proposals (being amended proposals) for a scheme for effecting an union of the said two benefices to be laid before us, such proposals as amended being prepared under the seventh and eighth sections of the said Act, and being finally approved by the said John, Bishop of the said diocese of London, and being also assented to by the patrons and vestries of the parishes to be affected thereby, that is to say, by the Right Honourable and Most Reverend Archibald Campbell, Archbishop of Canterbury, the patron in right of his See, for every alternate turn of presentation of the said rectory of Saint Vedast, Foster-lane, with Saint Michael-le-Querne, and by the said John, Bishop of the said diocese of London, the patron in right of his See for every other alternate turn of presentation of the same rectory, and also in the same right the patron for every alternate turn of presentation of the said rectory of Saint Matthew, Friday-street, with Saint Peter Cheap, and by the Most Noble Walter Francis Duke of Buccleuch and Queensberry, Knight of the Most Noble Order of the Garter, the patron for every other alternate turn of presentation of the lastly-named rectory, and by the respective vestries of the several parishes of Saint Vedast, Foster-lane, Saint Michael-le-Querne, Saint Matthew, Friday-street, and Saint Peter Cheap.

"And whereas it appears to us the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England to be expedient that the said proposed union of the said two benefices should be effected, and that such arrangements relating thereto and to the other matters hereinafter referred to should be made as are hereinafter mentioned.

"And whereas the said John, Bishop of the said diocese of London, and the said patrons of the said two benefices, and the said vestries of the said four parishes respectively, are willing that the scheme for effecting the said union should embody certain modifications of the said proposals as amended, and this present scheme does embody the same modifications accordingly, but otherwise is based upon the said proposals as amended.

"And whereas as part of the arrangements hereinbefore referred to, we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, intend, subject to such consents as are by law required, to recommend hereafter to Your Majesty in Council, that under the provisions of the New Parishes Act, or under the provisions of the Church Building Acts or of some or one of them, or under the provisions of some other (if any other) statute or statutes, enabling us in that behalf, a new district for ecclesiastical purposes shall be constituted or otherwise created within the limits of the Metropolis, as that term is defined by the Act of the eighteenth and nineteenth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty, out of such cure or cures as shall be selected or approved by the Archbishop of Canterbury for the time being, with the concurrence of the Bishop of London for the time being, which district shall have a church and an endowment or part endowment provided for it as in this scheme is recommended and proposed, and the patronage of which district and of the church thereof shall in consideration of the provision of such endowment or part endowment as aforesaid be vested in the See of Canterbury as is hereinafter recommended and proposed.

"Now, therefore, with the consents of the said John, Bishop of the said diocese of London, and of the said Archibald Campbell, Archbishop of Canterbury (in testimony whereof they have to this scheme set their respective hands and episcopal seals), and with the consent of the said Walter Francis Duke of Buccleuch and Queensberry (in testimony whereof he has to this scheme set his hand and seal), and with the consents of the vestry of the said parish of Saint Vedast, Foster-lane, and of the vestry of the said parish of Saint Michael-le-Querne, and of the vestry of the said parish of Saint Matthew, Friday-street, and of the vestry of the said parish of Saint Peter Cheap (in testimony of which consents this scheme is signed in the case of each of the said four vestries by the chairman of a meeting of the same vestry duly convened for the purpose of giving such consent), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose to Your Majesty in Council all that is in this scheme contained under the several parts or headings hereinafter mentioned, as follows.

“PART I.

“As to the proposed union itself, and certain immediate incidents thereof, we recommend and propose :

“1. That the said benefice of Saint Vedast, Foster-lane, with Saint Michael-le-Querne and the said benefice of Saint Matthew, Friday-street, with Saint Peter Cheap, shall be united upon the terms and as from the date of one or other (as the case may be) of the contingencies hereinafter mentioned into one benefice under the style of ‘The United Rectory of Saint Vedast, Foster-lane, with Saint Michael-le-Querne and Saint Matthew, Friday-street, with Saint Peter Cheap.’

