Westminster, Jan. 27.

THIS day His Majesty came to the House of Lords, attended with the usual Solemnity; and being in His Royal Robes, seated on the Throne, and the Commons being sent for up, His Majesty gave the Royal Assent to

An Act for the Review of the Poll-Bill, and for an Additional Poll.

An Act to Prevent vexatious Suits against such as acted in order to their bringing in Their Majesties, or for Their Service.

An Act for the better Security and Relief of the Irish Protestants.

An Act to Discharge the Duke of Norfolk, upon Payment of certain Sums of Money to the Lady Elizabeth Teresa Russell, Wife of Bartholomew Russell Esq.

An Act to enable the Earl of Radnor to make a Jointure to his Wife, and to raise a Sum of Money out of divers Lands and Tenements in Cornwall.

An Act to enable Thomas Edon Esq; to sell Lands to pay his Debts, and to make Provision for his Wife, and for his Children, in case he shall have any.

An Act to enable William Barton Esq; to sell Lands in the County of Oxon, and to purchase and settle an Estate in the County of Suffolk, to the same Uses.

After which His Majesty made a most Gracious Speech to both Houses, which follows.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

I Am so sensible of the Readiness you have shewed to Supply me with Money for the Carrying on the Wars I am engaged in, that I am glad of this Occasion to give you Thanks for your Cheerful dispatch of that Matter, which was absolutely necessary for the Common Safety.

The best Return I can make to your Kindness is, to assure you, That, as far as it will go, it shall all be employed to the Purposes it was Given.

It is a very sensible Affliction to Me, to see My good People Brethren'd with Heavy Taxes; But since the speedy Recovery of Ireland is, in My Opinion, the only Means to Ease them, and to Preserve the Peace and Honour of the Nation, I am resolv'd for your Cheerful dispatch of that Matter, with the Blessing of GOD Almighty, endeavour to Reduce that Kingdom, that it may no longer be a Charge to this.

And as I have already ventured My Life for the Preservation of the Religion, Laws and Liberties, of this Nation; So I am now willing again to expose it to Secure you the quiet Enjoyment of them.

The Spring draws on, and it being requisite I should be early in the Field, I must immediately apply my Thoughts to the giving Orders for the necessary Preparations; Which that I may have the more Leisure to do, I have thought convenient now to put an end to this Session.

And then the Right Honourable Sir Robert Atkyns, Lord Chief Baron of Their Majesties Court of Exchequer, and Speaker of the House of Peers, said,

My Lords and Gentlemen,

IT is His Majesties Pleasure, That this Parliament be Prorogued to the Second Day of April next; and this Parliament is Prorogued to the Second Day of April next.

London, Jan. 21. By a Vessel, which came from Constantinople on the first of December, we have the Confirmation of the Grand Visier's being strangled at Adrianople; And of Kempfer's Advancement to his Place.

