

might be made with advantage to the interests of religion. The said late Archbishop enquired into the circumstances of the case.

"That on such enquiry it appeared to the said late Archbishop and it also appears to us that such union might be usefully dissolved and we certify to Your Majesty in Council, that the Dean and Canons of the King's Free Chapel of Saint George within the Castle of Windsor being the patrons or persons entitled to present to the said united benefice if the same were now vacant have signified their consent in writing to such proposed disunion and that each of the said vicarages shall retain its original endowments and emoluments and that the charges upon the said vicarage of Woollavington of eleven pounds seven shillings and eleven pence for first fruits and one pound two shillings and nine pence halfpenny for yearly tenths and the sum of ten shillings and four pence halfpenny payable yearly to the Archdeacon of Wells for procurations shall continue to be charged exclusively upon that vicarage and that the charge upon the said vicarage of Puriton of eleven shillings payable to the said Archdeacon of Wells for procurations shall be charged exclusively upon the said vicarage of Puriton, the said vicarage of Puriton not being chargeable with any sum for first fruits or yearly tenths.

"That on the twenty-eighth day of September one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two the said late Archbishop caused a copy in writing of the aforesaid representation of the said Lord Bishop to be affixed on the principal outer door of each of the parish churches of the said united benefice with notice to any person or persons interested that he she or they might within six weeks from the day of affixing such notice on to the said church doors show cause in writing under his her or their hand or hands to the said late Archbishop against such disunion and no such cause has been shown.

"The representation of the said Lord Bishop of Bath and Wells the enquiry of the said late Archbishop into the circumstances of the case, the reply thereto the consent in writing of the patrons and the copies of the representation and notice before-mentioned are hereunto annexed.

"And we do hereby certify the enquiry and consent aforesaid to Your Majesty in Council to the intent that Your Majesty in Council may in case Your Majesty in Council shall think fit so to do make and issue an Order for separating the said vicarage of Woollavington from the said vicarage of Puriton and for declaring that each of the said vicarages shall retain its original endowments and emoluments and that the charges upon the said vicarage of Woollavington of eleven pounds seven shillings and eleven pence for first fruits and one pound two shillings and nine pence halfpenny for yearly tenths and the sum of ten shillings and four pence halfpenny payable yearly to the Archdeacon of Wells for procurations shall continue to be charged exclusively upon that vicarage and that the charge upon the said vicarage of Puriton of eleven shillings payable yearly to the said Archdeacon of Wells for procurations shall be charged exclusively upon the said vicarage of Puriton the said vicarage of Puriton not being chargeable for any sum for first fruits or yearly tenths.

"As witness our hand this fifth day of March in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three. "Edw. Cantuar."

Now therefore Her Majesty in Council by and with the advice of Her said Council is pleased to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the said united benefice consisting of the vicarage of Woollavington and the vicarage of Puriton shall be dis-united by separating the said vicarage of Woollavington from the said vicarage of Puriton.

And Her Majesty in Council by and with the advice of Her said Council is pleased, on the recommendation of the said Lord Archbishop with the consent of the patrons of the said benefices, to assign and attach to the said vicarages of Woollavington and Puriton respectively such endowments and emoluments as belonged originally to those benefices. And Her Majesty is also pleased to direct that the charges upon the said vicarage of Woollavington of £11 7s. 11d. for first fruits and £1 2s. 9½d. for yearly tenths and the sum of £0 10s. 4½d. payable yearly to the Archdeacon of Wells for procurations shall continue to be charged exclusively upon that vicarage and that the charge upon the said vicarage of Puriton of £0 11s. 0d. payable yearly to the said Archdeacon of Wells for procurations shall be charged exclusively upon the said vicarage of Puriton; the said vicarage of Puriton not being chargeable for any sum for first fruits or yearly tenths.
