TUESDAY, DECEMBER 5, 1882.

Her Majesty's Most Gracious Speech, delivered by the Lords Commissioners, to both Houses of Parliament on Saturday, December 2, 1882.

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

AFTER a Session of remarkable duration, I am at length enabled to bring your labours to a close.

I continue to hold relations of cordial amity with all Foreign Powers.

The commercial negotiations with France, which were proceeding in the month of February, did not result in the conclusion of a Treaty. But the Government and Legislature of that country have pursued an enlightened policy; and there has not, in consequence, been any general falling off in the dealings between the two countries, which at once promote their material well-being and strengthen the bonds of friendship now happily uniting them.

The operations in Egypt, both naval and military, which a wise liberality enabled me to conduct upon an adequate scale, and which were prosecuted with such energy and fidelity in all the departments, were brought to an early and successful issue.

I take this opportunity of placing upon record my gratitude to the able officers who commanded by sea and land, and to the victorious forces, of which my Indian army supplied a distinguished part.

The recent events in Egypt have enhanced my obligations in regard to its affairs, of which I spoke to you at the beginning of your protracted Session.

I shall study to discharge my duties in such a manner as to maintain international engagements, to uphold and consolidate the privileges which have been successively acquired, to promote the happiness of the people and the "prudent development of their institutions," and to avoid any measure which might tend towards disturbing the tranquillity of the East.

And I feel confident that my aims, and the result of my counsels, will commend themselves to the approval of the Powers, my allies, in their several relations to that interesting region.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons,

I thank you for the supplies which you have granted me to meet the various and extended wants of the public service.

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

After a succession of unfavourable seasons in the greater portion of the United Kingdom, the produce of the land has, during the present year, been for the most part abundant, and trade is moderately active.

The growth of the revenue, however, is sensibly retarded by a cause which must in itself be contemplated with satisfaction; I refer to the diminution in the receipts of the Exchequer from the duties on intoxicating liquors.

In some parts of Ireland I am compelled to anticipate distress during the approaching winter.

I have also to record with deep pain that the horrible crime of assassination has been rife in the metropolitan city of Dublin; and there is a special call of duty upon the Executive authority to exercise with fidelity and firmness the powers with which it has been entrusted.

In the social condition of the country at large, however, I have the satisfaction of noting that there has been a marked improvement; and the law has acted with renewed vigour under the provisions you have devised. I have an earnest hope that this improvement will be maintained and extended.

I am indebted to your wisdom for having passed the measures which I deemed indispensable for restoring the supremacy of the law in Ireland, and for removing impediments to the wide and progressively enlarged action of the Land Act of 1881.

You have also passed a variety of measures from which, in their several spheres of operation, I anticipate much advantage to my people.

I could, indeed, have desired to congratulate you at the present time on your having been able to meet the wants of the country for practical and effective legislation on many well-known and weighty subjects, of high interest to large portions of the community, some of which I commended to your notice at the opening of the Session.

After the recess you will resume your labours under circumstances which, I trust, may prove more favourable to their accomplishment than those of the current year; and I rely with confidence on your energy and wisdom for the discharge, under the Divine blessing, of the arduous responsibilities which must ever attach to the Parliament of my Empire.

Then a Commission for proroguing the Parliament was read; after which the Lord Chancellor said:

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

By virtue of Her Majesty's Commission, under ho Great Seal, to us and other Lords directed, and now read, we do, in Her Majesty's name, and in obedience to Her commands, prorogue this Parliament to Thursday, the fifteenth day of February next, to be then here holden; and this Parliament is accordingly prorogued to Thursday, the fifteenth day of February next.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 2nd day of December, 1882.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

IT is this day ordered by Her Majesty in Council that the Parliament be prorogued from Saturday, the second day of December instant, to Thursday, the fifteenth day of February, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three; and that the Right Honourable the Lord High Chancellor of that part of the United Kingdom called Great Britain do cause a Commission to be prepared and issued in the usual manner for proroguing the Parliament accordingly.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 2nd day of December, 1882.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

IT is this day ordered by Her Majesty in Council, that the Convocations of the Provinces of Canterbury and York be prorogued from the day to which the same now stand prorogued to Friday, the sixteenth day of February, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three; and the Right Honourable the Lord High Chancellor of that part of the United Kingdom called Great Britain is to cause Writs to be prepared and issued in the usual manner for proroguing the Convocations accordingly.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 30th day of November, 1882.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.
His Royal Highness Prince Leopold,
Duke of Albany.
Lord Privy Seal.
Lord Steward.
Mr. Gladstone.
Secretary Sir William Vernon Harcourt.

WHEREAS by "The Extradition Acts 1870 and 1873," it was, amongst other things, enacted that where an arrangement has been made with any foreign State with respect to the surrender to such State of any fugitive criminals, Her Majesty may, by Order in Council, direct that the said Acts shall apply in the case of such foreign State, and that Her Majesty may, by the same or any subsequent Order, limit the operation of the Order, and restrict the same to fugitive criminals who are in, or suspected of being in, the part of Her Majesty's dominions specified in the Order, and render the operation thereof subject to such conditions, exceptions, and qualifications as may be deemed expedient.

And, whereas, a Treaty was concluded on the twenty-ninth day of November, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine, between Her Majesty and His Majesty the King of Tonga, of which Treaty Article IV, relating to the extradition of fugitive criminals, is in the terms following:—

"Her Britannic Majesty agrees to surrender to His Majesty the King, of Tonga any Tongan subject who, being accused or convicted of any of the undermentioned crimes, committed in the territory of the King of Tonga, shall be found within the territory of Her Britannic Majesty. The crimes for which such surrender may be granted are the following: murder, or attempt to murder; embezzlement or larceny; fraudulent bankruptcy; forgery.

"Her Britannic Majesty may, however, at any time put an end to this Article by giving notice to that effect to His Majesty the King of Tonga. The Article shall, however, remain in force for six months after the notice of its termination."

And, whereas, previously to the exchange of the ratifications of the said Treaty, a Protocol bearing date the third day of July, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two, was signed and sealed by the Plenipotentiaries of Her Majesty and of His Majesty the King of Tonga respectively, being duly authorized for that purpose, which Protocol is in the terms following:—

"It is agreed that the arrangement contained in Article IV, of the said Treaty shall be subject to the restrictions on the surrender of fugitive criminals contained in the Acts respecting extradition, which are in force in the dominions of Her Britannic Majesty, and the procedure to be adopted with respect to the surrender of such criminals shall be in conformity with the provisions of the said Acts."

And, whereas, the ratifications of the said Treaty were exchanged at Nukualofa on the third day of July, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, and in virtue of the authority committed to Her by the said recited Acts, doth order, and it is hereby ordered that the said Acts shall apply in the case of Tonga and of Article IV, of the said Treaty with His Majesty the King of Tonga, and of the said Protocol.

C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 30th day of November, 1882.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Order of Her Majesty in Council, dated the 23rd day of October, 1877, Her Majesty was pleased, under and by virtue of the provisions of "The Medical Act," by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to nominate and appoint Andrew Fergus, Esq., M.D., President of the Faculty of Physicians and Surgeons of Glasgow, to be for five years a Member for Scotland of the General Council of Medical Education and Registration of the United Kingdom:

And whereas under or by virtue of the provisions of the said Act, the said Andrew Fergus has ceased to be a Member of the said General Council:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, doth, under and by virtue of the provisions in that behalf contained in the said "Medical Act," nominate and appoint the said Andrew Fergus to be again, for the term of five years, a Member for Scotland of the said General Council of Medical Education and Registration of the United Kingdom.

C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 30th day of November, 1882.

PRESENT.

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the 333rd section of "The Merchant Shipping Act, 1854," it is enacted that it shall be lawful for every Pilotage Authority, by Bye-law made with the consent of Her Majesty in Council, to do, within its districts, all or any of the things specified in that behalf in the said section :

And whereas the Harbour Commissioners of Burntisland incorporated by "The Burntisland Harbour Act, 1881," being a Pilotage Authority within the meaning of the said Merchant Shipping Act, have, in exercise of the powers in them vested by that Act, made and submitted for the consent of Her Majesty certain Bye-laws (which are set forth in the schedule hereto annexed) with respect to pilotage within the jurisdiction of the said Pilotage Authority :

And whereas it has been made to appear to Her Majesty that the said Bye-laws so set forth are reasonable and proper :

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by virtue of the power vested in Her by the said Merchant Shipping Act, 1854, and by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to approve, and doth hereby approve, and signify Her consent to, the Bye-laws set forth in the Schedule hereto.

C. L. Peel.

SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Order refers. BYE-LAWS containing Regulations to be observed in Piloting Vessels at the Harbour of Burntisland.

Regulations.

The Burntisland Harbour Commissioners, incorporated by "The Burntisland Harbour Act, 1881," do hereby enact the following Regulations in regard to the Piloting of Vessels at the Harbour of Burntisland, and appoint the same to be strictly enforced :—

1. All Pilots to be Licensed for the Harbour of Burntisland, and all others concerned shall in every respect observe and be subject and liable to these and such other Bye-laws and Regulations as the said Commissioners may from time to time appoint, and also the provisions of that portion of "The Merchant Shipping Act, 1854," which relates to Pilotage in so far as incumbent on them.

2. No Shipmaster or other person shall be bound to employ a Pilot either inwards or outwards.

3. No person shall Pilot, or take charge of any vessel as Pilot, or keep a boat for that purpose, without a License ; and every person found so doing shall be prosecuted, and will be liable to be fined in Five Pounds sterling ; but Masters and Mates of vessels will, on being found qualified, obtain Licenses to Pilot their own vessels, which will be in force for one year, and renewable annually by endorsement thereon.

4. Every person applying to be Licensed as a Harbour Pilot must be able to read and write, and must set forth in his application his usual place of abode, his age, height, complexion, and any other circumstances or peculiarity descriptive of his person, and produce a satisfactory certificate of moral character, and must be examined and be found skilful and qualified to act as Pilot for the Harbour.

5. Every Pilot to have a boat satisfactory to the Commissioners or Harbour Master, with Pilot boat or Pilot's name marked in large white letters on bow.

6. Harbour Pilots must always be in readiness with a boat approved of, and Licensed, and manned, and must take charge of any vessel when required, and attend exclusively on the vessel they have charge of, and on no account whatever go to any other while so engaged, unless in cases of great necessity, bad weather, or extreme danger, and then only with the consent of the Captain on whose vessel they are attending.

