TUESDAY, AUGUST 28, 1883.

Her Majesty's Most Gracious Speech, delivered by the Lords Commissioners, to both Houses of Parliament on Saturday, August 25, 1883.

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

IN releasing you from your protracted labours, I use the occasion to acknowledge your unremitting energy and devotion in the fulfilment of the great trust committed to you.

The harmony of my relations with Foreign Governments continues to be undisturbed.

The Conference, assembled in London for the settlement of various questions connected with the free navigation of the Danube, has, by the conciliatory attitude of the countries represented in it, arrived at an agreement favourable to commerce.

The work of administrative reorganisation in Egypt, though retarded at important points by the visitation of cholera, has steadily advanced.

The aim of the temporary occupation of the country by my military forces, the considerations which must supply the measure of its duration, and the constant direction of my efforts to the maintenance of established rights, to the tranquillity of the East, and to the welfare of the Egyptian people, have been more than once explained to you, and they remain unchanged.

Occurrences arising out of the French operations in Madagascar form the subject of communications which the Government of France, which, conducted in the spirit of friendship, will, I doubt not, lead to satisfactory results. In connection with these occurrences, my attention has been, and will continue to be, steadily directed to all which may affect the rights or liberties of my subjects.

My hopes for the re-establishment of stable peace and order in Zululand have not as yet been fulfilled, and the working of the Convention with the Transvaal Government has proved, in certain respects, to be far from satisfactory.

In regard to the first, I shall, while avoiding all gratuitous interference, study to maintain such engagements as I have contracted, and keep steadily in view the security of the border of Natal.

The questions of frontier policy opened by the second, which in different forms have for so long a time constituted the main difficulty in the administration of my South African Possessions, will, with other points, shortly be discussed in this country between my Ministers and the confidential Envoys who are to be despatched from the Transvaal for the purpose.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons,

I thank you for the liberal supplies by which you have enabled me to make adequate provision for the public establishments and other services of the country during the current year.

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

The Revenue has thus far not fallen short of its anticipated amount; the condition of the classes suffering from the depression of agriculture has, in most districts of the country, shown some degree of improvement; and the general state of trade and industry is sound.

I can refer with greater satisfaction than on some former occasions to the condition of Ireland. Except in regard to the disposal of Appeals, where there is still much to be desired, the action of the appointed Tribunals has brought into wide operation the provisions of the Land Act; the late combination against the fulfilment of contracts, especially for rent, has been in a great degree broken up; there is a marked diminution of agrarian crime; and associations, having murder for their object, have been checked by the detection and punishment of offenders.

The expectations of more successful progress in the work of legislation, which I expressed to you at the close of the last Session of Parliament, have not been wholly disappointed; and I have cordially given my assent to many measures of public usefulness.

The Acts, which secure due compensation to improving occupiers of land in England and Scotland respectively, and comprise other valuable provisions, will, I trust, tend alike to the promotion of confidence between classes, and to the more advantageous prosecution of the great business of agriculture.

The new Law relating to Corrupt Practices at Elections will not only tend towards extinguishing the grosser forms of mischief, at which it is particularly aimed, but will, by reducing the expense of Parliamentary Elections, give increased freedom of choice to the constituencies, and thus promote the more efficient representation of all classes in the great Council of the nation.

The Act for the improvement of the Law of Bankruptcy appears well adapted to fulfil the favourable anticipations with which it has been received by the commercial and trading community; and the Act concerning Patents will be found greatly to improve the position of inventors, in whose ingenuity and resource the public has a substantial interest.

The provision which you have made for further securing a continuous redemption of the National Debt will materially aid the maintenance of the public credit.

The Act for the encouragement of Irish industry and enterprise by improvement of communications, and for the further relief of particular districts by emigration and migration, supplies a new proof of your anxiety to promote the prosperity of Ireland.

The remission of Parliamentary labour which you have so amply earned will bring with it the discharge of important duties, both personal and public, in your respective districts. Alike in these, and in the arduous exertions which may be demanded from you in coming Sessions, I trust that the favour of Providence may uniformly guide you to promote the object of my constant solicitude—the welfare and happiness of my people.

Then a Commission for proroguing the Parliament was read; after which the Lord Chancellor said:

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

By virtue of Her Majesty's Commission, under the Great Seal, to us and other Lords directed, and now read, we do, in Her Majesty's name, and in obedience to Her commands, prorogue this Parliament to Monday, the twelfth day of November next, to be then here holden; and this Parliament is accordingly prorogued to Monday, the twelfth day of November next.

