

by such representation one month before the said fifteenth day of September.

C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 19th day of July, 1883.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the eighteenth and nineteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act further to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England," it is, amongst other things, enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, from time to time to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, shall or shall not have arrived), as to Her Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, may seem fit:

And whereas Orders in Council have been made directing the discontinuance of burials in the churchyards hereinafter-mentioned from the time specified in such Orders; and whereas it seems fit to Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, that the time for discontinuing burials in the said churchyards be postponed:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the time for the discontinuance of burials in such churchyards be postponed as follows, viz.:—

In the parish churchyard of Arundel, in the county of Sussex, to the thirty-first day of July, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three.

In the parish churchyard of Urchfont, in the county of Wilts, to the thirty-first day of December, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three.

In the parish churchyard of Layston, in the county of Hertford, to the first day of September, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three.

In the parish churchyard of Cople, in the county of Bedford, to the thirty-first day of July, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three.

In the churchyard of Skirlaugh, in the county of York, to the thirty-first day of December, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three.

In the parish churchyard of St. Clement's, Terrington, in the county of Norfolk, to the thirty-first day of December, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three.

In the parish churchyard of Buckden, in the county of Huntingdon, to the first day of September, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three.

In the parish churchyard of Dawlish, in the county of Devon, to the thirty-first day of December, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three.

C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 19th day of July, 1883.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Right Honourable Sir William Vernon Harcourt, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after giving to the Incumbents and the Churchwardens of the parishes hereinafter mentioned ten days' previous notice of his intention to make such representation, has, under the provisions of an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England beyond the limits of the Metropolis, and to amend the Act concerning the burial of the dead in the Metropolis," made a representation stating that, for the protection of the public health, no new burial-ground should be opened in the undermentioned parishes without the previous consent of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and that burials should be discontinued therein, with the following modifications, viz.:—

BARROWDEN.—Forthwith and entirely in the General Baptist Chapel, in the parish of Barrowden, in the county of Rutland; and also in the chapelyard, except for the interment, at their decease, of the following persons, viz.:—Annie Culpin, Sarah Andrews, James Eyre Andrews, Thomas Swift, Mary Ann Swift, and Rachael Lumby, on condition that (1) no coffin be buried in any unwallled grave within four feet of the ordinary level of the ground,—and (2) that no burial take place within the distance of twelve feet of any dwelling.

NORWOOD.—Forthwith and entirely in the parish church of Norwood, in the county of Middlesex; and also in the churchyard except as follows:—In such vaults and wholly walled graves as are now existing in the churchyard burials may be allowed on condition that every coffin buried therein be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented.

STOWE.—Forthwith and entirely in the parish church of Stowe, in the county of Buckingham; and also in the churchyard after the first October, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three, except as follows:—

(a.) In such wholly walled graves as are now existing in the churchyard burials may be allowed of members of the families to whom they belong on condition that every coffin buried therein be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented:

(b.) In such partly walled graves as are now existing in the churchyard, provided that the earth above them can be opened to the depth of five feet without exposing coffins or disturbing human remains, burials may be allowed of so many of the relations of those already interred therein as can be buried at or below that depth:

(c.) In such earthen graves now existing in the churchyard, as can be opened to the depth of five feet without exposing coffins or disturbing human remains, burials may be allowed of so many of the following relations of those already interred therein, viz.: widows and widowers, as can be buried at or below that depth.

WILLIAN.—Forthwith and entirely in the parish church of Willian, in the county of Hertford; and also in the churchyard after the thirty-first March, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four, except as follows:—

(a.) In such vaults and wholly walled graves as are now existing in the churchyard burials may be allowed on condition that every coffin buried therein be separately
