THE METROPOLIS (FOOT-AND-MOUTH DISEASE) No. 2 ORDER OF 1881, AMENDMENT No. 4.

AT the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 29th day of June, 1883.

By Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

PRESENT :

Lord President.

Mr. Dodson.

THE Lords and others of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in them vested under The Contagious Diseases (Animals) Act, 1878, and of every other power enabling them in this behalf, do order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows :

1. Notwithstanding anything in Article 3 of The Metropolis (Foot-and-Mouth Disease) No. 2 Order of 1881, Amendment No. 3, animals which have been exposed in the Metropolitan Market may be moved out of the Metropolis in accordance with the provisions contained in Article 10 of The Metropolis (Foot-and-Mouth Disease) No. 2 Order of 1881, but not otherwise, which provisions are to the following effect, that is to say :—

(a.) Where animals which have been exposed in the Metropolitan Market and which are to be moved thereout to a slaughter-house out of the Metropolis, or to a licensed lair until they are moved to a slaughter-house out of the Metropolis, they must not be moved out of the Market except with a Market Pass, such as is indicated in the Form given in the Schedule to The Metropolis (Foot and Mouth Disease) No. 2 Order of 1881, or to the like effect, to be given by an officer of the Market, or other fit person appointed in that behalf by the Metropolitan Board of Works, to the owner or purchaser desirous of moving the animals out of the Metropolis.

(b.) The Market Pass must specify the licensed lair (if any) and the slaughter-house to which the animals are to be moved, and they must not be moved to any other licensed lair, slaughter-house, or place.

(c.) There must also be a Movement Licence of the Local Authority of the district in which the slaughter-house specified in the Market Pass is situate, indorsed on or referring to the Market Pass ; which Licence must be granted before the animals are moved into the district of that Local Authority.

(d.) Provided that that Local Authority may, if they think fit, from time to time, notify to the Metropolitan Board of Works that movement from the Metropolitan Market under The Metropolis (Foot and Mouth Disease) No. 2 Order of 1881 to a specified slaughterhouse in their district may be made without a Licence indorsed on or referring to the Market Pass.

- (e.) Every such notification must be in writing signed by the clerk of the Local Authority, by special direction of the Local Authority, and must be published in such manner as the Local Authority consider best fitted to insure publicity for the same, and may be at any time revoked by the Local Authority.
- (f.) Notice in writing of every such notification must be given by the Local Authority to every Railway Company having a railway in the district of the Local Authority, and no Railway Company is bound to have regard to any such notification of which notice is not so given.
- (g.) Notice of the revocation or determination of any such notification must be given in like manner to every such Railway Company; and every notification of which notice is so given must, as regards each Railway Company be treated as in force until notice of the revocation or determination thereof is so given.

2. This Order shall commence and take effect from and immediately after the first day of July, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three.

3. This Order may be cited as The Metropolis (Foot-and-Mouth Disease) No. 2 Order of 1881, Amendment No. 4. C. L. Peel.

SURREY ASSIZES.

The Honourable Mr. Baron Pollock.

The Honourable Mr. Justice Manisty.

Tuesday, July 24, at Croydon.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, sections five and eleven, do hereby grant and appropriate out of our common fund to the vicarage of Saint Mellons, in the county of Monmouth, and in the diocese of Llandaff, one capital sum of nine hundred and thirty pounds sterling, to be applicable towards defraying the cost of improving the parsonage or house of residence belonging to the said vicarage, according to plans and a specification approved or to be approved by us, such capital sum, or the balance thereof unapplied to such purpose, to remain in the meantime in our hands at interest after the rate of three pounds per centum per annum, and such interest to be paid to the Incumbent for the time being of the said vicarage of Saint Mellons.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this twenty-first day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three.

(L.S.)

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in consideration of a benefaction of six hundred and fifty pounds sterling, which has been paid to us in favour of the vicarage of Saint John, Fenwick, in the county of York, and in the diocese of York, and in respect of which we have agreed to pay to the Incumbent of the same vicarage, and to his successors, a yearly sum of twenty-one pounds thirteen shillings and four pence, do hereby, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, grant to the Incumbent of the said vicarage of Saint John, Fenwick, and to his successors, to meet such benefaction, one other yearly sum or stipend of twenty-one pounds thirteen shillings and four pence, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the day of the publication of these presents in the London Gazette, and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions, on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient, in our opinion, to produce the yearly sum or stipend so payable out of our common fund as lastly herein mentioned, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said vicarage, in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this twenty-first day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in consideration of a benefaction, consisting of certain inappropriate tithe commutation rent-charges amounting to thirty-eight pounds and sixteen shillings per annum, which have been permanently secured to the united vicarages and benefice (hereinafter called the benefice) of Shouldham, with Shouldham Thorpe, in the county of Norfolk, and in the diocese of Norwich, do hereby, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, grant to the Incumbent of the said benefice of Shouldham, with Shouldham Thorpe, and to his successors, to meet such benefaction, one yearly sum or stipend of thirty four pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the ninth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three, and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions, on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient, in our opinion, to produce the said yearly sum or stipend, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said benefice, in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this twenty-first day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three.