7. No Harbour Pilot already Licensed shall (unless he holds a Leith Trinity House Firth Pilot's License) proceed in search of vessels, or go on board thereof, with a view to Harbour Pilotage, at any place beyond a distance of one mile and a half westward of the Harbour, and to the Island of Inchkeith eastward thereof, and for a distance from the land of one mile south of the said limits ; and no Firth Pilot shall be entitled to go on board of a vessel bound for Burntisland Harbour at any place within these limits, unless required to do so for the purpose of Pilotage in the Firth, at the full fees payable for that service.

8. Firth Pilots, not Licensed for the Harbour, when approaching the Harbour Pilot's limits, are directed by the Commissioners to require the vessels of which they are Pilots (if bound for Burntisland Harbour) to display and keep flying the usual signal for a Pilot ; and if a Harbour Pilot is within hail, or is approaching and within half-a-mile, such Firth Pilots are by heaving to in proper time, or shortening sail, or by any practicable means consistent with safety, to facilitate the Harbour Pilots getting on board. If no Harbour Pilot appear, Firth Pilots may continue in charge of vessels until they reach Burntisland Roads, but on no pretence are Firth Pilots, not Licensed for the Harbour, to be at liberty to bring vessels into the Harbour, (extreme cases of necessity alone excepted.)

9. When a vessel is bound to Burntisland Roads for orders, any Firth Pilot is entitled to Pilot her into the Roads, and to stay by her as Pilot, if required by the Master, until the orders are obtained ; but if the vessel is ordered to the Harbour the Firth Pilot, if not Licensed for the Harbour, is immediately thereafter to cease to act as Pilot.

10. Inward vessels waiting for the tide shall be so placed as to be ready to come in immediately on the proper signal being made, and the duty of the Pilot and his assistants shall not be fully discharged until the vessel is moored where the Harbour Master may direct at the tide or time she enters.

11. The rates of Pilotage payable are those specified in the annexed Table, and the Inward Pilotage shall be paid by the Owners, Masters, Consignees, or Agents of the vessel Piloted, to the Collector of the Harbour Dues, and to no other person for behoof of the Pilots. The Master of every vessel shall sign and deliver to the Pilot a certificate stating the number of feet of water which his vessel draws, and her tonnage, and whether she was towed by a steamer ; and no Pilot shall ask or take payment for inward or outward Piloting otherwise than through the Collector of Harbour Dues.

12. Masters and Mates Licensed for their own vessels shall pay a fee of Twenty-one Shillings for their License, and Ten Shillings and Sixpence for every renewal thereof ; other Pilots shall pay a fee of Ten Shillings and Sixpence for their License, and these fees shall be applied by the Commissioners to cover expenses incurred in connection therewith.

13. All fees for Harbour Pilotage shall be paid over by the Harbour Dues Collector to the Licensed Pilots, subject to deduction of 5 per cent. to cover expenses of collection.

14. Pilots are required to make themselves thoroughly acquainted with the signals of the Harbour, and the Bye-laws and Regulations, and also frequently to inspect the entrance of the Harbour, and the Harbour itself, at low water spring tides, especially after storms or land floods; and when, through ignorance, negligence, or otherwise, they permit vessels to run aground, they will be prosecuted in terms of law, and held responsible for damage caused to any of the Harbour works, dredging plant, or other property.

15. The Harbour Master has power to give directions to Pilots, and order them to take charge of any vessel when wanted, and also from time to time to inspect the boats and crews, and see that the Pilots do their duty and observe the Regulations.

16. All Pilots Licensed by the Commissioners must observe strict sobriety and civility in the discharge of their duties, and when a Pilot shall fail to observe, or shall commit any breach of the Regulations, or shall discharge his duties insufficiently, or shall use improper language to any of the Commissioners' Officers while in the discharge of their duties, the Commissioners shall punish such offender by exacting a fine, or by temporary suspension or permanent deprivation of License; and persons having cause of complaint against the Pilots are requested to communicate the same in writing to the Harbour Master.

17. For each twenty-four hours' extra attendance on board, when requested by the Master, the charge to the Master Pilot shall be 6s., and to each of the boatmen 3s. 6d.

18. And it is further enacted, that Ship Masters will apply at least four hours before high water at the Harbour Master's Office for Pilots previous to sailing.

19. And a sufficient number of Pilots, as the Harbour Master may direct, shall be in attendance at the Harbour Office four hours before high water at every tide.

20. All numbers, whether of money, or of tonnage of vessels, &c., shall be stated by Masters of vessels and others in words and not in figures.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 30th day of November, 1882.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the 410th section of "The Merchant Shipping Act, 1854," it is enacted that upon the completion of any new Lighthouse (in which term are included floating and other lights exhibited for the guidance of ships) Her Majesty may by Order in Council fix such Dues in respect thereof to be paid by the Master or Owner of every ship which passes the same or derives benefit therefrom as Her Majesty may deem reasonable, and may from time to time alter the amount thereof; and that such Dues shall be paid and collected in the same manner by the same means and subject to the same conditions in by and subject to which the Light Dues authorised to be levied by the said Act are paid and collected:

And whereas the Corporation of Trinity House of Deptford Strond are about to place a Light Vessel at the Selker Rocks on the coast of Cumberland, and to exhibit a Light therefrom:

And whereas every ship which in one voyage shall cross any of the following imaginary lines, namely:—

A line drawn from Douglas Head to St. Bees Head;

A line drawn from Douglas Head to the southernmost point of Walney Island;

A line drawn from St. Bees Head to the southernmost point of Walney Island;

will pass and derive benefit from the new Light:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, in exercise of the powers vested in Her by the said recited Act, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to direct that upon the exhibition of the said Light there shall be paid in respect of the said Light Vessel for every ship, whether British or Foreign, as aforesaid, the toll of one penny per ton of the burden of every such ship for each time of passing or deriving benefit therefrom if on an oversea voyage, and two-sixteenths of a penny per ton if on a coasting voyage.

The said toll shall be levied by the Corporation of Trinity House of Deptford Strond, subject to the regulations and exemptions contained in the New Consolidated Tables of Light Dues, sanctioned by Orders in Council, dated respectively, the twenty-fourth day of October one thousand eight hundred and seventy, and the sixteenth day of May one thousand eight hundred and seventy-one, and in an Order in Council, dated the twenty-first day of February one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four; and also in the special section of the Consolidated Tables, sanctioned by Order in Council, dated the sixth day of September one thousand eight hundred and eighty, or to such other regulations and exemptions as may from time to time be duly sanctioned; and subject also to the gross abatement or discount of sixty per centum mentioned in such last-named Order in Council of the sixth day of September one thousand eight hundred and eighty, or to such other abatement or discount as may for the time being be in force.

C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 30th day of November, 1882.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by section 5 of the "Merchant Seamen (Payment of Wages and Rating) Act 1880" it is provided that where a ship is about to arrive, is arriving, or has arrived at the end of her voyage every person not being in Her Majesty's Service, or not being duly authorised by law for the purpose who—

(a.) Goes on board the ship without the permission of the master before the seamen lawfully leave the ship at the end of their engagement or are discharged (whichever last happens); or,

(b.) Being on board the ship remains there after being warned to leave by the master, or by a police officer, or by any officer of the Board of Trade or of the Customs, shall for every such offence be liable, on summary conviction, to a fine not exceeding twenty pounds or at the discretion of the Court to imprisonment for any term not exceeding six months; and the master of the ship or any officer of the Board of Trade may take him into custody and deliver him up forthwith to a constable to be taken before a Court or magistrate capable of taking cognizance of the offence and dealt with according to law. And whereas by section 6 of the said Act it is further provided that whenever it is made to appear to Her Majesty:—

(1.) That the Government of any foreign country has provided that unauthorised persons going on board of British ships which are about to arrive, or have arrived within its territorial jurisdiction shall be subject to provisions similar to the provisions contained in the last preceding section as applicable to persons going on board British ships at the end of their voyages; and,

(2.) That the Government of such foreign country is desirous that the provisions of the said section shall apply to unauthorised persons going on board of ships belonging to such foreign country within the limits of British territorial jurisdiction;

Her Majesty may by Order in Council declare that the provisions of the said last preceding section shall apply to the ships of such country; and thereupon, so long as the Order remains in force, those provisions shall apply and have effect as if the ships of such country were British ships arriving, about to arrive, or which had arrived at the end of their voyage. And whereas it has been made to appear to Her Majesty—

That the Government of Germany has provided as aforesaid and is desirous that the provisions of the said fifth section shall apply to unauthorised persons going on board of German ships within the limits of British territorial jurisdiction;

Now therefore Her Majesty, by virtue of the power vested in Her by the said recited Act, and by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to declare that the provisions of the said recited 5th section of the "Merchant Seamen (Payment of Wages and Rating) Act, 1880," shall apply to German ships. C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 30th day of Novembr, 1882.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board a Memorial from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated the 24th day of November, 1882, in the words following, viz. :—

"Whereas Your Majesty was graciously pleased by Your Order in Council dated the 9th day of September, 1865, and also by Your Order in Council dated the 4th day of February, 1879, authorising regulations for Your Majesty's Naval Service, to approve of gratuities out of the Funds of Greenwich Hospital equal to one year's full wages, exclusive of any badge or other extra or additional pay, being awarded to the Widows of Petty Officers and Seamen of the Royal Navy, and of Non-Commissioned Officers and Privates of the Royal Marines, slain, killed, or drowned in Your Majesty's Service, or when it shall be proved to our satisfaction that they died from the effects of injuries or diseases caused by extraordinary exposure or exertion on Service within six months after being first certified to be ill, and also to Widows of Coast Guard Men who lost their lives on Lifeboat Service, and to Widows of Pensioners killed or drowned while serving in the Seamen Pensioners' Reserve.

"And whereas by the fifth section of an Act passed in the twenty-ninth year of Your Majesty's reign, entitled "An Act to provide for the better Government of Greenwich Hospital and the more beneficial application of the Revenues thereof," it is, inter alia, enacted that it shall be lawful for Your Majesty in Council from time to time to appoint such gratuities as seem fit to Widows of Non-Commissioned Officers and Men of the Royal Navy and Marines killed or drowned in the Service of the Crown.

"We beg leave to recommend that Your Majesty may be pleased by Your Order in Council to remove the limitation of a year's wages in respect of these gratuities, and to sanction "Extended Gratuities," being granted to such widows according to their family circumstances and to the position held by their deceased husbands in Your Majesty's Service as may seem to us desirable and under such regulations as we may deem requisite, on the understanding that such extended gratuities shall not apply to cases of widows of men killed or drowned prior to the 26th day of April, 1881; and that Your Majesty's Order in Council approving of such extended gratuities shall be considered as a provisional authority pending further statutory enactment."

