PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by "The Supreme Court of Judicature Act, 1873," it is enacted that "it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by Order in Council, from time to time to direct that there shall be District Registrars in such places as shall be in such Order mentioned for districts to be thereby defined, from which writs of summons for the commencement of actions in the High Court of Justice may be issued, and in which such proceedings may be taken and recorded as are herein-after mentioned; and Her Majesty may thereby appoint that any Registrar of any County Court, or any Registrar or Prothonotary or District Prothonotary of any local Court whose jurisdiction is hereby transferred to the said High Court of Justice, or from which an appeal is hereby given to the said Court of Appeal, or any person who, having been a District Registrar of the Court of Probate, or of the Admiralty Court, shall under this Act become and be a District Registrar of the said High Court of Justice, or who shall hereafter be appointed such District Registrar, shall and may be a District Registrar of the said High Court for the purpose of issuing such writs as aforesaid, and having such proceedings taken before him as are hereinafter mentioned:"

AT the Court at Windsor, the 14th day of February, 1883.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the 4th section of "The Medical Act" one of the persons to constitute "The General Council of Medical Education and Registration of the United Kingdom," to be established under or by virtue of the provisions of that Act, was to be a person chosen from time to time by the University of Glasgow and the University of St. Andrew's collectively: and by the 5th section of the said Act it was provided that if the said Universities of Glasgow and St. Andrew's should not be able to agree upon some one person to represent them in the Council, it should be lawful for each one of the said Universities to select one person, and thereupon it should be lawful for Her Majesty, with the advice of Her Privy Council, to appoint one of the persons so selected to be a member of the said Council for the said Universities:

And whereas in the year 1877 the said University of Glasgow and the said University of St. Andrew's collectively chose James Bell Pettigrew, Esquire, Doctor of Medicine, to be their representative in the said General Council for the term of five years:

And whereas under and by virtue of the provisions of the said Act, the said James Bell Pettigrew has ceased by lapse of time to be a member of the said General Council:

And whereas the said Universities of Glasgow and St. Andrew's have not been able to agree upon some one person to represent them in the said General Council, and, in pursuance of the said 5th section of the said Act, the said University of Glasgow hath selected William Tennant Gairdner, Esquire, Doctor of Medicine, and the said University of St. Andrew's hath selected the said James Bell Pettigrew, and have submitted the names of the said two persons to Her Majesty in Council:

Now therefore Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, doth, under and by virtue of the provisions in that behalf contained in the said Medical Act, appoint the said James Bell Pettigrew to be a member of the said General Council for the said Universities of Glasgow and St. Andrew's for the term of five years from the date hereof.
