NOTICE TO MARINERS.

(No. 149.)—NORWAY—WEST COAST.

Kors Fiord Entrance—Depth on Marstens-Bo Rock.

INFORMATION has been received from the Earl of Ducie, that Marstens-bo Rock, which lies W. $\frac{1}{2}$ N., 8 cables from Marsten Lighthouse, and on which his yacht "Severn" was wrecked on the morning of the 11th July last, had a depth of about 5 feet at low water on that day. The water over the rock was then as calm as the surrounding sea, and thus gave no indication of danger.

This rock, however, is almost always visible by the sea breaking upon it, and the treacherous smoothness experienced on the above occasion does not, it is said, occur for more than a few days in the year.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

(No. 150.)—AUSTRALIA—SOUTH COAST.

WITH reference to Notice to Mariners, No. 20 (1), of 4th February, 1882, on the intended exhibition, on 1st March, 1882, of a fixed white light on Corny Point, east side of Spencer Gulf, which should be visible seaward between the bearings of N. 45° E. and S. 65° W. :—

The Government of South Australia has given further notice, dated 29th May, 1882, that an arc of reflected light from Corny Point Lighthouse is visible inshore of Webb Rock, and unless the night be clear and the land in sight, might (in the absence of bearings) be mistaken for the true light.

Vessels approaching from the southward, should not bring Corny Point Lighthouse to bear to the northward of N.E. $\frac{1}{2}$ E., until past Webb Rock.

The reflected light may, in clear weather, be seen from a distance of about 10 miles, inside the bearing of N.E. $\frac{1}{4}$ N. This inner passage should never be attempted at night by a sailing vessel, unless with a fair wind and thorough knowledge of the coast.

(2.) Intended Revolving Light on Cape Banks.

Also, with reference to Notice to Mariners, No. 43 (3), of 7th March, 1882, on the intended exhibition of a light from a lighthouse to be erected on the point near Cape Banks, adjacent to Carpenter Rocks, and known as Carpenter Rocks Point :—

Further notice has been given, that on or about 1st January, 1883, the light will be exhibited :—

The light will be a revolving light of the second order, showing one red and two white lights at intervals of twenty second each, the whole revolution occupying sixty seconds.

The light will be elevated 92 feet above the sea; the white light should be visible in clear weather from a distance of about 10 miles, the red light from about 8 miles.

Position, lat. $37^{\circ} 54' 15''$ S., long. $140^{\circ} 23' 10''$ E. [The bearing is magnetic. Variation 4° Easterly in 1882.]

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

(No. 151.)—MEDITERRANEAN—COAST OF ALGERIA.

(1.) Port Cala Light—Intended Alteration in Colour.

THE French Government has given notice that on 15th August, 1882, the following alteration will be made in the colour of the harbour light exhibited on the eastern side of entrance to Port Cala (La Calle).

The present fixed white light will be replaced by a fixed red light of the fourth order, visible in clear weather from a distance of 9 miles.

IONIAN ISLANDS—SANTA MAURA.

(2.) Port Drepano—Sunken Rock on Eastern Side of Entrance.

Information has been received of the existence of a sunken rock lying about three-quarters of a cable from the shore, eastward of Aspro Yali Bay, eastern side of entrance to Port Drepano.

This rock (Miasulis Rock), with 6 feet over it, and 6 to 8 fathoms around, lies with the following bearings and distances.

Western entrance point, Vathi Vali Bay, east, distant $1\frac{1}{2}$ cables.

Point Kephali, N.W. by W. $\frac{1}{4}$ W., distant $3\frac{1}{2}$ cables.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, sections five and eleven, do hereby grant to the Incumbent of the vicarage of Saint Paul, Winchmore Hill, in the county of Middlesex, and in the diocese of London, and to his successors, Incumbents of the same vicarage, one yearly sum or stipend of seventy pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the first day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two, and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions, on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year: And we do also hereby grant and appropriate out of our said common fund, to the said vicarage of Saint Paul, Winchmore Hill, one capital sum of one thousand and five hundred pounds sterling, to be applicable towards defraying the cost of providing a parsonage or house of residence for the said vicarage, according to plans and a specification approved or to be approved by us, such capital sum, or the balance thereof unapplied to such purpose, to remain in the meantime in our hands at interest after the rate of three pounds per centum per annum, and such interest to be paid to the Incumbent for the time being of the said vicarage of Saint Paul, Winchmore Hill: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient, in our opinion, to produce the said yearly sum or stipend of seventy pounds, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said vicarage, in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this third day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two.