Her Majesty having taken the said Memorial into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve of what is therein proposed. And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 30th day of November, 1882.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the first session of the Parliament holden in the first and second years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to abridge the holding of benefices in plurality, and to make better provision for the residence of the clergy," after reciting that "Whereas in some instances tithings, hamlets, chapelries, and other places or districts may be separated from the parishes or mother churches to which they belong, with great advantage, and places altogether extra-parochial may in some instances with advantage be annexed to parishes or districts to which they are contiguous, or be constituted separate parishes

"for ecclesiastical purposes," it is, amongst other things, enacted "That when with respect to his own diocese it shall appear to the Archbishop of the Province, or when the Bishop of any diocese shall represent to the said Archbishop that any such tithing, hamlet, chapelry, place or district within the diocese of such Archbishop, or the diocese of such Bishop, as the case may be, may be advantageously separated from any parish or mother church, and either be constituted a separate benefice by itself or be united to any other parish to which it may be more conveniently annexed, or to any other adjoining tithing, hamlet, chapelry, place, or district, parochial or extra-parochial, so as to form a separate parish or benefice, or that any extra-parochial place may with advantage be annexed to any parish to which it is contiguous, or be constituted a separate parish for ecclesiastical purposes; and the said Archbishop or Bishop shall draw up a scheme in writing (the scheme of such Bishop to be transmitted to the said Archbishop for his consideration) describing the mode in which it appears to him that the alteration may best be effected, and how the changes consequent on such alteration in respect to ecclesiastical jurisdiction, glebe lands, tithes, rent-charges, and other ecclesiastical dues, rates, and payments, and in respect to patronage and rights to pews, may be made with justice to all parties interested; and if the patron or patrons of the benefice or benefices to be affected by such alteration shall consent in writing under his or their hands to such scheme, or to such modification thereof as the said Archbishop may approve, and the said Archbishop shall, on full consideration and enquiry, be satisfied with any such scheme, or modification thereof, and shall certify the same and such consent as aforesaid, by his report to Her Majesty in Council, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty in Council to make an Order for carrying such scheme, or modification thereof, as the case may be, into effect."

And whereas William, Lord Archbishop of the Province of York hath in pursuance of the said Act made a report to Her Majesty in Council in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"To the QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

"The undersigned William Lord Archbishop of York, Primate of England and Metropolitan in pursuance of an Act passed in the session of Parliament holden in the first and second years of Your Majesty's reign intituled 'An Act to abridge the holding of Benefices in plurality and to make better provision for the residence of the Clergy' doth hereby report to Your Majesty in Council.

"That there are in the county and diocese of York the parish of Helmsley with Pockley and Sproxton and the parish of Kirkdale portions of which said parishes are particularly delineated on the map or plan hereto annexed and thereon coloured respectively blue and green.

"That the said parish of Helmsley with Pockley and Sproxton comprises within its boundaries the township of Beadlam.

That the population of the said parish of Helmsley with Pockley and Sproxton according to the last census was 2,269 and that of the parish of Kirkdale according to the same census was 992 and that of the said township of Beadlam according to the same census was 140.

"That the net annual value of the benefice of Helmsley with Pockley and Sproxton aforesaid is four hundred and seventy pounds and that of the benefice of Kirkdale aforesaid is two hundred and fifty pounds.

"That the patronage of the vicarage and parish church of Helmsley with Pockley and Sproxton aforesaid is vested in the Right Honourable William Ernest Earl of Feversham and the patronage of the vicarage and parish church of Kirkdale is vested in the Chancellor Masters and Scholars of the University of Oxford.

"That the Reverend Charles Norris Gray Clerk M.A. is the incumbent of the said vicarage and parish church of Helmsley with Pockley and Sproxton and the Reverend Richard Bramley Clerk B.A. is the incumbent of the said vicarage and parish church of Kirkdale.

"That the said patrons and incumbents of the said vicarages and parish churches of Helmsley with Pockley and Sproxton and Kirkdale are consenting parties to the separation and annexation hereinafter proposed.

"That a church is about to be erected within the boundaries of that portion of the said township of Beadlam particularly described and delineated in the scheme and plan hereto annexed for the convenience of the inhabitants of such portion of the said township and the adjacent portions of the said parish of Kirkdale.

"That it appears to us that the said portion of the said township of Beadlam may be advantageously separated from the said parish of Helmsley with Pockley and Sproxton and be united for ecclesiastical purposes to the said parish of Kirkdale.

"That pursuant to the directions contained in the said Act of Parliament the said Archbishop has drawn up a scheme in writing appended to this representation describing the mode in which it appears to him that the alteration above proposed may best be effected and how the changes consequent on such alterations in respect to ecclesiastical jurisdiction glebe lands tithes rent-charges and other ecclesiastical dues rates and payments and in respect to patronage and right to and rights to pews may be made with justice to all parties interested. And the said Archbishop being satisfied on full consideration and enquiry with such scheme he doth by this report to Your Majesty in Council certify the same to Your Majesty together with the consents in writing to the said scheme of the patrons and incumbents of the benefices to be affected to the intent that your Majesty in Council in case it should be thought expedient and proper so to do may make an Order for carrying the same into effect.

"As witness the hand of the said Archbishop this twenty-seventh day of September, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two."

"W. Ebor."

And whereas the scheme and consents referred to in the Archbishop's report are in the following words and figures:—

"The SCHEME above referred to.

"That the portion of the township of Beadlam described in the schedule hereunder written and delineated on the map or plan annexed hereto and thereon coloured round with a pink verge line at present belonging to and forming part of the parish of Helmsley with Pockley and Sproxton in the county and diocese of York shall be separated from the said parish and be united to and be deemed part of the said parish of Kirkdale in the said county and diocese for ecclesiastical purposes.

"That the said portion of the township of Beadlam shall be subject to the same ecclesiastical jurisdiction as the said vicarage and parish of Kirkdale and the vicar of the said vicarage and parish of Kirkdale shall have exclusive cure of souls within the limits aforesaid.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 30th day of November, 1882.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy; of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter ninety-seven; of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five; and of the Act of the thirty-fourth and thirty-fifth years of Her Majesty, chapter eighty-two; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the twentieth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two, in the words and figures following; that is to say:—

“ We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Your Majesty chapter seventy, of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Your Majesty, chapter ninety-seven, of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty chapter fifty-five, and of the Act of the thirty-fourth and thirty-fifth years of Your Majesty chapter eighty-two, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church called or known as Saint Aubyn's Chapel, situate at Devonport within the limits of the parish of Stoke Damerel in the county of Devon and in the diocese of Exeter.

“ Whereas the said church called or known as Saint Aubyn's Chapel, situate at Devonport as aforesaid, was built in pursuance of a Local Act of Parliament passed in the ninth year of His late Majesty King George the Third, and intituled ‘An Act for building a Chapel at Plymouth Dock in the parish of Stoke Damerel, in the county of Devon,’ and the same Act is now in force.

“ And whereas it appeared to us the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England that, under and by reason of the said Local Act the said parish of Stoke Damerel could not, in the absence of a representation, such as is hereinafter referred to, be brought within the provisions of the Church Building Acts touching the formation thereof of a parish or district to be assigned to the said church called or known as Saint Aubyn's Chapel, situate at Devonport as aforesaid.

"And whereas a representation such as is contemplated by the twenty-first section of the said Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Your Majesty, chapter ninety-seven has now been made to us by the patron and by the rector or incumbent, of the rectory of the said parish of Stoke Damerel, and by the Vestry of the same parish, that it would be for the spiritual benefit of such parish that it should be brought within the provisions of the said Church Building Acts touching the formation thereof of a parish or district to be assigned to the said church called or known as Saint Aubyn's Chapel, situate as aforesaid.

"And whereas it appears to us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England to be expedient that in accordance with such representation as aforesaid, we should in manner hereinafter set forth, apply and put into execution, with respect to the said parish of Stoke Damerel, the powers and provisions of the Church Building Acts aforesaid and of the said Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Your Majesty, chapter ninety-seven.

"And whereas at certain extremities of the said parish of Stoke Damerel, and of the new parish of Saint Paul Devonport within the original limits of the said parish of Stoke Damerel which said extremities lie contiguous one to another, and are described in the schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such parish and new parish respectively.

"And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that such contiguous portions of the said parish of Stoke Damerel, and of the said new parish of Saint Paul Devonport, should, under the provisions of the said Church Building Acts or some of them, be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes and that the same should be assigned to the said church called or known as Saint Aubyn's Chapel, situate at Devonport as aforesaid.

"Now therefore with the consent of the Right Reverend Frederick, Bishop of the said diocese of Exeter, as such Bishop and also as one of the alternate patrons in right of his See, of the vicarage of the said new parish of Saint Paul Devonport, and with the consent of the Right Honourable William Ewart Gladstone, a Member of the Commons House of Parliament, the First Lord of Your Majesty's Treasury, acting as such First Lord on behalf of Your Majesty, as the other alternate patron (in right of the Crown) of the said vicarage of the new parish of Saint Paul, Devonport aforesaid, and with the consent of Sir John St. Aubyn, of Saint Michael's Mount, in the county of Cornwall, Baronet, a Member of the Commons House of Parliament, as the patron of the said rectory of the parish of Stoke Damerel aforesaid (in testimony whereof they the said consenting parties have respectively signed and sealed this representation) we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England humbly represent that it would in our opinion be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said parish of Stoke Damerel and of the said new parish of Saint Paul Devonport, which are described in the schedule hereunder written all which portions together with the boundaries thereof are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church called or known as Saint Aubyn's Chapel, situate at Devonport as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Aubyn, Devonport.'

