

The Contagious Diseases (Animals) Act, 1878, and of every other power enabling them in this behalf, do order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:

Short Title.

1. This Order may be cited as THE SCOTLAND (MOVEMENT OF ANIMALS) No. 11 ORDER OF 1882.

Commencement and Duration.

2. This Order shall commence and take effect from and immediately after the thirty-first day of October, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two; and shall cease to have effect from and immediately after the thirtieth day of November, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two, without prejudice to the institution or prosecution of any proceeding in respect of an offence committed on or before that day.

Interpretation.

3. In this Order—

Foot-and-Mouth Disease Infected Area means an Area for the time being declared by the Privy Council to be an Area infected with foot-and-mouth disease.

Foot-and-Mouth Disease Infected Place means a Place for the time being declared by a Local Authority or by the Privy Council to be a Place infected with foot-and-mouth disease.

Other terms have the same meaning as in The Animals Order.

Restriction on Movement.

4. No animal shall be moved by land or by water from any place or port in England or Wales to any place or port in Scotland except as expressly authorized by this Order.

Movement from England or Wales into Scotland.

5. Animals may be moved by land from a farm or premises in the district of any Local Authority in England or Wales to a farm or premises in Scotland with a licence of the Local Authority of the district in Scotland into which the animals are to be moved (if that Local Authority think fit to grant a licence for that purpose): Provided that no such licence shall in any case be granted until satisfactory evidence has been adduced to that Local Authority—

(i.) that the animals to be moved are not affected with foot-and-mouth disease, and have not been in contact with animals affected with or suspected of that disease; and

(ii.) that there is not, at the time of the granting of the licence, a Foot-and-Mouth Disease Infected Area or a Foot-and-Mouth Disease Infected Place in the district of the Local Authority out of which the animals are to be moved.

Offences.

6. If an animal is moved in contravention of this Order, the owner thereof, and the person for the time being in charge thereof, and the person causing, directing, or permitting the movement, and the person or company moving or conveying the animal, and the owner and the charterer and the master of the vessel in which it is moved, and the consignee or other person receiving or keeping it, knowing it to have been so moved, shall, each according to and in respect of his or their own acts and defaults, be deemed guilty of an offence against the Act of 1878. C. L. Peel.

THEIR Lordships have this day issued orders making the following districts contributory to the undermentioned School Board:—

Hesket-in-the-Forest, Penrith Union, Plumpton Wall School Owning Board.

Penrith School Board, Plumpton Wall School Owning Board.

Education Department, Whitehall,

October 19, 1882.

THE Lords of the Committee of the Privy Council on Education have issued an order this day for the compulsory formation of a School Board in the undermentioned United District:—

Rockland St. Mary (United District)... .. Norfolk

(C. 2719.)

Board of Trade, Whitehall Gardens,
October 19, 1882.

THE Board of Trade have received from the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs a copy of a Decree of the Belgian Government, dated the 10th instant, enforcing the provisions adopted by the International Convention of Berne, with a view of checking the ravages of the phylloxera. The importation into and transit through Belgium of vines and dried cuttings, and also of slips and suckers of vines from phylloxerated districts is prohibited, but the latter articles may be imported from non-infected districts subject to special authorization from the Minister of the Interior. Market garden produce, cereals, fruit, and cut flowers, may be imported without special formalities, but all other plants, shrubs, and vegetables (not being vines or parts thereof), can only be admitted by the Custom-houses of Antwerp, Brussels, Ghent, Liege, and Ostend, or if coming by the land frontier, by any Custom-house situated on a railway.

The following conditions must also be observed:—

1. The articles must be so packed as to allow inspection.

2. They must be accompanied by:—

A. A declaration signed by the sender stating that the articles are the exclusive product of his establishment, that no portion of a vine is sent with them, whether or not any earth is contained in the package, and also designating the ultimate destination and name and address of the consignee.