“2. That if upon the day when an Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this present scheme shall be published in the London Gazette, both of the said two benefices of Saint Vedast, Foster-lane, with Saint Michael-le-Querne, and Saint Matthew, Friday-street, with Saint Peter Cheap, shall be vacant, the union of the same two benefices shall take effect forthwith; and if one only shall be then vacant, the said union shall also take effect forthwith, if the incumbent of the other of the said two benefices shall consent to become the first incumbent of the united benefice; but if he shall not so consent, then the said union shall take effect upon the then next avoidance of his benefice, and the then incumbent of the other of the said two benefices shall be the first incumbent of the united benefice; and if upon the day when an Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this present scheme shall be so published in the London Gazette as aforesaid, both of the said two benefices shall be full, then the said union shall take effect on the next avoidance of either of them if the incumbent for the time being of the other of the said two benefices shall consent to become the incumbent of the united benefice, and he shall be the first incumbent of the united benefice; but if he shall not so consent, then the said union shall take effect immediately upon the next vacancy of his benefice, and the then incumbent of the other of the said two benefices shall be the first incumbent of the united benefice; and that in any case it shall be lawful for the Bishop to admit to the united benefice such first incumbent (if an incumbent for the time being of either of the said two benefices), without any form or fee of or for presentation, and he shall thereupon become the incumbent of the united benefice: Provided always, that until the time of the said union taking effect, the said two benefices shall remain separate, and the rights and liabilities of each of them, and of the incumbent of each of them, shall remain unaffected.

“3. That if upon or after the day of the publication in the London Gazette as aforesaid of an Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, and before the said union shall have taken effect, the incumbent for the time being of either of the said two benefices shall, with the consent of the Bishop of London, retire from his incumbency in order that the said union may take immediate effect, then the incumbent so retiring from his incumbency shall be entitled during the period hereinafter specified to receive out of the annual income of the united benefice and by way of compensation an annual sum equal to the net annual value of the tithes, tithes rent-charge, and other endowments belonging to the incumbency from which he shall so retire (not reckoning the house of residence as an item of value) computed on the average receipts of the three years immediately preceding the year in which the said incumbent shall so retire, which annual sum shall commence as from the day on which the said union shall take effect; and shall be payable by equal half-yearly payments in every year; the first half-yearly payment thereof to become due at the end of six calendar months next after the day on which the said union shall take effect; and that the said annual sum shall be payable to the retiring incumbent during the remainder of his life, or until he shall accept any other church preferment of an annual value equal to or greater in amount than the said annual sum to be so made payable to such retiring incumbent. And that upon his accepting such preferment, the said annual sum shall thenceforth absolutely cease to be payable, but if he shall accept other church preferment of a net less annual value (to be ascertained without reference to, and exclusively of the house of residence if any) than as aforesaid, then whilst he shall hold such other preferment, the said annual sum shall in each year be reduced by a sum equal in amount to the net annual sum (to be ascertained as aforesaid), payable to him for the same year in respect of such other preferment, but if the same annual sum shall cease by his acceptance of such church preferment, or by his death (as the case may be) on any other than one of the half-yearly days of payment, then he or his executors, or administrators, shall be entitled to a proportionate part of the said annual sum for the period which at the time of such cesser shall have elapsed of the current half year, which proportionate part shall be payable at the end of the current half year.

