

The Act for the encouragement of Irish industry and enterprise by improvement of communications, and for the further relief of particular districts by emigration and migration, supplies a new proof of your anxiety to promote the prosperity of Ireland.

The remission of Parliamentary labour which you have so amply earned will bring with it the discharge of important duties, both personal and public, in your respective districts. Alike in these, and in the arduous exertions which may be demanded from you in coming Sessions, I trust that the favour of Providence may uniformly guide you to promote the object of my constant solicitude—the welfare and happiness of my people.

Then a Commission for proroguing the Parliament was read; after which the Lord Chancellor said:

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

By virtue of Her Majesty's Commission, under the Great Seal, to us and other Lords directed, and now read, we do, in Her Majesty's name, and in obedience to Her commands, prorogue this Parliament to Monday, the twelfth day of November next, to be then here holden; and this Parliament is accordingly prorogued to Monday, the twelfth day of November next.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 23rd day of August, 1883.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the tenth year of the reign of Her Majesty, intituled "An Act for the more easy recovery of small debts and demands in England," it is, amongst other things, enacted that it should be lawful for Her Majesty, with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order that the said Act be put in force in such county or counties as to Her Majesty, with the advice aforesaid, should seem fit, and to divide the whole or part of any such county (including all counties of cities and counties of towns, cities, boroughs, towns, ports, and places, liberties and franchises therein contained or thereunto adjoining) into districts; and to order that the County Court should be holden for the recovery of debts and demands under the said Act in each of such districts; and from time to time to alter such districts as to Her Majesty, with the advice aforesaid, should seem fit; and from time to time with the advice aforesaid, to declare by what name and in what towns and places the County Court should be holden in each district:

And whereas Her Majesty was pleased, by an Order in Council of the ninth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and forty-seven, to order that the said Act be put in force in the counties and places therein specified, and the same was put in force accordingly:

And whereas by certain other Acts made and passed in the thirteenth, in the fourteenth, in the sixteenth, in the twentieth, in the twenty-second, in the twenty-ninth, in the thirty-first, and in the thirty-ninth years of the reign of Her Majesty the provisions of the said recited Act have been amended and extended:

And whereas it hath been represented that it would be of advantage to the public if certain alterations were made in some of the districts of the Courts specified and set forth in the aforesaid Order.

Her Majesty, having taken the premises into consideration, is thereupon pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that from and after the thirtieth day of September, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three—

The parish of Kirkby-in-Ashfield, now in the District of the County Court of Derbyshire, holden at Alfreton, shall be in the District of the County Court of Nottinghamshire, holden at Mansfield.

The townships of Blaydon and Gibside, in the parish of Gateshead and Gateshead Fell, and the parishes of Chopwell, Crawcrook, Ryton, Ryton Woodside, Stella, Whickham and Winlaton, now in the District of the County Court of Durham, holden at Gateshead, and the parish of Wylam, now in the District of the County Court of Northumberland holden at Hexham, shall be in the District of the County Court of Northumberland holden at Newcastle-on-Tyne.

The township of Hayfield, now in the District of the County Court of Derbyshire holden at Glossop, shall be in the District of the County Court of Derbyshire holden at Chapel-en-le-Frith, Buxton, and New Mills.

The parish of Cramlington and Longbenton, including the highway townships of Long Benton, Walker, Little Benton, Killingworth, and Weetslade, now in the District of the County Court of Northumberland holden at North Shields, shall be in the District of the County Court of Northumberland holden at Newcastle-on-Tyne.

C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 23rd day of August, 1883.

PRESENT:

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the tenth year of the reign of Her Majesty, intituled "An Act for the more easy recovery of small debts and demands in England," it is, among other things, enacted that it should be lawful for Her Majesty, with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order that the said Act be put in force in such county or counties as to Her Majesty, with the advice aforesaid, should seem fit, and to divide the whole or part of any such county (including all counties of cities and counties of towns, cities, boroughs, towns, ports, and places, liberties, and franchises therein contained or thereunto adjoining), into districts, and to order that the County Court should be holden for the recovery of debts and demands, under the said Act, in each of such districts; and, from time to time, to alter such districts, as to Her Majesty, with the advice aforesaid, should seem fit; and, from time to time, with the advice aforesaid, to declare by what name, and in what towns and places, the County Court should be holden in each district:

And whereas Her Majesty was pleased, by an Order in Council, of the ninth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and forty-seven, to order that the said Act be put in force in the counties and places therein specified, and the same was put in force accordingly:
