*Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace,
March 20, 1883.*

NOTICE is hereby given, that His Royal Highness The Prince of Wales will, by command of The Queen, hold a Levee at St. James's Palace, on behalf of Her Majesty, on Monday, the 23rd of April next, at two o'clock.

It is The Queen's pleasure that Presentations to His Royal Highness at the Levee shall be considered as equivalent to Presentations to Her Majesty.

N.B. The Knights of the several Orders are to appear in their Collars, it being a Collar-day.

REGULATIONS

TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S LEVEE TO BE HELD BY HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS THE PRINCE OF WALES, ON BEHALF OF HER MAJESTY, AT ST. JAMES'S PALACE.

By Her Majesty's Command,

The Noblemen and Gentlemen who propose to attend Her Majesty's Levee, at St. James's Palace, are requested to bring with them two large cards, with their names clearly written thereon, one to be left with The Queen's Page in attendance in the Corridor, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to His Royal Highness.

PRESENTATIONS.

Any Nobleman or Gentleman who proposes to be presented, must leave at the Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace, before twelve o'clock, two clear days before the Levee, a card with his name written thereon, and with the name of the Nobleman or Gentleman by whom he is to be presented. In order to carry out the existing regulations that no presentation can be made at a Levee excepting by a person actually attending that Levee, it is also necessary that an intimation from the Nobleman or Gentleman who is to make the presentation, of his intention to be present, should accompany the presentation card above referred to, which will be submitted to The Queen for Her Majesty's approbation. It is Her Majesty's command that no presentations shall be made at the Levee, except in accordance with the above regulations.

It is particularly requested, that in every case the names be very distinctly written upon the cards to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them to His Royal Highness.

The State Apartments will be open for the reception of Company coming to Court at half-past one o'clock.

KENMARE,
Lord Chamberlain.

War Office, April 9, 1883.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Seventy-fifth Half-yearly General Meeting of the Proprietors in this Undertaking will be held at the Siège of the Company, Marché du Vendredi, D. No. 11, Bruges, on Monday, the 7th day of May next, at half-past eleven o'clock precisely, on the general business of the Company; and notice is also hereby given, that 177 Three per Cent. Bonds, second issue, will be drawn for re-impayment on the 1st July, 1883.

A Preliminary Meeting will be held at the offices of the Company, in London, on Friday, the 4th day of May next, at two o'clock precisely:

Dated this 4th day of April, 1883.

R. Temple Frere, President.

R. N. Collier, Secretary.

By Article 40 of the Statutes, every proprietor of shares "to bearer" is required to deposit them with the Secretary of the Company ten days at least before the General Meeting to enable him to take part in it.

R. N. Collier, Secretary.

Marine Society's Office.

54½, Bishopsgate-Street Within, E.C.,
April 6, 1883.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Quarterly Court of Governors of the Marine Society will be held at their offices, in Bishopsgate-street, London, on Saturday, the 21st day of April, 1883, at half-past one o'clock.

By order,

S. W. Sadler, R.N., Secretary.

West New Jersey Society.

A GENERAL Court of Proprietors will be held at my chambers, No. 63, Lincoln's-inn-fields, on Tuesday, the 17th day of April instant, at four o'clock precisely, for examining the accounts for the year preceding, and electing a President, Vice-President, Treasurer, Secretary, and Committeemen for the year ensuing.

F. Wickings Smith, Secretary.

In the Matter of the Companies Acts, 1862 to 1880, and of the London Steamship Company Limited.

AT an Extraordinary General Meeting of the above-named Company, duly convened and held at the Company's offices, No. 57, Gracechurch-street, London, on Monday, the 19th day of March, 1883, the following Special Resolutions were duly passed; and at a subsequent Extraordinary General Meeting of the said Company, also duly convened and held at the same place on the 9th day of April, 1883, the following Special Resolutions were duly confirmed, viz.:—

"That this Company be wound up voluntarily under the provisions of the Companies Acts, 1862 and 1867.

"That John Sheriff Hill and James Holah, of 6, Moorgate-street, in the city of London, be appointed the Liquidators for the purpose of carrying out the dissolution and winding up of this Company, and that their remuneration shall be fixed at the sum of £150.

"That the Liquidators be empowered to sell and transfer the whole or any part of the ships and property of this Company, subject to the whole or part of the debts and liabilities of the Company, and with such provisions for securing the payment and discharge of the same as they may consider expedient to a Company to be formed, under the provisions of the Joint Stock Companies Acts, with a nominal capital not exceeding £100,000, divided into 5,000 shares of £20 each, and to be registered either under the same name as this Company, or under a different name, for the purpose of carrying out objects similar to those of this Company, and to receive in compensation, or part compensation, for such sale and transfer for the purpose of distribution amongst the members of this Company shares in such new Company, so that the holders of fully paid shares in this Company shall receive in respect of every five such shares held by them two shares of £20 each fully paid up in such new Company, and that the holders of shares in this Company on which £10 has been paid shall receive in respect of every five such shares held by them one share of £20 fully paid up in such new Company, and holders of fully or partly paid shares in this Company shall respectively receive in respect of any less number than five shares in this Company two shares or one share in the new Company, with such amounts or amount treated as paid on the same as will be equal to two-fifths of the sums paid on such shares in this Company. And that the Liquidators be empowered to receive as part compensation for such transfer, bills of exchange, or other obligations of such new Company, and that a general authority may be given to the Liquidators to make any such arrangements as are referred to in the 161st section of the Companies Act, 1862, as they shall consider desirable, and that they may be empowered to carry into effect any such sale and transfer in such manner and by such declarations of trust or other instruments as they in their discretion may deem expedient.

"That the purchase money for the interest held by the dissentient members of this Company (if any) may be raised and paid by the Liquidators either by sale of the shares in the new Company to which such members, if they had not dissented, would have become entitled, or out of a sufficient portion of the assets of this Company, or by the discount or sale of bills of exchange or other obligations of the new Company as may be delivered to the Liquidators as such part compensation as aforesaid, or partly by one and partly by another or others of those means, and that the Liquidators shall, before the transfer to the new Company of the assets of this Company, make all necessary provisions for securing such payment, and that upon any such dissentient member being satisfied, the shares in the new Company to which he would have been entitled, or so many of the same as shall not have been sold, shall be the property of the new Company."

In the Matter of the Companies Acts, 1862 and 1867, and of the Abergele Hæmatite Company Limited.