“4. That the said annual sum shall be charged upon the annual income of the united benefice, and shall be payable out of the same by the incumbent for the time being of the united benefice, and that as between the incumbent for the time being of the united benefice, and the retiring incumbent and his assigns, the said annual sum shall be a first charge at law and in equity upon the income of the united benefice, the incumbent of which united benefice shall be deemed to have accepted the same, subject to a trust to pay to the said retiring incumbent, or his assigns, the said annual sum out of the income of the said united benefice, and for that purpose to use all due diligence to receive and collect the income of the said united benefice, and that if such annual sum, or any part thereof shall at any time be in arrear and unpaid for more than twenty-one days after any of the said half-yearly days of payment, and the fact of the same being so in arrear shall be verified by the declaration of the incumbent who shall have so retired, or his assigns, or in such other or further manner as shall be required by the Bishop of London, it shall be lawful for the said said Bishop to make an order upon the incumbent for the time being of the united benefice requiring him to pay the amount in arrear within a time to be specified in such order; and if the same be not paid within such period then it shall be lawful for the said Bishop to sequester the profits of the said united benefice until all such arrears and the costs of the sequestration shall have been paid and satisfied. But that the power to be so conferred upon the said Bishop shall not in anywise abridge or interfere with the rights of the incumbent who shall have so retired or his assigns to recover the said annual sum and all arrears thereof by proceedings at law or in equity, or with the legal or equitable rights of the incumbent for the time being of the united benefice to recover from the preceding incumbent of the united benefice, his executors or administrators, any arrears of the said annual sum which ought to have been paid by such preceding incumbent.

"5. That if the said union shall have taken immediate effect by reason of the incumbent for the time being of either of the existing incumbencies having retired from his incumbency, and such incumbent shall be living when the united benefice shall for the first time after such union become vacant, the incumbent who shall have so retired shall (if in the opinion of the Bishop of London not disqualified by age or otherwise) be entitled to fill such vacancy and may be admitted by the Bishop to the united benefice without any form or fee of or for presentation, and he shall upon such admission become the incumbent of the united benefice, and the annual sum hereinbefore made payable to him shall thenceforth absolutely cease to be payable; but that as regards the future patronage and right of presentation to the united benefice and the rights of the patrons in regard thereto, and the order of the turns of presentation, the admission of such retired incumbent as aforesaid, to the united benefice shall not be deemed to be a presentation, but shall, as regards such patronage, right of presentation, and other rights, be deemed to be a continuance of the first incumbency of the united benefice.

"PART II.

"As to the parish church of the united benefice and certain officers of the same, and certain matters connected therewith, or with the church of Saint Matthew, Friday-street, we recommend and propose:

"1. That upon the said union taking effect the church of Saint Vedast, Foster-lane, shall become and thereafter continue to be the parish church of the united benefice.

"2. That from and after the union taking effect the expense of maintaining the fabric of the parish church of the united benefice, and providing things requisite for Divine service therein shall (subject, nevertheless, to the provisions of the Compulsory Church Rate Abolition Act, 1868,) be defrayed by the four parishes of the united benefice, and shall be provided in the following manner, that is to say, as between the two benefices now proposed to be united, the said expense shall be apportioned in accordance with the ratio for the time being existing between the assessment to the poor rate of property within the area of the one benefice, and the like assessment of property within the area of the other benefice, the two parishes of the said present benefice of Saint Vedast, Foster-lane, with Saint Michael-le-Querne, to provide, as between themselves, their portion of the said expense in proportions identical with those in which their church expenses are now provided by them, and the two parishes of the said present benefice of Saint Matthew, Friday-street, with Saint Peter Cheap; to provide, as between themselves, their portion of the said expense in proportions identical with those in which their church expenses are now provided by them.

"3. That upon the said union taking effect, the font, communion table, and sacramental plate used in the church of Saint Matthew, Friday-street, and so much of the fittings and furniture (other than the organ of the said church) as the vestries or the said four parishes shall (with the approval of the Bishop of London) select, shall be transferred to the parish church of the united benefice; but if such font, communion table, and sacramental plate, or any or either of them, shall, in the opinion of the said vestries and of the Bishop of London, be not needed for such last-mentioned church, then that the same, or such of them, or so much of the said plate as shall not be so needed, or any fittings and furniture not needed as aforesaid, shall, at the option of the Bishop of London, be transferred either to the church of the new district which is hereinbefore proposed to be constituted or otherwise created, or to such other church or chapel within the diocese of London as the said Bishop shall require and select.

