

And whereas it is also enacted that "it shall be lawful for Her Majesty in Council, on the recommendation of the Archbishop of the Province, with the consent of the patron or patrons of such benefices respectively (such consent to be signified in writing under the hands of such patron or patrons) to assign and attach such portion of the glebe lands, tithes, moduses, rent-charges, or other endowments or emoluments belonging to or arising or accruing within the limits of such united benefice to each of such benefices respectively as to Her Majesty in Council shall seem fit, notwithstanding such proportion of glebe land, tithes, rent-charges, moduses, or other endowments or emoluments or any part thereof, may not arise or accrue within the limits of the benefice to which the same shall be so assigned and attached as aforesaid, or may not have belonged thereto, and also to divide and apportion between such benefices all such charges and outgoings as before the disunion thereof were imposed upon the whole united benefice."

And whereas on the 3rd day of March 1883 John Thomas Lord Bishop of Norwich made a representation to the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury in the words and figures following:—

"To the Most Reverend Edward White Lord Archbishop of Canterbury.

"I John Thomas Lord Bishop of Norwich do hereby represent to your Grace that it appears to me that the disunion of the united vicarages of Walton and Felixstow in the county of Suffolk and my diocese of Norwich by the separation of the said vicarage of Walton from the said vicarage of Felixstow may be made with advantage to the interests of religion.

"Witness my hand this third day of March in the year of our Lord 1883.

"John T. Norwich."

And whereas the Lord Archbishop thereupon enquired into the circumstances of the case and on the second day of August 1883 certified to Her Majesty in Council as follows, that is to say:—

"That the Honourable and Right Reverend John Thomas Lord Bishop of Norwich as Bishop of the diocese within which is situate the united benefice consisting of the vicarages of Walton and Felixstow in the county of Suffolk having represented unto us that the disunion of the said united vicarages by the separation of the said vicarage of Walton from the said vicarage of Felixstow might be made with advantage to the interests of religion. We enquired into the circumstances of the case.

"That on such enquiry it appeared to us that such union might be usefully dissolved and that Charles James Maunder of Walton aforesaid Esquire being the patron or person entitled to present to the said united benefice if the same were now vacant has signified his consent in writing to such proposed disunion.

"That six weeks and upwards before certifying such enquiry and consent to Your Majesty in Council we caused a copy in writing of the aforesaid representation of the said Lord Bishop to be affixed on the principal outer door of each of the parish churches of the said united benefice with notice to any person or persons interested that he she or they might within such six weeks show cause in writing under his her or their hand or hands to us the said Archbishop against such disunion and no such cause has been shown

"The representation of the said Lord Bishop of Norwich our inquiry into the circumstances of the case, the reply thereto, the consent in writing of the patron and the copies of the representation and notice before mentioned are hereunto annexed.

"And we do hereby certify the enquiry and consent aforesaid to Your Majesty in Council to the intent that Your Majesty in Council may in case Your Majesty in Council shall think fit so to do make and issue an Order for separating the said vicarage of Walton from the said vicarage of Felixstow. And in accordance with the consent in writing of the patron before referred to we recommend Your Majesty in Council that each of the said benefices when disunited shall retain its own original endowments and emoluments.

"As witness our hand the second day of August one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three.

"Edw. Cantuar."

Now therefore Her Majesty in Council by and with the advice of Her said Council is pleased to order as it is hereby ordered that the said united benefice consisting of the vicarages of Walton and Felixstow shall be disunited by separating the said vicarage of Walton from the said vicarage of Felixstow.

And Her Majesty in Council by and with the advice of Her said Council is pleased, on the recommendation of the said Archbishop, to assign and attach to each of the said benefices its own original endowments and emoluments and to direct that each benefice shall bear and pay its own original charges and outgoings.

At the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 23rd day of August, 1883.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council,

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the second day of August in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three in the words following; that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Your Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of All Saints situate at Ffynon Groyw, in the parish of Llanasa in the county of Flint and in the diocese of Saint Asaph.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of All Saints situate at Ffynon Groyw aforesaid.

"Now therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Joshua Bishop of the said diocese of Saint Asaph (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Llanasa which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part,