"1. There is in the county of Cornwall and my diocese of Truro the vicarage of Kenwyn which comprises the parish of Kenwyn and the parochial chapelry of Kea excepting such parts of the said parish and chapelry respectively as have been separated therefrom for ecclesiastical purposes and thrown into the ecclesiastical districts of Chacewater, Baldbu, Mithian, Saint John and Saint George and in this representation and the scheme subjoined thereto the terms 'Parish of Kenwyn' and the 'Parochial Chapelry of Kea' hereinafter used respectively mean the parish of Kenwyn and the parochial chapelry of Kea exclusive of the parts so separated therefrom respectively as aforesaid.

"2. The parochial chapelry of Kea includes the Manor of Tregavethan which is separately mapped and has a separate apportionment of the rent-charge in lieu of tithes payable in respect thereof and the rectorial tithes of the same manor which formerly belonged to Lord Falmouth were some time since transferred by him to the vicar of Kenwyn in exchange for the major part of the glebe lands belonging to the said vicarage within the parish of Kea.

"3. The boundaries of the parish of Kenwyn and of the parochial chapelry of Kea and of the said manor of Tregavethan are respectively well known and defined.

"4. According to the last census the population of the parish of Kenwyn was 1,138 of the manor of Tregavethan 47 and of the parochial chapelry of Kea 788.

“We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration and to make such Order with respect thereto as to Your Majesty, in your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 23rd day of August, 1883.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her Majesty chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty chapter one hundred and thirteen the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her Majesty chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her Majesty chapter one hundred and fourteen duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the nineteenth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three, in the words following, that is to say:—

“We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Your Majesty chapter thirty-nine and of the Acts therein recited that is to say the Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty chapter one hundred and thirteen the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Your Majesty chapter thirty-nine and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Your Majesty chapter one hundred and fourteen have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the church and cure (which said church and cure are hereinafter called “the said benefice”) of Monk Wearmouth in the county of Durham and in the diocese of Durham.

“Whereas the said advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Monk Wearmouth is vested for an estate in fee simple in possession in Sir Hedworth Williamson, of Whitburn, near Sunderland, in the said county of Durham, Baronet.

“And whereas the said Sir Hedworth Williamson is desirous that the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Monk Wearmouth now vested in him as aforesaid should be transferred to and should be vested in the Bishop for the time being of the said diocese of Durham.

“And whereas the Right Reverend Joseph Barber now Bishop of the said diocese of Durham is willing to accept for himself and his successors in the See of Durham the said proposed transfer, and in token of such his willingness and also in token that the same transfer has that consent of the Bishop of the diocese which by the Acts hereinbefore mentioned or by some or one of them is made necessary he the said Joseph Barber Bishop of Durham has executed this scheme as hereinafter mentioned.

“And whereas it appears to us that the transfer of the patronage of the said benefice of Monk

Wearmouth which is hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed will tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the parish of Monk Wearmouth (being the parish in or in respect of which the said right of patronage and advowson arises and exists) by rendering the said benefice more eligible than it is at present for augmentation out of funds under our control.

“Now therefore with the consent of the said Sir Hedworth Williamson (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme) and with the consent of the said Joseph Barber Bishop of the said diocese of Durham (in testimony whereof he has signed this scheme and sealed the same with his episcopal seal) we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of an Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Monk Wearmouth now vested in the said Sir Hedworth Williamson and his heirs and assigns as aforesaid shall be transferred from the said Sir Hedworth Williamson and from his heirs and assigns to the said Joseph Barber, or other the then Bishop of the said diocese of Durham, as such Bishop; and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Joseph Barber or other the then Bishop of the said diocese of Durham and his successors Bishops of the same diocese for ever.

“And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of either of them or of any other Act of Parliament.”

"Now therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Richard Bishop of the said diocese of Chichester (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Brighton which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of All Souls situate in the same parish as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of All Souls Brighton.'

"And with the like consent of the said Richard Bishop of the said diocese of Chichester (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at the said church of All Souls situate in the parish of Brighton as aforesaid, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us the said Commissioners to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism or for the registration thereof.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration and to make such Order with respect thereto as to Your Majesty, in Your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

(the said East Gate being opposite the point where the road called Evelyn-terrace joins East Park-road) and extending thence that is from the said East Gate first south-eastward to and then south-westward along the middle of East Park-road aforesaid for a distance of 21½ chains or thereabouts, thereby passing along the south-eastern side of Queen's Park aforesaid, to the junction of the said last-named road with Eastern-road and with Upper Bedford-street and continuing thence still south-westward along the middle of the last-named street for a distance of 10½ chains or thereabouts to its junction with Upper St. James's-street with Bristol-road and with Bedford-street and continuing thence still south-westward along the middle of the last-named street for a distance of 5½ chains or thereabouts to its junction with the roadway called or known as Marine-parade and continuing thence still in precisely the same direction that is to say south-westward and in a straight line across the said Marine-parade and across the roadway called or known as Madeira-drive to the southern boundary of the parish of Brighton aforesaid upon the seashore.

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Chichester.