"We therefore humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to Your Majesty in your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Aubyn, Devonport, being:—

"All that portion of the parish of Stoke Damerel in the county of Devon and in the diocese of Exeter, wherein the present incumbent of such parish still possesses the exclusive cure of souls which is bounded on part of the south-west, on the south-east and on the north-east, by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said parish of Stoke Damerel from the new parish of Saint Mary Devonport within the original limits of the said parish of Stoke Damerel at the point where Catherine-street, James-street and Duke-street all join, and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of the last-named street for a distance of five and a quarter chains or thereabouts to a point opposite to the south-western end of the passage or way which leads through the Devonport Vegetable and Fish Market to Barrack-street and extending thence that is from Duke-street aforesaid in a northerly direction to and along the middle of the said passage or way for a distance of two and a quarter chains or thereabouts to its north-eastern end near to the junction of Cumberland-street with Barrack-street aforesaid and continuing thence still in the same direction for a distance of half a chain or thereabouts across Cumberland-street aforesaid to a point at the middle of the south-western end of Barrack-street aforesaid and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of the last-named street for a distance of ten chains or thereabouts to its north-eastern end at the wall forming the south-western boundary of the Raglan Barracks and extending thence north-westward along the said wall for a distance of six and a half chains or thereabouts (thereby passing at the back of Saint Aubyn's church or chapel, and following in part the north-eastern side of Chapel-lane) to the point where the same wall is joined by the wall forming the northern boundary of the Raglan Barracks aforesaid such point of junction being at or near to the junction of Chapel-lane aforesaid with Cherry Garden-street, and continuing thence, that is from the said Barrack wall, still north-westward and in a direct line to the boundary in the middle of the last-named street which boundary divides the said parish of Stoke Damerel from the new parish of Saint Paul Devonport within the original limits of the parish of Stoke Damerel aforesaid all which said hereinbefore-described portion of the said parish of Stoke Damerel is bounded upon the remaining sides other than upon the part of the south-west, upon the south-east and upon the north-east as aforesaid that is to say upon the north-west and upon the remaining part of the south-west as follows, upon the north-west partly by the said new parish of Saint Paul Devonport and partly by the new parish of Saint Mary Devonport aforesaid and upon the remaining part of the south-west by the last-named new parish.

"And also all that contiguous portion of the said new parish of Saint Paul Devonport which is bounded on the south-west, on the north and on part of the east by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the last-named new parish from the hereinbefore-described portion of the parish of Stoke Damerel aforesaid at the point where Cherry Garden-street aforesaid is intersected by Saint Aubyn-street and extending thence that is from the said boundary north-westward along the middle of the last-named street for a distance of two and a half chains or thereabouts to its junction with Fore-street and with the street called or known as Saint Aubyn-street Ope, and continuing thence still north-westward along the middle of the last-named street for a distance of two and a half chains or thereabouts to its junction with Princess-street and extending thence south-west along the middle of the last-named street for a distance of one chain or thereabouts to its junction with the roadway which leads into Granby-street and which passes between the houses called or known respectively as number 27 and number 26 Princess-street and between the houses called or known respectively as numbers 36 and 37 Granby-street and extending thence north-westward along the middle of the last-described roadway for a distance of two and a quarter chains or thereabouts to its junction with Granby-street aforesaid and extending thence south-westward along the middle of the last-named street for a distance of three and a half chains or thereabouts to its junction with the street called or known as Granby Ope and extending thence north-westward along the middle of the the last-named street for a distance of two and a half chains or thereabouts to its junction with the street called or known as Granby-row and extending thence eastward along the middle of the last-named street for a distance of six and a half chains or thereabouts to a point at its junction with Granby-street aforesaid opposite to the eastern side of the house known as number 13 Granby-row and extending thence that is to say from the last-described point of junction northward and in a direct line past the eastern side of the last-mentioned house to the wall forming the southern and western boundaries of the land forming the sites of the Royal Artillery Barracks, the Devon Militia Artillery Depot and of the Granby Barracks and extending thence first generally eastward and then generally southward along the last-described wall for a distance of ten chains or thereabouts (thereby passing in one part along the northern side of Granby-street aforesaid and in another part at the backs of the houses on the eastern side of Princess-street Ope) to the point where the said last-described wall abuts upon the northern side of Fore-street aforesaid and extending thence first southward to and then eastward along the middle of the last-named street for a distance of two chains or thereabouts to the boundary at the point where the same street is joined by the roadway or passage which leads between the house known as number 1, Fore-street and the wall of the Raglan Barracks aforesaid into Cherry Garden-street aforesaid which boundary divides the said new parish of Saint Paul, Devonport from the parish of Stoke Damerel aforesaid.

"All which said hereinbefore described portion of the new parish of Saint Paul Devonport aforesaid is bounded upon the remaining sides other than upon the south-west the north and the part of the east as aforesaid that is to say upon the remaining part of the east and upon the south-east by the parish of Stoke Damerel aforesaid."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Exeter.

No. 25174.

C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 30th day of November, 1882.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of "The Ecclesiastical Commission Act, 1868," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the second day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in pursuance of 'The Ecclesiastical Commission Act, 1868' section three have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for effecting an exchange of a part of the property of the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Peterborough for certain property belonging to us.

"Whereas the lands and hereditaments particularly described in the schedule hereunto annexed and marked A are a part of the property of the Dean and Chapter of Peterborough and the said Dean and Chapter have agreed that the said lands and hereditaments shall be transferred to us in consideration of the transfer to them of certain lands and hereditaments now belonging to us, being the lands and hereditaments particularly described and set forth in the schedule hereunto annexed and marked B.

"And whereas the terms of such transfer are in our opinion fair and reasonable.

"Now therefore, we humbly recommend and propose with the consent of the said Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Peterborough and with the consent of the Right Reverend William Connor Bishop of Peterborough as Visitor of the said Dean and Chapter certified by their having hereunto affixed their respective corporate seals that upon and from the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme and without any further conveyance or act in the law the lands and hereditaments particularly described in the schedule hereunto annexed marked A with their appurtenances together with the benefit of the perpetual land tax charged thereon which has been redeemed shall subject always to the liabilities and charges to which the said lands and hereditaments are now specifically liable be transferred to us in the manner contemplated in the said Act and that we shall be entitled to the rents profits and proceeds thereof as from the twenty-fifth day of March in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two and that in consideration for such transfer to us as aforesaid the lands and hereditaments particularly described in the schedule hereunto annexed and marked B with their appurtenances together with the benefit of the perpetual land tax charged thereon which has been redeemed shall subject always to the liabilities and charges to which the said lands and hereditaments are now specifically liable be transferred to the said Dean and Chapter in the manner contemplated by the said Act and that the said Dean and Chapter shall become entitled to the rents profits and proceeds thereof as from the said twenty-fifth day of March in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two.

" And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid in conformity with the provisions of the said recited Act or of any other Act of Parliament.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Peterborough.

C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 30th day of November, 1882.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy; of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter ninety-seven; of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five; and of the Act of the thirty-fourth and thirty-fifth years of Her Majesty, chapter eighty-two; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the twentieth day of July in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one in the words following; that is to say:—

"We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Your Majesty, chapter seventy, of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Your Majesty chapter ninety-seven, of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty chapter fifty-five, and of the Act of the thirty-fourth and thirty-fifth years of Your Majesty chapter eighty-two have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Peter, situate within the limits of the parish of Keighley, in the county of York, and in the diocese of Ripon.

"Whereas at certain extremities of the said parish of Keighley and of the new parish of Ingrow with Hainworth, in the said county of York, and in the said diocese of Ripon, which said extremities lie contiguous one to another and are described in the schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such parish and new parish respectively.

"And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that such contiguous portions of the said parish of Keighley, and of the said new parish of Ingrow with Hainworth, should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes and that the same should be assigned to the said church of Saint Peter, situate within the limits of the parish of Keighley as aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Robert, Bishop of the said diocese of Ripon, as such Bishop, and also as the patron, in right of his See, of the vicarage of the said new parish of Ingrow with Hainworth, and with the consent of the Most Noble William, Duke of Devonshire, Knight of the Most Noble Order of the Garter, as the patron of the rectory of the said parish of Keighley (in testimony whereof they the said consenting parties have respectively signed and sealed this representation) we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said parish of Keighley and of the said new parish of Ingrow with Hainworth, which are described in the schedule hereunder written, all which portions, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church of Saint Peter, situate within the limits of the parish of Keighley as aforesaid and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Peter, Keighley.'

"We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration and to make such Order in respect thereto as to Your Majesty in Your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Peter, Keighley, being :—

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Ripon.

C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 30th day of November, 1882.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and forty-two, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-seventh day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

“We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of your Majesty chapter one hundred and forty-two have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council a scheme for providing such a rent-charge as is contemplated by the eleventh section of that Act.

“Whereas by an Order of Your Majesty in Council bearing date the twenty-sixth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine and published in the London Gazette on the eighth day of July in the same year, and ratifying a scheme prepared and submitted by us, the benefice of Saint Nicholas Cole Abbey with Saint Nicholas Olave and Saint Mary Somerset with Saint Mary Mounthaw in the city and diocese of London, and the benefice of Saint Benet Paul's Wharf with Saint Peter Paul's Wharf in the same city and diocese, were united as in the same Order is mentioned; and the union of the same two benefices has taken effect, and consequently all the property constituting the endowments of the said two benefices has by virtue of the same Order been transferred and annexed to the united benefice by the same Order created: which united benefice, as by the same Order appears, is styled ‘The United Rectory of Saint Nicholas Cole Abbey Saint Nicholas Olave, Saint Mary Somerset and Saint Mary Mounthaw, with Saint Benet Paul's Wharf and Saint Peter Paul's Wharf.’

“And whereas by the scheme ratified by the same Order it was provided that by means of a scheme or schemes to be prepared by us under the Act and section hereinbefore mentioned we should or might after the cesser or determination of the pension (if any) which might be payable to a retiring incumbent under Part I. of the scheme ratified by the same Order, recommend and propose to Your Majesty in Council that the property so constituting the endowments of the said united rectory should by virtue of any Order or Orders of Your Majesty in Council ratifying such scheme or schemes be subject in perpetuity firstly to the payment of one annual rent-charge of two hundred and fifty pounds in favour of some one benefice in the metropolis or the vicinity thereof, which benefice should at the time of the creation of such rent-charge be in the patronage of the Bishop of London and should be designated to us in writing by the said Bishop of London as the recipient of the same rent-charge of two hundred and fifty pounds per annum; and secondly to the payment of a further annual rent-charge, namely a rent-charge of fifty pounds per annum in favour of some one benefice in the metropolis or the vicinity thereof, which benefice should at the time of the creation of such rent-charge be in the patronage of the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Saint Paul in the said city and diocese of London and should be designated to us the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in writing by the said Dean and

Chapter as the recipient of the same rent-charge of fifty pounds per annum: but nevertheless it was by the said scheme ratified by the said Order provided that the said rent-charge of fifty pounds per annum should not be made to commence until some person other than the Reverend Henry Stebbing Clerk in Holy Orders Doctor in Divinity should be incumbent of the said united benefice.

“And whereas a scheme for creating the said rent-charge of two hundred and fifty pounds has been prepared by us, and the same has been ratified by Order of Your Majesty in Council dated the thirty-first day of July in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty, which Order was published in the London Gazette on the third day of August in the same year.

“And whereas no scheme for creating the said proposed rent-charge of fifty pounds per annum has yet been prepared by us.

“And whereas it is the fact that no such pension as aforesaid has been or is or will be payable because there is not and has not been such a retired incumbent as by the said Order is contemplated.