(L.S.)

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in consideration of a benefaction of four hundred pounds sterling, which has been paid to us in favour of the vicarage of Saint Peter, Askern, in the county of York, and in the diocese of York, and in respect of which we have agreed to pay to the Incumbent of the same vicarage, and to his successors, a yearly sum of thirteen pounds six shillings and eight pence, do hereby, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, grant to the Incumbent of the said vicarage of Saint Peter, Askern, and to his successors, to meet such benefaction, one other yearly sum or stipend of thirteen pounds six shillings and eight pence, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the day of the publication of these presents in the London Gazette, and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions, on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient, in our opinion, to produce the yearly sum or stipend so payable out of our common fund, as lastly herein mentioned, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said vicarage, in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this twenty-first day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three.

(L.S.)

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in consideration of a benefaction of one thousand pounds sterling, which has been paid to us in favour of the consolidated chapelry and benefice (hereinafter called the benefice), of Saint Peter, Aintree, in the county of Lancaster, and in the diocese of Liverpool, and of a further benefaction, consisting of a piece or parcel of land, comprising two thousand eight hundred and thirty-two square yards (or thereabouts), which has been permanently secured to the same benefice as a site for a parsonage house, do hereby, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, sections five and eleven, grant to the Incumbent of the said benefice of Saint Peter, Aintree, and to his successors, Incumbents thereof, to meet the said benefactions, one yearly sum or stipend of sixteen pounds thirteen shillings and four pence, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the day of the publication of these presents in the London Gazette, and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions, on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year: And we do also, in further consideration of the aforesaid benefactions, hereby grant and appropriate out of our said common fund to the said benefice of Saint Peter, Aintree, one capital sum of one thousand pounds sterling, to be applicable towards defraying the cost of providing a parsonage or house of residence for the said benefice, according to plans and a specification approved or to be approved by us, such capital sum, or the balance thereof unapplied to such purpose, to remain in the meantime in our hands at interest after the rate of three pounds per centum per annum, and such interest to be paid to the Incumbent for the time being of the said benefice of Saint Peter, Aintree: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient, in our opinion, to produce the said yearly sum or stipend of sixteen pounds thirteen shillings and four pence, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said benefice, in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this twenty-first day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three.

(L.S.)

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby, subject as hereinafter mentioned, grant to the Incumbent of the vicarage of Homington, in the county of Wilts, and in the diocese of Salisbury, one yearly sum or stipend of fifteen pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the twenty-ninth day of September, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two, and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions, on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that upon and from the date of the avoidance of the said vicarage by the Reverend Henry Smith Pollard, the present Incumbent thereof, our liability for the payment of the said yearly sum or stipend of fifteen pounds shall absolutely cease and determine.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this twenty-first day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three.

(L.S.)

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby, subject as hereinafter mentioned, grant to the Incumbent of the vicarage of Ipplepen, in the county of Devon, and in the diocese of Exeter, and to his successors, Incumbents of the same vicarage, one yearly sum or stipend of one hundred and sixty-nine pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the first day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three, and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions, on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year:

Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient, in our opinion, to produce the said yearly sum or stipend, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said vicarage, in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this twenty-first day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three.

(L.S.)

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby, subject as hereinafter mentioned, grant to the Incumbent for the time being of the vicarage of Bedminster, partly in the city and county of Bristol, and partly in the county of Somerset, and in the diocese of Gloucester and Bristol, one yearly sum or stipend of one hundred and twenty pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the third day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three, and to be receivable in four equal portions, on the first day of February, the first day of May, the first day of August, and the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that the annual sum or stipend so granted by us to the Incumbent of the said vicarage, shall be paid only upon the production to us, on or after each of the said lastly-mentioned days in each and every year of a certificate under the hand of the Bishop of the said diocese of Gloucester and Bristol, that an Assistant-Curate, duly licensed by such Bishop, has been employed within the parish of Bedminster aforesaid, during the quarter of the year then ended, and is in receipt of a salary after a rate of not less than one hundred and twenty pounds per annum: Provided also, that such yearly sum or stipend shall continue payable as aforesaid so long only as may to us appear to be expedient under the circumstances from time to time affecting the said parish and vicarage of Bedminster.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this twenty-first day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three.

