

Governors and their successors for the same, who shall not be bound or required to see to the application thereof and that upon the receipt of the said sum of six hundred and fifty pounds the whole or any part or parts thereof shall be applied by us, at such times and in such manner as shall appear to us to be expedient, towards effecting the said proposed improvements at the episcopal residence aforesaid.

“And we further recommend and propose that the Bishop of the said diocese of Newcastle for the time being shall at his personal charge and expense insure and keep insured the episcopal house of residence aforesaid from loss or damage by fire in one of the public offices of Assurance in London or Westminster to be approved by us in a sum not less than nine thousand pounds and that such Bishop shall within fourteen days after any premium for such assurance shall have become due and payable deliver to us the receipt for the same, and that in case of any loss or damage by fire to the said house any and every sum receivable under such insurance shall become and be payable and be paid to and deposited with us in trust to be applied and the same together with any interest and accumulations thereof shall be applied by us towards the rebuilding or repairing and reinstating of the said house or of any part thereof which may have so suffered loss or damage in such manner as shall be determined on by us with the concurrence of the Bishop of the said diocese of Newcastle for the time being.

“And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in conformity with the provisions of the herein-named Acts or of either of them or of any other Act of Parliament.”

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Newcastle.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 28th day of December, 1882.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the eighteenth and nineteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled “An Act further to amend the laws concerning “the burial of the dead in England,” it is, amongst other things, enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, from time to time to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, shall or shall not have arrived), as to Her Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, may seem fit:

And whereas Orders in Council have been made directing the discontinuance of burials in the churchyards hereinafter mentioned from the time specified in such Orders; and whereas it seems fit to Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, that the time for discontinuing burials in the said churchyards be postponed:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the time for the discontinuance of burials in such churchyards be postponed as follows, viz.:

In the parish churchyard of Headington, Oxfordshire, to the thirtieth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three.

In the parish churchyard of North Frodingham, in the county of York, to the thirty-first day of March, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three.

In the parish churchyard of Cobham, in the county of Surrey, to the thirtieth day of April, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three.

Privy Council Office, January 8, 1883.

THE MUNICIPAL CORPORATIONS ACT, 1882.

THE following scheme for the adjustment of the liabilities of the Croydon Local Board of Health, and for other purposes, as settled by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Privy Council, is published in pursuance of the Municipal Corporations Act, 1882.

WHEREAS certain inhabitant householders of the parish of Croydon, in the county of Surrey, have petitioned the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty for the grant of a Charter of Incorporation to the inhabitants of the said parish; and whereas such petition was referred to a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Privy Council; and whereas it is proposed by the Charter to extend the Municipal Corporation Acts to the municipal borough to be created by the Charter, being the said parish excluding the portion of the said parish known as Selsdon or Croydon Crook, and containing 888-889 acres, and forming the detached part of the said parish to the South-East.

And whereas under and by virtue of “The Public Health Act, 1848,” and the various Acts amending the same, the Croydon Local Board of Health (hereinafter called “the Local Board”) was constituted and became invested with various powers and duties, including the powers of borrowing moneys upon the security of rates to be made by the said Local Board in the whole of the parish of Croydon.

And whereas the loans specified in the schedule hereto are owing by the said Local Board to the persons, Associations, and Corporate bodies in manner set forth in the said schedule respectively.

And whereas the said loans, except the last loan in such schedule, were advanced to the said Local Board upon the security of rates to be made by the said Local Board upon the whole of the said parish of Croydon, including the portion thereof known as Selsdon or Croydon Crook aforesaid.

And whereas such last-mentioned loan was advanced to the said Local Board on the security of certain lands and premises the property of the said Local Board, but in the deed securing such advance the said Local Board covenanted for the repayment of the same, and it therefore became and is a liability to be paid out of the rates of the whole of the said parish of Croydon, including the portion thereof known as Selsdon or Croydon Crook aforesaid.

And whereas it is expedient that a Scheme be settled for the adjustment of the liabilities of the