“And whereas the district of Saint Benet and All Saints Kentish Town in the county of Middlesex and in the said diocese of London is a benefice in the metropolis and is in the patronage of the Dean and Chapter of the said Cathedral Church of Saint Paul in the said city and diocese of London.

“And whereas the said benefice of Saint Benet and All Saints Kentish Town has been designated to us in writing by the said Dean and Chapter as the recipient of the said proposed annual rent-charge of fifty pounds per annum; and such designation is mentioned in the Order of Your Majesty in Council whereby the said benefice of Saint Benet and All Saints Kentish Town was created, which Order was published in the London Gazette on the fourth day of March in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one.

“And whereas the said Henry Stebbing is still the incumbent of the said united benefice.

“Now, therefore, with the consent of the Very Reverend Richard William Church Master of Arts and Doctor of Civil Law the Dean of the said Cathedral Church of Saint Paul in the city and diocese of London and of the Chapter of the same church (which said Dean and Chapter are the patrons of the said united rectory of Saint Nicholas Cole Abbey with Saint Nicholas Olave, Saint Mary Somerset and Saint Mary Mounthaw with Saint Benet Paul's Wharf, and Saint Peter Paul's Wharf, and in testimony of which consent they have affixed to this scheme the common or capitular seal of the same Chapter) and with the consent of the joint vestry of the four parishes of Saint Nicholas Cole Abbey, Saint Nicholas Olave, Saint Mary Somerset and Saint Mary Mounthaw, and of the vestry of each of the two parishes of Saint Benet Paul's Wharf, and Saint Peter Paul's Wharf (in testimony of which consent this scheme is signed in the case of the said joint vestry and of each of the said two other vestries by the chairman of a meeting of the same vestry duly convened for the purpose of giving such consent) and also with the consent of the said John Bishop of London in testimony of which consent he has set his hand and his episcopal seal to this scheme, we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England humbly recommend and propose that upon and as from the day on which from any cause whatsoever the said Henry Stebbing shall cease to be the incumbent of the said united benefice of Saint Nicholas Cole Abbey Saint Nicholas Olave Saint Mary Somerset and Saint Mary Mounthaw with Saint Benet Paul's Wharf and Saint Peter Paul's Wharf, and without any assurance in the law other than any duly gazetted Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, such of the permanent endowments of the said united rectory of Saint Nicholas Cole Abbey Saint Nicholas Olave Saint Mary Somerset Saint Mary Mounthaw with Saint Benet Paul's Wharf and Saint Peter Paul's Wharf as are in the schedule to this scheme described and set forth shall (subject and without prejudice to the said rent-charge of two hundred and fifty pounds per annum) be subject in perpetuity to one annual rent-charge of fifty pounds: the same rent-charge to be payable and paid by equal half-yearly payments, on the first day of May and the first day of November in every year, to the incumbent for the time being of the said benefice of Saint Benet and All Saints Kentish Town in the county of Middlesex; and to be apportionable between any outgoing incumbent of the said benefice of Saint Benet and All Saints Kentish Town, or the representatives or representative of any deceased incumbent thereof, on the one hand, and his successor in the same incumbency on the other hand.

"And we further recommend and propose that the incumbent for the time being of the said benefice of Saint Benet and All Saints Kentish Town shall have the following powers for recovering the said rent-charge; such powers nevertheless to be without prejudice to the powers for recovering the said rent-charge of two hundred and fifty pounds per annum (that is to say): power, if and whenever any part of the said rent-charge shall at any time be unpaid for twenty-one days after any of the times appointed for the payment thereof (although there shall not have been any legal demand thereof) to enter into the receipt of the endowments charged therewith or any part thereof and to receive and take the same until he shall thereby or otherwise be paid and satisfied the same rent-charge and the arrears thereof due at the time of such entry or afterwards to become due during his being in possession of the same premises, together with all costs and expenses occasioned by the non-payment thereof; and for the purpose of collecting receiving and recovering such endowments or any of them, to use exercise and enjoy all such powers and remedies for collecting recovering and enforcing payment thereof and of the annual sums payable for or towards the raising or making up the same, as under and by virtue of the Act of the forty-fourth year of the reign of King George the Third chapter eighty-nine mentioned in the schedule to this scheme, are or shall be vested in the incumbent for the time being of the said united rectory.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or to any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Act or of any other Act of Parliament.

"The SCHEDULE to the foregoing scheme annexed: showing the particulars of those endowments of the united rectory of Saint Nicholas Cole Abbey Saint Nicholas Olave Saint Mary Somerset and Saint Mary Mounthaw with Saint Benet Paul's Wharf and Saint Peter Paul's Wharf, which by the same scheme are proposed to be charged with the annual rent-charge of fifty pounds in the same scheme mentioned.

"(1.) The annual sum of two hundred pounds payable under the Act passed in the forty-fourth year of the reign of King George the Third chapter eighty-nine for the relief of certain incumbents of livings in the city of London, as the annual certain tithes or sums of money in lieu of tithes, of and for the parish of Saint Benet Paul's Wharf and Saint Peter Paul's Wharf, or so much thereof as shall from time to time remain payable in respect thereof in case of and after the redemption under the London (City) Tithes Act 1879 of any tithe rate, rate, assessment or payment payable for raising such annual sum.

"(2.) The annual sum of two hundred and sixteen pounds thirteen shillings and four pence payable under the said Act of the forty-fourth year of King George the Third chapter eighty-nine as the annual certain tithes or sums of money in lieu of tithes, of and for the parish of Saint Nicholas Cole Abbey and Saint Nicholas Olave, or so much thereof as shall from time to time remain payable in respect thereof in case of and after the redemption, under the London (City) Tithes Act 1879, of any tithe rate, rate assessment or payment payable for raising such annual sum.

"(3.) The annual sum of two hundred pounds payable under the said Act of the forty-fourth year of King George the Third chapter eighty-nine, as the annual certain tithes, or sums of money in lieu of tithes, of and for the parish of Saint Mary Somerset, and Saint Mary Mounthaw or so much thereof as shall from time to time remain payable in respect thereof, in case of and after the redemption under the London (City) Tithes Act 1879, of any tithe rate rate assessment or payment payable for raising such annual sum.

"(4.) The annual income to arise from the consideration or considerations or the investments of the consideration or considerations of any such redemption or redemptions as hereinbefore mentioned."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of London.

C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 30th day of November, 1882.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the third day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty chapter one hundred and thirteen of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty chapter thirty-seven and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty chapter one hundred and four have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes to be taken out of the parish of West Hoathly in the county of Sussex and in the diocese of Chichester.

"Whereas it has been made to appear to us that it would promote the interests of religion that the particular part of the said parish of West Hoathly which is hereinafter mentioned and described should be constituted a separate district in manner hereinafter recommended and proposed.

"And whereas there is not at present within the limits of the said proposed district any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of Divine worship.

"And whereas for the purpose of providing an endowment for the said proposed district Frances Sarah Kirby of Highbrook, Hayward's Heath, in the said county of Sussex, Widow, has contributed a sum of two thousand five hundred pounds four pounds per centum debenture stock of the Great Eastern Railway Company and has transferred the same into our name in the books of the same Company to be held in trust by us as and for a permanent endowment for the minister or incumbent for the time being of the said proposed district and so soon as the said district shall have become a new parish under the provisions of the hereinbefore secondly mentioned Act then of the said new parish, the amount of the annual interest and dividends to accrue due on account of the said sum of stock to be receivable by the said minister or incumbent for the time being when he shall have been duly licensed according to the provisions of the hereinbefore secondly mentioned Act.

"And whereas the said sum of two thousand five hundred pounds four pounds per centum debenture stock of the Great Eastern Railway Company aforesaid has been so provided as aforesaid upon the understanding that we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England should out of our common fund created by the firstly hereinbefore mentioned Act pay to the minister or incumbent for the time being of the said proposed district or new parish (as the case may be) when duly licensed as aforesaid a grant of fifty pounds per annum and upon the further understanding and condition that (such arrangement appearing to us to be expedient) we should recommend and propose to Your Majesty in Council that the whole right of patronage of the said proposed district or (as the case may be) new parish and of the nomination of the minister or incumbent thereto should be assigned in the manner hereinafter mentioned.

"And whereas the said annual grant of fifty pounds will be made and secured by an instrument to be executed by us under our common seal in accordance with the provisions of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Your Majesty chapter one hundred and eleven.

"Now therefore with the consent of the Right Reverend Richard Bishop of the said diocese of Chichester (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme) we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners humbly recommend and propose that all that part of the said parish of West Hoathly which is described in the schedule hereunder written all which part together with the boundaries thereof is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed shall upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme become and be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes and that the same shall be named 'The District of All Saints, Highbrook.'

"And we further recommend and propose that the whole right of patronage of the said proposed district and when the said district shall have become a new parish as aforesaid then of the said new parish and of the nomination of the minister or incumbent thereto shall without any assurance in the law other than this scheme and any duly gazetted Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying the same and upon and from the day of the date of the publication of such Order in the London Gazette as aforesaid be assigned to and become absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Frances Sarah Kirby and by her heirs and assigns for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or to any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of either of them or of any other Act of Parliament.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme has reference.

"The District of All Saints, Highbrook, being:—

"All that part of the parish of West Hoathly in the county of Sussex and in the diocese of Chichester which is bounded on the north-west and on the north by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the parish of Ardingley in the said county and diocese from the parish of West Hoathly aforesaid at the point in the middle of Cob-lane about one chain to the south of the bridge which carries the said lane over Cob Brook and extending thence that is, from the said boundary generally north-eastward along the middle of the same lane for a distance of fifty chains or thereabouts to a point opposite to a boundary stone inscribed 'H. D. 1882 No. 1' and placed on the eastern side of the said lane at its junction with the roadway leading to the farm called or known as Ludwell and extending thence, that is from the said point opposite to the said boundary stone, in a north-easterly direction and in a straight line for a distance of sixty-five chains or thereabouts thereby crossing Hook Wood to a boundary stone inscribed 'H. D. 1882 No. 2' and placed on the western side of Hammingden-lane at the south-eastern corner of Ashurst Wood, the said last-mentioned boundary stone being situate at a distance of fifty-four and a half chains or thereabouts (measured along the said Hammingden-lane) to the south of Vinal's Cross and extending thence that is from the last-mentioned boundary stone in a direction due eastward and in a straight line for a distance of twenty-eight and a half chains or thereabouts thereby crossing Courtland Wood to the boundary which divides the said parish of West Hoathly from the parish of Horsted Keynes in the county and diocese aforesaid. All which hereinbefore described portion of the said parish of West Hoathly is bounded upon the remaining sides other than upon the north-west and north as aforesaid that is to say upon the east and upon the south-west as follows upon the east by the parish of Horsted Keynes aforesaid and upon the south-west partly by the parish or parochial chapelry of Lindfield in the county and diocese aforesaid and partly by the parish of Ardingley aforesaid."

