AT the Court at Windsor, the 30th day of November, 1882.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England beyond the limits of the Metropolis, and to amend the Act concerning the burial of the dead in the Metropolis," it is enacted that, in case it appears to Her Majesty in Council, upon the representation of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, that, for the protection of the public health, the opening of any new burial-ground in any city or town, or within any other limits, save with the previous approval of one of such Secretaries of State, should be prohibited, or that burials in any city or town, or within any other limits, or in any burial-grounds or places of burial, should be wholly discontinued, or should be discontinued subject to any exception or qualification, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order that no new burial-ground shall be opened in any city or town, or within such limits, without such previous approval, or (as the case may require) that, after a time mentioned in the Order, burials in such city or town, or within such limits, or in such burial-grounds or places of burial, shall be discontinued wholly or subject to any exceptions or qualifications mentioned in such Order, and so from time to time as circumstances may require; provided always, that notice of such representation, and of the time when it shall please Her Majesty to order that the same be taken into consideration by the Privy Council, shall be published in the London Gazette, and shall be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some other conspicuous places within, the parishes affected by such representation one month before such representation is so considered: provided also, that no such representation shall be made in relation to the burial-ground of any parish until ten days' previous notice of the intention to make such representation shall have been given to the Incumbent and Vestry Clerk or Churchwardens of such parish:

And whereas by another Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the eighteenth and nineteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act further to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England," it is, amongst other things, enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, from time to time to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, shall or shall not have arrived), as to Her Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, may seem fit:

And whereas Her Majesty was pleased by Her Order in Council of the twenty-sixth of October, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five, to direct the discontinuance of burials in the parish of Hornsea, in the county of York, in the words following:—

HORNSEA IN HOLDERNESS.—Forthwith wholly in the parish church of Hornsea in Holderness, and in the churchyard except in now existing vaults and walled graves, every coffin buried in which shall be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented; and except also in earthen graves which can be opened without the exposure of coffins or the disturbance of any human remains except decayed bones.

And whereas Her Majesty was also pleased by Her Order in Council of the thirtieth September, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three, to direct the discontinuance of burials in the parish of Malpas, in the words following:—

MALPAS, CHESHIRE.—Forthwith wholly in the parish church of Malpas, in the county of Chester; and in the churchyard after the thirty-first day of March, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, except in now completed vaults and walled graves, in which each coffin shall be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented, and except in other graves which can be opened without the exposure of coffins or disturbance of remains, for the burial of the widowers or widows of those already buried therein.

And whereas Her Majesty was also pleased, by Her Order in Council of the twelfth day of April, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine, to direct the discontinuance of burials in the parish of Llanbedr, Denbighshire, in the words following:

LLANBEDR, DENBIGHSHIRE.—In Llanbedr churchyard, except in graves which can be opened without the exposure of remains;
