

Further Exception in favour of Movement from Northumberland or Cumberland or Berwick-upon-Tweed into Scotland.

6. Animals may be moved by land from a farm or premises in the district of the Local Authorities of the county of Northumberland or the county of Cumberland or the borough of Berwick-upon-Tweed, not in a Foot-and-Mouth Disease Infected Area or a Foot-and-Mouth Disease Infected Place or a Foot-and-Mouth Disease Infected Circle, to a farm or premises in the district of the Local Authorities of the county of Berwick or the county of Dumfries or the county of Roxburgh with a licence of the Local Authority of the county into which the animals are to be moved (if that Local Authority think fit to grant a licence for that purpose): Provided that no such licence shall in any case be granted until satisfactory evidence has been adduced to that Local Authority that the animals to be moved—

- (i.) either have been bred on the farm or premises from which they are to be moved, or have been pastured or fed thereon for a period of at least one month: and
- (ii.) have not within one month immediately before the granting of the licence been exposed in any market, fair, exhibition, or public sale in England or Wales: and
- (iii.) are not affected with foot-and-mouth disease, and have not been in contact with animals affected with or suspected of that disease.

Further Exception in favour of Movement from the Royal Agricultural Society's Show.

7. Animals exhibited at the Royal Agricultural Society's Show to be held on the Knavesmire, situate partly in the borough of York and partly in the West Riding of the county of York, on the sixteenth and following days of July, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three, may be moved by land out of that Show and then into the district of any Local Authority in Scotland with a licence of the Local Authority of the district in Scotland into which the animals are to be moved (if that Local Authority think fit to grant a licence for that purpose): Provided that such licence shall only be granted on a Certificate of Health signed by a member of the Royal College of Veterinary Surgeons, and a Certificate of the Secretary of the Show, or of some fit person appointed by him to certify on his behalf, that the animals have been exhibited in the Show.

Offences.

8. If an animal is moved in contravention of this Order, the owner thereof, and the person for the time being in charge thereof, and the person causing, directing, or permitting the movement, and the person or company moving or conveying the animal, and the owner and the charterer and the master of the vessel in which it is moved, and the consignee or other person receiving or keeping it, knowing it to have been so moved, shall, each according to and in respect of his or their own acts and defaults, be deemed guilty of an offence against the Act of 1878.

War Office, June 19, 1883.

THE Queen has been pleased to give orders for the following appointment to the Most Honourable Order of the Bath.

To be an Ordinary Member of the Civil Division of the Third Class, or Companions of the said Most Honourable Order, viz.:—

Augustus Keppel Stephenson, Esq., Solicitor to the Treasury.

EXPLOSIVES ACT, 1875 (38 Vic., c. 17).

WHEREAS by Section 68 of the above-named Act, it is provided as follows:—

“The Council of any Borough which is assessed to the county rate of any county by the Justices of such county, and the Commissioners of any Improvement District, may, by order of a Secretary of State made upon the application of such Council or Commissioners, and published in the London Gazette, be declared to be a Local Authority for the purposes of this Act, and thereupon shall become a Local Authority accordingly for such part of their borough or district as is not included in any harbour, to the exclusion of the Justices in Petty Sessions:”

And whereas an application has been made to me by the Council of the borough of Maidenhead, in the county of Berks, to be declared a Local Authority for the purposes of the said Act, in accordance with the provision aforesaid.

Now I, the Right Honourable Sir William Vernon Harcourt, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, do hereby, in virtue of the powers contained in the said section, declare the said Council of the borough of Maidenhead to be a Local Authority for the purposes of the said Act.

Whitehall, June 14, 1883.

THE FAIRS ACT, 1873.

FULBOURN FEAST FAIR.

WHEREAS a representation has been duly made to me, as Secretary of State for the Home Department, by the Justices of the Peace acting in and for the Petty Sessional Division of Bottisham, in the county of Cambridge:

That a Fair has been annually held at Fulbourn, in the said division of the said county, on the Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday following the first Sunday after Trinity, and that it would be for the convenience and advantage of the public that the said Fair should be held on a less number of days than those on which such Fair is used to be held (to wit) on the Monday and Tuesday only following the first Sunday after Trinity.

And whereas notice of the said representation, and of the time when I should take the same into consideration, has been duly given to the Justices acting in and for the Petty Sessional Division of Bottisham, in the county of Cambridge, within which division the Fair in question is held, and otherwise published in pursuance of “The Fairs Act, 1873:”

And whereas, on such representation and consideration, it appears to me that it would be for the convenience and advantage of the public that the time for the holding of the said Fair should be altered as proposed:

Now, therefore, I, as the Secretary of State for the Home Department, in exercise of the powers vested in me by “The Fairs Act, 1873,” do hereby order that the days shall be altered for the holding of the Fair which has been annually held at Fulbourn, and that the Fair hitherto held at Fulbourn, in the Petty Sessional Division of Bottisham, in the county of Cambridge, on the Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday following the first Sunday after Trinity shall, in future, be held instead on the Monday and Tuesday only following the first Sunday after Trinity in each year.

Given under my hand, at Whitehall, this 16th day of June, 1883.

W. V. Harcourt.