And whereas drafts of the said scheme have, in accordance with the provisions of the secondly hereinbefore mentioned Act, been transmitted to the patron and to the incumbent of the vicarage of the said parish of West Hoathly out of which it is intended that the district recommended in such scheme to be constituted shall be taken, and such patron and incumbent have respectively signified their assent to such scheme:

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Chichester.

C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 30th day of November, 1882.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the second day of November in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two, in the words following, that is to say:—

“We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty chapter thirty-seven sections six and eight have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for authorizing the sale and disposal of certain property formerly belonging to the Prebend of Whitchurch in the Cathedral Church of Wells and now vested in us.

“Whereas on the vacancy of the said prebend which occurred on or about the fifth day of June in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-seven by the decease of the Reverend George May Coleridge the then Prebendary, all the lands tenements and hereditaments theretofore belonging to the said prebend (except rights of patronage), became by virtue of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen absolutely vested in us for the purposes and subject to the provisions applicable to other hereditaments vested in us.

“And whereas a part of the lands tenements and hereditaments which so became vested in us as aforesaid are in our possession, but a considerable part thereof are held under us by copy of Court Roll on grants for lives at small annual rents, and on that account and in some instances on account of the character or situation of the property the said lands tenements and hereditaments are unsuitable or inconvenient to be held or applied for the purposes for which estates vested in us are applicable under the Acts by which our proceedings are governed.

“And whereas by an Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Your Majesty chapter one hundred and twenty-four, power is given to lessees holding under us in the event of our declining to enter into a treaty for the sale of our reversions or the purchase of the leasehold interests to require us to purchase such leasehold interests at a valuation.

“And whereas with a view to the advantageous appropriation of the said lands tenements and hereditaments or of the proceeds thereof, for the ultimate improvement of our common fund, it is expedient that the said lands, tenements and hereditaments, or such parts thereof as we shall at any time and from time to time think fit should be sold or disposed of, and accordingly that we should be empowered to dispose of our interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof in such manner as shall appear to us advisable.

“Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose that we may be authorised and empowered, by instrument or instruments in writing duly executed according to law from time to time to sell and dispose of, and duly to convey according to the provisions of the said Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty's reign, with the consent of the holder or holders thereof (if any) to be testified by his, her, or their being made parties to such instruments all or any of the said lands, tenements, and hereditaments formerly belonging to the said Prebend of Whitchurch and so vested in us as aforesaid with their appurtenances and all our estate, right, title, and interest therein or in any part or parts thereof, unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same and his her or their heirs executors administrators or assigns or otherwise as he she or they shall direct or appoint and for such consideration as shall upon due calculation and inquiry appear to us to be just and reasonable it being our intention to invest the proceeds of such sale from time to time as occasion may arise in the purchase of other lands tithes rent-charges tenements or other hereditaments or of some estate or interest therein, convenient to be held by us for the purposes of the Acts by which our proceedings are governed as aforesaid, and in the meantime to invest the said proceeds in some Government or Parliamentary stock or other public securities in England.

“And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Act or of any other Act of Parliament.”

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Bath and Wells.

C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 30th day of November, 1882.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy; of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter ninety-seven; of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five; and of the Act of the thirty-fourth and thirty-fifth years of Her Majesty, chapter eighty-two; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the twenty-seventh day of July in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two in the words and figures following; that is to say:—

“We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Your Majesty chapter seventy, of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Your Majesty chapter ninety-seven, of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty chapter fifty-five, and of the Act of the thirty-fourth and thirty-fifth years of Your Majesty chapter eighty-two, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church called or known as Jesus Chapel situate at Troutbeck in parish of Windermere in the county of Westmorland and in the diocese of Carlisle.

“Whereas in certain extremities of the said parish of Windermere and of the new parish of Saint Mary Appletwhaite sometime part of the said parish of Windermere, which said extremities lie contiguous one to another and are described in the schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such parish and new parish respectively.

“And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that such contiguous portions of the said parish of Windermere, and of the said new parish of Saint Mary, Appletwhaite, should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes, and that the same should be assigned to the said church called or known as Jesus Chapel situate at Troutbeck as aforesaid.

“Now therefore with the consent of the Right Reverend Harvey Bishop of Carlisle as such Bishop, and also as the patron, in right of his See, of the vicarage of the said new parish of Saint Mary, Appletwhaite, and with the consent of Stanley Hughes Le Fleming of Rydale Hall, in the said county of Westmorland, Esquire, as the patron of the rectory of the said parish of Windermere (in testimony whereof they the said consenting parties have respectively signed and sealed this representation), we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England humbly represent that it would in our opinion be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said parish of Windermere, and of the said new parish of Saint Mary, Appletwhaite, which are described in the schedule hereunder written, all which portions together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church called or known as Jesus Chapel, situate at Troutbeck as aforesaid and that the same should be named ‘The Consolidated Chapelry of Troutbeck.’

“We, therefore humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to Your Majesty in Your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.

“The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

“The Consolidated Chapelry of Troutbeck being:—

“All that portion of the parish of Windermere (consisting for the most part of the parochial chapelry of Troutbeck) in the county of Westmorland and in the diocese of Carlisle which is bounded on the south by the new parish of Saint Mary Appletwhaite sometime part of the said parish of Windermere on the west partly by Lake Windermere and partly by the new parish of Saint Mary Ambleside in the county and diocese aforesaid on the north by the new parish of Patterdale in the same county and diocese and on the east partly by the parochial chapelry of Kentmere and partly by the parochial chapelry of Hugill otherwise Ings, both the last-named parochial chapelries being in the parish of Kendal in the county and diocese aforesaid.

“And also all that contiguous portion of the said new parish of Saint Mary Appletwhaite which is bounded on its northern and north-western sides by the above-described portion of the parish of Windermere and upon the remaining sides that is to say on the south and on the south-east by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the township of Troutbeck in the said parochial chapelry of Troutbeck from the new parish of Saint Mary Appletwhaite aforesaid at the centre of Troutbeck Bridge over the stream called or known as Trout Beck opposite to a boundary-stone inscribed ‘T. C. C. 1882 No. 1’ and placed on the north-eastern side of the same bridge and extending thence in a direction a little north of east and in a straight line for a distance of one mile and twenty-two and a half chains or thereabouts to a boundary-stone inscribed ‘T. C. C. 1882 No. 2’ and placed on the south-western side of Moorhow-road at a point opposite to the middle of the southern end of Dubb’s-road and extending thence north-eastward and in a direct line for a distance of nearly one mile to the boundary-stone which marks the north-eastern angle of the new parish of Saint Mary Appletwhaite aforesaid or in other words to the point where the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint Mary Appletwhaite from the parochial chapelry of Hugill otherwise Ings aforesaid joins the boundary dividing the said new parish of Saint Mary Appletwhaite from the hereinbefore described portion of the parish of Windermere aforesaid.”

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Carlisle.

C. L. Peel.

At the Court at Windsor, the 30th day of November, 1882.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN’S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the twenty-ninth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

“We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Your Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint John situate within the limits of the parish of Monk Hesleden in the county of Durham and in the diocese of Durham.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint John situate within the limits of the parish of Monk Hesleden as aforesaid.

"Now therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Joseph Barber Bishop of the said diocese of Durham (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Monk Hesleden which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of Saint John situate within the limits of such parish as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint John, Monk Hesleden.'

"And with the like consent of the said Joseph Barber, Bishop of the said diocese of Durham, (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at the said church of Saint John situate within the limits of the parish of Monk Hesleden as aforesaid, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us the said Commissioners to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism or for the registration thereof.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration and to make such Order with respect thereto as to Your Majesty, in Your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Saint John Monk Hesleden being:—

"All that part of the parish of Monk Hesleden in the county of Durham and in the diocese of Durham which is bounded on the east and on the south by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said parish, from the parish or parochial chapelry of Castle Eden in the county and diocese aforesaid, at the point where the main road leading from Castle Eden to Monk Hesleden, is joined by the road or footway leading from Hardwicke Hall, and extending thence southward along the middle of the said main road for a distance of eleven chains or thereabouts to the point where it joins the roadway numbered one hundred and nineteen upon the map of the ordnance survey of the said parish of Monk Hesleden on the $\frac{1}{2500}$ scale and upon the map hereunto annexed which roadway leads to East Field House, and continuing thence, that is from the last described point of junction southward along the middle of the said roadway for a distance of eleven and a half chains or thereabouts to the point at or near to East Field House aforesaid, where the same roadway joins the road leading from Castle Eden Colliery to Church Hesleden, and extending thence that is, from the last described point of junction south-eastward along the middle of the last described road for a distance of three chains or thereabouts to a point opposite to a boundary stone inscribed 'M. H. St. J. D. C. 1882' and placed on the southern side of the same roadway at the northern end of the line of fences which divide the closes numbered respectively 118, 117 and 116 upon the maps aforesaid, from the closes numbered respectively 173 and 172 upon the same maps and extending thence, that is, from the last described point southward to the said boundary stone and along the said line of fences for a distance of eleven chains or thereabouts to the point where the fence dividing the said close numbered 116 from the close numbered 172 as aforesaid joins the northern fence of the close numbered 167 upon the maps aforesaid, and continuing thence southward and in a direct line for a distance of one and a half chains or thereabouts across the last mentioned close and across the line of the Hartlepool Branch of the North Eastern Railway to a point at the north-eastern end of a certain stream or watercourse flowing down a gully into Hesleden Beck, and extending thence first south-westward and thence southward along the said stream or watercourse for a distance of four and three-quarter chains or thereabouts to its junction in Hesleden Dean with Hesleden Beck aforesaid, and extending thence, generally westward along the middle of the said beck for a distance of fifty-nine chains or thereabouts to the said boundary which divides the said parish of Monk Hesleden from the parish or parochial chapelry of Castle Eden aforesaid. All which hereinbefore described part of the parish of Monk Hesleden aforesaid, is bounded upon the remaining sides, other than upon the east and upon the south as aforesaid that is to say, upon the west and upon the north by the parish or parochial chapelry of Castle Eden aforesaid."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Durham.