(L.S.)

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, sections five and eleven, do hereby grant to the Incumbent of the vicarage of Wembury, in the county of Devon, and in the diocese of Exeter, and to his successors, Incumbents of the same vicarage, one yearly sum or stipend of one hundred and eighty-seven pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the twenty-fifth day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three, and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions, on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year: And we do also hereby grant and appropriate out of our said common fund, to the said vicarage of Wembury, one capital sum of one thousand and five hundred pounds sterling, to be applicable towards defraying the cost of providing a parsonage or house of residence for the said vicarage, according to plans and a specification approved or to be approved by us, such capital sum, or the balance thereof unapplied to such purpose, to remain in the meantime in our hands at interest after the rate of three pounds per centum per annum, and such interest to be paid to the Incumbent for the time being of the said vicarage of Wembury: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient, in our opinion, to produce the said yearly sum or stipend of one hundred and eighty-seven pounds, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said vicarage, in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this twenty-first day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three.

(L.S.)

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby, subject as hereinafter mentioned, grant to the Incumbent of the vicarage of Woodland, in the county of Devon, and in the diocese of Exeter, and to his successors, Incumbents of the same vicarage, one yearly sum or stipend of ninety-eight pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the first day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three, and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions, on the first day of May, and on the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient, in our opinion, to produce the said yearly sum or stipend, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said vicarage, in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

In witness whereof we have hereunto set our common seal, this twenty-first day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three.

SOLDIERS' BALANCES UNCLAIMED.

IN pursuance of the "Regimental Debts Act, 1863," notice is hereby given, that Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the War Department has available, for distribution amongst the Next of Kin or others entitled, the sum of money set opposite to the name of each of the deceased soldiers named in the list which is published with this notice in the London Gazette, and the "Army List," and is also to be seen at the Regimental Districts and at the Quarters of the several Staff Officers for the Pension Service throughout the United Kingdom.

Applications from persons supposing themselves entitled as Next of Kin should be addressed by letter to "The Under Secretary of State, War Office, London, S.W.," and marked outside "Soldier's Effects."

No application can be attended to which does not state the date and place of the soldier's birth, enlistment, and death, and the name of his regiment; his regimental number should also be stated if known.

Should these particulars furnished by the applicant not agree with the facts recorded on the War Office documents relating to the deceased soldier, the applicant will be so informed; but should they agree therewith, then within three calendar months the Secretary of State will furnish the applicant with the usual requirements needed for the proof of the alleged relationship.

The application must be authenticated by the signature of the applicant, and his name should be affixed in the presence of the clergyman, or one of the churchwardens of the parish, or a Justice of the Peace; the applicant's address, with the name of the post town, must also be clearly stated. No personal application can receive attention.

Further lists will from time to time be published, and therefore it will facilitate the applicant's inquiries to give the number and date of the notice in which the deceased soldier's name appeared.—EFFECTS, 1882-83.

By order of the said Principal Secretary,
RALPH THOMPSON.

NOTE.—A copy of this Notice is to be seen at the Regimental Districts and at the Quarters of the several Staff Officers for the Pension Service throughout the United Kingdom.

F. May, Chief Cashier.

In the Matter of the Great Western Electric Light and Power Company Limited and Reduced, and in the Matter of the Companies Acts, 1867 and 1877.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a petition has been presented to the High Court of Justice for confirming special resolutions of the above Company for reducing its capital from £250,000 to £195,000. A list of the creditors and persons having claims upon the said Company on the 15th day of June, 1883, may be inspected at the offices of the Company, No. 31, Lombard-street, in the city of London, or at the offices of Messrs. Ashurst, Morris, Crisp, and Co., at No. 6, Old Jewry, in the city of London, the Solicitors for the said Company, at any time during usual business hours, on payment of the charge of one shilling. Any person who claims to have been on the last-mentioned day, and still to be, a creditor of the Company, and who is not entered on the said list, and claims to be so entered, must, on or before the 23rd day of July, 1883, send in his name and address, and the particulars of his claim, and the name and address of his Solicitor (if any), to the undersigned, at No. 6, Old Jewry, London, E.C., or in default thereof he will be precluded from objecting to the proposed reduction of capital.

—Dated this 26th day of June, 1883.
 Ashurst, Morris, Crisp, and Co., of No. 6, Old Jewry, London, E.C., Solicitors for the said Company.