"4. That upon the said union taking effect, the organ of the said church of Saint Matthew, Friday-street, shall be dealt with in such manner as the joint vestry of the said parishes of Saint Matthew, Friday-street and Saint Peter Cheap, shall, with the approval of the Bishop of London, direct.

"5. That upon the said union taking effect, if the tables of fees used in the two churches of Saint Matthew, Friday-street, and Saint Vedast, Foster-lane, be alike in all particulars, the table of fees used in the church of Saint Vedast, Foster-lane (being the church which will become the church of the united benefice) shall (unless or until revised or altered by proper authority) be the table of fees for all the four parishes of the united benefice; but if such tables of fees be not alike in all particulars, then the same shall be of no authority, and a new table of fees shall be made by the proper authority for the use of the same four parishes, as if the same were one parish.

"6. That the present two church servants (namely, the bellringer, who is also organ blower, and the pew opener) of the church of Saint Matthew, Friday-street, or such one of them as shall hold such office or offices as aforesaid at the time when the said union takes effect shall thereupon cease to hold such office in the said church, and shall receive by way of compensation for the loss of such office an amount equal to two years' pay; and that the present organist of the church of Saint Matthew, Friday-street, if he shall hold such office at the time when the said union takes effect, shall thereupon cease to hold such office, and shall receive by way of compensation for the same the sum of one hundred pounds; such compensation, in the case of the said bellringer and organ blower, pew opener, and organist respectively, to be paid out of the proceeds of the sale of the site and appurtenances of the said church of Saint Matthew, Friday-street, hereinafter mentioned, and that it shall be lawful for us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, if we shall see fit, in all or any of the said cases to advance the compensation money or any part thereof out of the fund created by section twenty-two of the said Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and forty-two.

"7. That upon the said union taking effect, the person who at that time shall hold the office of parish clerk of the said parish of Saint Vedast, Foster-lane, with Saint Michael-le-Querne shall, without any further appointment, become the

"8. That (in the event of the present vestries of the said parishes of Saint Matthew, Friday-street, with Saint Peter Cheap, expressing in writing under the hands of the churchwardens of the said two parishes for the time being their desire for such removal) the register books of baptisms, marriages, and burials (except the volumes in use) in the said church of Saint Matthew, Friday-street, shall be removed to the custody of the Registrar-General, if he can and will receive the same, but in the event of the Registrar-General being unable or unwilling to receive the custody of the said books, or of the said vestries not expressing as aforesaid their desire for such removal, then that all the said books (including any volumes in use) shall be transferred to the church of the united benefice.

"PART III.

"As to the house of residence for the rector of the united benefice we recommend and propose:

"That upon the said union taking effect, the rectory house at present belonging to the benefice of Saint Matthew, Friday-street, with Saint Peter Cheap, shall become and be the house of residence for the rector of the united benefice.

"PART IV.

"As to the endowments of the united benefice, we recommend and propose:

"That upon the said union taking effect, all the properties constituting the endowments of the said two benefices of Saint Matthew, Friday-street, with Saint Peter Cheap, and Saint Vedast, Foster-lane, with Saint Michael-le-Querne, shall without any conveyance or assurance in the law, other than this scheme and any duly gazetted Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, be transferred and annexed and belong to the united benefice as the endowment thereof.

"PART V.

"As to the church of Saint Matthew, Friday-street, and the site and appurtenances thereof, we recommend and propose:

"1. That upon the said union taking effect, the said church of Saint Matthew, Friday-street, shall be taken down, and its materials and site, together with any ground annexed thereto and necessary for the use and enjoyment thereof (except such portion thereof as may be taken by the Commissioners of Sewers for the city of London as hereinafter proposed) shall be sold by us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, by tender or by public auction, or otherwise, as shall, in our opinion, be expedient, such sale being made at one time, or at more times than one, as may be directed by us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, and that any furniture or fittings of the said church, other than the organ, not required by the vestries of the said four parishes, and the Bishop of London, under the provision hereinbefore contained, shall be also sold by us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in such manner and at such time or times as shall in our opinion, be expedient.