(L.S.)

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby, subject as hereinafter mentioned, grant to the Incumbent of the vicarage of Staveley, in the county of Lancaster, and in the diocese of Carlisle, and to his successors, Incumbents of the same vicarage, one yearly sum or stipend of forty pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the first day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two, and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions, on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient, in our opinion, to produce the said yearly sum or stipend, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said vicarage, in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this third day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, sections five and eleven, do hereby, subject as hereinafter mentioned, grant to the Incumbent of the vicarage of Saint Paul, New Southgate, in the county of Middlesex, and in the diocese of London, and to his successors, Incumbents of the same vicarage, one yearly sum or stipend of ten pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the first day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two, and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year: And we do also hereby grant and appropriate out of our common fund to the said vicarage of Saint Paul, New Southgate, one capital sum of six hundred and eighty-five pounds one shilling and six pence, such capital sum to be applied by us in discharging the amount payable to the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne for the augmentation and maintenance of the Poor Clergy, under a subsisting mortgage of the said vicarage, which was effected by a deed, bearing date the second day of September, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine, for the purpose of providing a parsonage or house of residence for the said vicarage of Saint Paul, New Southgate: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient, in our opinion, to produce the aforesaid yearly sum or stipend of ten pounds, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said vicarage, in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this third day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two.

(L.S.)

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, sections five and eleven, do hereby grant and appropriate out of our common fund to the vicarage of Christ Church, Southgate, in the county of Middlesex, and in the diocese of London, one capital sum of one thousand and five hundred pounds sterling, to be applicable towards defraying the cost of providing a parsonage or house of residence for the said vicarage, according to plans and a specification approved or to be approved by us, such capital sum, or the balance thereof unapplied to such purpose, to remain in the meantime in our hands at interest after the rate of three pounds per centum per annum, and such interest to be paid to the Incumbent for the time being of the said vicarage of Christ Church, Southgate.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this third day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, sections five and eleven, do hereby grant and appropriate out of our common fund to the vicarage of Saint James, Upper Edmonton, in the county of Middlesex, and in the diocese of London, one capital sum of one hundred and seventy-five pounds nine shillings and seven pence, such capital sum to be applied by us in discharging the amount payable to the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne for the augmentation and maintenance of the Poor Clergy, under a subsisting mortgage of the said vicarage, which was effected by a deed, bearing date the twenty-third day of December, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight, for the purpose of providing a parsonage or house of residence for the said vicarage of Saint James, Upper Edmonton.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this third day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two.

(L.S.)

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in consideration of a benefaction, consisting of two hundred and fifty pounds sterling, which has been paid to us in favour of the vicarage or benefice of Saint John, Baguley, in the county of Chester, and in the diocese of Chester, do hereby, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, sections five and eleven, grant and appropriate out of our common fund to the said vicarage or benefice of Saint John, Baguley, to meet such benefaction, one other capital sum of two hundred and fifty pounds sterling, to be applicable towards defraying the cost of providing a parsonage or house of residence for the said vicarage, according to plans and a specification approved or to be approved by us, such capital sum, or the balance thereof unapplied to such purpose, to remain in the meantime in our hands at interest after the rate of three pounds per centum per annum, and such interest to be paid to the Incumbent for the time being of the said vicarage of Saint John, Baguley.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this third day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two.

(L.S.)

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby, subject as hereinafter mentioned, grant to the Incumbent of the united benefice of Llangathen with Llanfihangel Cilfargen, in the county of Carmarthen, and in the diocese of Saint Davids, and to his successors, Incumbents of the same united benefice, one yearly sum or stipend of one hundred pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the twenty-fifth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two, and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions, on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient, in our opinion, to produce the said yearly sum or stipend, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said united benefice, in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this third day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two.