C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 30th day of November, 1882.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the seventh and eighth years of Her Majesty chapter ninety-four and of the Act of the thirty-second and thirty-third years of Her Majesty chapter ninety-four duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme or representation bearing date the third day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England acting under the provisions of the Act of the seventh and eighth years of Your Majesty chapter ninety-four, and of the Act of the thirty-second and thirty-third years of Your Majesty chapter ninety-four have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme or representation for altering the boundaries of the new parish of Saint James Croydon Common and of the new parish of Saint Matthew Croydon both which new parishes were some time part of the parish of Croydon in the county of Surrey and in the diocese of Canterbury.

"Whereas, by the authority of an Order of Your Majesty in Council bearing date the eleventh day of March in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-three, and published in the London Gazette upon the fifth day of April in the same year a part of the said parish of Croydon was assigned as a district chapelry to the church of Saint James situate on Croydon Common within the limits of the said parish, and was named 'The District Chapelry of Saint James Croydon Common.'

"And whereas by the authority of another Order of Your Majesty in Council bearing date the fourteenth day of September in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six and published in the London Gazette upon the eighteenth day of the same month a part of the said parish of Croydon was assigned as a district chapelry to the church of Saint Matthew situate within the limits of the same parish and was named 'The District Chapelry of Saint Matthew Croydon.'

"And whereas both the said district chapelry of Saint James Croydon Common and the said district chapelry of Saint Matthew Croydon have under the provisions of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty chapter one hundred and four become new parishes of the character contemplated by that Act and by the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty chapter thirty-seven and by the said above-mentioned Act of the thirty-second and thirty-third years of Your Majesty chapter ninety-four.

"And whereas it has been represented to us and it appears to us to be expedient that the boundaries both of the said new parish of Saint James Croydon Common and of the said new parish of Saint Matthew Croydon should be altered in the manner hereinafter mentioned.

"Now therefore with the consent of the Right Honourable and Most Reverend Archibald Campbell, Archbishop of Canterbury (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme or representation) we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners humbly represent recommend and propose that from and after the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme or representation and without any assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order all that part of the said new parish of Saint James Croydon Common which is described in the schedule hereunder written and is delineated and set forth upon the map or plan hereunto appended and is thereon coloured pink shall be dissevered from such new parish and shall be annexed to and shall form part of, and shall become and be and be deemed to be within the limits of the said new parish of Saint Matthew Croydon.

"And we further represent recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from representing recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid in accordance with the provisions of the hereinbefore-mentioned Acts or of either of them or of any other Act of Parliament.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme or Representation has reference.

"The territory proposed to be dissevered from the new parish of Saint James Croydon Common and to be annexed to the new parish of Saint Matthew Croydon both within the original limits of the parish of Croydon in the county of Surrey and in the diocese of Canterbury being:—

"All that part of the said new parish of Saint James Croydon Common which is bounded on the north-west, on the north-east and on part of the south-east by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides that part of the said parish of Croydon which still remains for ecclesiastical purposes attached to the parish church of Croydon from the new parish of Saint James Croydon Common aforesaid at the point where Wellesley-road is joined by Lansdowne-road and extending thence generally north-eastward along the middle of the last-named road for a distance of thirty-nine chains or thereabouts to its junction with Saint James's-road and extending thence south-eastward for a distance of twenty chains or thereabouts along the middle of the last-named road and along the middle of the Lower Addiscombe-road (thereby passing over the main line of the London Brighton and South Coast Railway) to the junction of the last-named road with Morland-road and with Cherry Orchard-road and extending thence south-westward along the middle of the last-named road for a distance of nine chains or thereabouts to the boundary at the junction of the said last-named road with Leslie Park-road, which boundary divides the said new parish of Saint James Croydon Common from the new parish of Saint Mary Magdalene Addiscombe in the county and diocese aforesaid. All which hereinbefore described part of the said new parish of Saint James Croydon Common is bounded upon the remaining sides, other than those hereinbefore-mentioned that is to say upon the remaining part of the south-east upon the east upon the south and upon the west as follows, upon the remaining part of the south-east and upon the east by the new parish of Saint Mary Magdalene Addiscombe aforesaid and upon the south by the new parish of Saint Matthew Croydon aforesaid and upon the west by that part of the said parish of Croydon which still remains for ecclesiastical purposes attached to the parish church of Croydon as aforesaid."

And whereas drafts of the said scheme or representation have been transmitted to the patron and to the incumbents of the cures affected by the arrangements which are contemplated by such scheme or representation and such patrons and incumbents have respectively signified their assent thereto.

And whereas the said scheme or representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme or representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Canterbury.

C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 30th day of November, 1882.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England beyond the limits of the Metropolis, and to amend the Act concerning the burial of the dead in the Metropolis," it is enacted that, in case it appears to Her Majesty in Council, upon the representation of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, that, for the protection of the public health, the opening of any new burial-ground in any city or town, or within any other limits, save with the previous approval of one of such Secretaries of State, should be prohibited, or that burials in any city or town, or within any other limits, or in any burial-ground or places of burial, should be wholly discontinued, or should be discontinued subject to any exception or qualification, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order that no new burial-ground shall be opened in any city or town, or within such limits, without such previous approval, or (as the case may require) that, after a time mentioned in the Order, burials in such city or town, or within such limits, or in such burial-grounds or places of burials, shall be discontinued wholly or subject to any exceptions or qualifications mentioned in such Order, and so from time to time as circumstances may require: provided, always, that notice of such representation, and of the time when it shall please Her Majesty to order that the same be taken into consideration by the Privy Council shall be published in the London Gazette, and shall be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some other conspicuous places within, the parishes affected by such representation one month before such representation is so considered; provided also, that no such representation shall be made in relation to the burial-ground of any parish until ten days' previous notice of the intention to make such representation shall have been given to the Incumbent and Vestry Clerk or Churchwardens of such parish:

And whereas the Right Honourable Sir William Vernon Harcourt, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after giving to the Incumbents and the Churchwardens of the parishes hereinafter mentioned ten days' previous notice of his intention to make such representation, has made a representation stating that, for the protection of the public health, no new burial-ground should be opened in the undermentioned parishes without the previous consent of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and that burials should be discontinued therein, with certain modifications:

And whereas Her Majesty was pleased, by Her Order in Council of the eighteenth day of August last, to give notice of such representation, and to order that the same should be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council on the twelfth day of October, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two; and such Order has been published in the London Gazette, and copies thereof have been affixed, as required by the said Act:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that no new burial-ground shall be opened in the undermentioned parishes without the previous approval of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and that burials in the said parishes shall be discontinued, as follows; viz.:

WOOTTON.—Forthwith and entirely in the Baptist Chapel, in the parish of Wootton, in the county of Bedford; and also in the chapelyard, except as follows:—

(a.) In such earthen graves now existing in the chapelyard as can be opened to the depth of five feet without exposing coffins or disturbing human remains, burials may be allowed of so many of the relations of those already interred therein, as can be buried at or below that depth:

(b.) In such reserved grave spaces in the chapelyard, as have never before been buried in, and, when opened, are free from water, burials may be allowed of so many members of the families to whom they have been allotted, as can be buried at or below the depth of five feet.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England beyond the limits of the Metropolis, and to amend the Act concerning the burial of the dead in the Metropolis," it is enacted that, in case it appears to Her Majesty in Council, upon the representation of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, that, for the protection of the public health, the opening of any new burial-ground in any city or town, or within any other limits, save with the previous approval of one of such Secretaries of State, should be prohibited, or that burials in any city or town, or within any other limits, or in any burial-grounds or places of burial, should be wholly discontinued, or should be discontinued subject to any exception or qualification, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order that no new burial-ground shall be opened in any city or town, or within such limits, without such previous approval, or (as the case may require) that, after a time mentioned in the Order, burials in such city or town, or within such limits, or in such burial-grounds or places of burial, shall be discontinued wholly, or subject to any exception or qualification mentioned in such Order, and so from time to time as circumstances may require; provided always, that notice of such representation, and of the time when it shall please Her Majesty to order that the same be taken into consideration by the Privy Council, shall be published in the London Gazette, and shall be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some other conspicuous places within, the parishes affected by such representation, one month before such representation is so considered: provided also that no such repre-

resentation shall be made in relation to the burial-ground of any parish until ten days' previous notice of the intention to make such representation shall have been given to the Incumbent and Vestry Clerk or Churchwardens of such parish :

And whereas the Right Honourable Sir William Vernon Harcourt, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after giving to the Incumbents and the Churchwardens of the parishes hereinafter mentioned ten days' previous notice of his intention to make such representation, has made a representation stating that, for the protection of the public health, no new burial-ground should be opened in the undermentioned parishes without the previous consent of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and that burials should be discontinued therein, with certain modifications :

And whereas Her Majesty was pleased, by Her Order in Council of the twenty-fifth day of July last, to give notice of such representation, and to order that the same should be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, on the fifteenth day of September, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two, and such Order has been published in the London Gazette, and copies thereof have been affixed, as required by the said Act :

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that no new burial-ground shall be opened in the undermentioned parishes without the previous approval of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and that burials in the said parishes shall be discontinued, as follows ; viz. :—

HYSON GREEN.—Forthwith and entirely in Saint Paul's Church, Hyson Green, in the parish of Lenton, in the county of Nottingham ; and also in the churchyard, except as follows :

(a.) In such vaults and wholly walled graves as are now existing in the churchyard burials may be allowed on condition that every coffin buried therein be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented :

(b.) In such partly walled graves as are now existing in the churchyard, provided that the earth above them can be opened to the depth of five feet without exposing coffins or disturbing human remains burials may be allowed of so many of the relations of those already interred therein as can be buried at or below that depth.

BURHAM.—Forthwith and entirely in the parish church of Burham, in the county of Kent ; and also in the churchyard, after the first June, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three, except as follows :

In such vaults and wholly walled graves as are now existing in the churchyard burials may be allowed on condition that every coffin buried therein be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented.

CASTLE DONINGTON.—Forthwith and entirely in the parish church of Castle Donington, in the county of Leicester ; and also in the churchyard, except as follows :

(a.) In such vaults and wholly walled graves as are now existing in the churchyard burials may be allowed on condition that every coffin buried therein be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented :

(b.) In such partly walled graves as are now existing in the churchyard, provided that the earth above them can be opened to the depth of five feet without exposing coffins or disturbing human remains burials may be allowed of so many of the relations of those already interred therein as can be buried at or below that depth.

ABERYSTRUTH.—Forthwith and entirely in the parish church of Aberystruth, in the county of Monmouth ; and also in the churchyard after the thirtieth April, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three, except as follows :

(a.) In such vaults and wholly walled graves as are now existing in the churchyard burials may be allowed on condition that every coffin buried therein be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented :

(b.) In such partly walled graves as are now existing in the churchyard, provided that the earth above them can be opened to the depth of five feet without exposing coffins or disturbing human remains burials may be allowed of so many of the relations of those already interred therein as can be buried at or below that depth.

