

in the words and figures following; that is to say:—

“We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Your Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty-five; have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of the Holy Trinity situate at Lawkholme within the limits of the parish of Keighley in the county of York and in the diocese of Ripon.

“Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of the Holy Trinity situate at Lawkholme as aforesaid.

“Now therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Robert Bishop of the said diocese of Ripon (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Keighley which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of the Holy Trinity situate at Lawkholme as aforesaid, and that the same should be named ‘The District Chapelry of the Holy Trinity Lawkholme.’

“And with the like consent of the said Robert Bishop of the said diocese of Ripon (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at the said church of the Holy Trinity situate at Lawkholme as aforesaid, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us the said Commissioners to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism or for the registration thereof.

“We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration and to make such Order with respect thereto as to Your Majesty, in Your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

“The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

“The District Chapelry of the Holy Trinity Lawkholme being:—

“All that part of the parish of Keighley in the county of York and in the diocese of Ripon wherein the present incumbent of such parish still possesses the exclusive cure of soul which is bounded on the west by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the new parish of Eastwood in the county and diocese aforesaid from the parish of Keighley aforesaid at the point where Wellington-street joins Low-street and extending thence westward along the middle of the last-named street for a distance of thirty-five yards or thereabouts to its junction with Hanover-street and extending thence northward along the middle of the last-named street for a distance of 150 yards or thereabouts to its junction with Bow-street and extending thence westward along the middle of the last-named street for a distance of 208 yards or thereabouts to its junction with North-street and extending thence first northward and then north-westward along the middle of the last-named street for a distance of 1565 yards or thereabouts to its junction with the public footpath which leads past the northern side of the buildings called or known as Royd Works to Stock Bridge and extending thence first north-eastward and then eastward along the middle of the said public footpath for a distance of 135 yards or thereabouts to the point near the mile-post on the line of the Midland Railway which mile-post indicates a distance of 18 miles from Leeds, at which point the said public footpath crosses the middle of the said line of railway and extending thence north-eastward and in a direct line for a distance of 155 yards or thereabouts to the boundary in the middle of the River Aire which boundary divides the said parish of Keighley from the new parish of Saint Mary Riddlesden in the county and diocese aforesaid; all which said hereinbefore described part of the parish of Keighley aforesaid is bounded upon the remaining sides other than upon the west as aforesaid that is to say, upon the north and upon the south-east as follows upon the north by the said new parish of Saint Mary Riddlesden and upon the south-east by the new parish of Eastwood aforesaid.”

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Ripon.