"2. That before any portion of the site of the said church of Saint Matthew, Friday-street, or of any ground annexed thereto, is offered for sale as aforesaid, the Commissioners of Sewers for the said city of London shall, on the terms and conditions hereinafter mentioned, have the option of taking so much of the site of the said church as lies to the east of a line drawn from a point in the south side of the said church, distant nine feet six inches or thereabouts from the south-east corner of the east frontage of the same church to a point in the north side of the same church distant eight feet three inches or thereabouts from the north-east corner of the frontage of the same church; provided that such option be declared to us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, by the said Commissioners of Sewers, in writing, under the hand of their principal clerk, or other duly authorized officer within two calendar months next after they shall be required by us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, to declare the same.

"3. That if the said Commissioners of Sewers shall elect to take the land which as aforesaid is to be subject to the option aforesaid, then it shall not be lawful for them to appropriate the land so to be taken by them until they shall have set apart, free of cost, a suitable and sufficient portion of ground within their cemetery at Little Ilford, in the county of Essex, to be approved by us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, to receive the remains of the dead now lying in or under the said church of Saint Matthew, Friday-street, and shall have repaid to us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, any reasonable costs which we may incur or allow in respect of the removal to, and re-interment at, the said cemetery at Little Ilford of the remains of the dead now lying as aforesaid in or under the said church of Saint Matthew, Friday-street, and shall have erected, at their own cost, over the said remains a monument, such as shall be approved by us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, and by the Bishop of London; and shall have paid a capital sum of three hundred pounds to us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, the said capital sum to be held as, and to be deemed to be a part of the proceeds of the sale of the site and fabric of the said church of Saint Matthew, Friday-street, and to be dealt with as hereinafter recommended and proposed.

"4. That when the whole of the said remains shall have been so removed from the said church of Saint Matthew, Friday-street, and shall have been re-interred as aforesaid, and such monument shall have been erected, and such sum of three hundred pounds shall have been paid as aforesaid, then we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, shall if required, convey to the said Commissioners of Sewers for the city of London the portion to be so taken by them of the said site.

"Provided always, that until the messuages or buildings next adjoining the same site on the north and south sides, or on either the north side or the south side shall have been set back so as to be in line with the line which is before indicated in Clause 2 of the present Part V. of this scheme, we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, or our assigns, shall be at liberty to enclose and use the land so to be taken by the said Commissioners of Sewers as aforesaid, paying to the same Commissioners of Sewers a nominal rent of five shillings per annum for such user, and covenanting to give to the said Commissioners of Sewers vacant possession of the same land free of cost, whenever the adjoining messuages or buildings on the north side or on the south side thereof, or on both those sides shall be set back to the line last hereinbefore referred to.

"5. That if the said Commissioners of Sewers shall elect to take such land as aforesaid, the ground so to be taken by them shall be appropriated to widening the existing thoroughfare, and shall be accordingly dedicated to the public use and to no other purpose.

"6. That if such option as aforesaid shall not be declared by the said Commissioners of Sewers before the expiration of two calendar months from the day on which the said Commissioners of Sewers shall have received from us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, notice requiring such option to be declared, or if the said Commissioners of Sewers shall fail to fulfil the conditions attached to the exercise of such option as aforesaid, then the right hereby proposed to be given to the Commissioners of Sewers of taking such portion of the site shall absolutely cease at law and equity, and the land constituting such site shall be absolutely discharged from such right or option, and from all claims of the Commissioners of Sewers in respect thereof, and this provision shall take full effect notwithstanding the delay may have arisen from unavoidable accident.

"7. That in the event of such portion as aforesaid of the site of the said church of Saint Matthew, Friday-street, not being taken by the said Commissioners of Sewers, it shall be dealt with in like manner as the rest of the site of the same church and its appurtenances are to be dealt with according to this scheme.