HEVER.—Forthwith in the parish church of Hever, in the county of Kent ; and also in the churchyard, except as follows :

In such vaults and wholly walled graves as are now existing in the churchyard burials may be allowed on condition that every coffin buried therein be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented.

UFFCULME.—Forthwith and entirely in the parish church of Uffculme, in the county of Devon ; and also in the churchyard after the thirty-first December, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two, except as follows :

(a.) In such vaults and wholly walled graves as are now existing in the churchyard burials may be allowed on condition that every coffin buried therein be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented :

(b.) In such earthen graves now existing in the churchyard as can be opened to the depth of five feet without exposing coffins or disturbing human remains burials may be allowed of so many of the following relations of those already interred therein, viz. : widows and widowers, as can be buried at or below that depth.

C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 30th day of November, 1882.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England beyond the limits of the Metropolis, and to amend the Act concerning the burial of the dead in the Metropolis," it is enacted that, in case it appears to Her Majesty in Council, upon the representation of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, that, for the protection of the public health, the opening of any new burial-ground in any city or town, or within any other limits, save with the previous approval of one of such Secretaries of State, should be prohibited, or that burials in any city or town, or within any other limits, or in any burial-grounds or places of burial, should be wholly discontinued, or should be discontinued subject to any exception or qualification, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her

Privy Council, to order that no new burial-ground shall be opened in any city or town, or within such limits, without such previous approval, or (as the case may require) that, after a time mentioned in the Order, burials in such city or town, or within such limits, or in such burial-grounds or places of burial, shall be discontinued wholly or subject to any exceptions or qualifications mentioned in such Order, and so from time to time as circumstances may require; provided always, that notice of such representation, and of the time when it shall please Her Majesty to order that the same be taken into consideration by the Privy Council, shall be published in the London Gazette, and shall be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some other conspicuous places within, the parishes affected by such representation one month before such representation is so considered: provided also, that no such representation shall be made in relation to the burial-ground of any parish until ten days' previous notice of the intention to make such representation shall have been given to the Incumbent and Vestry Clerk or Churchwardens of such parish:

And whereas by another Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the eighteenth and nineteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act further to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England," it is, amongst other things, enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, from time to time to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, shall or shall not have arrived), as to Her Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, may seem fit:

And whereas Her Majesty was pleased, by Her Order in Council of the seventeenth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, to direct the discontinuance of burials in the churchyard of St. Nicholas, Sutton, Surrey, in the words following:—

SUTTON, SURREY.—Forthwith wholly in the churchyard of St. Nicholas, Sutton, Surrey, except in existing vaults or walled graves, and in such as can be constructed, or in earthen graves which can be opened, without exposing coffins or disturbing buried remains, that every coffin buried in vaults or walled graves be separately enclosed in stonework or brickwork properly cemented, and that burial in the church be wholly discontinued.

And whereas Her Majesty was further pleased by Her Order in Council of the fourteenth day of May, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-seven, to direct the discontinuance of burials in the church and churchyard of Newchapel, Wolstanton, in the words following:—

NEWCHAPEL, WOLSTANTON.—Forthwith wholly in the church of Newchapel, Wolstanton; and in the churchyard after December thirty-first, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-seven, except in vaults and walled graves, in which each coffin shall be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented; and except in family earthen graves which can be opened to the depth of five feet without the exposure of coffins, or the disturbance of remains; and that, in the meantime, no exposure of coffins be allowed.

And whereas the Right Honourable Sir William Vernon Harcourt, one of Her Majesty's Principal

Secretaries of State, after giving to the Incumbents and Churchwardens of the said parishes ten days' previous notice of his intention to make such representation, has made a representation stating that he is of opinion that the Orders of Her Majesty in Council affecting burials in the said parishes should be varied in the following manner:—

SUTTON, SURREY.—By the omission of the words after "except" to "cemented" in the before-mentioned Order of seventeenth March, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, and by the substitution in their stead of the following words—

"as follows: (a.) In such vaults and wholly walled graves as are now existing in the churchyard burials may be allowed on condition that every coffin buried therein be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented:

"(b.) In such earthen graves now existing in the churchyard which can be opened to the depth of five feet without exposing coffins or disturbing human remains, burials may be allowed of so many of the following relations of those already interred therein, viz., widows and widowers, as can be buried at or below that depth."

NEWCHAPEL, WOLSTANTON.—By the omission of the words after "churchyard" in the beforementioned Order of the fourteenth May, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-seven, and by the substitution of the following

"except as follows: (a.) In such vaults and wholly walled graves as are now existing in the churchyard burials may be allowed on condition that every coffin buried therein be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented.

"(b.) In such earthen graves now existing in the churchyard, as can be opened to the depth of five feet without exposing coffins or disturbing human remains burials may be allowed of so many of the following relations of those already interred therein, viz., widows, widowers, parents, and unmarried children, as can be buried at or below that depth."

And whereas Her Majesty was pleased by Her Order in Council of the eighteenth day of August last to give notice of such representation, and to order that the same be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council on the twelfth day of October, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two; and such Order has been published in the London Gazette and copies thereof have been affixed as required by the said Act:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that burials be discontinued in the undermentioned parishes as follows, viz.:—

SUTTON, SURREY.—Forthwith wholly in the churchyard of St. Nicholas, Sutton, Surrey, except as follows:

(a.) In such vaults and wholly walled graves as are now existing in the churchyard burials may be allowed on condition that every coffin buried therein be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented:

(b.) In such earthen graves now existing in the churchyard which can be opened to the depth of five feet without exposing coffins or disturbing human remains, burials may be allowed of so many of the following relations of those already interred therein, viz., widows and widowers, as can be buried at or below that depth.

NEWCHAPEL, WOLSTANTON.—Forthwith wholly in the church of Newchapel, Wolstanton; and in the churchyard, except as follows:

(a.) In such vaults and wholly walled graves, as are now existing in the churchyard burials may be allowed on condition that every coffin buried therein be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented:

(b.) In such earthen graves now existing in the churchyard, as can be opened to the depth of five feet without exposing coffins or disturbing human remains burials may be allowed of so many of the following relations of those already interred therein, viz., widows, widowers, parents and unmarried children, as can be buried at or below that depth.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 30th day of November, 1882.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England beyond the limits of the Metropolis, and to amend the Act concerning the burial of the dead in the Metropolis," it is enacted that, in case it appears to Her Majesty in Council, upon the representation of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State that, for the protection of the public health, the opening of any new burial-ground in any city or town, or within any other limits, save with the previous approval of one of such Secretaries of State, should be prohibited, or that burials in any city or town, or within any other limits, or in any burial-grounds or places of burial, should be wholly discontinued, or should be discontinued subject to any exception or qualification, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order that no new burial-ground shall be opened in any city or town, or within such limits, without such previous approval, or (as the case may require) that, after a time mentioned in the Order, burials in such city or town, or within such limits, or in such burial-grounds or places of burial, shall be discontinued wholly, or subject to any exceptions or qualifications mentioned in such Order, and so from time to time as circumstances may require; provided always, that notice of such representation, and of the time when it shall please Her Majesty to order that the same be taken into consideration by the Privy Council, shall be published in the London Gazette, and shall be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some other conspicuous places within, the parishes affected by such representation, one month before such representation is so considered: provided also that no such representation shall be made in relation to the burial-ground of any parish until ten days' previous notice of the intention to make such representation shall have been given to the Incumbent and Vestry Clerk or Churchwardens of such parish:

And whereas by another Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the eighteenth and nineteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act further to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England," it is, amongst other things, enacted that it shall be lawful for

Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, from time to time to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, shall or shall not have arrived), as to Her Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, may seem fit:

And whereas by an Order in Council bearing date the ninth day of July, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-nine, burials were directed to be discontinued in the parish of Paignton in the words following:—

PAIGNTON.—Forthwith wholly in the church of the parish of Paignton; and also in the churchyard, except in vaults and walled graves which can be used without the disturbance of soil that has been buried in, and in which each coffin shall be separately entombed in an air-tight manner, and except in earthen graves which can be opened to the depth of five feet without the exposure of coffins, or the disturbance of entire bones.

And whereas the Right Honourable Sir William Vernon Harcourt, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after giving to the Incumbent and Churchwardens of the said parish ten days' previous notice of his intention to make such representation, has made a representation stating that he is of opinion that the said Order of Her Majesty in Council as affecting burials in the said parish should be varied in the following manner, viz.:—

By the omission of the words after "except" to "bones," and by the substitution in their stead of the following words

"as follows: (a.) In such vaults and wholly walled graves as are now existing in the churchyard burials may be allowed on condition that every coffin buried therein be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented:

"(b.) In such partly walled graves as are now existing in the churchyard, provided that the earth above them can be opened to the depth of five feet without exposing coffins or disturbing human remains, burials may be allowed of so many of the relations of those already interred therein as can be buried at or below that depth."

And whereas Her Majesty was pleased, by Her Order in Council of the twenty-ninth day of June last, to give notice of such representation, and to order that the same should be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, on the fourteenth day of August last, and such Order has been published in the London Gazette, and copies thereof have been affixed, as required by the said Act:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that burials be discontinued in the undermentioned parish as follows, viz.:

PAIGNTON.—Forthwith wholly in the church of the parish of Paignton; and also in the churchyard, except as follows:

(a.) In such vaults and wholly walled graves as are now existing in the churchyard burials may be allowed on condition that every coffin buried therein be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented:

(b.) In such partly walled graves as are now existing in the churchyard, provided that the earth above them can be opened to the depth of five feet without exposing coffins or disturbing human remains, burials may be allowed of so many of the relations of those already interred therein as can be buried at or below that depth.

*Board of Trade, Whitehall Gardens,
December 4, 1882.*

THE Board of Trade have received from the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, two Despatches from Her Majesty's Minister at Madrid, on the subject of representations made to the Spanish Government with a view of obtaining the remission of fines imposed on the masters of certain British vessels for infractions of Customs Regulations at Spanish ports. Her Majesty's Minister calls attention to the importance of making such representations in any particular case with as little delay as possible, and states that the only chance of obtaining remissions of fines is by intercepting the cases at Madrid as they are sent up for final decision from the ports where the fines are imposed. Shipowners are therefore recommended to instruct the masters of their vessels, or their agents in Spain, in every case where a fine is inflicted on a British vessel, against which they think they have just grounds for protesting, to report the case in all its details to the British Consular Officer at the port where the fine is levied, with a request that he will forward the particulars at once to Her Majesty's Legation at Madrid.
