THIS is to give notice, that the Court acting in the prosecution of an adjudication of bankruptcy, made on the 17th day of December, 1866, against William Holland Goldsmid, formerly of Church House, Stanwell, near Staines, Middlesex, then of Calais, then of Boulogne, both in France, and next of Gladstone Villa, Deal, Kent, late Stockbroker, now in no business or occupation, did, on the 30th day of April, 1867, grant the Discharge of the said bankrupt, subject to fourteen days' suspension from that date, and that such Discharge will be delivered to the bankrupt unless an appeal be duly entered against the Judgment of the Court and notice thereof be given to the Court.

The Bankruptcy Act, 1869.

In the London Bankruptcy Court.

In the Matter of John Newdegate Anstruther, late of 28, Budge-row, in the city of London, Mortgage Broker, but now of 27, Westbourne-square, in the county of Middlesex, of no occupation, a Bankrupt.

Before Mr. Registrar Murray, sitting as Chief Judge.

UPON reading a report of the Trustee of the property of the bankrupt, dated the 16th day of December, 1882, reporting there were no assets scheduled in the bankrupt's statement of affairs save book debts, the whole of which were estimated as bad, and that he had been wholly unable to collect any of the same by reason of their being undoubtedly bad, and that he had been requested by the Comptroller in Bankruptcy to close the matter, and upon hearing the application of the Trustee, and upon reading the report of the Official Assignee, dated the 29th day of January, 1883, and no creditor opposing, and the Court being satisfied that upon examining such report and the accompanying papers, with the statement of affairs filed by the bankrupt, that the report was correct, doth order and declare that the bankruptcy of the said John Newdegate Anstruther has closed.—Given under the Seal of the Court this 10th day of February, 1883.

The Bankruptcy Act, 1869.

In the County Court of Hampshire, holden at Southampton. In the Matter of Thomas Maud Roxby, a Bankrupt.

Before P. M. Leonard, Esq., Judge.

UPON reading the two reports of the Trustee of the property of the bankrupt, dated respectively the 24th day of January and the 29th day of January, 1883, and filed respectively on the 26th day of January and the 3rd day of February, 1883, reporting that the bankrupt had no property capable of realization, and that he had used every means in his power but had not been able to get in or obtain any sum on account of the bankrupt's estate, and that from the date of the filing of the petition herein to the date of such report he had received nothing whatever from the bankrupt's estate, and had not been able to realize anything on account thereof, and upon reading the affidavit of the Trustee, sworn the 18th and filed the 15th day of February, 1883, the affidavit of Edward Blackmore, sworn the 16th and filed the 17th day of March, 1883, and the two several affidavits of William Rufus Carter, sworn respectively on the 8th day of February, 1883, and the 15th day of March, 1883, and filed respectively on the 9th day of February, 1883, and the 17th day of March, 1883, and no one appearing to oppose the Trustee's application, the Court being satisfied that the bankrupt had no property capable of realization, and that the Trustee had used every means in his power, and has not been able to get in or obtain any sum on account of the bankrupt's estate, and that from the date of the filing of the petition herein to the date hereof the Trustee has had no property to realize, and has received nothing on account of the bankrupt's estate, doth order and declare that the bankruptcy of the said Thomas Maud Roxby has closed.—Given under the Seal of the Court this 20th day of March, 1883.
