And whereas by an Act passed in the 37th year of Her Majesty's reign, chapter 88, intituled "The Slave Trade Act, 1873," it was, amongst other things, provided that, "where any Treaty in relation to the Slave Trade is made after the passing of that Act, by or on behalf of Her Majesty with any Foreign State, Her Majesty may, by Order in Council, direct that as from such date, not being earlier than the date of the Treaty, as may be specified in the Order, such Treaty shall be deemed to be an existing Slave Trade Treaty within the meaning of the Act," and it was further provided that thereupon (as from the said date, or, if no date should be specified, as from the date of such Order), all the provisions of the Act should apply and be construed accordingly.

And whereas it is expedient that the said Declaration should be brought within the operation of "The Slave Trade Act 1873."

And whereas an Order in Council for the purpose of carrying out that object was passed on the nineteenth day of July last, and it is expedient that the said Order in Council should be repealed, and a fresh Order in Council issued in lieu thereof.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in this behalf, is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

The Order in Council of the nineteenth of July last, which purported to bring the said Declaration within the operation of "The Slave Trade Act, 1873," is hereby repealed.

The said Declaration of the third day of March, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three, shall from the day of the date of the said Declaration be deemed to have been and to be an existing Slave Trade Treaty within the meaning of the said Slave Trade Act, 1873.

And the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, the Right Honourable the Earl Granville, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, are to give the necessary directions herein, as to them may respectively appertain.

C. L. Peel.