Ausbourg, Jan. 25. On the 19th Instant was solemnized the Emperors Coronation. About Ten in the morning, the Emperor, and the King of Hungary, in Coaches with two Horses, the Glades and Curtains close drawn, and the Emperors in a Chair, went incognito to the Bishop's Palace near the Cathedral, where they habited themselves, and were met by all the Ladies and Nobility, who had Places in the Procession. About Eleven a Clock they set out from thence, through the Churchyard, on Boards covered with black, white, and yellow Cloth, (the Colours of the Emperors Livery,) to the Church Door, the Ambassadors of Saxony and Brandenburg, and two Secular Electors, with their Hats and Caps on, walking before the Emperor, who wore the Imperial Crown and Robes; After him was led the Emperess, with a Regal (or Bohemian) Crown on, born under a Canopy born up by the Prebends of the Church; At the Church Door, another Canopy, supported by the chief Citizens, expected them; And they were there met by the Electors of Mentz and Trier in Archbishopal Habits, with rich Mitres and Caps, and their Chambers born before them by their Officers, the Elector of Cologne wore a red Velvet Robe, and a Cap, (not being yet consecrated Archbishop,) the Abbots of Fulda and Cambray, and the Bishop and Coadjutor of Ausbourg wore there likewise in Mitres, &c. The Ecclesiastical Electors took their Places next to the Emperor, Triers and Cologne went together, and Mentz alone; Being entered into the Quire, and Mentz being placed in his Seat, the Emperor addressed himself to him, desiring that the Emperess might be Crown'd; After which the Emperor went to his Throne, and the Emperess was led to hers in the middle of the Church, where having pray'd a while, she approached the Altar, and kneeling while the Elector of Mentz performed the Ceremony of Anointing her Neck, then she prostrated her self, and being raised up, was led into another Room by the Electors of Trier and Cologne, where being habited in a Spanish Farthingal, above three Yards wide, richly embroidered with Gold Pearls and other Jewels, she was again led in, and had the Imperial Crown of Charlemagne placed upon her Head by the Elector of Mentz, Triers, Cologne, Fulda and Cambray at the same time putting their Hats to it, and supporting it; Then Triers presented the Scepter, and Cologne the Globe; and thus she was led, and placed on the Throne, by the Emperor, and at a Signal given, all the great and small shot of the Town fired; after this the Elector of Mentz went on with High Mass, at which the Emperess offered a large Medal of Gold on the Altar; all the while excellent Musick was heard; of Voices and Instruments, with Trumpets and Kettle-Drums. About One a Clock began the Procession from the Church to the Town-house, upon Boards covered as before, near 200 Paces long, and guarded on both sides by the Emperors Muskiers and Halbardiers, in new Liveries of black velvet with yellow Lace, and black and white Feathers, the Electors Guards, and the Townmen. First went about 100 Persons, of the best Quality, all richly habited in Embroidered and Laced Coats and Cloaks, the Knights of the Order wearing the Golden Fleece; after them walked the Prince of Salm (the King of Hungary's Governor,) alone, with his Hat on, as a free Prince of the Empire, attended by two Halbardiers; Then five Kings at Arms, the three first of Bohemia, Hungary, and Austria, the two others of the Empire, all in their Coats of Arms, with white Rods in their Hands; Next them the two Ambassadors of Saxony and Brandenburg, with their Hats on, and attended by their Gentlemen; Then two Persons of Quality, carrying two Swords sheathed, with the Points downwards, before the Electors of Bavaria and the Palatins, who came in their Electoral Habits and Caps, which were a loose long Robe of red Velvet, lined and faced ed with Ermin, and a round Cap of the same, round up with Ermin, each attended by their Gentlemen; Then the Crown, Scepter, and Globe, carried by three Noblemen; the two Swords of Charlemagne and the Emperor Maurus; And after them Count Papacerna, Vice-Marshal of the Empire, carried the Sword of State naked before the Emperor, who followed with the Imperial Crown on his Head, and a large Gold Imperial Robe, covered all over with Pearls and Jewels, wrought into Embroidery, and many curious Giphers or Logobles, with his Chair about his Neck; He was supported on each side by the two Princes or Princes, his High Steward and Chamberlain, having gilt Batons in their Hands; Then followed the Emperor, with Charlemagne's Crown on his Head, led by her High Steward Count Willelm, and her Train born up by the Three unmarried Princesses Princesses her Sisters, the eldest whereof wore on her Breast the Prince of Prussia's Picture, to whom she is Contracted; The Canopy over the Emperor and Empress was carried by Eight Imperial Citizens in black faced Cloaks, with Gold Chains and Medals; After them followed the Three Ecclesiastical Electors, with their Hats on; and then the Emperor's Ladies of Honour, to the number of Forty, most richly dressed and adorned with Jewels; After all came the Emperor's Chair and Coach of State, being of red Velvet, covered both within and without with high Jamboilesey and Masly wrought Silver Work, the Ground, Coachman, Postilion, &c. being clad in Turke or red Velvet faced, the Harness likewise of Velvet all embroidered. When they came to the Town-house, the Emperor and the Empress sat alone at a Table at the upper end of the Hall, naked a Step and a Half, opposite to theirs was one for the Electors, naked one Step, the Ecclesiasticals sat together on one side, and the Secular Electors on the other; at a Table on the Right Hand sat the three Princes of the Empire, and on the Left the Emperor's three Sisters; The Princes were carried to the Emperor's Table by Chairs of the Empire, and they were served in the other Offices by the Electors Deputies. The Assembly broke up about five in the Evening, and the Solemnity concluded with Bonfires made in Iron Pipes, which were hung up at the Corner of every Street. The King of Hungary did not appear at this Ceremony, but was there in absentia. This day all Strangers must leave the Town, to morrow being the Election of a King of the Roman. The Elector Prince of Saxony is come hither, to represent the Elector his Father on this Occasion. We have not further Particulars of the late Action between the Imperialists and Turks in Bulgaria; But there is News of a Victory over the Turks in Finnia.

Frankfurt, Jan. 29. We hear from Berlin, that the Electoral Electors journey to Potsdam upon the Tenth of March.

Clagen, Jan. 31. The 2^d of Jan past passed through this place an Express from Vienna, with the News, that the Prince of Hungary was, on the 4th of Jan, crowned King of the Romans, and that he was crowned in the same manner as Charles the 6th of Spain was, and that the Emperor, under the command of the Duke of Hessen, in the late Battle of Prag, had won the Victory, which is considered as a great Victory.

Br. ff. Feb. 1. Our ambassador general has received advice, by an Express from Vienna, that the three Electors there present, and the Emperor's High Steward, Baron Burg, had, on the 3^d of Jan, unanimously chosen the Prince of Hungary King of the Romans. His Majesty is preparing the Government of the Electoral Electors, and the Emperor's Council, in the late Battle of Prag, had won the Victory, which is considered as a great Victory.