"PART VI.

"As to the proceeds of any sale or sales of the materials, site, furniture, or fittings of the said Church of Saint Matthew, Friday-street, we recommend and propose :

"1. That the proceeds of any sale or sales of the furniture or fittings of the said church of Saint Matthew, Friday-street, shall be paid over by us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, to the churchwardens of the said parish of Saint Matthew, Friday-street, to be invested by them, and the interest or dividends thereon to be applied by them towards the payment of the share of church expenses hereinbefore proposed to be provided by the same parish.

"2. That out of the proceeds of any sale or sales of the site and fabric of the said church of Saint Matthew, Friday-street, or of any ground annexed thereto and necessary for the use and enjoyment thereof, a sum sufficient to meet the compensation payments hereinbefore provided for by Part II., Clause 6, of this scheme, shall be first appropriated.

"3. That out of the same proceeds there shall be appropriated a sum of not less than seven thousand pounds to be expended by us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, and at our discretion and with the approval of the Bishop of London, for or towards the erection of a church for the new district which is hereinbefore proposed to be constituted or created.

"4. That out of the same proceeds such a sum as will, when invested in three pounds per centum per annum Consolidated Bank annuities, produce annual dividends or income to the amount of two hundred and fifty pounds per annum shall be appropriated and shall be so invested by us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, for providing or assisting to provide an endowment for the said new district lastly hereinbefore mentioned.

"5. That out of the same proceeds the sum of one thousand and five hundred pounds shall (as and when we shall see fit) be paid by us to the churchwardens of the united benefice for the purpose of defraying the cost of any works which, with the approval of us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England and of the Bishop of London, may be executed for the purpose of rendering the church of the united benefice, that is to say, the church of Saint Vedast, Foster-lane, more suited for the purpose of Divine worship therein.

"6. That out of the same proceeds a sum of one thousand pounds shall be paid by us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, to the churchwardens of the said parish of Saint Matthew, Friday-street, to be invested by them, and the interest or dividends thereon to be applied by them to the payment of the share of church expenses hereinbefore proposed to be provided by the same parish.

"7. That out of the same proceeds any sum not exceeding one thousand and five hundred pounds, which in our opinion shall be required, shall be appropriated and expended, with the approval of us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England and of the Bishop of London, in rendering the parsonage or house of residence belonging to the united benefice more suitable and sufficient for the residence of the rector or incumbent of the same united benefice.

"8. That the remainder, if any, of such proceeds shall constitute and form part of the fund created under the before-mentioned twenty-second section of the said Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and forty-two.

"PART VII.

"Upon the subject of patronage, we recommend and propose :

"That by virtue of any duly gazetted Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme as aforesaid, and without any further or other assurance in the law than such duly gazetted Order, the following arrangements shall take place, viz. :—

"1. The whole advowson and perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the new district which is hereinbefore proposed to be constituted or created, and of and to the church thereof shall, as from the date of the creation of the same cure, be vested in the Archbishop of Canterbury for the time being, and his successors, and in consideration of this arrangement the said Archibald Campbell, Archbishop of Canterbury, and his successors, Archbishops of Canterbury, shall, as from the date of the said union taking effect, cease to be the alternate patron of the present benefice of Saint Vedast, Foster-lane, with Saint Michael-le-Querne, or to have any interest whatever in the patronage of the said united benefice.

"2. The said Walter Francis, Duke of Buccleuch and Queensberry, or his heirs and assigns, shall, as from the date of the said union taking effect, cease to have or retain his and their alternate right of patronage of or presentation to the present benefice of Saint Matthew, Friday-street, with Saint Peter Cheap, and shall receive in exchange a certain share, namely, one-third share in the patronage of the united benefice ; that is to say, the right of presenting to the united benefice on the second turn of presentation thereto occurring next after the said union, and on every third turn of presentation which shall occur after the said second turn of presentation.

