

be assigned to the said church of Saint Chad situate at Mill Hill as aforesaid.

"Now therefore with the consent of the Right Reverend William Dalrymple, Bishop of the said diocese of Lichfield, as such Bishop and also as the patron, in right of his See, of the perpetual curacy of the said particular district of Saint James the Greater Derby, and with the consent of the Reverend Alexander Atkinson Holden of Nuttall Temple, in the county of Nottingham, Clerk in Holy Orders, of FitzHerbert Wright, of the Hayes, Swanwick, in the said county of Derby Esquire, of Rowland Smith, of Duffield Hall, in the said county of Derby, Esquire, of William Ogle, of the Elms, Derby, Doctor of Medicine, and of the Reverend James Allan Smith, Clerk in Holy Orders now vicar or incumbent of the vicarage of the new parish of The Trinity Nottingham, in the diocese of Lincoln, as the patrons of the vicarage of the said new parish of Christ Church, Derby, and with the consent of Francis Butcher Gill, of Lansdown-crescent, Bath, in the county of Somerset Esquire, of the said Rowland Smith, of the said FitzHerbert Wright, of the said William Ogle, of the said James Allan Smith, and of Charles Edmund Newton, of Mickleover Manor, in the said county of Derby Esquire as the patrons of the vicarage of the said parish of Normanton (in testimony whereof they the said consenting parties have respectively signed and sealed this representation) we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England humbly represent, that it would in our opinion be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said new parish of Christ Church Derby, of the said particular district of Saint James the Greater Derby, and of the said parish of Normanton which are described in the schedule hereunder written all which portions, together with the boundaries thereof are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church of Saint Chad, situate at Mill Hill as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Chad, Mill Hill, Derby.'

"We therefore humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to Your Majesty in your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Chad, Mill Hill, Derby, being:—

"All that portion of the new parish of Christ Church Derby and also all those contiguous portions of the particular district of Saint James the Greater Derby, and of the parish of Normanton, all in the county of Derby and in the diocese of Lichfield which said portions of such cures are comprised within and are bounded by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the parish of Saint Peter Derby in the said county and diocese from the new parish of Christ Church Derby aforesaid at the point where Normanton-street is joined by Charnwood-street and by Mill Hill-lane and extending thence south-westward along the middle of the said lane for a distance of seven and a quarter chains or thereabouts to its junction with Swinburn-street and extending thence north-westward along the middle of the last-named street for a distance of seven and a half chains or thereabouts to its junction with Burton-road and extending thence south-westward along the middle of the last-named road for a distance of thirty-one and a half chains or thereabouts to a point at or near to the junction of the said road with Stonehill private lane upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of Christ Church, Derby, from the parish of Normanton aforesaid and continuing thence still south-westward along the last-mentioned boundary for a distance of twenty-one chains or thereabouts (thereby continuing to follow the course of Burton-road aforesaid) to the point where the same boundary joins the boundary dividing the said parish of Normanton from the parish of Littleover in the county and diocese aforesaid and continuing thence still south-westward along the last-described boundary for a distance of nineteen and three quarters chains or thereabouts (thereby still following the course of Burton-road aforesaid) to the point on Littleover Hill where the said last-described boundary joins the boundary of the municipal borough of Derby, as the same municipal borough boundary was extended under the authority of the Act of the fortieth and forty-first years of Her Majesty chapter one hundred and eighteen and was thereby defined, and extending thence, that is, from the said Burton-road in a direction for the most part eastward along the said municipal borough boundary for a distance of one mile and seven-en chains or thereabouts to the point in the middle of the Old Normanton-road at Pear Tree, where the same municipal borough boundary joins the boundary dividing the said parish of Normanton from the particular district of Saint James the Greater, Derby aforesaid, and extending thence first north-eastward and then north-westward along the last-described boundary for a distance of forty-five chains or thereabouts, thereby following in part the course of the said Old Normanton-road, and in part the course of Pear Tree-road, to the point a little to the south of the junction of the said Pear Tree-road with Church-street and with Normanton-road at which point the said last-described boundary bends sharply to the west and extending thence from the same boundary northward along the middle of the said Pear Tree-road for a distance of one and a half chains or thereabouts to its junction with Church-street and with Normanton-road as aforesaid and continuing thence northward along the middle of the last-named road for a distance of twelve and a quarter chains or thereabouts to a point upon the boundary which divides the said particular district of Saint James the Greater Derby from the new parish of Christ Church Derby aforesaid, and continuing thence still northward along the last-described boundary for a distance of fourteen chains or thereabouts thereby first continuing to follow the course of Normanton-road aforesaid and then following the course of Normanton-street aforesaid to the point at the junction of the last-named street with Leonard-street, where the said last-described boundary joins the boundary dividing the said new parish of Christ Church Derby from the parish of Saint Peter Derby aforesaid and continuing thence still northward along the last-described boundary for a distance of ten chains or thereabouts thereby still continuing to follow the course of Normanton-street aforesaid, to the first-described point at the junction of such street with Charnwood-street and with Mill Hill-lane as aforesaid at which point the said imaginary line commenced.

"Save and except from the above-described portion of the new parish of Christ Church Derby aforesaid, all that piece or parcel of land containing by admeasurement two thousand four hundred and fourteen square yards or thereabouts and situate on the north-western side of Mill Hill-lane