3. "Provided always, that this scheme shall not take effect until the consents and approval which by the seventeenth section of the said Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and forty-two, are made requisite to the sale and appropriation, under the powers conferred by that Act, of the site of any church and to the mode of dealing with such site, shall be obtained to the sale and appropriation hereby proposed of the said church of Saint Matthew, Friday-street, and of the site thereof, together with any ground annexed thereto and necessary for the use or enjoyment thereof, and to the mode of dealing with such site which is hereby proposed.

"And provided also, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, from recommending and proposing any other matter or thing as to the measures aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and forty-two, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been laid before both Houses of Parliament for the space of two calendar months.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of London.

And whereas by an Order dated the 21st day of November, 1879, the Local Government Board certified the appointment of the said Hugh Lloyd Roberts as a District Auditor, and ordered and prescribed that the District within which he should in future act as Auditor, and which was thereby assigned to him, should, until the said Board should otherwise prescribe, comprise the area for the time being included in the several Unions and Separate Parishes respectively named in the Schedules A and B to that Order, and that such District should be termed "The Metropolitan Audit District ;"

And whereas it is prescribed by Article 2 of the said Order that it shall be the duty of the said District Auditor to audit the Accounts of the Guardians and the Overseers specified in Nos. (1) and (2) of that Article, as well as the Accounts of the other Authorities (and of their Officers) referred to in Nos. (3) and (4) in the following terms :—

"(3.) The several other Authorities for the time being whose Accounts are or may be by law subject to be audited by a District Auditor, and whose Districts or the areas of whose jurisdiction are for the time being wholly situated within the said Audit District.

"(4.) Such of the said other Authorities whose Accounts are or may be by law subject to be so audited, and whose Districts or the areas of whose jurisdiction are for the time being partly situated within the said Audit District, as We may by Order under Seal hereafter prescribe."

And whereas the Metropolitan Asylum District is partly situated within the said Audit District, and the Board of Management of the said Asylum District are an Authority whose Accounts are subject to be audited by a District Auditor. :

Now therefore, We, the Local Government Board, in pursuance of the powers given to Us by the Statutes in that behalf, hereby Order and Prescribe that it shall, until we otherwise Prescribe, be the duty of the said Hugh Lloyd Roberts to audit the Accounts of the said Board of Management, and of their Officers, in conformity with the provisions contained in Article 3 of the above cited Order ; and that for the purpose of such Audit the said Metropolitan Asylum District shall be deemed to be within the said Metropolitan Audit District.

In the London Bankruptcy Court.

In the Matter of David Young, of No. 70, Gracechurch-street, in the city of London, and of Heath Cottage, Beulah-hill, Upper Norwood, in the county of Surrey, Wine Merchant, a Bankrupt.

Before Mr. Registrar Pepys, acting as Chief Judge.

UPON reading a report of the Registrar-Trustee of the property of the bankrupt, dated the 17th day of July, 1882, reporting that Charles Harrison, the Trustee appointed by the creditors, died on the 26th January, 1879, and that the late Trustee, as appears by the accounts rendered by him to the Comptroller in Bankruptcy, realized the whole of the available property of the bankrupt, and that at the date of his death he had a balance in hand of £119 16s. 6d., and further reporting that the Official Solicitor to this Court made application to the widow of the said Charles Harrison for the before-mentioned sum of £119 16s. 6d., who, in a letter dated the 17th day of February, 1880 (a copy of which letter is on the file of the proceedings), stated that her late husband died intestate, and further reporting that it had not been brought to the knowledge of the said Registrar-Trustee that the bankrupt had, since the date of the death of the late Trustee, acquired any property that could be realized for the benefit of the creditors, and that in his opinion it is expedient that the bankruptcy should be closed, and upon reading the affidavit of Archibald Reid, sworn the 26th day of July, 1882, and upon hearing Mr. Aldridge, Official Solicitor on behalf of the said Registrar-Trustee, and no one appearing to oppose, the Court being satisfied that the bank-
